

Films
A complete description of the procedure and process by which the University acquires films of football games appears on page 4 of The Daily Nebraskan.

Governor
Gov. Val Peterson will speak at the Lutheran Student House at 3:45 p.m. Thursday on "The Student's Role in the Political World."

VOL. 52—No. 43

Lincoln, Nebraska

Thursday, November 13, 1952

Britisher To Speak At Convo

Jackson To View American Election

Colin Jackson, British writer, broadcaster and lecturer will speak at a University Convocation Nov. 18 on "A British View of the American Election."

The convocation is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in Love Library Auditorium. His lecture is being sponsored by the University Convocation Committee, but it is not an All-University Convocation.

After serving five years as a Major in the Indian Army in India, the Middle East and Italy during World War II, Jackson returned to Oxford University to complete his graduate studies.

In 1948, he toured South and East Africa studying political and economic problems. He also carried out an extensive tour of the Middle East, India, Pakistan, Ceylon and Malaya in 1949 to investigate social and political situations.

Mr. Jackson lectured at many of the universities in the United States and Canada in 1949 and 1950. This visit was followed by a further tour of the United States in the summer of 1951. At that time Mr. Jackson gathered material to complete his book on the universities in the English speaking world and served as guest lecturer at the University of Kansas City summer session.

In England, Mr. Jackson broadcasts frequently for the British Broadcasting Corporation on British Commonwealth and American Affairs. He also lectures for the Imperial War College and the Bankers Institute.

Last winter Mr. Jackson lectured for both Oxford and Cambridge Universities on international relations. He has been a parliamentary candidate since 1949, contesting the 1950 and 1951 General Elections. Mr. Jackson is now preparing a book comparing the aims, methods and achievements of American and British Universities. In order to do this, Mr. Jackson plans to remain in the United States until January, 1953.

He hopes to have the opportunity for further study of American education. He will also deliver lectures on British Government and Politics, Anglo-American Relations and Comparative Education. He is now lecturing on "British Social History" at the University of Kansas City.

Four Freshmen Plan Chicago 4-H Club Trip

Four freshmen students in the University College of Agriculture are included in the group of 27 4-H Club members who have received trips to the National Club Congress in Chicago.

The announcement of the award winners was made Wednesday by State 4-H Club Leader, Wesley M. Antes. The coveted trip is one of the highest awards in 4-H.

The congress will be held in Chicago from Nov. 30 to Dec. 4. Students were selected on the basis of records and accomplishments by an awards committee made up of county extension agents.

Students and the projects for which they won the awards are: Janet Lindquist, clothing project.

Corrine E. Demaree, home improvement.

Carolyn J. Lux, girl's record.

Richard Lee Nelson, dairy project.

Carol Ann Beattie, dress review winner at State Fair. Miss Beattie was also selected as Wheat Queen at Hastings last week.

Girls' Dorm Plans Election For Today

Thursday is election day at the three Residence Halls for Women. Tuesday night at individual hall meetings, proposed slates were presented for positions of president, vice president, secretary and social chairman for each hall.

Notices on doorknobs, posters, paintings on mirrors and windows and advertisements strung throughout the halls Wednesday were proof that an election was coming for dormitory residents.

According to Miss Katherine Parks, director of Counseling and Social Activities, voting will take place in each of the halls during lunch and dinner hours.

The three elected presidents automatically will be members of the house council.

McCulloch Appointed RCCU Committee Head

Marian McCulloch, junior in Teachers College, replaces Norma Erickson as head of the Red Cross College Unit's special entertainment committee.

U.N. Seminar

LEAVING FOR NEW YORK... Part of the delegation from the University prepares to leave for a United Nations Seminar to be held Friday through Sunday. Pictured above are: (l. to r.) Darrel DeGraw, Pat Lindgren, Jan Steffen, Don Pieper, Bob Young and Jean Steffen. (Daily Nebraskan Photo by Photo Lab.)

DR. BREWER WARNS Public Expects Much From New Teachers

Responsibility for the future success of the American school system lies with elementary education majors soon to go into the teaching profession, Dr. Madison Brewer believes.

Speaking at the elementary Education Banquet in the Union Ballroom Wednesday evening, Dr. Brewer, chairman of the Elementary Education Department, said that in the last 20 years the teaching profession has become steadily more important in the eyes of

Friday Rally Planned For HC Game

Glassford To Introduce Football Team To Crowd

The rally crowd Wednesday night decided unanimously in favor of another pep rally to be held Friday.

The Wednesday-night rally was supposed to be the only one scheduled during Homecoming week, thus altering the yearly tradition of having two rallies for this special event. But, Ira Epstein, Yell King, asked the rallying Huskers if they would like to hold another pep rally Friday and was answered with cheers.

The entire University football team will be introduced by Coach Bill Glassford to the crowd Friday on the Union steps as part of the last home rally.

Your Student Council...

At its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon: 1. Had its picture taken for the Cornhusker. 2. Elected Bob Peterson to replace Don Noble as one of NU's two official delegates to the Big Seven student council conference. 3. Adjourned for the ROTC parade.

P. M. Headlines

By SALLY ADAMS Staff Writer

Eisenhower To Meet GOP Leaders

AUGUSTA, GA.—President-Elect Eisenhower will confer with Republican leaders in New York next week before he leaves for Korea, associates said. The associates, who asked not to be named, said Sen. Robert Taft and Sen. Alexander Wiley, in line to head the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, may join in the conference.

Eisenhower will confer with President Truman on international and domestic problems early in the week. Other sources said Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge and Detroit banker Joseph Dodge, may take part in the New York conferences.

James C. Hagerty, Eisenhower's press secretary, said no definite date has been set for the trip to Korea. He indicated that arrangements are being made with the Pentagon in Washington. Security precautions are being taken to protect the President-Elect against possible enemy attack during his visit to Korea. Hagerty declined to discuss reports that Eisenhower will spend Thanksgiving Day in Korea.

'Ike' Asked To Endorse Repatriation Stand

WASHINGTON—President Truman may ask Eisenhower for a public endorsement of the Allied stand against forcible repatriation of Red prisoners in Korea. Diplomatic authorities believe the President-Elect must speak out clearly and quickly to kill possible Russian hopes for a United States retreat on the POW issue and to prevent Korean debate talks from collapsing.

Eisenhower may reveal his position in the next few days. If he does not, officials said, this will be the main foreign policy business discussed in his meeting with Truman next week.

ROK's Recapture Three Heights

SEOUL—South Korean infantrymen recaptured three strategic heights on Sniper Ridge and Triangle Hill. They failed to throw Chinese Communists off the Yoke, a maze of tunnels and caves at the northern end of Sniper, which has been the key to control of the ridge.

Dodge Joins Budget Councils

WASHINGTON—Joseph Dodge, advance scout for the Eisenhower administration, took a seat in councils drafting next year's federal budget. Indications were that prospects are dim for any big, early cuts in the federal spending program. Officials said the backlog of funds, plans and contracts, difficult to change now, point toward a new spending budget well above the $79 billion chartered for this fiscal year. They said new appropriations can be reduced substantially by late 1954.

American U.N. Typist Becomes Russian

NEW YORK—A former United Nations typist related how she gave up her American citizenship to become a Soviet citizen while employed by the UN. Miss Olga Michka told a Senate Internal Security sub-committee that she was suspended from her job for not notifying UN officials of her change of citizenship. Miss Michka said she was born in America and applied for a Soviet passport in 1939. She said she received it ten years later thus forfeiting her United States citizenship.

Left Overs

By LILA WANER Staff Writer

Michael O'Brien was told by his doctor that he had a floating kidney. He rushed over to his parish priest and asked that next Sunday prayers should be said for his ailment.

"I'd like to," said the priest, "but don't you think it would sound rather strange for me to be praying for your floating kidney?"

"Certainly not," replied O'Brien. "Last Sunday I heard you praying for the loose livers—so why can't you pray for a floating kidney?"

No change in weather conditions is indicated for tomorrow. Let's keep our fingers crossed for Saturday—and not just for the weather.

PRESBY HOUSE

First Coffee Hour Held Wednesday

The Presbyterian - Congregational student house held the first of a series of coffee hours Wednesday afternoon.

The coffee hours will be held every Wednesday afternoon throughout the year. Barbara Jefferson, director of student activities for Presby House, is in charge.

The gatherings are open to foreign and American students, and are designed to give these students a chance to meet together and get acquainted. Coffee and cookies are served.

No special program is planned. Students may chat, play cards or do whatever they wish. On Wednesday afternoon one student entertained the group with a card trick.

A record of the visitors is kept in the guest book. Besides the United States, Haiti, W. I., Venezuela, Ethiopia, Germany and West Africa were represented by the twenty guests present.

Swindler To Speak At Presby House

Dr. W. F. Swindler, director of the University's School of Journalism, will speak on "From the Hellbox," a discussion of religion and journalism, at a meeting in the Presbyterian Congregational Student House Sunday at 3 p.m.

Dr. Swindler will address an open meeting to which all University students are welcome, although special invitations have been extended to Presbyterian and Congregational journalism students, members of the Post staff and house officers.

Arrangements for Dr. Swindler's talk were made by the Post, the Student House publication, under the direction of the editor, Mary Kay Mundell.

RCCU Creates Special Activities Committee

Teaching retarded children to square dance and sing is the project of the Red Cross College Unit's newly-created Special Activities Committee.

Under the leadership of Donna Elliott, this group meets each Tuesday at the Vine Congregational Church for an hour and a half to entertain five students.

"The children are very interested in foreign countries," Miss Elliott explained, "and we would like to obtain the assistance of University foreign students to help us carry out a program concerning foreign lands and customs."

Any students interested in the project may contact Miss Elliott at 2-3287.

Foreign Students To View Election

Council Elects Peterson As Conference Delegate

The Student Council Wednesday afternoon elected Bob Peterson as one of two official representatives to the Big Seven Student Government Conference.

Peterson, originally designated as an observer to the conference, replaces Don Noble, who will be unable to attend the convention at Columbia, Mo., Dec. 12, 13 and 14.

Wayne White, Council president, is the other delegate. Observers from the University Council will be Janet Steffen, Rocky Yapp and Joyce Johnson. Miss Johnson was originally designated as an alternate to the conference.

Dean Linscott, chairman of the elections committee, reported that the Council supervised four elections two weeks ago. A record number of ballots—1805—were cast in three of them—Honorary Commandant, Ughest Man on Campus and YWCA-YMCA mock election. The Council also directed voting for the 1952 Pep Queen. More than 800 votes were cast in that election.

Postponed until the next meeting of the Council was a report on a proposal for conversion of the mall to a parking lot. The newly proposed Junior-Senior Class Council constitution is also on next week's agenda.

The parking lot proposal, suggested two weeks ago by Rocky Yapp, chairman of the Council parking committee, called for a concrete parking lot on the mall between the Coliseum and the Carillon Tower.

The mall is now used by the ROTC Department for marching drill, by the College of Engineering for surveying and by intramural teams for football practice.

The suggestion was referred by the Council to a special committee for investigation of problems and possibilities of such a project.

An earlier parking proposal suggested by the parking committee has been referred to the faculty parking committee and the University attorney. The plan called for an automatic fine for parking violators upon receipt of their third ticket. The violator, however, would have a choice between a fine and restriction. Under the present system the offender is rusticated after three tickets.

MORTAR BOARD Nominations Open Tuesday For '52 Eligible Bachelors

Filings for Eligible Bachelors will open Tuesday. Each man's organized house is asked by the Mortar Boards to nominate one candidate. The filings must be turned in to Dean Hallgren's office by Nov. 26.

Qualifications for Eligible Bachelor are: 1. The candidate must have at least a 4.5 weighted average.

2. He must be a sophomore, junior or senior.

3. The candidate must be "eligible"—that is—not pinned or engaged.

The six Eligible Bachelors will be chosen by University women in an election Dec. 1. Polls will be in Ellen Smith and in the Ag Union.

Candidates will need two 8 by 10 inch pictures for display at each of the polls. The schedule for the picture arrangement will be printed later in The Daily Nebraskan, announced Nancy DeBore, Mortar Board in charge of elections.

The six finalists will be presented at the Mortar Board "Bachelor's Ball," Dec. 12 at the Coliseum.

Providing music for the dance will be the husband and wife team, Neal Hieft and Francis Wayne. Hieft, who has arranged for Woody Herman, Charlie Spivak and Horace Heidt, is a trumpeter. His wife is a vocalist and won the Esquire Award as the most promising female singer of the year.

The formal will feature the theme "Bachelor's Ball," and will be carried out by decorations and manner of presentations.

Dance chairman for the Ball is Virginia Koehler, Mortar Board vice-president.

Application Deadline Set Nov. 24 By PR

Deadline for applications to the Pershing Rifles is Nov. 24.

The national society is open to all basic ROTC students of the Army, Navy and Air Force.

Applications may be made by attending one of the regular meetings. Their meeting times are Monday and Wednesday from 5 until 6 p.m. in the Military and Naval Science building drill hall.

The Pershing Rifles have been cited for increasing the military knowledge and developing the qualities of leadership for ROTC students.

ELECTION RESULT GOP, Demos Impressed By Activity Of Young People

Optimism and new opportunities for younger people are the opinions shared by the chairman of Lancaster County Young Democrats and Young Republicans as a result of the recent national elections.

Mrs. J. A. Diaz, chairman of the Lancaster County Young Democrats, said, "The outcome of the election has not affected our group since we are not campaigners, but rather exist to interest young people in the functions of government on all levels."

Mr. Roy Sheaff, chairman of the Lancaster County Young Republicans, declared that, "In my opinion, the overwhelming vote that Eisenhower and Nixon received is an indication that the Republican Party is leaning toward the young people."

Both chairmen, interviewed Wednesday, felt that younger people will be increasingly more important in their respective parties.

According to Mr. Sheaff, the Republican victory is tending to create a larger, stronger, more active group on campus. He pointed out that many of the responsibilities for future party solidarity lie with the young people themselves.

Speaking of the role of the Young Democrats, Mrs. Diaz said that "We are no exclusive group—we are seeking those people who believe that good government is important and the responsibility of the intelligent citizen."

"The young people have really made an impression on both parties in this election year," declared Sheaff.

Both chairmen agreed on this although they were interviewed separately, for Mrs. Diaz said that, "In order to have a successful party organization and an intelligent citizenry, we must strive to educate the younger set and make them conscious of political issues."

Sheaff, who is also a Lincoln City Council member, feels that the youth of today are considerably more capable and responsible than yesterday's youth because of the advances which have been made in radio, television and transportation. According to Sheaff, World War II also gave an opportunity for travel and education not offered to previous generations.

Mrs. Diaz said that the Young Democrats have concrete plans for future panel discussions, and the sponsoring of "really good" speakers who will talk on the place of the citizen in government. She believes that an intelligent approach to the problems of democracy by interested young people will go a long way toward solving some of the problems of good government.

When asked about the significance of Senator McCarthy's reelection, Mr. Sheaff said that, "His action in the next six years will be the determining factor as to the sincerity and effectiveness of the Senator." He pointed out that many people today believe that Senator McCarthy may change his tactics because of the Republican triumph on Nov. 4.

Six To Speak At Tonight's NUCWA Meet

Six different views of the recent United States election's significance will be voiced Thursday night by six foreign University students.

The students, speaking at a meeting of the Nebraska University Council on World Affairs, at 7:30 p.m., in Union Parlor Z, will represent Austria, Germany, Poland, Ethiopia, India and Japan. Austria, is a biological chemistry Gerd Hoffend, a junior in Business Administration from Berlin, will represent Germany. Hoffend has received a Fulbright Scholarship and is at the University for one year.

From Tokyo, Japan is Takashi Shamadi, a graduate student in Business Administration. He has attended Waseda University in Tokyo. Shamadi is studying under a Japanese Government scholarship at the University for one year.

Heinz Schreiner, representing Austria is a biological chemistry major, and studied in the U. S. two years ago before his visa expired. After he returned to Vienna he took more graduate work. At present Schreiner is here on invitation from the University.

Kassa Michal, graduate student in Teacher's College, and resident of Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, will present his idea of the election's effect on his country. Michal received his bachelor's degree from the University. Before attending the University, Michal attended Nebraska Wesleyan.

John Methesulah, formerly a Baptist pastor for seven years and presently a graduate student in sociology, is from Khababada, India. He served as a chaplain in the Indian army for four years.

Representing Poland will be Marianna Shuman of Staltes, Poland.

Phi Sigma Iota Initiates 19 New Members

Phi Sigma Iota, national honor society for students of romance languages and literatures, initiated 19 new members Wednesday night.

Of the nineteen members 12 were undergraduates; five graduates and two, faculty members.

To be eligible for membership a student must be taking courses on the junior level and have overall average of not less than 6.0. Undergraduate membership is limited to ten per cent of students enrolled in courses on the junior and senior level in romance languages.

The new undergraduate members are: Gladys M. Anderson, Barbara Colwell, Sandra Daley, Shirley Hamilton, Donald Keiser, Kathy McMullen, Judy Morgan, Winnie Owen, Judy Pollock, Joan Rambour, Susan Reinhardt and Shirley Weir.

Graduate students initiated were: Denise Nordon, Joan Reed, Joe Evans, Gordon Ferguson and Sebastian Gulizia.

The new faculty members are Dr. C. G. Lowe, Chairman of the Department of classics and Hal Carney, instructor in Romance Languages.

Present undergraduate members are: Doris Bratt, Marion Brown, Doris Carlson, Sydna Fuchs, Arlene Irons, Sarah McGrath, Hester Morrison, Eileen Oelrich, and Barbara Young.

The officers for the year are: Sarah McGrath, president; Doris Carlson, vice-president; Boyd G. Carter, corresponding secretary; and Doris McMurray, secretary-treasurer.