

Nebraska Preps For Powerful Oklahoma

BY TOM BECKER
Sports Staff Writer

For the second day the Cornhuskers took it easy as they donned their sweat-suits and ran through offensive and defensive plays. A special emphasis was placed on passing.

Looking over the season play to date, Coach Bill Glasford said, "We have a great bunch of kids, they've gone a long way."

Defensive halfback Jim Ysley is the only doubtful starter in the Saturday Tussle with Oklahoma.

Bob Reynolds will serve as game captain in his final appearance in a Nebraska uniform.

Spirit is running high at the Husker camp. Signs all over the field house read like this one placed in the dressing room:

"There is no doubt in our mind. How about yours? We can win. Let's all give it all we got and bring a victory back to Nebraska. Beat Oklahoma."

It will be a tough task, for the Sooners are ranked fifth in the nation. The only blemishes on the Okie record are a tie with Colorado in the first game of the season and a 27-21 upset loss to Notre Dame.

Oklahoma is averaging close to 40 points per game, while Nebraska's defensive platoon has allowed an average 9.9 points to its opponents.

Should the Huskers stop the unstoppable Sooner offense it could be a long afternoon for Bud Wilkinson's boys.

Including Reynolds, there will be 10 seniors playing their last game for the Scarlet and Cream:

Ed Hussman, Don Boll, Carl Brasee, Kay Curtis, George Prohaska, Veri Scott, Jim Sommers, Jim Levensdusky and Dick Goll.

Paces Huskers

GROUND GAINER . . . Denny Korinek, hustling Husker sophomore halfback spark, was the top Nebraska ground gainer in last Saturday's 13-7 loss to Minnesota. Korinek carried the leather eleven times against the Gophers and churned out 69 yards for an average of 6.3 yards per carry. Korinek, who played six-man ball at Ulysses, saw limited varsity action as a freshman last year.

Sooner Bulwark

MARSHALL . . . Tied an intramural free throw record when he fired forty-nine out of fifty tosses through the meshes in the finals of the second bracket. He is All-University champ for the second consecutive year.

Dinner Planned For NU Team

Chancellor Gustavson will present N certificates to all active N men at a dinner to be held Tuesday, Dec. 2, in the Student Union Ballroom.

Only 500 will be allowed to attend. The faculty will be allowed 100 tickets while each fraternity, sorority and independent organization on the campus will be allowed five tickets. The remaining tickets, valued at $1, will be placed on sale for any other students who wish to attend.

All active N men, those eligible for awards, members of the Board of Regents, Deans of the various colleges, members of the Athletic Board and the coaches will be guests.

The idea was introduced by Chancellor Gustavson when he stated that he thought that it would be appropriate that the Cornhusker athletes should be acknowledged by students and faculty.

Joy Wachal, chairman; Rocky Yapp, Student Council; Elaine Esch, Women's Athletic Association; Ira Epstein, Athletics Board and Glenn Beerrline, president of the N club will be in charge of all arrangements.

Sooners Ranked 5th In Nation This Week

Maryland's unexpected loss to Mississippi, Georgia Tech's squeaker against Alabama last Saturday, and the approaching contest between Southern California and UCLA has befuddled the experts, and as a result Michigan State University had an easy time retaining the first place spot in the national football rankings this week.

The Spartans, coached by Biggie Munn, made their own breaks and snatched off the resulting fumbles to Lypple Notre Dame, 21-3 last Saturday. That defeat, plus the many other occurrences, gave Michigan State more than two-thirds of the first place votes of the sports writers and broadcasters participating in the weekly nationwide poll.

Out of 127 experts casting ballots this week, 80 named Michigan State first and nobody placed them lower than fifth. The total score on the usual basis of 10 points for first, nine for second, etc., was 1,152.

Georgia Tech remained in the second spot with 14 first-place votes as compared to 22 a week ago and 968 points. That apparently was because of the indecision about the relative strength of UCLA and USC.

Between them, these two Pacific Coast powers, who will fight it out for the conference title and a place in the Rose Bowl next Saturday, polled nearly 1,500 points. But they were so evenly divided that UCLA edged out USC for third place, 886 votes to 911, although Southern California drew more first place votes, 11 to 9.

Principal changes this week were Maryland's fall from third place to eighth and Mississippi's corresponding rise from 11th to sixth.

Rankings of the 10 leaders (season records and first-place votes in parentheses):

|------------------------------|-------|
| 1. Michigan State (8-0) (80) | 1,152 |
| 2. Georgia Tech (8-0) (14) | 968 |
| 3. UCLA (8-0) (9) | 886 |
| 4. So. California (8-0) (11) | 911 |
| 5. Virginia Tech (7-1) (1) | 542 |
| 6. Mississippi (7-2) (6) | 525 |
| 7. Tennessee (7-1) (8) | 494 |
| 8. Maryland (7-1) | 422 |
| 9. Notre Dame (5-2) (1) | 326 |
| 10. Texas (7-2) | 242 |

Sooners May Leave Loop To Play In Bowl Game

The bubble has finally burst. In an impromptu speech to some 200 aroused and demonstrating students, Dr. Cross, president of Oklahoma University said Tuesday night that Oklahoma would join the Big Seven conference in order to play a post season bowl game.

Cross said that if the Sooner football team was desirous of playing in a New Year's bowl contest, Oklahoma would defy the Big Seven rule, forbidding members schools to participate in post-season clashes, and play on January 1st.

The demonstration by Oklahoma students on the President's lawn was prompted by word received that the Sooner school had been invited to play in the Orange Bowl on New Year's Day at Miami, Fla.

Cross revealed that the Board of Regents had already turned the matter over to Bud Wilkinson, Sooner head football coach, and himself, to decide whether Oklahoma would play a post-season contest.

It has yet to be determined what effect Oklahoma's resignation from the Big Seven Conference would have on both the football standings and future Big Seven loop play.

Phi Gamma Delta Wins IM Wrestling Trophy

By GARY FRANSDEN
Sports Staff Writer

It was definitely a three team race for squad honors in the recently completed intramural wrestling tournament. After it was all over, the Men's Dorm came out ahead by accumulating 24 points. Phi Gamma Delta and Beta Theta Pi were just a step behind with 22 and 21 points respectively.

Rich Jackson and Tom Anderson were the pace-setters in the Dorm's successful bid for the 1952 honors. Both boys won their flights by decisions. Jackson won a referee's decision over Jerry Carnozzo, Independent, while Anderson stopped a fellow team member, Hilmer Deines 4-1. The boys copped the 123 lb. and 130 lb. divisions respectively.

In the heavyweight class, Jim Brown of Sigma Alpha Epsilon scored one of the journey's two falls when he pinned Independent Dick Nelson in 5:15 to win the crown. The other fall in the finals came in the 147 lb. class there Dick Schellenberg of Sigma Nu threw Bari Brown, Phi Gamma Delta, in 3:50.

Jim Owens, an Independent, took the 137 lb. affair by defeating Scott Hedden of the winning Dorm outfit 6-3. Two Beta Theta Pi grunt-and-groan men, Ted Barger and Tom Healy, captured their respective divisions. Barger won the 175 lb. class by conquering Dick Husmann of Pi Kappa, Phi Gamma Delta, in 3:50.

Consolation games will be played at 2 and 4 p.m. Dec. 29-30.

A clinic for high school squads will be held at 10:00 a.m. Monday, Dec. 29, with all eight coaches participating. Last year 100 high school teams attended; many from over 350 miles away (eight from the state of Iowa). These teams will be guests of the conference at the consolation games that afternoon.

Tickets may be ordered by mail after Nov. 20. Preference will be given to those ordering for all four nights. Prices are $1-$2-$3, and 25c should be added to the total for mailing and insurance. Send orders to the Municipal Auditorium, Kansas City, Mo.

The conference cross country championship will be run over a three mile course at Lawrence, Kansas, Saturday, November 15, at 1:20 p.m.—just before the Kansas-Oklahoma A. & M. football game.

Sigma Chi's Win IM Free Throw Trophy; Chuck Marshall Champ

By BILL MUNDELL
Intramural Sports Columnist

It's a repeat performance for the 1952 Intramural Free-Throw champions. Charles Marshall and Sigma Chi captured the gratis-toss crowns for the second consecutive year last week as another I-M sport was written into the books.

Marshall, representing the champion Sig Chi's needed a flashy 47 score out of a possible 50 in his last round to shove out Hal Andrews of the Rockets to successfully defend his individual title. Marshall had pulled into a tie with Andrews in his third 50 shots out of the final 200 and on the heels of Andrews' final score of 38, he shot into the championship.

The Sigs amassed 407 points in grabbing their team title. Their total was 30 points better than Sigma Phi Epsilon, the runnerup, could muster. The champions placed three men in the final 13 to help pad the slim lead they carried into the final action. Besides Marshall's first, the Sigs placed Ben Leonard in seventh and Bruce Martin in thirteenth. Marshall fired scores of 46, 46, 46 and 47 in his last 200 attempts in winning with a score of 179. Andrews' scores of 42, 45, 45 and 38 gave him the runner-up spot with a total of 170.

Phi Gam Bob Kirkendall finished in third place with scores of 41, 40, 42 and 43 for a total of 166 while Muri Maupin of the Fijis and Jack Randecker of Delta Upsilon wound up fourth and fifth with finals totals of 163 and 162.

Behind the top two teams came Phi Kappa Psi with 366 points for third, Beta Theta Pi with 266 for fourth and Phi Gamma Delta with 259 for fifth.

Marshall turned in the top single performance of the year with a blazing 49 out of a possible 50 in the second bracket finals. This tied the University I-M record set by Carr Trumbull, also of Sigma Chi, in 1950. Marshall's final 47, along with 47's by Maupin and Bob Bruns of Delta Tau Delta were the second highest scores during the season.

Final individual standings:

|-----------------------------------|-----|
| 1. Chuck Marshall — Sigma Chi | 179 |
| 2. Hal Andrews — Rockets | 170 |
| 3. Bob Kirkendall — Phi Gam | 166 |
| 4. Muri Maupin — Phi Gam | 163 |
| 5. Jack Randecker — DU | 162 |
| 6. Gene Gray — DU | 152 |
| 7. Ben Leonard — Sigma Chi | 147 |
| 8. Charles Ferguson — Phi Gam | 145 |
| 9. Tom Tates — DU | 145 |
| 10. Phil Rolland — Delta Sigma Pi | 138 |
| 11. Eddie Crise — Beta | 134 |
| 12. Tom Day — Phi Psi | 114 |
| 13. Bruce Martin — Sigma Chi | 113 |

Final team standings:

|-------------------------|-----|
| 1. Sigma Chi | 407 |
| 2. Sigma Phi Epsilon | 366 |
| 3. Phi Kappa Psi | 366 |
| 4. Beta Theta Pi | 266 |
| 5. Phi Gamma Delta | 259 |
| 6. Delta Upsilon | 208 |
| 7. Sigma Nu | 184 |
| 8. Delta Tau Delta | 151 |
| 9. Rockets | 90 |
| 10. Alpha Tau Omega | 67 |
| 11. Phi Delta Theta | 61 |
| 12. Independent | 54 |
| 13. Kappa Sigma | 35 |
| 14. Nebraska Co-op | 45 |
| 15. Sigma Alpha Epsilon | 30 |
| 16. Delta Sigma Pi | 22 |

Headed For Norman

PLUGS THE GAPS . . . Max Kitzelman, 215-pound, 6'3" sophomore from Nebraska City, is another underclassman whose defensive performance this year has been an asset to the Husker cause. Max, who plays a defensive guard post, has been hard to move by opposing linemen in his performance with the Husker defensive wall.

Frosh Grid Teams Play Thursday
