

Three NU Teams On Trip West

Three Nebraska varsity squads will head west Thursday for a sports eventful tour through Colorado.

Holding five victories in six starts, Coach Al Partin's Husker grapplers hope to build up their respectable record in a couple of dual meets this weekend. They encounter Colorado State at Greeley Friday and the University of Colorado at Boulder Saturday night.

Darrell Adamson, 130-pound senior from Cherokee, Ia., is undefeated in his six matches. Don Bean, 123-pounder, Charley Bryant, 167 and heavyweight Ed Husmann have won five and lost one.

The wrestlers' record to date: Nebraska 17, South Dakota 11, Nebraska 27, Grinnell 3, Nebraska 21, Minnesota Teachers (Mankato) 10, Nebraska 11, Iowa State 18, Nebraska 19, Wisconsin 13, Nebraska 14, Cornell (Ia.) 13.

Records of the squad members who will make the western trip:

Name	W	L	T
Don Bean	5	0	1
Charley Bryant	5	0	1
Lawrence Gull	1	1	1
Ed Husmann	5	0	1
Perry Lettel	4	1	1

Gymnasts To Defend Undefeated Record

The undefeated gymnastics team will engage Colorado State Teachers at Greeley Friday and the University of Colorado Saturday in dual meets.

Coach J. G. (Jake) Geier's NU gymnasts have a dual meet victory over Kansas State and a triangular win over K-State and North Dakota. "We will face our toughest test at Colorado State," Coach Geier said.

Captain Tom Kidd, who competes in the sidehorse, horizontal bars, parallel bars and rings, was the leading Cornhusker scorer in 1952. Three other lettermen listed on the travel squad are Max Kennedy, tumbling and trampoline; Danny Fogel, horizontal bars, parallel bars, rings and tumbling; and Don Hodge, tumbling and trampoline.

Other squad members to make the trip are Ray Fallstead, recent junior college transfer, Dick Raecke, Bert Linn and Chuck Sprague.

Mermen Need Rebound From 1-3 Season Mark

The Husker swimmers, who seek to improve their record of one win against three losses, meet Colorado A. & M. at Ft. Collins Friday and the University of Colorado Saturday in a Big Seven dual.

The Cornhusker tankmen hold a win over Kansas and losses to Grinnell, Oklahoma and Kansas. Coach Web Emery will take a squad of 12 on the junket.

- The squad entries:
- 100-yard medley relay—Lloyd Reed, Dick Hildek, Jerry Deason.
 - 200-yard freestyle—Calvin Dent, Jack Trubert.
 - 50-yard freestyle—Dave Gradwohl, Jack Greer.
 - 150-yard individual medley—Gordon Peterson, Hildek.
 - 100-yard breaststroke—Jim Farris.
 - 100-yard freestyle—Gradwohl, Gradwohl.
 - 200-yard backstroke—Reed, Pat Healey.
 - 200-yard breaststroke—Hildek; Bob Sandiford.
 - 440-yard freestyle—Bentz, Greer.
 - 400-yard freestyle relay—Trubert, Gradwohl, Peterson, Deason.

Huskers Face KU Next

Coach Harry Good's Nebraska cagers, who stunned Kansas State last Saturday, but absorbed defeat at the hands of Colorado Monday, are still in line for an upper division placement in the Big Seven race.

The Huskers must defeat the Kansas Jayhawkers, current conference leaders, at Lawrence Saturday in order to hold their present fourth place rating. The KU team has been unmarred in league play on its home court for two years.

The Cornhuskers play their next two games on the road, so must overcome the visiting team jinx which has established itself in the conference this season.

Big 7 Lead Tightens As Hawks Win

Coach Phog Allen's surprising Kansas University basketballers revamped the Big Seven outlook by defeating the Oklahoma Sooners on their home court Tuesday night.

The Jayhawkers, defending a long record of home victories, take over first place in the conference with their 87-59 romp over the Oklahoma Sooners. Kansas now has a 5-2 record, as compared to the Sooners' 3-2 slate.

Coach Harry Good's Cornhuskers face the Jayhawkers at Lawrence Saturday. The Scarlet is currently lodged in a tie with Colorado for fourth and fifth in conference standings, behind Oklahoma and the K-State Wildcats, who both own 3-2 league records.

The Cornhuskers play their next two games on the road, so must overcome the visiting team jinx which has established itself in the conference this season.

Davey-Gavilan Fight Tonight

National sports followers will direct their interest to the Davey-Gavilan world championship welterweight bout Wednesday night, when champion Kid Gavilan of Cuba takes the favorite's role in his defense of the crown against Chuck Davey, undefeated young pro sensation.

Davey, holder of a Master of Arts from Michigan State, challenges the bolo-punching champ as a definite underdog.

Gavilan will receive 40 per cent of the net gate, and Davey 20 per cent in their tangle in Chicago Stadium. International Boxing Commission officials are expecting a gate of $253,000.

Knostman Peps Wildcat Win

The Kansas State Wildcats, pre-season Big Seven tournament champions and favorite to win the conference title, shellacked Iowa State, 74-64, Monday night at Ames to climb into third place in the Big Seven Conference race.

Dick Knostman, lanky Cat pivot, his 31 points to lead the winners. His scoring efforts beat Colorado's Art Bunte's record of 29 points against the Cyclones, made last Saturday night.

After building up a 14-point halftime margin, the Cyclones pulled within four points of the lead by the end of the third quarter, and tied the game at 55-all early in the final cante.

IM Three-Man Table Tennis Begins Monday

Team table tennis, which has been absent from the University intramural roster for three years, will again be in progress Monday.

Three-man ping pong matches will be held this year. An official intramural trophy will be awarded to the All-University championship team, and merit certificates also will be given to members of the winning team.

Each team is instructed to submit a roster of the three team members plus five alternate members. One organization may have only two teams.

Entries are due at room 102 of the Physical Education building not later than Friday, Feb. 13.

Pairings will be posted on the intramural bulletin board Monday, Feb. 16. All players should see their pairings at once.

The matches will be held in the Coliseum basement.

Phi Psi's Lead U Ratings; Independents Dominate

By BILL MUNDELL

Intramural Sports Columnist

The men from Phi Kappa Psi hold down three of the four top intramural basketball ratings this week as the ratings continue their regular shakeup, quite common in this year of hectic play and upsets. The Phi Psi "A" and "B" teams take over the leadership of three divisions in a week that sees the Independent cage teams taking over the All-University ratings.

The Phi Psi "Ayes" continue as the number one team in the All-U and Fraternity "A" ratings while the "Bees" once more claim the top spot in the jumbled fraternity "B" listings.

The senior Phi Psi's racked up wins number six and seven since the last ratings to keep their record unblemished and the top won-lost mark in current competition. Alpha Gamma Rho and Phi Delta Theta felt the leaders' power in those two outings and dropped decisive decisions.

Sigma Phi Epsilon, last year's All-U runnerup, holds the second-ranking rung of the top-ten ladder this week. The Sig Eps are undefeated in five outings and last week crushed defending champion, Sigma Alpha Epsilon. The Sig Eps have a long road ahead of them, however, as two postponements force them into seven games the next three weeks.

The Ramblers take over the third ranking spot this week. Unbeaten in five starts, the Ramblers disposed of the rugged Rocketts for the second time last week. In climbing from fifth in the All-U rankings, the Ramblers also take over the top Independent spot, replacing the Pansies.

The Pansies drop from second to fourth in the All-U listings this week and from first to second in the Independent ratings. Although unbeaten in six contests, the Pansie victory last week was a forfeit from Heavy Manor and they lost ground to the impressive Ramblers.

Sigma Chi, although winning a pair last week, drop from fourth to fifth this week to make room for the onrushing Ramblers included in the list of Sig victims last week were Sigma Nu and Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

The Lutheran Student Association makes a big jump this week from ninth to sixth. Since the last ratings, the Lutherans disposed of strong Newman Club and the Methodist Student House to run their season record to 6-0. Pioneer House also makes a gain this week. Seventh this week from eighth in the last ratings, the Pioneers chalked up win number six over Delta Sigma Phi last week.

Nebraska Co-op, absent for a couple of weeks, reappears in the number eight post. The Co-ops turned the victory trick for the fifth time in six games last week by overcoming an improving Que Ball outfit.

Two newcomers make their first appearance this week in the ninth and tenth spots. The Sophomore Dents, winners of six straight gain ninth and the Rocketts, double losers only to the Ramblers gain tenth.

Last time's top-ranking fraternity "B" aggregation, Phi Gamma Delta, took it on the chin from Alpha Tau Omega "B" last week and topple from first to third this week. Unbeaten Phi Kappa Psi "B" and Farm House "B" took advantage of the Wee! Fiji slump and gain a rung each and take over the top two positions.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon, third last week, drop entirely out of the standings as they were handed a pair of losses. The Phi Gam and Sig Alph slump hurt the remainder of the league V outfits and they dropped accordingly. Sigma Chi, although winning their fourth in six starts, drop from fifth to sixth and Delta Tau Delta barely manages to hang on at ninth.

Alpha Gamma Rho and Delta Upsilon used the league V slump to climb from seventh and eighth to fourth and fifth, respectively. The Aggies have lost to the Phi Psi's and Phi Delta juniors while DU's have lost only to the Farm House aggregation.

Beta Sigma Psi split a pair of contest and drops from sixth to seventh while Phi Delta Theta, winner over Alpha Gamma Rho, gains the tenth spot. Sigma Phi Epsilon replaces the Sig Alph juniors in this week's ratings, ebbing the SAE's and gaining eighth place.

Independent ratings also suffered a new shakeup. With the Ramblers and Pansies exchanging the first two positions and Nebraska Co-op and Dental Sophomores climbing from sixth and seventh to the fourth and fifth spots, the Rocketts jumped two rungs to sixth.

The Hoopsters dropped from third to seventh this week on the heels of their shellacking at the hands of the Mustangs while Heavy Manor's forfeit to the Pansies dropped them from the ratings entirely.

The Phalanx, idle last week, hold ninth place while the Methodist Student House make their first appearance of the year in tenth on the strength of their showing against the Lutherans and their victory over Presby House.

Holdrege "A", fifth last week, Alpha Gamma Rho and Delta Upsilon used the league V slump to climb from seventh and eighth to fourth and fifth, respectively. The Aggies have lost to the Phi Psi's and Phi Delta juniors while DU's have lost only to the Farm House aggregation.

Beta Sigma Psi split a pair of contest and drops from sixth to seventh while Phi Delta Theta, winner over Alpha Gamma Rho, gains the tenth spot. Sigma Phi Epsilon replaces the Sig Alph juniors in this week's ratings, ebbing the SAE's and gaining eighth place.
