Page 4

E-WEEK

Smorgasbord Sales Begin

Tickets for the banquet which and demonstrations in the fields will climax Engineer's Week May of agricultural, architectural, 1 are now on sale, Mac Bailey, chemical, civil, electrical and chairman of the banquet commitmechanical engineering and entee, announced today. The banquet will be a smorgas- gineering mechanics, is open with-

lowed by awards for E-Week displays and a dance with music by were the chemical engineers with

Bailey said that tickets may be purchased from any engineering students for $2 students for $2

More than 10,000 Nebraskans the complete production line il-lustrating the commercial producto 5:30 p.m. and 7 to 10 p.m.

ROTC Units

Plan Parade

a joint parade.

review the parade.

during the parade.

Morale and Esprit de Corps.

Science

Dean

are expected to witness the dis-plays of the 58th annual Engin-cers Open House April 30, from 2 Gene Lightner and Jack Frost

The show including displays are in charge of the display. The electrical engineers' display will consist of transmitting music across a room on a beam of light which can be turned off by the wave of anything which will intercept the beam. Jim Estis is in charge of this display,

On Wednesday Army and Air Force ROTC In addition, the electrical en-gineers will present their example of the transistor which may revo-lutionize the radio industry. Jim units will stage their first com- Boomer is in charge of experiunits will stage their first come bined parade of the semester Wednesday, as rehearsal in pre-paring for a parade next week. Gov. Robert Crosby and the Nebraska legislature will be hon-pared in next week's parade when ored in next week's parade when the Navy ROTC combines with the Army and Air Force to stage The mechanical engineer and the feature a model power plant with Admiral Francis P. Old, Com-mandant of the Ninth District will switchboard. The apparatus will run a large motor which will be Awards for the outstanding dissipating power in a centrifugal midshipmen will be presented pump. It will be shown in operation for the first time this year Receiving these awards are; under the supervision of Bob Andrew Paul Boris, graduating at Cook and Warren Andrews.

the head of his class in Naval The mechanical engineers will Louis Jackson Keester, midship-temperature field, making hammen from the state of Nebraska mers out of liquid mercury, standing highest in Naval Science freezing a rubber ball so hard it course; Robert John Peters, the will shatter when bounced and midshipman graduating at the freezing prestone. In charge are head of the Marine Corps class: Wilmer Hergenrader, Al Tilotson Allen Hanna Michelet, out-standing aptitude; Dan Gilbert The civil engineers will display standing aptitude; Dan Gilbert Switzer, contributing the most to Morale and Esprit de Corps Thurman Buckingham, viaduct, which will be 16 feet lass midshipman display-

Today our way of life is chal-

Freshman Coeds Honored

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

OUTSTANDING WOMEN SCHOLARS . . . Twenty-seven fresh-men women were initiated into Alpha Lambda Delta, national hon-orary scholastic fraternity, for outstanding first semester scholastic achievement. A 7.5 average is necessary for membership in the honorary. In the upper picture (from left, first row) are: Ann Yorkheite for the scholastic Albieve Albieve Landt Lind Yeakley. Atlanta, Ga.; Joyce Splittgerber, Albion; Janet Lindquist, Funk; Diane Whitaker, Cambridge; Shirley Pollock, Atlantic, Ia.: (second row) Jean Barrett, Columbus: Jeanne Greving, Central City; Chloryce Ode, Sioux City, Ia.: Vivian Boland, Bloom-field; (third row) Vivian Lemmer, Atkinson; Denita Brehm, Harvard: Eleanor Von Bargen. Alliance, and Patricia Morgan, Elmwood. The lower picture shows: (first row) Sara Whitlock, Lincoln: Phyllis Cast. Lincoln: Roma Jean Miller, Lincoln: Sharon Mangold, Bennington: (second row) Janice Carman, Omaha; Elizabeth Templeton, Omaha; Suzanne Good, Lincoln; (third row) Barbara Schmoker, Lincoln; Shirley Dewey, Lincoln; Janice Yost, Milford: Cathryn Olds, Omaha; (fourth row) Jane Laase, Lincoln; Mary Domingo. Weeping Water, and Cynthia Henderson, Lincoln.

Dean Thurman Buckingham, Junior class midshipman display-ing outstanding proficiency in nan displaying outstanding proficiency in man displaying outstanding proficiency in nan displaying outstanding proficiency in nan displaying outstanding proficiency in the trainyards Bob Peterson man displaying outstanding pro-ficiency in Naval weapons and Jemes Llewellyn Thorson, fresh-Tan midshipman displaying out-is to give students of the open house rtan midshipman displaying out- is to give students of pre-college it is hoped that the program can photographic production service. Fowler said, and will be better stanting proficiency in Naval age an opportunity to see what become an annual affair. Will show a series of pictures than the old. The new insulation has some the field of engineering involves Employees who have been with compiled.

-DAILY NEBRASKAN LITERARY SECTION-Student Theme On Morals And Morons

atribution to be printed askan's new policy. This a for an English class and,

By DICK COFFEY

Feature Editor

Nebraskan Monday and he called Grounds, was contacted by The winter."

advantages over the old insula-tion, Fowler said. First, it will Minnesota.

"Is it a telescope?"

a telescope

it a gin pull.

Every Wednesdar we will user to original student of association; better of the back asse to original student of participants.
What is the right attitude to-duestion of Morality or Moronity."
By BARRY LARSON
"Is this Mrs, Stimson?" a voice side are is gradily of accusing people of being Communists because they may have supported some cause, how have supported some cause, how we were worthy, which Communist trategy also may have decided to support? We should be able, as sane and intelligent Americans, is sand anyway, you don't know me. Were you at some kind of a missionary meeting this week where a man named Tyler spoke? You know he's one of the Robes on crowd and is working for the passage of this bill that's coming up Monday in Lincoln. A carload of women are going down to protest. . . The Negro situation here of women are going down to pro-test... The Negro situation here in Omaha is very, very bad I know, because I am secretary for a very large firm here and can tell belo our source mouth our country to a very large firm here and can tell belo our source mouth our country to a very large firm here and can tell belo our source mouth our country to a very large firm here and can tell belo our source mouth our country to a very large firm here and can tell belo our source we must know, because I am secretary for a solution here in our country to a very large firm here and can tell you all about it. We understand that Dundee Church is interested in Tyler's church. Some of the things they are doing at Hillside Church are very fine, but a lot of the interest of Dundee Church in Hillside. This is one of the most in committee. This wasn't the first is need to be investigated. I want to find out who is responsible for the interest of Dundee Church in Hillside. This is one of the most in committee. This wasn't the first in committee the people who do their best toward this end. The way to combat all this is give your active support to better inter-racial re-lations. Let's try to understand one another better and build a important issues and if you don't time that this has happened. The have time to talk and aren't in-terested, we'll find out more about you! "Bang went the receiver you! "Bang went the receiver tion. Senator Lehman of New This is a true exerpt reprinted York presented a similar bill and from the Dundee Newscaster, a it was killed. The same thing is community Church publication in going on today in Congress, and West Omaha. The incident de- what are we doing to help? How

After much student discussion the cost of cooling the library.

scribed above requires careful in-vestigation and straight thinking. can we combat this germ of race discrimination with people like Analyzing this situation, I am go-ling to try and bring out three points; guilt by association; better inter-racial relations; investigation of participants

Wednesday, April 22, 1953

NUBB WEDNESDAY

Film society meeting at Esquire

Dr. George Kuriyan, University of Madras geography professor, lecture at 7:30, Union Faculty Lounge.

iorating, Fowler said, and it will add to the comfort and save on the cost of cooling the library. Versity Professors meeting at 6 p.m., Union Ballroom. Employee Dinner at 6:30 p.m.,

Red Cross Senior Life Saving a telescope. Charles F. Fowler, director of take the heat out in the summer the Division of Buildings and than it takes to heat it in the ling at 7:0 p.m., Temple Bidg.,

> The new insulation also makes Entries Due for first annual NU it easier to heat in the winter, cowboy and cowgirl by 6 p.m.; contact Charles Carothers, Ag

> > THURSDAY Tri-K Club meeting at 7:30, p.m., Agronomy Bldg., Room 206.

In the process of repairing the flat roof of the library over the stacks, the gin pull is used in hauling new and old material up and down the roof, Fowler said. When the weather is suitable for re-roofing Fowler said the YEARS, IF YOU HAVE Canoe Trips into Quetico-Superior wilderness SIXTY L. A. CREDITS Fowler said, and will be better than the old. The new insulation has some advantages over the old insula-In three college years, you can prepare for the attractive profession of optometry, if you have a minimum of sixty required Liberal Arts credits.

theater, showing "Orphus." Craft shop at 7 p.m. Union. Gin Pull On Love Library Root Called Telescope By Students books to keep them from dete- American Association of Uni-around campus, the device on the "The cost of cooling is much Union Ballroom roof of Love Library was called higher than the cost of heating. Red Cross Se Room 203.

The original roof had a 20 year Campus.

Excerpts From Cherrington's Speech

scholarship. You have demon- only as his mind and his will are technology and high standard of living enjoyed by the West strated intellectual courage in seeking the truth and following wherever it may lead. I give you as a symbol of this quality the motto of my most favored profes-sor in undergraduate days, "Truth though it sear the eveball." You have demonstrated self-discipline held yourself to the task at hand and resisted the temptation to weary in well doing.

weary in well doing.

weary in well doing. You have achieved self-could dence tempered by the true hu-mility that characterizes all schol-ars as they become increasingly aware of their own inadequacies. You have developed faith, for you have found a cosmos whose order-liness and dependability validates the highest idealism. You are men and women of character deter-mined to dedicate your talents to serve your fellow men. No one, today, can forsee what your specific vocation or profes-sional career will be, but we can predict with certainty that if you continue to manifest these quality the common man and that it will continue to fail. Freedom and justice can never be recon-ciled it asserts. But the lesson of the failure of the West certainly is not that we should displease with freedom. The Communists charge rests upon a faise view of the nature of freedom. A low estimate of man or indifference to his wel-fare is not a concomitant of free-dom—on the contrary, as we have predict with certainty that if you continue to manifest these quali-said the freedom we cherish arises from our belief in the supreme brought you the distinction of this have from our belief in the supreme worth of man.

hour, there is for each of you an exciting and rewarding career of great satisfaction to yourself and wide usefulness to society.

This is what they said to us in the class of 1911, and it was true—every word of it. The men and women who showed these qualities in that student genera-tion have lived lives of service and distinction and distinction. What they said to us then is First, this University and indeed equally valid today, and I com- all universities will need you as mend you for having achieved the champion and interpreter of mend you for having achieved these qualities and I urge you to adhere to them through all your days.

 But, these qualities, essential as they are, are not enough in the your of today, for it is profoundly different from the world we confronted four decades ago. If your ives are not to be frustrated you must bring all your attributes of the scholar into focus upon the supreme issue today.
 That issue as I see it is the question of ends and means about this problem you will need absolutely clear judgement. Let

About this problem you will need absolutely clear judgement. Let us ask how this issue emerged as the dominant issue of our time and how it manifests itself in our contemporary world rary world.

contemporary world. At the heart of our western culture is the conception of the priceless worth of the individual. a conception r unning back through the ages with its roots in a conception running back through the ages with its roots in the teachings of the Old Testa-ment prophets, the life and teach-ing of the man of Galilee, a con-ception to which Greek culture, Roman civilization, the Rennais-sance, all made their contribu-tion. But this concept of the supreme values of the individual is not the unique achievement of our west-achievement of our west- is a titanic struggle. On the tech-

The following remarks are excerpts from the address given by Dr. Ben M. Cherrington at the Honors Conversion Tree.

by Dr. Ben M. Cherrington at has to offer the world has come munism but it is not on this level for and f an covered the central purpose of a university and made it on your own. The qualities you have exhibited are passports to the distinguished fellowship of men and women of learning of all ages. You have demonstrated the qualities of an insatiable hunger to know; the first requirement of scholarship. You have demon-

Members of the class of 1911, I It is the discovery that miracles congratulate you! You have dis- happen when the minds and wills covered the central purpose of a of all men are set free. The material advantages which they full realization of that which they material advantages which they full realization of the which they

Mother's Day Cards A Really-Nice Selection

Goldenrod Stationey Store 215 North 14th Street

CESSNA AIRCRAFT America's Leading Producer of Business and Personal Airplanes

has

OPPORTUNITIES

for

AERONAUTICAL ELECTRICAL MECHANICAL ELECTRONICS INDUSTRIAL

ENGINEERS

with ideas & initiative for

DEVELOPMENT & DESIGN

 Diversified line of light commercial airplanes Helicopters

of

Military Liaison Aircraft

Military Jet Aircraft

· CIVIL

OPENINGS FOR RECENT GRADUATES INCLUDE:

ticians

Analysts

Aerodynamicists	Mathema
Designers	Physicists
Structural Specialists	Vibration

WRITE

EMPLOYMENT MANAGER

AIRCRAFT 5800 East Pawnee

Wichita, Kansas

"You'll like working at Cessna -ask any Cessna employee"

The same of the second s it willes it V