

SPRING CONFERENCE

Mock General Assembly Selected By NUCWA

A United Nations General Assembly will be held this spring by the Nebraska University Council for World Affairs for their Spring Conference.

At a mass meeting Thursday, NUCWA members decided to have this type of conference because:

The United Nations General

Assembly is now in session. In United Nations, any issue of international importance can be discussed.

There are a large number of countries included in the General Assembly.

Three types of conferences were submitted to NUCWA members by the steering committee. A General Assembly, a special conference called by a particular country, and Committee 1—called the political and security committee.

Any suggestions as to issues to be discussed at the conference should be directed to Nita Helmstadter or any member on the Steering Committee.

Members of the steering committee are Larne Watson, secretary; Joyce Lasse, speakers committee; Jim Collins, delegations committee; Marv Friedman, technical arrangements; Rosemary Amos, research committee; Barb Adams and Chuck Klasek, in charge of publicity and Bernie Wisniew, assistant chairman of Steering Committee.

Directory Staff To Resume Sales In Union, Bookstores

A few Student Directories will go on sale again Tuesday and may be purchased any time this week. Students may buy Directories from near campus book stores or Union booth.

University departmental or faculty members should order their books from the University purchasing department.

If house representatives want to sell more directories they may check them out at the Builders office between 4 and 5 p.m. any day this week. Any house salesman, Theresa Barnes said, who has not yet turned in his receipts must do so Tuesday.

Student-Faculty Banquet To Honor All Athletes

An all-University athletic banquet will be held to honor students participating in inter-collegiate sports Dec. 2 at 6:30 p.m. in the Union Ballroom.

The speaker for the banquet will be announced later. Chancellor E. G. Gustavson will award certificates to the outstanding athletes.

The banquet is sponsored by a student committee headed by Joy Washal. Rocky Yapp, Student Council; Elaine Esch, WAA; Ira Epstein, Athletic Board and Glenn Beesline, N Club, are other committee members.

Each organized house will be permitted to purchase five tickets. A limited number will also be distributed among the faculty. Price of the tickets is $1.

N-men, members of the Board of Regents, Athletic Board members and coaches will be the honored guests. The dinner was suggested by the Chancellor at an all-University convocation Oct. 8. He said that it is appropriate for students and faculty to recognize University athletes at a banquet given by the student body.

Payments For Ski Trip Due Nov. 19

The Nebraska Ski Association sponsoring the Christmas vacation ski trip to Aspen, Colo., received a deadline extension for down payments until Wednesday, Nov. 19.

There are 65 paid members to date and 25 vacancies. If the demand is greater the ski association will try to increase their reservations to more than 100.

Expenses for the week in the mountains is $54.95. This includes all meals, room, ski equipment, skiing lessons and season membership in Nebraska Ski Association.

The trip will feature—skiing on the finest ski ranges in the United States, swimming in heated outdoor pools, skating, moonlight sleigh rides and night life entertainment including a Nebraska New Year's Eve party.

The $10 down payment must be paid by Wednesday, Nov. 19, to Pete Bergsten, Alpha Tau Omega or Bob Howey, Beta Theta Pi. For information on the trip call 3-2743.

Transportation will be arranged after down payment is secured. Trains and cars will be used for transportation.
