

NBC Will Televis
Husker-Tiger Game

The Missouri-Nebraska game to be played at Memorial Stadium Saturday will be one of the games featured on the nationwide CBS football roundup.

NBC is sending in a crew of photographers to film parts of the game for one of its network television programs.

Crosby To Discuss Issues At Presby

Bob Crosby will speak on current political issues at Presbyterian-Congregational Student House Sunday from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. The meeting is open to the public.

This will be the second to the last session in a series of discussions that have been held at Presbyterian House. The last of the series, which will be an all night stand, will be held Tuesday evening.

Crosby To Speak
At I-House Sunday

Robert Crosby, Republican candidate for governor, will speak at International House Sunday at 2:15 p.m.

Crosby will eat dinner at the house at 1 p.m. and will speak on the subject of "Race Relations" at 2:15 p.m. He is the first in a series of speakers at International House.

MB Decorations Planned

Plans for the Military Ball are well ahead of schedule as compared to last year, announced Wayne Handsby, Candidate Officer Association president.

Several changes are planned for this year's ball, he added. Colored parachutes, like those used for cargo drops, will cover the ceiling of the Coliseum. These chutes will serve to cut down some of the echo.

The presentation of the Honorary Commandant has not yet been completely planned, but a new twist is expected in the ceremony for this year.

Handsby added that other new ideas are being discussed, but no definite conclusions have been reached as yet.

Strange, isn't it?
Su Yu is a Chinese general, not a prosecuting attorney.
And Wang Ho Shou is a Peiping Cabinet Minister, not a blacksmith.

Some historians claim America once was called Fu Sang and that a Buddhist missionary visited it as early as 450 A.D.

Ticket Reservations

Reservations for the second showing of "Outward Bound" must be made no later than this week. There are only a few unreserved seats remaining for the Nov. 5 to 8 performances and ticket holders are not assured of getting a seat without a reservation.
