

Days Remain Until Christmas Vacation

Instructors, Students Display Works In 16th Annual All-Nebraska Art Show

By DEE JACKSON
Staff Writer

Scare crows, abstract airplanes, quaint little cottages, vases of flowers, farm scenes—all are exhibited at the 16th annual All-Nebraska Art Show in Morrill Hall.

The show, sponsored by the Lincoln Artists' Guild and Associated Artists of Omaha, Inc., in co-operation with University Art Galleries, offers the best by Nebraska artists. Over 200 entries were submitted to Jim Hunt of Topeka, Kan., by Nebraskans. Of these, he chose 51 outstanding paintings to hang in the show. Honorable mentions were awarded to the ten most outstanding works.

Represented in the show are University students Ward Lindley, Jr., William Lyberis and Betty Sieler. University art instructors are also well-represented; six have paintings exhibited and three received honorable mentions.

Honorable mention winners are Gail H. Butt, instructor in art; Walter Melgs, assistant professor of art and Rudy O. Pozzatti, past instructor of fine arts. Other University faculty members represented in the exhibition are Katherine Nash, instructor in art; Freda S. Spaulding, instructor in art and Peter Worth, assistant professor of art.

An interesting oil which received honorable mention is "Back Street" by Leonard Thiessen, Omaha. It shows in exacting detail the dilapidated appearance of two buildings as viewed from the back alley. The technique shows a smooth, perfectionist quality. Another oil which uses this

Dr. Rosenlof To Attend New England Meeting

Dr. G. W. Rosenlof, Dean of Admissions and Institutional Relations at the University, will leave for Boston this week to attend a meeting of the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

Rosenlof is past president of this association, which extends its New England operations into 20 midwestern states.

Student Disgust . . .

(Continued from Page 1)

was under investigation, but didn't object to using the book. "I didn't feel that because the IPR was under investigation, we should stop looking at their material. I respected Dr. Anderson for his selection of the book," she said. "The fact that it was an IPR publication made me want to read it all the more."

The book was not pro-Communist in any way, she said. Dr. Anderson was exceptionally fair in his class discussions, she said. "We discussed everything in class," Miss Raymond said. "Dr. Anderson was objective and made quite clear his political leanings. He didn't shy away from anything."

Miss Raymond said that when she was in Dr. Anderson's course she thought that maybe the class might be investigated for using the book. However, she felt that "it can't happen here."

Yvonne Moran said she knew the background of the book, but it didn't matter to her. It was just another textbook, she said. She didn't think the material was slanted in any way.

In reference to class discus-same quality to an even finer degree is "Sioux Squaws." It nevertheless has an undesirable photographic quality.

Coming to the more contemporary trend, "The Ghost Aircraft" is a staccato reproduction of the impression he received from airplanes. It becomes a striking painting through the use of contrasting lights and darks.

Several interesting watercolors are included in the display, especially the pond scene by Norman E. Mangold, Fremont. A pas-

Student Pledges Due Friday For December Bloodmobile

Students wishing to donate blood Dec. 23 must have their pledge cards in by Friday, according to Shirley Murphy, chairman of the Red Cross College Unit blood committee.

Pledge cards are on bulletin boards in the Union, Ag Union and Military and Naval Science Building. Students should fill in the time they would like to donate and mail the card. The Red Cross calling committee will notify donors if that time is available, and remind them

Ag Union To Show Movie About Country Minister

"I'd Climb the Highest Mountain," is the title of the weekly show in the Ag Union Saturday evening.

The show slated to begin at 7:15 p.m. is about a young minister and his wife living in a small country community.

The leading actors in the show are, as the minister, William Holden and his wife, Susan Hayward. Sponsors of the weekly shows are the general entertainment committee of the Union. Chairman of the committee is Evelyn Lauritzen and the sponsor is Don Lees.

Joe Sanders from the Chicago Hotel Blackhawk and his orchestra played at the Military Ball in 1937.

FOR A NIGHT 'Holiday Inn' To Novelize Entire Union

The Union will turn into a "Holiday Inn," Tuesday for its annual open house. According to Bob Meehan, chairman of special activities committee, the purpose of this annual Union open house is to give students the opportunity to "see the Union in action."

For the evening, the Union will be decorated to resemble an English Inn around the Christmas season. The Crb will be known as "The Ski Inn" and the name of the Round-Up Room will temporarily be changed to "The Old English Inn."

The Christmas theme will be carried out through decorations throughout the entire Union. Meehan said the entire facilities of the Union will be made available for inspection and use during open house.

In addition to the regular activities of the Union, special activities will also be held during the evening. Jimmy Phillips and his combo will provide music for the special dance which will be held in the ballroom. In addition, Morton the Magician will perform a special magic show.

Movies will also be shown in one of the parlors. Students attending the open house will also have the opportunity to win one of the door prizes which will be drawn during the evening.

The special activities committee of the Union is directing the open tel entitled "The Four Elements" transposes the onlooker to a hill top overlooking a wide valley. Soft clouds of brown surround a picturesque sunset near the center of the picture.

"Forms in Flight," an etching by Miss Spaulding, portrays transparent winged insects in the moonlight.

Each artist has placed a selling price on his work according to his estimation of the value and the nature of technique applied. Prices range from $15 to $300.

Auction Antics

AUCTION LOOT—Purchase of Ira Epstein by the Sigma Alpha Mu pledge class is an example of the buys that may be picked up at the AUF auction in the Union Ballroom Wednesday evening.

Members of the blood and recruiting committee will present reminder skits at each organized house that is donating this month.

The six organized houses are: Kappa Delta, Chi Omega, Alpha Phi, Delta Tau Delta, Phi Gamma Delta, and Brown Palace. Quotas for houses are ten men or five women.

Other houses will be given the opportunity to give during the remainder of the year. The quota for each month is 35 pints.

"The greatest gift of all" is the theme the National Red Cross is using for the month of December. The Christmas gift is a pint of blood for a serviceman.

G. W. Rosenlof Will Speak At Builders Christmas Party

A Christmas party for the Builders Board members and their workers will be held Thursday evening, Dec. 18, at 7 p.m. in Room 315 in the Union. Dr. George W. Rosenlof, Dean of Admissions, will be the featured speaker of the evening. He will discuss plans for workers to visit high school students during Christmas vacation.

High schools in Nebraska have sent in lists of students interested in attending the University next year. These names will be divided among the workers who live in the same home town. Builders officials hope that this personal contact will

Newman Mothers To Elect Officers

Newman Club Mothers will meet Wednesday from 8 to 10 p.m. at the Newman Club to elect officers. Mrs. Meehan, temporary chairman, will preside, and Father Sheehy will speak.

The Newman Club will hold its annual Christmas party at the Knights of Columbus Hall at 14th and K St. Sunday. Those wishing to attend should bring a gift worth 75 cents, which will be given to the orphans at St. Thomas' Orphanage. There will be dancing and refreshments will be served.

Cosmo Club To See Film On Sweden

A film, "Picturesque Sweden and Denmark," will be shown at the meeting of Cosmopolitan Club Wednesday, Room 316, Union at 7:30 p.m.

Miss Esther S. Anderson, assistant professor of geography at the University, a graduate of the University and Clark University at Worcester, Mass., will be the guest speaker. She has traveled extensively in Europe and America and has done a vast amount of work in the U.S. government services.

New Frosh Registrations To Fall Second Semester

According to the Office of the Registrar the number of new freshmen for second semester may be much lighter than the number that registered last year. However there are still many application blanks being sent out and many returning to the office. The number of second semester freshmen and transfer students is still unknown.

The mid-year graduating class will include between 275 and 300 students. These will graduate in January.

BY-LAWS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STUDENT COUNCIL

Article I
Resolution on the Coordination of Student Activities
Section 1. The Student Council may evaluate any student organization to determine whether it is fulfilling its purposes and potentialities.
Section 2. The Student Council may make recommendations and suggest constructive programs to student organizations.
Section 3. The Student Council has the power of selecting delegates or members to special boards and committees. The procedure for making such selections shall be as follows:
a. The right to elect delegates or members shall be open to all eligible students. The time and place for filing of applications shall be published adequately in The Daily Nebraskan.
b. The Student Council, acting as a body, shall have final jurisdiction over such selections.
Article II
Constitutions
Section 1. No student organization shall exist until its constitution is approved by the Student Council.
Section 2. The method of proposing, examining, approving, and filing constitutions of new organizations shall be:
a. Each new constitution shall be presented to the Judiciary Committee in quadruplicate for consideration and recommendation.
b. The new constitution shall be presented to the Student Council by the Judiciary Committee with recommendations for approval or rejection.
c. A constitution which is rejected must be returned to the organization with a specific statement of its deficiencies.
d. After approval by the Student Council, organization constitutions shall be referred to the Faculty Committee on Student Affairs for final discussion.
e. All copies of the finally approved constitution shall be signed by the President of the Student Council. One copy shall be filed in the Student Council office, one returned to the organization, and two copies sent to the Faculty Committee on Student Affairs.
Section 3. All amendments to approved constitutions shall be submitted to the Student Council for approval as outlined in Section 2.
Article III
Student Elections, Demonstrations, and Migration
Section 1. The Student Council shall control rallies and demonstrations, or may designate this authority to other organizations.
Section 2. The Student Council shall select leaders from the student body, or may grant the power to other organizations.
Section 3. The Student Council shall appoint and be responsible for all student missions.
Article IV
Election Rules
Section 1. Special Elections of All-Union
a. The Student Council must approve and must approve special elections.
b. The Student Council may designate other means to furnish additional student help at the polling places for special elections.
c. A faculty member shall be present at the polling place for each special election.
Section 2. The General Election
a. The Elections Committee shall have charge of the general election and shall conduct the election according to the provisions of the Constitution and the By-laws

Rosenlof Stresses Deadline On Trip

Foreign Student Christmas Party Set For Michigan State College

Application deadline set for Wednesday for the 10 day foreign student Christmas Party at Michigan State College was stressed by Dr. G. W. Rosenlof.

Rosenlof, University Foreign Student Adviser, pointed out that efforts are being made to secure funds to aid those students wishing to attend the party who could otherwise not do so.

He urged all interested persons, however, to "be sure and register for the trip before the deadline has expired and to tell the persons in charge of any financial problems so that details can be worked out."

Schedules Now Ready For Students

Second semester class schedules are now available to all students. Business Administration students may obtain pamphlets in Dean Earl Fullbrook's office, 210A Social Science. Ag students may pick up schedules in the office of Dr. Ephriam Hixson, 206 Agricultural Hall. Schedules are available to other students in the Registration and Records office, B-7 Administration Building.

Copies of the schedule will be sent to the Junior Division students by Wednesday. Registration procedure is as follows:

By Wednesday students should have made an appointment with their adviser to fill out a program of studies before Dec. 19. Both copies of the completed worksheet will be left with the adviser.

Registration will be from Jan. 5 to Jan. 9. Students with 27 or more hours will register according to the number of hours completed as of September, 1952. The blackboards at Regent's Bookstore and the Military and Naval Science Building will post numbers announcing time of registration.

Freshman students with 26 hours or less will register according to assignment numbers, which may be picked up at the assignment committee in the Military and Naval Science Building.

Ag Union To Show Movie About Country Minister

"I'd Climb the Highest Mountain," is the title of the weekly show in the Ag Union Saturday evening.

The show slated to begin at 7:15 p.m. is about a young minister and his wife living in a small country community.

Student Disgust . . .

was under investigation, but didn't object to using the book. "I didn't feel that because the IPR was under investigation, we should stop looking at their material. I respected Dr. Anderson for his selection of the book," she said. "The fact that it was an IPR publication made me want to read it all the more."

The book was not pro-Communist in any way, she said. Dr. Anderson was exceptionally fair in his class discussions, she said. "We discussed everything in class," Miss Raymond said. "Dr. Anderson was objective and made quite clear his political leanings. He didn't shy away from anything."

Student Disgust . . .

was under investigation, but didn't object to using the book. "I didn't feel that because the IPR was under investigation, we should stop looking at their material. I respected Dr. Anderson for his selection of the book," she said. "The fact that it was an IPR publication made me want to read it all the more."

The book was not pro-Communist in any way, she said. Dr. Anderson was exceptionally fair in his class discussions, she said. "We discussed everything in class," Miss Raymond said. "Dr. Anderson was objective and made quite clear his political leanings. He didn't shy away from anything."

Student Disgust . . .

was under investigation, but didn't object to using the book. "I didn't feel that because the IPR was under investigation, we should stop looking at their material. I respected Dr. Anderson for his selection of the book," she said. "The fact that it was an IPR publication made me want to read it all the more."

Student Disgust . . .

was under investigation, but didn't object to using the book. "I didn't feel that because the IPR was under investigation, we should stop looking at their material. I respected Dr. Anderson for his selection of the book," she said. "The fact that it was an IPR publication made me want to read it all the more."

Rosenlof Stresses Deadline On Trip

Foreign Student Christmas Party Set For Michigan State College

Application deadline set for Wednesday for the 10 day foreign student Christmas Party at Michigan State College was stressed by Dr. G. W. Rosenlof.

Rosenlof, University Foreign Student Adviser, pointed out that efforts are being made to secure funds to aid those students wishing to attend the party who could otherwise not do so.

Schedules Now Ready For Students

Second semester class schedules are now available to all students. Business Administration students may obtain pamphlets in Dean Earl Fullbrook's office, 210A Social Science. Ag students may pick up schedules in the office of Dr. Ephriam Hixson, 206 Agricultural Hall. Schedules are available to other students in the Registration and Records office, B-7 Administration Building.

Copies of the schedule will be sent to the Junior Division students by Wednesday. Registration procedure is as follows:

By Wednesday students should have made an appointment with their adviser to fill out a program of studies before Dec. 19. Both copies of the completed worksheet will be left with the adviser.

Registration will be from Jan. 5 to Jan. 9. Students with 27 or more hours will register according to the number of hours completed as of September, 1952. The blackboards at Regent's Bookstore and the Military and Naval Science Building will post numbers announcing time of registration.

Freshman students with 26 hours or less will register according to assignment numbers, which may be picked up at the assignment committee in the Military and Naval Science Building.

Ag Union To Show Movie About Country Minister

"I'd Climb the Highest Mountain," is the title of the weekly show in the Ag Union Saturday evening.

The show slated to begin at 7:15 p.m. is about a young minister and his wife living in a small country community.

Student Disgust . . .

was under investigation, but didn't object to using the book. "I didn't feel that because the IPR was under investigation, we should stop looking at their material. I respected Dr. Anderson for his selection of the book," she said. "The fact that it was an IPR publication made me want to read it all the more."

The book was not pro-Communist in any way, she said. Dr. Anderson was exceptionally fair in his class discussions, she said. "We discussed everything in class," Miss Raymond said. "Dr. Anderson was objective and made quite clear his political leanings. He didn't shy away from anything."

Student Disgust . . .

was under investigation, but didn't object to using the book. "I didn't feel that because the IPR was under investigation, we should stop looking at their material. I respected Dr. Anderson for his selection of the book," she said. "The fact that it was an IPR publication made me want to read it all the more."

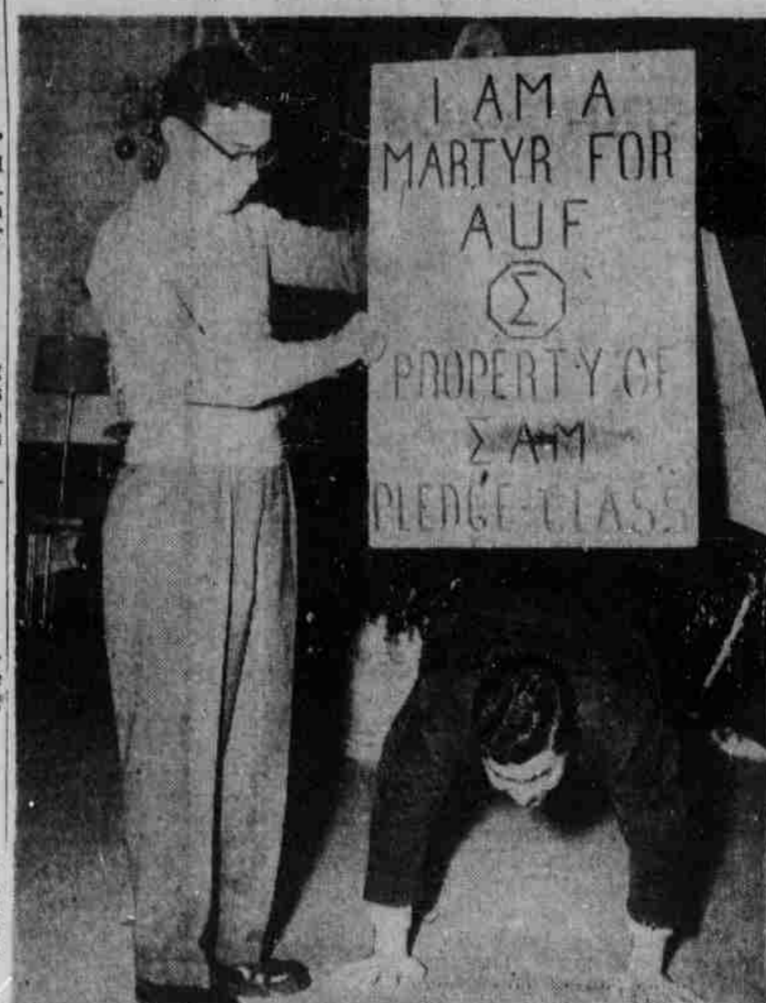

The book was not pro-Communist in any way, she said. Dr. Anderson was exceptionally fair in his class discussions, she said. "We discussed everything in class," Miss Raymond said. "Dr. Anderson was objective and made quite clear his political leanings. He didn't shy away from anything."

Student Disgust . . .

was under investigation, but didn't object to using the book. "I didn't feel that because the IPR was under investigation, we should stop looking at their material. I respected Dr. Anderson for his selection of the book," she said. "The fact that it was an IPR publication made me want to read it all the more."

Student Disgust . . .

was under investigation, but didn't object to using the book. "I didn't feel that because the IPR was under investigation, we should stop looking at their material. I respected Dr. Anderson for his selection of the book," she said. "The fact that it was an IPR publication made me want to read it all the more."

AUCTION LOOT—Purchase of Ira Epstein by the Sigma Alpha Mu pledge class is an example of the buys that may be picked up at the AUF auction in the Union Ballroom Wednesday evening.

G. W. Rosenlof Will Speak At Builders Christmas Party

A Christmas party for the Builders Board members and their workers will be held Thursday evening, Dec. 18, at 7 p.m. in Room 315 in the Union. Dr. George W. Rosenlof, Dean of Admissions, will be the featured speaker of the evening. He will discuss plans for workers to visit high school students during Christmas vacation.

High schools in Nebraska have sent in lists of students interested in attending the University next year. These names will be divided among the workers who live in the same home town. Builders officials hope that this personal contact will

Newman Mothers To Elect Officers

Newman Club Mothers will meet Wednesday from 8 to 10 p.m. at the Newman Club to elect officers. Mrs. Meehan, temporary chairman, will preside, and Father Sheehy will speak.

The Newman Club will hold its annual Christmas party at the Knights of Columbus Hall at 14th and K St. Sunday. Those wishing to attend should bring a gift worth 75 cents, which will be given to the orphans at St. Thomas' Orphanage. There will be dancing and refreshments will be served.

Cosmo Club To See Film On Sweden

A film, "Picturesque Sweden and Denmark," will be shown at the meeting of Cosmopolitan Club Wednesday, Room 316, Union at 7:30 p.m.

Miss Esther S. Anderson, assistant professor of geography at the University, a graduate of the University and Clark University at Worcester, Mass., will be the guest speaker. She has traveled extensively in Europe and America and has done a vast amount of work in the U.S. government services.

New Frosh Registrations To Fall Second Semester

According to the Office of the Registrar the number of new freshmen for second semester may be much lighter than the number that registered last year. However there are still many application blanks being sent out and many returning to the office. The number of second semester freshmen and transfer students is still unknown.

The mid-year graduating class will include between 275 and 300 students. These will graduate in January.

LIPSTICK HELPS Bacteriologist Sanctions Kissing As Relatively Harmless Pastime

most none to 250, which ought to fit in the empire class. The names of the kissing scientific assistants were not disclosed. This detracted somewhat from the interest of the study. Several years ago Life magazine ran the story of such a study done on a college campus. The results were much the same, but the pictures of the contributors were run beside the magnified reproduction of their kisses. Tough on date rating maybe, but seemingly enlightening to fellow students.

The germs which are transferred by a goodnight kiss may look like prehistoric monsters in a magnified photograph, but they are seldom fatal, according to Bryan.

The results of the study seem to indicate that a kiss is less dangerous for a man if his date is wearing fresh lipstick. Perhaps this indication will cut down the gripes from the males on campus over the amount of time it takes their dates to get ready—the amount of time the ladies spend behind the door marked same. After all, she may be putting on fresh lipstick just for him.

According to Bryan, a goodnight kiss is safer if you and your date come home just before the deadline. A two-second kiss is much safer from a standpoint of the number of germs it spreads than the 10 second Hollywood variety. Getting down to figures, the Hollywood type spreads twice as many germs. The kiss, however, is five times as long, therefore you can figure out for yourself the price you pay in danger proportionately.

At last someone beside nine out of every ten doctors has come up with something favorable to say about cigarettes. The bacteriologist found that his study revealed a lesser transfer of germs by kissing when participants had been smoking recently. This proved particularly true if the lips were dry. Dry lips seem to give a much purer kiss than moist.

Beer drinking seems to raise the germ count, but the drinking of hard liquor seems to lower it. On these grounds of the survey, Bryan declines to make a comment on the effect of drinking.

The following result of the survey might be a warning to all newlyweds not to kiss wife or husband by good morning. The germ count of kissing is high when you get up in the morning, but is lowered after you wash your face and brush your teeth.

The toothpaste ads you have been reading may be true after all. The survey seems to indicate that bad breath means a high germ count. However, the survey has not yet been seized upon for advertising purposes.

A kiss of death may result if the object of your affection has diphtheria, acute tuberculosis, scarlet fever or strep throat. The survey does not give instructions on how to detect such persons, unless there is a sign on the house.

The study contains many variables, which also affect kissing. Among them are air, temperature, season, altitude, food and other conditions.

The release of the information contained in this study may or may not have been timed to coincide with the season of kissing legalized by the custom of mistletoe. Legend says that the goddess of mistletoe has decreed that each kiss given under the mistletoe must be paid for by a berry from that branch of mistletoe. Perhaps it is comforting to know that it is unlikely that doctor bills will be added to the price of a kiss.

NOW

IS THE TIME TO FIND THAT RIDE HOME FOR CHRISTMAS VACATION

The easiest way to find a ride home is to advertise in the DAILY NEBRASKAN classifieds section. Rates are low and results are great! Phone, wire, or come down to the Daily Nebraskan Business Office for Classified Service—Room 20, Student Union. Phone 2-7631, extensions 4225, 4226, or 4227.