

Husker Lineups May Undergo A Shakeup

Glassford released a tentative starting lineup Wednesday which depended, strangely ROLSTON... may get his first opportunity to start at an offensive halfback spot in the game against Kansas Saturday.

Coach Bill Glassford's twice-beaten charges began tapering off drills Wednesday as they went through light defensive scrimmage and offensive dummy work, reviewing assignments.

Carl Brasse will captain the Huskers in their tough Kansas fray at Lawrence, Saturday. enough, on the weather. If the temperature is cool this weekend Bill Schabacker and Dennis Emanuel will see duty both offensively and defensively against the Hawks.

At the tackle spots, the Scarlet coach has given George Prochaska and Harvey Goth the nod. Kay Curtis and either Charlie Bryant or Jerry Paulson will be at the guards and Bob Oberlin at center.

In the backfield, John Bordogna will be at the quarterback slot, Bob Reynolds and Dierks Rolston at the halfback spots and George Cifra at full.

The Jayhawks will counter offensively with Taylor and Leon at ends; Lundy and Spencer at tackles; Knowles and Helmstadter at guards and Woody at center.

Robertson, Hoag, Brandeberry, and Sabatini will make up the starting Jayhawk backfield.

Defensively the Kansans will line up Unruh and Bracelin at ends; Mrkoncic and Poppe at tackles; Bixler and Hantla at guards; Fink and Gish as linebackers; Reich and Patterson halfbacks; and Clevenger at safety.

The Husker defensive team will be Schabacker and Emanuel, ends; Kitzelman and Boll, guards; Scott and Brasse, linebackers; Yelsley and Brown, halfbacks, and the steadily improving Chuck Chamley at safety.

All Eyes On Notre Dame, Oklahoma

By HOWARD VANN
Sports Staff Writer
This week, as Big Seven competition continues at a torrid pace, all eyes will be focused on the game of the week at South Bend, Indiana, where Oklahoma will be striving to strengthen the prestige of the mid-western conference against Notre Dame.

The entire OU team ranks second in total offense, first in rushing offense, and ninth in rushing defense. The Missouri game last week at Lincoln dropped the Nebraska squad in all departments. The Huskers slipped from fifth to seventh in rushing and the defensive record which was good enough for tenth last week was not even ranked in this week's figures.

With only two more barriers to clear for the Big Seven title, OU ranks as a repeater for the top position.

Tom Catlin leads the highly touted line, while a conglomeration of hard runners spark the backfield. Billy Vessels moved from 8th to 7th in rushing while big Buck McPhail moved from 10th to 8th.

The entire OU team ranks second in total offense, first in rushing offense, and ninth in rushing defense.

The Missouri game last week at Lincoln dropped the Nebraska squad in all departments. The Huskers slipped from fifth to seventh in rushing and the defensive record which was good enough for tenth last week was not even ranked in this week's figures.

NU's quarterback, John Bordogna, boosted his total offensive rushing record from 13th to 11th in the national standings. His individual rushing record suffered though as he slipped from 17th out of the standings.

Another final match will be completed in the 167 pound division with Tom Healy, Sigma Nu, going against Braddock, Theta Xi, Jack Soder, Phi Gam, and Stu Reynolds, Beta, will clash in the consolation match.

Another final match finds Barger going against Husmann in the 177 pound division.

Jim Brown, SAE, and Dick Nelson, ind., are pitted against each other in the final match of the heavyweight division. Leffler, Phi Delt, and Cramond, Beta, will meet in the consolation.

Results of matches this week: 123-pound class: Carnozzo pinned Robinson, 5:35; Jackson pinned Tawney, 1:15. 130-pound class: Anderson pinned gerber, 2:30. 137-pound class: Owens pinned Todd, 45 seconds; Jirovsek pinned Gleeson, 3 min.

147-pound class: Brown pinned Carlson, 1:03; Brown won by forfeit over Dites; Howard pinned Skinner, 30 seconds; Jeannoutot pinned Holbert, 4:28; Shellenberg pinned Berrline, 1:15; Shellenberg pinned Stebbins, 5:58.

157-pound class: Morton pinned Wallman, 2:30; Morton pinned Cirsken, 1:50; Selk pinned Hoberman, 1:30; Ellison won by forfeit over Patterson; John Crancer won over Sterba, 5-0.

167-pound class: Healey pinned Soder, 45 seconds; Braddock pinned Reynolds, 3:18. 177-pound class: only two entries. Heavyweight: Brown won by forfeit over Leffler; Nelson won over Cramond in the tournament's best match, 10-2.

Mustangs Cop

The Mustangs, top independent team and tied with Phi Kappa Psi as the top outfits in the University in the last ratings, moved convincingly into the second round by stopping the University YMCA by a 22-0 count. In winning, the Mustangs racked up their eighth straight victory and at the same time protected their unscored-on record to date.

It was all over but the shouting after the first period as the mighty Mustangs shot to a 16-0 lead on a pair of touchdowns and a safety. A 30-yard pass play from Jack Mankamer to Charles Smith provided the initial score and that was enough to win.

The Uni Y'ers came back strong in the second half to halt the Mustang scoring, but could do nothing themselves to penetrate the winners' defense.

Rockets Edge NC
The Rockets gained the dubious privilege of meeting the Mustangs in the second round by outlasting Newman Club, 14-12.

The winners jumped to an early 7-0 lead as Ron Powers intercepted a Catholic pass and raced 60 yards to paydirt. A Hal Andrews to Chuck Jensen aerial provided the seventh counter.

Seven more points were recorded for the Rockets in the second quarter on two passes from Andrews to Marv Lawton.

The Catholics controlled the second half, but found the extra points harder to get than the touchdowns and narrowly went down to defeat. Marv Alexander passed the losers to touchdowns in each the third and fourth stanzas. Jim Rose gathered in the first toss while Bob Ostdiek was the recipient of the second.

Jokers Advance
Presby House ran into some tough luck in their first round contest with the Jokers and before they recovered, the Jokers were far in front. Presby could only muster six players for the first half action and found themselves on the short end of a 25-0 halftime score.

Roland Langemeier and Bob Yates cashed the Jokers in on a pair of first-quarter Presby mistakes. Langemeier piffled a Presby lateral and carried the ball on across the double stripe while Yates did the same with a stray Presby pass.

Yates took a pass from Bud Van Berg to push the winners to a 19-0 margin early in the second period while Ken Pfeifer rounded out the Joker scoring with a pass-reception just before the end of the Presbys found their seventh the half.

man and took control in the second half, striking for 14 points, but it was not enough to overcome the big Joker lead. Gordon Gay connected with Cork Biemand for the first Presby score while Harlan Skinner and Don Langdon combined on the second marker.

Gobs Win
Navy ROTC thundered over Inter-Varsity to up themselves into a second-round meeting with the Jokers. The Middies sped off to their 22-0 victory with 14 big counters in the initial quarter. Ken Limberg intercepted an I-V aerial for the first six points while Dick Grant and Larry Dunning did the throwing and catching on the rest of the first-quarter score.

It was the same two men in the second stanza and the halftime margin was 20-0.

Inter-Varsity dominated the third quarter and appeared to be on their way, but Navy stopped three scoring bids and had the victory stowed away.

SAM Eliminated

The final fraternity "A" first-round contest was played Monday, also. Beta Theta Pi scored a touchdown in the last four minutes to edge Sigma Alpha Mu, 7-2. Miller Whitham fired an 18-yard pass to Ron Smaha who was alone in the Sammie end zone for the winning tally. Whitham to Bob Howie produced the seventh tally, to win.

The Sammies had pulled in front early in the second stanza as a Beta defender had intercepted a Paul Galter pass in his end-zone and tried to run it out. The Sammies swarmed over him for a two-pointer that held up until the last few minutes of the game.

In the lone fraternity "B" action to date, Sigma Alpha Epsilon slapped down Phi Gamma Delta by a 20-7 score in a Tuesday affair.

After a scoreless first half in which the Phi Gams appeared superior, the junior SAE's began the stampede early in the third stanza. With three minutes gone, Pete Jeffries flipped a 21-yarder to Don Sampson that sent the Sig Alphas to a 6-0 lead.

After the Phi Gams got nowhere on four plays, the winners were right back and this time the same two men combined on a 25-yard production. Jeffries' toss to Jack Davis provided the extra point and going into the final stanza, the tally read 13-0.

Jeffries continued to throw in the last quarter. The final Sig Alpha points came on his two-yard aerial to Jim Dayle after the winning defense had intercepted a Phi pass and returned it 45 yards to the two. Jeffries to Jim Hoover provided the twentieth counter.

With 30 seconds remaining in the fray, the Weeji Pijls got into the scoring act as Danny Wolkenkorsdorfer fired a 60-yarder to Phil Patterson and then ran over himself for the extra-point.

Thursday action will feature the four second-round contests in the fraternity "A" struggle. Top game of the day and possibly of the whole tournament will be the Phi Kappa Psi-Alpha Tau Omega tussle.

Friday will see the second round for the Independents and two of the first-round fraternity "B" contests.

New IM Wrestling Champ Will Be Named; Second Round Matches Start On Monday

By CHUCK KLAASEK
Assistant Sports Editor

A new intramural wrestling champion will be crowned next Tuesday following the final matches of the 1952 grappling tourney. The defending champs, Sigma Chi, were completely eliminated from contention when their two entrants were defeated via a pin and a forfeit.

Forty-two men qualified for first round matches held earlier this week. The poor turnout can be attributed to the fact that many entrants failed to put in their five required practice sessions prior to the first matches.

Originally 125 prospective wrestlers signed for the competition. Several were ruled ineligible with four practices under the stringent rules.

Al Partin, Nebraska wrestling coach and director of the tournament revealed that second round matches will be held Monday at 5:15 p.m. and the finals Tuesday at the same time. He continued by saying that if any men should not be able to wrestle at this time, arrangements could be made to hold the match after 6 p.m.

Scoring for team participants in the tourney will be six points for first place in each weight class, four points for second, three points for third, and one point for fourth. One additional point will be awarded for each fall secured throughout the meet. Pin points do not count when there is a fall by two members of the same organization or team.

Thus far in the competition Phi Gamma Delta leads in the number of Pin Points with four; Sigma Nu has three; Men's Dorm has two; Theta Xi, two; and Beta Theta Pi, Newman Club, Pi Kappa Phi, SAE, and Phi Kappa Psi have each garnered one pin point.

In Monday's matches Jerry Carnozzo, ind., is pitted against Rich Jackson, Phi Gam, for the 123 pound championship. Don Robinson, Phi Gam, will meet Tawney, Beta, for third place points.

Tom Anderson, Men's Dorm, goes against Dines, Phi Gam, in the finals of the 130 pound class. Semi-final matches, Monday, in the 137 pound class will pit Jim Owens, ind., against Hlidek; and Hedden against Jirovsek, Newman Club.

Bart Brown, Phi Gam, and Bob Howard, Beta; and Don Jeannoutot a d Shellenberg, Sigma Nu will square off in the semi-final round of the 147 pound class.

In the 157 pound group, Arnold Morton, Phi Gam, and Ray Selk, Theta Xi; and Ellison, Phi Psi, and Crancer, ind., will meet in the semi-windup.

Another final match will be completed in the 167 pound division with Tom Healy, Sigma Nu, going against Braddock, Theta Xi, Jack Soder, Phi Gam, and Stu Reynolds, Beta, will clash in the consolation match.

Another final match finds Barger going against Husmann in the 177 pound division.

Jim Brown, SAE, and Dick Nelson, ind., are pitted against each other in the final match of the heavyweight division. Leffler, Phi Delt, and Cramond, Beta, will meet in the consolation.

Results of matches this week: 123-pound class: Carnozzo pinned Robinson, 5:35; Jackson pinned Tawney, 1:15. 130-pound class: Anderson pinned gerber, 2:30. 137-pound class: Owens pinned Todd, 45 seconds; Jirovsek pinned Gleeson, 3 min.

147-pound class: Brown pinned Carlson, 1:03; Brown won by forfeit over Dites; Howard pinned Skinner, 30 seconds; Jeannoutot pinned Holbert, 4:28; Shellenberg pinned Berrline, 1:15; Shellenberg pinned Stebbins, 5:58.

157-pound class: Morton pinned Wallman, 2:30; Morton pinned Cirsken, 1:50; Selk pinned Hoberman, 1:30; Ellison won by forfeit over Patterson; John Crancer won over Sterba, 5-0.

Bufs Prep For Tigers

Colorado's Buffaloes, with three consecutive close calls under their belts, tackle their toughest opponents since Kansas next Saturday.

The Buffs invade Columbia, Mo., for a Big Seven joust with league-leading Missouri and an opportunity to snap one of the richest "jinxes" in their gridiron memory.

Colorado hasn't won a football game at Columbia since 1930, the first meeting between the two schools. The Thundering Herd won that one 9-0 but have since dropped eight straight games at the Tigers' Memorial Stadium.

The all-time count in the 16-game history of the series is four wins for Colorado, eleven for Missouri and one tie. When Coach Dal Ward's charges halted Miz-zou 34-13 last year at Boulder, it halted a 10-game Tiger win streak over the Buff—dating back to 1938.

So, with that Missouri skein halted, the Buffs hope to come right back Saturday and end their Columbia hex.

NU Leads Opponents In Passing

Nebraska has gone ahead of its opponents in passing yardage although it has completed only two-thirds as many aeriels.

The Huskers have gained 704 yards via the airways on 40 completions in 98 attempts, an average of 100 yards per game. Seven foes have gained 671 yards on 60 completions in 124 throws.

Quarterback John Bordogna remains the Nebraska offensive leader with 993 yards on 185 plays. Bordogna has completed 28 of 63 pass attempts for 521 yards and has netted 472 yards on the ground in 122 rushes.

Sophomore End Ondy Lochr is the top pass receiver. In two games, Lochr has snared six aeriels for a 193-yard total and one touchdown. He replaced the injured George Mink who is second pass receiving with 7 catches for 109 yards.

As a team, the Cornhuskers have gained 2,505 yards to 1,513 for their opponents. Correspondingly, Nebraska has outdone its foes 125-75 in earned first downs.

Nebraska is missing from the nation's list of top defensive teams this week.

However, another Big Seven club, Oklahoma, has moved into ninth place in rushing defense. Sooner opponents have averaged 106-yards rushing per game in six games.

Colorado still leads the nation in punting with a 44.1-yard average on 42 kicks.

Zack Jordan of Colorado still ranks second in the nation in punting this week and Bill Fessler of Missouri is 14th.

Jordan has averaged 44.5 yards on 40 boots. Fessler has a 40.5 average on 33 kicks.

Oklahoma of the Big Seven Conference ranks first in the country in rushing offense and second in total offense after six games according to the NCAA statistical bureau.

The Sooners have averaged 295.2 yards per game by rushing and have a total offensive average of 530.8 yards.
