

Sigs Lead in IM Free-Throw Contest

By BILL MUNDELL
 Intramural Sports Columnist
 Thirteen men are all that remain in the 1952 free-throws championship race from a beginning field of 217 participants. The 13 tourney-bracket winners were decided Tuesday in the flight-finals with scores ranging from a record-tying 49 down to a winning 27 out of a possible 50 shots. Meanwhile, a new team leader took over the leading role as defending champion Sigma Chi garnered 22 points to overtake Sigma Phi Epsilon which led during most of the tourney.

Defending individual champion, Chuck Marshall of Sigma Chi, turned in the top performance of the tourney thus far and tied the I-M record with an amazing 49 goals in his 50 attempts. His feat makes him co-holder of the mark with a fraternity brother, Carr Trumbull, who established the mark for the Sigs in 1950.

Marshall needed his record performance to lead Bob Burns of Delta Tau Delta in the bracket No. 2 finals. Burns fired a torrid 47, the second best mark this year, in losing to the defending champ. Sigma Chi appeared on their way to a second consecutive title after the 13 bracket finals Tuesday. Their added 22 counts boosted their 1952 total to 386 points, surpassing the Sig Eps who were held to no points Tuesday and kept their 379 point-total.

Besides Marshall's victory in bracket No. 2, the other results were recorded as follows: Harold Andrews of the Rockets won the bracket No. 1 with a score of 40 to defeat Charles Betzelberger of Phi Kappa Psi who counted a 30 score; Bob Kirkendall of Phi Gamma Delta captured the bracket No. 3 finals with a 35 to stop Al Hansen of Sigma Phi Epsilon who shot a 33; bracket No. 4 went to Gene Gray of Delta Upsilon, whose 39 topped the 37 of Steve Sutton of Sigma Nu.

Jack Randecker of Delta Upsilon was crowned bracket No. 5 winner, defeating Roy Clark of Sigma Nu by a 45-39 score while Ben Leonard of the Sigs topped Dick Tooley of Delta Tau Delta, 39-37 to win bracket No. 6. Phi Gam Muri Maupin fired a 40 to cop bracket No. 7, defeating Phi Psi Bob Severs' 34; Eddie Cripe of Beta Theta Pi earned the bracket No. 8 decision over Rich Satterfield, independent, by a 37-26 tally and Tom Tolen of the DU's netted a 39 score in bracket No. 9 to drop Sig Frank Wells who totaled 28 shots.

Charles Ferguson of the Fijis defeated Charles Tomson of the Deltas, 35-33 to win bracket No. 10 while Phil Reiland of Delta Sigma Pi downed Vern Persson of the Sig Eps in bracket No. 11 by a 35-23 tally.

Brackets No. 12 and 13 were copied by Sig Bruce Martin and Phi Psi Tom Day whose 29 and 27 scores earned them decisions over Marly Young and Bill Cannon, both of Phi Gamma Delta who shot 27 and 23, respectively. The 13 remaining men are currently engaged in the best of 200 throws to determine the 1952 individual champion. Fifty throws on Monday and Tuesday of this week will round out this year's competition.

Wednesday and Thursday saw the first 100 attempts in the final battle. Andrews of the Rockets is currently leading the field by the narrowest of margins. He has racked up an 87 score to date, one more than Marshall. Randecker holds third spot with an 84 and following him are Kirkendall with 81 and Leonard with 80.

Three men are in the seventies to date. They are Gray with 79, Maupin with 78 and Ferguson with 71. Cripe has currently totaled 68 with Martin just a shade behind with 67. Tolen's mark is 65 and following are Reiland with 63 and Day with 58.

The team-totals, entering the final action, are:

| | Points |
|-------------------------|--------|
| 1. Sigma Chi | 386 |
| 2. Sigma Phi Epsilon | 379 |
| 3. Phi Kappa Psi | 364 |
| 4. Beta Theta Pi | 263 |
| 5. Phi Gamma Delta | 231 |
| 6. Delta Upsilon | 186 |
| 7. Sigma Nu | 184 |
| 8. Delta Tau Delta | 131 |
| 9. Rockets | 78 |
| 10. Alpha Tau Omega | 67 |
| 11. Phi Delta Theta | 64 |
| 12. Independents | 61 |
| 13. Kappa Sigma | 55 |
| 14. Phi Epsilon | 45 |
| 15. Sigma Alpha Epsilon | 36 |
| 16. Delta Sigma Pi | 19 |
| 17. Alpha Gamma Iota | 15 |
| 18. Farm House | 2 |

Gopher All-American

MINNESOTA SPARK . . . Paul Giel, 5'11", 185-pound junior, will lead the Golden Gophers of Minnesota in their invasion of Memorial Stadium this Saturday. Giel, in his two years at Minnesota has established an enviable record, highlighted by the eight new school records he set as a sophomore last year. He ranked 15th among major-college individual leaders in total net offense (1,473 yards) and 19th among individual leaders in total net rushing (785 yards).

Nine Seniors Slated For Final Homecoming Game

By BOB SERR
 Sports Staff Writer
 In the waning moments of this successful football season, Husker fans realize that this will be the last year for many graduating seniors. Every year men pass on, but they are not forgotten by any of the loyal Cornhusker supporters.

There are nine men leaving this year's squad—seven linemen and two backs. These nine, each an outstanding performer in his own right, have everything a coach could ask for.

Six of the nine are starters, and the other three have played valuable roles as substitutes. The line loses five of the six. All American Bob Reynolds is the only departing back. Linemen playing their last game this year are guards Kay Curtis, Don Bell, and Carl Brasec. Center Verl Scott and tackle Ed Husmann complete the list.

Leaving the biggest gap in the team will be Don "Tiny" Boll. Standing 6'2" and weighing 240 pounds, Don has played many outstanding games at his defensive left guard position. Line coach Ralph Fife will have a tough time finding a replacement to fill Don's shoes net fall.

Playing on both platoons, rugged Ed Husmann has always shown his teammates the way in the heat of action. This Orallala senior's popularity was proven when his teammates elected him one of the three Husker captains.

Clayton Curtis, better known as Kay, is the Husker's offensive left guard. As one of the most improved players on the team, Kay is having his banner season. Determination and fight are the assets that have made Carl Brasec a star. One of the three captains, Carl has been a leader on the offensive platoon this season. This ex-Omaha Benson lad is also a two year defensive veteran.

Another letterman, George Prochaska lettered last year as a tackle. This season, "Little Emil" has been one of the better offensive guards for Coach Bill Glassford.

A defensive terror is the reputation that Verl Scott carries.

His crushing tackles have stopped many an opponent the past three years. Verl's versatility was shown last season when he doubled on offense.

Rough Dick Goll from Tekamah is also nearing his last game as a Husker. Alternating at the guard and center spot, Dick has made many fine plays for Coach Glassford.

Jim Sommers, a twenty year old senior from Lincoln, is the only man who has not previously lettered. This year, Jim was given a chance to play more and has won his numeral.

The biggest loss, both physically and mentally, is of course Bobby Reynolds. Honored as an All-American and a gentleman, Bob will go down as one of the best, if not the best, Husker athlete. His teammates honored him this last year by electing him a captain.

These are the nine men who have starred on Saturday afternoons the past few years on Memorial Stadium's turf. This Saturday's Homecoming game with Minnesota will be your last chance to see these men perform for every Nebraskan's favorite, the Scarlet and Cream.

Cornhuskers Upset Strong KU, 14-13; Bordogna Sparkles

By HOWARD VANN
 Sports Staff Writer

The Nebraska Cornhuskers scored another major upset. Last Saturday at Lawrence, Kansas, Nebraska crept away from the Kansas Jayhawks with a 14-13 win in their possession.

The game was played in a constant down-pour and was witnessed by more than 3,000 loyal Husker followers who attended the contest.

There was action from the opening kick-off which Kansas received and immediately fumbled. Alert defensive work by Ed Dennis Emanuel gave the NU team possession of the ball on the Jayhawk 40 yard line.

Two plays later, when Dierks Raiston was running the ball for the Cornhuskers, he fumbled on the Kansas 30 but Harvey Goth recovered for Nebraska on the KU 27.

Fumbles continued to interrupt play when Bob Brandberry failed to hang onto the ball and Bob Smith recovered for NU on the Kansas 13. This time the Cornhuskers were not going to be denied as runs by George Cifra and Bob Reynolds moved the ball down to the one where John Bordogna fought over the goal line for six points. Reynolds converted and Nebraska led 7-0 with less than five minutes of football action.

The Husker team gave indications that they might turn the game into a rout as they started to roll down the field after Smith had intercepted a Jerry Robertson pass. Nebraska failed to cross the KU line inside of the twenty and a field goal try by Bobby Reynolds was no good.

KU then showed some of the potential that ranked its team seventh in the nation.

The Jayhawk defense recovered a pitch-out fumble on NU's 26 and began to eat up valuable yardage. Fullback Frank Sabatini and Frank Clinch brought the ball down to the NU 9 where smart quarterbacking by Robertson sent Bob Brandberry over tackle for six points. Don Hess's educated toe made the score, 7-7.

Robertson then engineered the Kansas team to another TD which was climaxed by a 7 yard pass to Paul Leoni in the end-zone on a fourth down play.

KU left the field with a 13-7 halftime lead after Hess's try for the PAT was wide.

Kansas monopolized the third quarter but still was unable to score with long passes and a beautifully executed boot-leg by Robertson.

In the fourth quarter, NU drove from their own twenty to the Kansas thirty only to loose the ball on a fumble.

Five minutes later and with only about six minutes left to play, Max Kitzelman's hard tackle of Robertson flipped another loose ball into the air where Don Brown recovered for the Huskers.

Reynolds ran to the 12 and the KU team was penalized for piling. Bordogna drove over from the one and Bobby kicked the game winning extra point.

Sig Eps, Kappa Sigs, SAE's, Delt B's Win

By BILL MUNDELL
 Intramural Sports Columnist

The 1952 intramural football season rolled one step closer to naming its champions Thursday as three fraternities "A" and one fraternity "B" contests were entered in the record books.

Sig Eps Rump

Defending champion Sigma Phi Epsilon captured its second-round encounter by trashing Beta Theta Pi, 40-7. It was the sixth victory in seven contests this year for the Sig Eps and it was strictly no-contest from the first few minutes of play.

The victors piled up 13 quick counters in the opening period and rounded out the remaining three stanzas with six, 15 and six pointers.

Individual point-getters for the Sig Eps were Bob Svanda and Bill Anderson with 12. Ted Kratt with seven, Al Hansen with six and Art Hansen with one. Tom Harrington gathered in a long Miller Whitham aerial to give the Betas their lone tally in the second quarter with Dave Mackey providing the extra point.

Delt B's Advance

Beta Theta Pi found it a bad day for football all around as their "B" team suffered a 13-12 setback at the hands of Delta Tau Delta "B" in a Bee tourney first-round contest.

The junior Deltas overcame a 12-6 Beta lead in the third stanza as Bob Vandel blocked a Beta punt and fell on the ball in the end-zone. Cap Allen pushed the winners in front to stay as he fired a pass to Dick Gefer for the vital extra point.

The Deltas had forged into an early 6-0 lead on an Allen to Bob Burns pass covering 30 yards only to see the Betas roar back with a pair of secondx stanza tallies.

Kappa Sigs Win

Kappa Sigma struck once in each of the two initial periods and coasted to a 14-0 second-round win over Theta Chi. The Kappa Sigs tallied on the first time they had the ball as Ed Berg fired a 30-yard toss to Percy Curtis and then flipped to John Gibbons for the extra point.

Berg continued to throw in the next canto, this time he struck paydirt with a 35-yarder to Gordy Krogh. Berg to Gibbons again produced the extra point and that was the game.

The victors threatened several times in the second half, mostly on the passing arm of Berg, but never could penetrate the Chi defense when it counted.

SAE's Come Back

Sigma Alpha Epsilon exploded for 19 points in the second half of its battle with Phi Gamma Delta and captured a second-round victory by a 19-0 tally.

Bill Shainholtz of the SAE's broke the scoring ice when after a scoreless first half, he intercepted a Lad Hanscom pass and raced to paydirt. The Sig Alphas continued the barrage in the final period as Shainholtz scored another on a pass from John Leach and Gus Lesbeck tallied with another aerial.

NU Rifle Team Meets Kansas

The University of Nebraska rifle team will fire a shoulder-to-shoulder match with the University of Kansas at Lawrence, Saturday morning.

Reich Goes For Three

Gil Reich, Kansas do-everything quarterback, will shoot for two more varsity letters, in basketball, and baseball, when the grid season is over. If he turns this triple he'll be only the second Jayhawker to do so since Ed Hall was bagging football, basketball and baseball monograms in 1940-41. Charlie Hoag earned three letters as a sophomore two years ago, adding track after the football-basketball grind.

Volleyball Tourney Nears Final Round

Georgia Hulac

Co-Recreation Night is the big feature in the WAA program this week. Grant Memorial is opened to all who are interested in having a good time Wednesday, Nov. 12 at 7:30 p.m. Everyone bring your men friends and if any man does not have anything to do Wednesday just come on over. The activities given are table tennis, badminton, duckpins, and volleyball. Cynthia Holyoke, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Jacy Mathieson, Delta Gamma are in charge of the recreation night. Miss Hanpeter is the physical education faculty advisor.

The volleyball tournament is swinging into its last stretch. The semifinals are being played today and the winners of these games will play for the title of the tournament tomorrow. Those teams in the semifinals are Delta Gamma No. 1 versus Kappa Kappa Gamma No. 1 and Dorm versus Interdenominational. There should be some excellent volleyball playing in these games.

Representatives are reminded that team list for the Nebraska ball tournament are due this Thursday, Nov. 13 by noon. There cannot be less than twelve members on the team list or the list will not be accepted. Nebraska ball is played somewhat like volleyball but with a huge canvas ball. Any number of players may hit the ball any number of times on a return. Rules such as net contact and boundaries are the same as in volleyball. Nebraska ball is the last tournament this semester so let's really make it the biggest and best of the year. Ann Yeakley, Delta Gamma, is the sports head for Nebraska ball and if there are any questions call her at 2-7371.

There is going to be an official's meeting for officiating Nebraska ball this Wednesday, Nov. 12 at 4 p.m. and 5 p.m. in the WAA office. Discussion of rules, scoring and techniques of officiating will be given. If there are any questions or if you will not be able to attend these meetings and want to officiate call Judy Pollock at 2-7820.

The bowling and duckpins tournaments are not quite terminated as yet. If you are wondering where you stand in the tournaments call Ginnie Mann for duckpins and Kathy O'Donnell for bowling.

Gopher Opponents Have Gained Statistical Edge

Minnesota's Golden Gophers, up to the Purdue game, are sporting a 3-3 record.

The Gophers have dumped Northwestern, Iowa and upset Illinois. They have suffered defeat at the hands of Washington, California and Michigan.

Minnesota has netted a total offensive output of 1,392 yards but have relinquished 2,197 yards. Opponents have outgained the Northmen, 1,520 yards to 919. Opponents' passes have netted 667 yards to 473 for Minnesota.

California picked up 408 yards rushing through the Golden Gophers' line. Illinois gained 196 yards through the air to lead all opponents in this department.

Minnesota opponents have dominated most of the games. The opponents have controlled the ball for 427 plays while the Gophers have had the ball on 389 tries. Touchdown passes have clicked six times for Minnesota while the combined efforts of their adversaries have only combined the same number.

Fencing Club Is Planned

There will be an organizational meeting relative to the formation of a fencing club at 7:15 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 12, in Room 101 of the Physical Education Building. If enough interest is shown at the first meeting, fencing will be on a recreational, intramural and competitive basis.

All interested faculty men and men students are invited and experience in fencing is not necessary. Anyone desiring additional information on this activity may call Mr. John Giele or C. E. Miller, University Extension 3180.
