

In regard to the recent editorial and picture series in The Daily Nebraskan concerning student attendance at the Chancellor's convocations, the owner of UNI Syndicates has proposed a solution which appears on Page 2.

Voice of a Great Midwestern University LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

Friday, October 17, 1952

Candidates All students who expect to receive associate, baccalaureate, advanced degrees or any teaching certificate at the end of this semester, should apply for same at the Senior Checking Office, Room 9, Administration Building, by Nov. 1.

VOL. 52—No. 24 COLL-AGRI FUN

Aggie Fete Set For Sat.

The Coll-Agri Fun program will be held Saturday at 8 p.m. in the College Activities Building. Six skits and two curtain acts have been accepted for the show. The entries are Love Hall, Alpha Gamma Rho, Farmhouse, Home Economics Club, Amikitas, YWCA, and Loomis Hall which is putting on a skit and a curtain act.

AUF Total Climbs Past $4,000 Mark

Sororities Give Most—Three Exceed Total The All University Fund contributions total now stands at $4,006.90, according to Sue Brownlee, Vice President of AUF. Sorority contributions formed the largest combined total with $1,171.05. Three houses exceeded their quota as set by the AUF solicitations board.

Fifth 'Pot Luck' Set For Sunday Night

The fifth session for 'Pot Luck with the Profs' will be held Sunday from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the Ag Union. Wayne Bath and Gladys Novotny will act as student host and hostess.

Left Overs

A stutterer was asked the reason why he stuttered. "That's my p-p-peculiarity," he answered. "N-n-nearly everybody has some p-p-peculiarity."

Zoo visitor: Where are the monkeys? Keeper: They're in the back, making love. Visitor: Would they come out for some peanuts? Keeper: Would you?

It looks as if Mother Nature is going to give us another look at that beautiful October blue. Oh, maybe a few clouds, here and there.

Judge: What's the charge against this man? Officer: Stealing nine bottles of beer, your Honor. Judge: Discharged. I can't make a case out of nine bottles.

The meanest man in the world is the Scotchman who would give his boy a penny to make him go to sleep, take it away from him during the night, and then beat him up the next morning for losing it.

Early to bed and early to rise—and your girl goes out with other guys.

it happened at nu

An economics class got off the subject one day when the discussion switched from corporations to chlorophyll. After deciding that chlorophyll was carried in many products, the instructor questioned, "If chlorophyll is supposed to remove body odors, why do goats smell so?"

FRIDAY NIGHT DANCE

BABW Hello Girl Voting Closes Today Friday is the last day University students may vote for the 1952 Barb Activities Board For Women Hello Girl. Voting booths will be open in

PHILOSOPHY

Department Plans Meet Of Teachers The University Philosophy Department will host for the first time to the Mountain Plains Philosophy Conference holding their sixth annual meeting.

The group is composed of philosophy teachers representing colleges and universities throughout Arizona, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Colorado, Utah, New Mexico and Nebraska.

The conference will start with an informal smoker Thursday night and will continue through Friday and Saturday with a series of speeches, criticisms and discussions. The program will be concluded with a dinner at 6:30 p.m. Saturday.

The schedule of the conference is: Thursday, 7-11 p.m., smoker in the Military and Naval Science lounge. Friday, 9 a.m., speech on symbols in Science by E. S. Robinson, University of Kansas; 2 p.m., speech on Symbols in Art by H. G. Alexander, University of New Mexico; 6:30 p.m., dinner in Parlors ABC, Union. Advance reservations for the dinner are necessary.

Saturday, 9 a.m., discussion on Symbols in Religion, before a joint meeting of the National Association of Biblical Instructors and the Mountain Plains Philosophical Conference; 11:30 a.m., business meeting with Paul Crissman, University of Wyoming, as chairman.

All of the activities with the exception of the smoker and the dinner will take place in 217, Ferguson Hall.

Chancellor To Hold Reception Tonight

The Chancellor's reception, given annually for members of the University staff, will be held Friday, from 8 to 10 p.m. in Carrie Belle Raymond Hall. The reception will be informal.

The administration faculty, all instructors and office helpers and their families are invited. There will be a receiving line, which will include Dr. and Mrs. Gustavson, Dean and Mrs. Walter E. Miltzer, Dean and Mrs. J. P. Colbert, Dean and Mrs. J. Perry Tollman, Miss Dudley Ashton, Mr. and Mrs. David Foltz and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Frolik.

Proofreaders To Meet Tuesday P.M. In Union

Students signed up or desiring to sign up as proofreaders for the Student Directory will meet Tuesday evening at 7 p.m. in Room 307 of the Union. Anyone including freshmen, is eligible to sign up as a proofreader. Those desiring to sign up but unable to attend the Tuesday meeting are requested to call Norma Lothrop, 2-5332.

Penny Carnival Set Saturday Sixteen Booths Entered In Show

Final plans are being made for the annual Penny Carnival sponsored by Coed Counsellors. The Carnival will be held on Saturday, Oct. 18 from 2 to 4:30 p.m. in the Union ballroom. Sixteen booths will display some form of entertainment or games. The booths will be judged on originality and awards will go to first, second, third place winners and honorable mention.

The final decision will be based on 60 per cent judges' votes and 40 per cent student votes. The winner will receive a traveling trophy. Participants in the Penny Carnival are: Towne Club, Phi Beta Phi, Alpha Chi Omega, Chi Omega, Alpha Omicron Pi, Wilson Hall, Alpha Phi, Delta Delta Delta, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Alpha Xi Delta, Sigma Kappa, Kappa Gamma, Kappa Delta, and the Women's Residence Halls.

Booths this year will be permanent ones that can be used next year also. Each booth will be 8x9x7 feet. Coed Counsellors will have a food booth at the Carnival at which board members will sell soft drinks. In charge of the food booth is Francis Anderson.

Chairman of Penny Carnival is Sandra Daley. Darlene Goodding is in charge of ticket sales and house skits. Publicity chairman is Jane Brode and Donna Folmer. Marilyn Stallings is in charge of setting up the booths and Muriel Pickett is in charge of clean up.

Miss Helen Snyder, assistant dean of women, is this year's sponsor of the Penny Carnival. Faculty advisers for the carnival are Miss Mary Melenz, associate professor of secondary education, and Mrs. Elvera Bourk, assistant professor of physical education for women. Tickets are 25 cents and may be purchased from any chairman of the participating organizations.

UN Week Scheduled Oct. 23, 24 Coffee Hour To Honor NU Foreign Students United Nations Week will be observed October 22 and 23, according to Janis Schmidtman, NUCWA United Nations Week chairman. A coffee hour, in honor of all foreign students will be held in parlors XYZ of the Student Union on Wednesday, Oct. 22 from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m. Miss Schmidtman said that everyone interested in the United Nations is invited and urged to attend the coffee hour. She added that organized houses were making an attempt to contact all foreign students to invite and inform them of the function.

Miss Schmidtman noted that since there are approximately 200 foreign students at the University, it is difficult to contact each student personally. However, she said each foreign student is invited to attend. Union Features Dancing In Round-Up Saturday "Dancing in the Round-up, a dance sponsored weekly by the Union, will be held Saturday from 8:30 p.m. to 12 p.m. in the Round-up room of the Union. The dance is restricted to couples only and this arrangement will be continued if approved by the students. Dancing will be to popular records and cokes will be provided.

Student Producers To Broadcast Show "Authors of the Ages," a radio program produced by students in the radio department, will be broadcast weekly on KOLN Thursdays at 9:30 p.m. and on KLMS Sundays at 5:30 p.m. The first show, which may be heard Sunday, is a comedy entitled "My Double Howie Undid Me." This is the ninth consecutive year these programs have been produced. The purpose of the broadcasts is to present short plays and novels re-written and condensed for greater acquaintance with them.

Airplane Co. Offers Jobs To NU Seniors "There are openings for positions in both the engineering and production departments for graduating seniors, interested in working in the Wichita or Seattle divisions of the Boeing Airplane Co.," Matt Tomlinson, Boeing representative, announced Thursday. Representatives of the company, which manufactures the B-47 and B-52 jet bombers, will be on campus Oct. 16 and 17 for interviews with interested seniors. Interviews are being conducted in the Administration Building, and appointments may be made with the University Placement Office, Room 104, Administration Building.

McComb, NU Grad, Dies Saturday Mr. Harold E. McComb, Nebraska University graduate, died Saturday, Oct. 11, after a brief illness. McComb was Chief of the Geomagnetism Branch, Division of Geophysics, Coast and Geodetic Survey. During his lifetime McComb made outstanding contributions in the field of geophysics. He improved instruments and methods for making magnetic observations in the field and at magnetic observatories. Among his achievements were the tilt-compensation seismometer, the helical-spring-accelerometer, the portable shaking table and two-component accelerometers. McComb is the author of many scientific journals, and has served on many scientific boards.

P. M. Headlines By SALLY ADAMS By Staff Writer Iran Breaks With Great Britain TEHRAN, IRAN—Iran has broken diplomatic relations with Great Britain. Premier Mohammed Mossadegh said his country took the step since "the British government has so far prevented our reaching an agreement" on the oil dispute. The premier had threatened such a break if his terms for settling the dispute were not met. Britain had rejected those terms as "unreasonable and unacceptable." The new British note insisted the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company have full compensation for its properties nationalized by Iran 18 months ago. Mossadegh's latest formula for settlement called for payment of 20 million pounds on the total 49 million pounds he claims is due Iran from AIOC oil royalties. After that, he said, British negotiators could come to Tehran and discuss other questions. Officials in Washington said the diplomatic break had "knocked sky high" efforts to find a solution for the touchy oil dispute.

Reds Ask To Renew Talks TOKYO—Peiping Radio said Communist commanders in Korea had sent the Allies a letter proposing immediate resumption of Korean truce talks. Gen. Mark Clark's headquarters said the letter "offers no new constructive proposal" for a solution of the outstanding problem of preventing an armistice. The letter said "your side has made various unreasonable demands, including that of drawing the military demarcation line deep in the area of our side, dispatching military personnel to conduct ground and air inspection in our rear following the armistice, interfering in the construction of air fields. . . . Had there not been the deliberate obstruction by your side to the question of prisoners of war the Korean armistice should certainly have been realized long ago."

Courts To Demand Disloyalty Proof WASHINGTON—The U.S. Court of Appeals has ruled that mere membership in an organization listed by the attorney general as subversive is insufficient for firing a government worker. If the worker is to be fired, the court said, there must be in addition to such membership a finding of reasonable grounds for disloyalty.

Assassination Plot Failed SAIGON, INDO-CHINA—Security agents of the Viet-Nam government reported they foiled a Communist plot to assassinate U.S. Ambassador Donald Heath. The agents raided underground hideouts near Saigon and found detailed plans of a plot against the 58-year-old diplomat. One of two men arrested was described as political commissar of the Communist-led Viet Minh rebels and ringleader of the plot.

Clinic Set For 13 Neb. High Schools Three Groups Sponsor Weekend Institute

A social studies and speech clinic on international organization for high school students will be held Saturday, Oct. 18 in Love Library Auditorium. The purpose of the institute is to give high school students a better understanding of the problems involved in establishing an international organization, such as the UN, and to give them experience in discussion. The program includes addresses by Dr. Norman Hill, Professor of Political Science at the University; Mrs. Arthur Smith, student of European history and world traveler and David Smith, director of forensics at the University of Missouri.

A debate will be held between University of Missouri and University of Nebraska debaters on the topic, "Resolved: That the Atlantic Pact Nations Should Form a Federal Union." Prior to the debate, the high school students will participate in two rounds of discussion on the goals and objectives of any international organization and on what forms of international organization seem feasible at the present time. University of Nebraska debaters will serve as moderators of the discussion groups.

Thirteen Nebraska high schools will participate in the institute, according to D. E. Kline, director. The institute is being sponsored by the University Department of Speech, the Nebraska High School Activities Association and the State Department of Public Instruction.

No Rally Due to 9 o'clock classes there will be no rally Friday a.m. to send off the Huskers. The Tassels have planned to set up decorations on the breakfast tables in the Union for the Varsity Squad. A rally is planned to welcome the team home Sunday. The present arrival time is scheduled between 4 and 6 p.m. Members of Corn Cobs and Tassels will notify organized houses of the correct arrival time on Sunday.

Student Receives Autographed 'Mr. President' For Prediction DICK HANSEN . . . gets book, "Mr. President," autographed by President Truman for predicting Truman's retirement. Truman autographed the book while stopping in Lincoln on his "whistle-stop" tour.

Presidential Predictor . . . (Editor's Note: This is the letter received by the Daily Nebraskan Thursday from Dick Hansen, University law student.) Dear Miss Raymond: Enclosed is a picture which may be of interest to the Nebraskan. The book which I am holding is a copy of "Mr. President" by William Hillman, published last spring and the first compilation of the private papers of a President while he is still in office. The book was autographed by President Truman while en route from Lincoln to Shenandoah, Ia.

"I was delighted to get this copy autographed in view of the fact that it was only last fall that I heard from the White House that the President had got a big laugh out of my article predicting his retirement. I am feeling pretty good about that prediction. If any of you Republicans want to know who is going to win the election—guess."

In his disagreement of Daniels' statement that President Truman would run again in 1952 Hansen said, "All along the line the Chief Executive has been hinting first one way and then the next about 1952. And Daniels didn't show any originality by saying that the President was trying to throw us off the track. But it is just as plain as the nose on Senator Conley's Texas face that Truman will not run again in 1952."

Hansen went on to repeat a comment which appeared in Newsweek that there would be plenty of candidates show up at the convention to try for his job though he didn't see how any man in his right mind would want it. Hansen reprimanded Daniels for ignoring the interest Truman took in Democrats high up on the popularity poll in the last four years. He mentioned especially Truman's concern for Vinson.

Another point Hansen presented was that Truman would be 68 in 1952. "Ever hear of a man running for president when he was 68?" "Then, too," Hansen wrote, "a person has to do is take a look at the pictures that have been printed of the President lately. He looks dead tired and who wouldn't be with no controls and plenty of people needing control."

Student Receives Autographed 'Mr. President' For Prediction

By JAN HARRISON Staff Writer The "I told you so's" have it. At least as far as Dick Hansen, University law student, is concerned. Last year an article written by Hansen and entitled "Daniels in the Lion's Den" appeared in The Daily Nebraskan in which he predicted the retirement of President Truman in 1952. Hansen wrote the piece in rebuttal to the article "Truman Can't Lose" written by Jonathan Daniels which appeared in the American Magazine.

In a letter received by the Daily Nebraskan Oct. 14, Hansen said he had the fortune to get an autographed copy of the book "Mr. President" by William Hillman, published last spring and the first compilation of the private papers of a President while he is still in office. The book was autographed by President Truman while en route from Lincoln to Shenandoah, Ia.

"I was delighted to get this copy autographed in view of the fact that it was only last fall that I heard from the White House that the President had got a big laugh out of my article predicting his retirement. I am feeling pretty good about that prediction. If any of you Republicans want to know who is going to win the election—guess."

In his disagreement of Daniels' statement that President Truman would run again in 1952 Hansen said, "All along the line the Chief Executive has been hinting first one way and then the next about 1952. And Daniels didn't show any originality by saying that the President was trying to throw us off the track. But it is just as plain as the nose on Senator Conley's Texas face that Truman will not run again in 1952."

Hansen went on to repeat a comment which appeared in Newsweek that there would be plenty of candidates show up at the convention to try for his job though he didn't see how any man in his right mind would want it. Hansen reprimanded Daniels for ignoring the interest Truman took in Democrats high up on the popularity poll in the last four years. He mentioned especially Truman's concern for Vinson.

Another point Hansen presented was that Truman would be 68 in 1952. "Ever hear of a man running for president when he was 68?" "Then, too," Hansen wrote, "a person has to do is take a look at the pictures that have been printed of the President lately. He looks dead tired and who wouldn't be with no controls and plenty of people needing control."

candidate for Lt. Gov. and the President sign it for me. The inscription reads: "With kindest regards to Richard H. Hansen, Harry S. Truman." I was delighted to get this copy autographed in view of the fact that it was only last fall that I heard from the White House that the President had got a big laugh out of my article (Daily Nebraskan, Oct. 18, 1951) predicting his retirement. I am feeling pretty good about the prediction. If any one of you Republicans want to know who is going to win the election—guess. Best wishes in all but your editorial endeavors. Very truly, Dick Hansen

Best wishes in all but your editorial endeavors. Very truly, Dick Hansen

Best wishes in all but your editorial endeavors. Very truly, Dick Hansen

Best wishes in all but your editorial endeavors. Very truly, Dick Hansen

Best wishes in all but your editorial endeavors. Very truly, Dick Hansen

Best wishes in all but your editorial endeavors. Very truly, Dick Hansen

Best wishes in all but your editorial endeavors. Very truly, Dick Hansen

Best wishes in all but your editorial endeavors. Very truly, Dick Hansen

Best wishes in all but your editorial endeavors. Very truly, Dick Hansen

Best wishes in all but your editorial endeavors. Very truly, Dick Hansen

Crosby Tells GOP's To End Centralization

Republican gubernatorial nominee Bob Crosby Thursday night lost no time getting to his key point, decentralization of government, after he was introduced by Dan Tolman, newly elected president of the University Young Republicans. He congratulated an estimated 300 students who had gathered in the Union Ballroom for taking their places in the Republican party. Young people, he said, are prone to adopt a "liberal point of view."

Liberal government, Crosby said, has "run rife" for the last 20 years. "The history of liberty," he quoted Woodrow Wilson, "is the history of limits on the power of government." Putting his point on a local basis, he said that Nebraska is an agricultural state and does not want federal control. "People are too inclined to depend on the federal government to solve the problems of Nebraska," Crosby said. For this reason, he said, he was glad to see University students in the Republican party. Loading his bomb shell, aimed at the administration, with a charge of statistics, the North Platte attorney compared figures of 1928 and 1948, two years, which he pointed out, were neither war years nor depression years. In 1928 there were about 500,000 government employees compared with 2,100,000 government employees in 1948. In 1928 the government had set up about 400 bureaus and departments and in 1948 there were about 850.

These figures, Crosby said, indicate a steady increase of government centralization. Centralization, he believes, that may lead to loss of liberty. Putting a constituency on a government's payroll, he said, is a good way for an administration to stay in power. The 19,000,000 persons drawing regular payments from the federal government, he said, are not likely to vote against the administration. A standing ovation greeted the candidate as he stepped to the microphone. He had forgone an appearance with Sen. Robert A. Taft, who was in Hastings at the time of Crosby's speech, to be at the Thursday meeting which was the first University wide meeting of the new Young Republican group.

In the meeting preceding Crosby's speech Tolman who had served as temporary chairman and instigator of the organization on campus, was elected unanimously to the office of permanent president. Jim Adams replaced temporary vice president, Charles Klasek, in the election. Jan Harrison retained her temporary post and is secretary with Sally Adams as assistant secretary. Paul Grimm was installed as treasurer. Committees will be appointed Friday to fill out the administrative system of the University Young Republicans. After the speech approximately 50 students formally joined the organization by their payment of the $1.25 membership fee.

DICK HANSEN . . . gets book, "Mr. President," autographed by President Truman for predicting Truman's retirement. Truman autographed the book while stopping in Lincoln on his "whistle-stop" tour.