

NU Ready To Open Against SDU Here

The Nebraska basketball squad will take the floor Saturday night against a team that has already seen action on the maples. The South Dakota club racked up an impressive victory over Yancton College Monday night.

An encouraging performance by a number of promising young sophomores making their collegiate debuts in the season's opener against Yancton has brightened the picture at South Dakota University.

Coach Carl E. (Fube) Hoy started three second year men against the Hounds, and all came through with fine offensive and defensive performances as the Redshirts ground out the victory with their deliberate slow-break offense.

Jim Rath, a guard from Leola, impressed observers with his poise and alertness in the back line. He also scored 11 points, hitting four of nine field goal attempts.

His running mate, Larry Kennedy, of Storm Lake, Ia., meshed the nets with four of five field goal tries in netting 12 points. He also displayed his expected rebounding prowess.

Forward Dick Padnos, the ex-Lake Andes high shooting wizard, showed some of his old form in connecting on four of nine shots in garnering ten points. He also rebounded above expectations.

The squads two veterans, junior center Jim Tays, Gettysburg, and senior forward Don Bruce, Rapid City, performed as expected. Tays led the scores with 15 points and rebounded well while Bruce was continually setting up his mates for baskets, scoring eight points himself.

As a team, the Coyotes connected on 25 of 67 field goal attempts for 37% plus. They made good 17 of 24 free tosses.

The Huskers will put an all-veteran team on the floor against the Coyotes. Starting positions have been given to Stan Matzke and Willard Fagler at forwards, Bill Johnson at center, and Joe Good, with Fred Seger at guards.

PRE-GAME ADVICE . . . Husker basketball coach Harry Good gives his starting five final pointers prior to their season opener with South Dakota Saturday. Slated to start against the Coyotes are Fred Seger (6), Bill Johnson (5), Willard Fagler (10), Stan Matzke (12), and Joe Good (7). The game will get under way at 7:30 p.m. on the Coliseum maples.

Johnson is the squad's tallest man at 6-7. Fagler stands 6-5 while Seger towers at 6-4. Matzke and Good are the shortest members on the starting line-up at 6-2.

Nebraska will leverage 6-5 and the Coyotes will average, 6-1.
Good is the lone senior on the cage squad. Seger and Johnson are juniors, and Fagler and Matzke are sophomores.

Other cagers who are ticketed for varsity action are Don Weber, Paul Firdstror, Dave Fahrback, Leland Dohler, Gary Ruzelnar, Frank Falloon, Don Muenster, Gerald Sandulte, Clark Smaha, and Murray Backhaus.

The game will be at the coliseum at 7:30 p.m. with preliminary at 6:15.

Sig Eps, Phi Psi's Gain Two Spots On Frat 'A' All-Stars

By BILL MUNDELL
Intramural Sports Columnist
Champion Sigma Phi Epsilon and runnerup Phi Kappa Psi led the way in the balloting for the 1952 Fraternity "A" I-M Football All-Star teams by gaining two men each on the number one lineup. Lineman Al Hansen and back Ted Kratt represent the champs while a pair of backs in the persons of Dick Thompson and Don Frei won berths for the Phi Psi's.

All told, the Sig Eps were represented by six men and the Phi Psi's by four in the 1952 aggregation.
The fraternity "A" all-star team is the third of four such teams to appear in the Daily Nebraskan. The fourth and big team, the All-University lineup, will appear in Monday's paper along with the final 1952 grid ratings.

Joining Hansen as the all-star linemen are Don Bedker of Phi Gamma Delta and Tom Harrington of Beta Theta Pi while gaining the fourth backfield berth is

Fraternity 'A' All-Star Football Team

FIRST TEAM	POS.	SECOND TEAM
Al Hansen—Sigma Phi Epsilon	L.	Dick Long—Delta Upsilon
Tom Harrington—Beta Theta Pi	L.	Bill Anderson—Sigma Phi Epsilon
Don Bedker—Phi Gamma Delta	B.	Frank Mnuok—Kappa Sigma
Dick Thompson—Phi Kappa Psi	B.	Jim Weber—Farm House
Mac Bailey—Alpha Tau Omega	B.	Bob Bachman—Phi Kappa Psi
Don Frei—Phi Kappa Psi	B.	Bill Shainholtz—Sig Alpha
Ted Kratt—Sigma Phi Epsilon	B.	Jim Tangdall—Pioneer House

HONORABLE MENTION: Blessing—Alpha Tau Omega; Andersen—Phi Kappa Psi; Petersen—Sigma Phi Epsilon; Raitt—Phi Gamma Delta; Harley—Phi Delta Theta; Thiabault—Sigma Phi Epsilon; Mackie—Beta Theta Pi; Galter—Sigma Alpha Mu; K. Skalla—Delta Tau Delta; Tolen—Delta Upsilon; Cunningham—Acacia; Bussell—Pioneer House; Whitham—Beta Theta Pi; Blaha—Theta Xi; Svanda—Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Mac Bailey of Alpha Tau Omega. Hansen and Kratt were the "big-two" in the Sig Eps' rush to the championship according to their opponents. Hansen was a vital part of perhaps the top line in I-M action this fall. His blocking superb while his pass-catching snared him his team's runner-up spot in scoring.

Kratt was the I-M master of the running game this season.

His bursts through the line and around end netted him the Sig Ep scoring honors in a game where the forward pass is supposedly predominate. He was no slouch on the passing angle either with the short shots his specialty.

What Kratt lacked in long-passing abilities, the difference was more than made up by the Tau representative, Mac Bailey.

Bailey's aerials connected for the most touchdowns in this year's competition and kept the ATO's in the midst of the battle all the way. His passing handed the champion Sig Eps their only defeat of the year, a 19-7 Tau seasonal highlight.

Ball-handling and vicious blocking tell the story of Don Frei's and Dick Thompson's gaining the "A" all-stars for the Phi Psi's. Frei's deception with the pigskin, along with his passing and pass-receiving stamped him an all-opponent by his rivals.

Thompson was the blocking back of all blocking backs in action this year. Seldom ever touching the pigskin, he was widely acclaimed for "knocking-them-down" when opponents reached the Phi Psi backfield. His importance is noted that because of an injury in the semi-final playoff contest, he saw action for only a couple of plays in the final game with Sigma Phi Epsilon, during which the Sig Eps continually roamed the Phi Psi backfield on their way to the championship.

Harrington and Bedker were line stars on lower ranking teams. Harrington's performance help the Betas to second place in league II and to the quarter-finals in the playoffs while Bedker's pass-snaring and defensive play boosted the Phi Gams into a similar playoff situation.

Another member of each the Sig Eps and Phi Psi outfits won second team berths. Bill Anderson holds down a line position for the champs while Bob Bachman gets the nod in the backfield to become the third member of the Phi Psi ball carriers to receive acclaim.

Joining Anderson in the line are Dick Long of Delta Upsilon and Frank Mnuok of Kappa Sigma. The remaining back spots on the second lineup were captured by Jim Tangdall of Pioneer House, Jim Weber of Farm House and Bill Shainholtz of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Fifteen additional men gained enough votes to earn them an honorable mention.
A total of 53 men received at least a second-team vote by the competing teams and their managers. Only six teams eligible to vote failed to cast their ballots.

Betas, ATO's Continue To Lead Qualifiers In IM Swim Meet

Beta Theta Pi and Alpha Tau Omega continued to pad their leads in qualifiers for the 1952-53 I-M Swimming finals scheduled for next Monday by qualifying four more men apiece Tuesday night in three more preliminary events.

Sigma Nu rallied for three qualifiers and Delta Upsilon two with one man each from Presby House and Phi Kappa Psi gaining the finals.

Beta Tim Anderson, who qualified in two events and established a new record in the 100-yard Breast-stroke Monday night, chalked up a third winning time Tuesday Anderson led the qualifiers in the 100-yard freestyle, churning the distance in :58.2. Independent Dave Gradwohl turned in the second best time in a :1:03.8.

IM Handball Deadline Set For Today

The deadline for entering the 1952-53 intramural handball championships, 5 p.m. Friday, Dec. 5, drew near today as the I-M officials readied themselves for the next activity. All entries must be brought to room 102 in the Physical Education Building before 5 p.m. Players can enter either singles or doubles competition, but not both.

All matches will be scheduled by the players themselves to meet deadline date according to times the handball courts in the Coliseum are available. Varsity tennis athletes who are permitted to use the Field House handball courts may play their matches there if they desire. Two out of three games will constitute a match with winners advancing in the tourney.

In case of a large entry list, several leagues will be formed with the winners of leagues playing for the championship.

The team trophy, awarded to the All-University champions, will be awarded on point basis. Each individual advancing in the tourney will gain points for his respective team with points in both the singles and doubles action counting towards the All-U title. Medals will be awarded to individual All-U champs.

Any male students are eligible to compete and a man does not have to be connected with a team, but may enter independently.

Dutch Meyer Quits Post As TCU Boss

L. R. (Dutch) Meyer, head football coach at Texas Christian University for the past 19 years, quit his post Thursday. His chief assistant, Abe Martin, will take over for the retiring mentor.

Meyer is the originator of the famous TCU spread formation, used widely by teams over the nation in the current season. His retirement was not un-expected.

Nebraska Five Faces Rugged Problem In Revamping Records

Coach Harry Good's young Husker team may have trouble setting any new records this season. The records established in the past by high-scoring scorers such as Jim Buchanan and Bus Whitehead go on the block starting Saturday, however, as the South Dakota Coyotes invade the Coliseum for Nebraska's opening game.

Individual Scoring Records: Total points scored in three consecutive seasons — Jim Buchanan, 1950-1952. Total points scored in one season—400 by Jim Buchanan, 1952. Points scored in one game—29 by Bob Pierce, against South Dakota Jan. 3, 1951. Field goals scored in one game—12 of 17 shots by Milt Whitehead against Kansas Jan. 10, 1951. Free throws scored in one game—10 of 10 by Milt Whitehead against Iowa State Feb. 19, 1949.

Free throws attempted — 11 (made 8) by Milt Whitehead against Idaho Dec. 23, 1947. Team Scoring Records: Points scored in regulation game—85 against Iowa State Dec. 30, 1949. Field goals scored in regulation game—34 against Western Reserve Dec. 21, 1948.

FOR A LONG TIME we've suspected that today's college man would no longer "gladly die for dear old Siwash." Neither does he play ukuleles and sing "Alma Mater" at the drop of a beanie.

We believe, too, that when it comes to sportshirts the college man is no different from his older brother in town. He doesn't go for fads and screwball styles. But he does go for smartness, good workmanship . . . and above all, value. That is why we believe you'll like the new selection of sportshirts by Manhattan. For they have all these qualities, plus a distinctive air that sets them above the ordinary shirt. So ask for Manhattan . . . the college man's sportshirt.
