

HUSKER FIELD EVENTS STRONG

Missouri Cinder Squad Nips NU In Dual Carnival, 66-65

By GARY FRANDSEN Sports Staff Writer

Ed Weir's Nebraska track and field squad almost sneaked into the victor's column Saturday, but the visiting Missouri Tigers captured the final event, the mile relay, thereby squeezing out a shaky 66-65 triumph.

heaved the shot 49' 7/8". Both boys had been previously hampered with injuries.

Other Husker winner included Charles Hunley, Cliff Dale, Jim Sommers, Jim Hofstetter and Ray Kelley. Hunley continued to win in the javelin as he soared the spear 170' 1/2" while Dale hurled the discus 143' 11 1/2".

Sommers and Hofstetter each vaulted 13 feet, but had to settle for a three-way tie as Missouri's Frank Dickey also went the height. Kelley and Missouri's Kenneth Hirshey each leaped 6' 2" to tie in the high jump.

Adam Fischer, Tiger sprinter, was the only double winner in the meet. The Missouri speedster raced to wins in both the 100 and 200-yard dashes. Fischer roared to a 9.8 win in the former and covered the latter in :23.7.

Nebraska's last chance for an outdoor win was Wednesday when the Huskers journey to Manhattan, Kan. for a dual with Kansas State. The Wildcats whipped the Huskers during the indoor campaign.

The only track victory by Nebraska this year was the early February win over Colorado and North Dakota in an indoor triangular. Since then the Huskers have been starving for a track victory.

Four NU Teams Vie

Four Cornhusker athletic teams are slated for action this week. The Baseball team, which met K-State Monday and plays the Wildcats again on Tuesday, makes the only home appearance by a Husker squad. Gametime Tuesday is 3 p.m.

In other events, the Track team holds a dual meet at Kansas State Wednesday, the golfers and tennis men travel to Omaha University Wednesday. On Friday and Saturday the diamondmen travel to Colorado to play a two-game series with the Buffs.

NU Baseballers Win Hectic Contest, 9-7

Hofmaier Fans Fifteen K-Staters

Table with 2 columns: Team, Wins/Losses. Missouri 7-2-778, Oklahoma 5-2-714, Nebraska 6-3-667, Iowa State 2-1-667, Colorado 1-2-333, Kansas 2-5-286, Kansas State 1-9-100.

Although errors by both the Nebraska and Kansas State baseball teams produced hectic play Monday, Coach Tony Sharpe's Cornhuskers kept alive their hopes for winning the Big Seven championship by outscoring the Wildcats, 9-7, on the Nebraska diamond.

The Scarlet team now holds a 6-3 conference mark. The two teams battle again Tuesday in the second game of the twin bill. Fran Hofmaier handled the pitching chores for the Nebraska team for the entire game, fanning 15 batters while allowing eight hits. Errors by NU teammates kept the left-hander busy.

The Huskers jumped to an early lead, hitting Wildcat starter Sak Stone regularly. At the end of the first five frames, the Cornhuskers had gained a comfortable 7-1 edge over the K-Staters.

Jerry Dun, veteran NU outfielder, and Virgil Gottsch, third baseman, led the Huskers in the hitting department, getting five of the NU collection of 10 hits. Dunn planned three hits for four, including one homer, and Gottsch hit two for five while driving home one run. Dunn knocked in three runs.

The Husker lead vanished in the K-State sixth when two NU errors coupled with some belated Wildcat hits to produce a six-run inning and tie the count, 7-7, going into the last half of the sixth.

The Huskers came back in their half of the inning, scoring two runs with no hits, by capitalizing on K-State miscues.

It was the second win of the year registered by Hofmaier. Three Nebraskans were shelved Monday and unavailable for action against the Cats. Ray Novak, regular first baseman and star hurler for the NU nine, has a sore shoulder but is expected to see action in Tuesday's contest.

Cal Helme, first baseman, and outfielder Don Becker were out with virus attacks, but should also return Tuesday.

With both first basemen out, Coach Sharpe used hurler Pat Mallette at the gateway sack.

The box score: Nebraska 9, K-State 7. Includes individual player stats for runs, hits, errors, and bases on balls.

Coco's, Taus, Phi, Psi's, Sig Nu's Win Intramural Softball Playoff Meets

Three Division Championship Races Narrow

By BILL MUDELL Intramural Sports Columnist

Five for five was intramural softball's batting average against the weather last week as all five scheduled days of the sudden-death tournaments were completed in full. Seven more days remain with contests scheduled as the field narrows towards the three champions-to-be.

Highlighting the weekend activity was another no-hit, no-run pitching performance, the third thus far in the tournaments and the fourth this year.

Cornhusker Co-op, 1950-All-University champion, eliminated strong Phi Delta Theta from this year's contention by a 6-0 tally behind the no-hit hurling of Stu Nelson. Nelson stoutly joins Rich Jiskra of the Ag Men and Bob Brittin of Phi Kappa Psi in the elite ranks of tournament pitchers, both of whom hurled their masterpieces last Wednesday. Arnie Boich of Practical Arts has a no-hitter to his credit during the regular season struggles. All four performances were regulation six-inning contests.

Co-op Hurler Stars Nelson was in complete control in Thursday's clash. He faced a total of 23 men with five Phi Deltas getting as far as first base, four on walks. He sent 10 batters down swinging and contributed to his own cause by driving in two runs with a single in the second inning.

Only once did the Phi Deltas threaten. With one gone in the last of the sixth Joe Carter walked and after Jim Oliver popped up, Korisko drew another base on balls. An error on Coco's third-sacker loaded the bases but Nelson ended the game by forcing Post to ground out.

Meanwhile the winners were reaching Phi Delta Hurler Fisher for seven safeties, three in a four-run second inning. Third-baseman Stuckenholz led the Cocos at the plate with two for three while Harry Wray contributed a fourth-inning home run.

ATO's Win, 8-4 In the feature contest Friday Alpha Tau Omega remained in the running for the titles as they defeated Kappa Sigma, 8-4, behind the two-hit hurling of Ken Kunes.

The Taus erupted for four unearned runs in the fourth stanza to break up a close contest and a 4-2 Kappa Sig lead. Three errors contributed to the downfall of the Kappa Sigs in that frame as the Taus used them to good advantage by coupling them with three hits, including two doubles by Gene Cotter and Bob Oakes.

Although limiting the losers to but two safeties, Kunes kept himself continually in hot water by issuing nine bases on balls. The fast-ball artist continually pulled out of it, however, with seven strikeouts and two fielding gems by Cotter.

The ATO's found Bob Wagner, KS hurler, for ten hits. Oakes led the winners at the plate with three for four while Cotter and Bill Weber each collected a pair of safeties. O'Brien's triple and Otte's single were the only bingles off of Kunes.

Phi Psis Beat Deltas A new All-University champion was certain Friday as Phi Kappa Psi outscored Delta Tau Delta, 13-4. Duane Rankin twirled a four-hitter for the winners, who seem to be abundant in good pitching. Rankin was off to a rough start Friday, however, as the Deltas jumped on him for a single run in the first and three more in the second to take an early 4-0 lead. The winners finally broke into the scoring column in their half of the second as Bob Brittin led off with a homer to left.

It was the inspiration that Rankin needed, for he allowed no more hits the rest of the way. Three straight Phi Psi infield errors allowed the Deltas their final runs in the fourth, but they needed many more as the winners powered across nine tallies in the third.

Five Delt errors and seven Phi Psis produced those nine counters as the winners blew the game wide open.

The victors collected a total of 14 base hits off Dick Harvey, Dell Hurler. Brittin had a perfect day at the plate, getting three singles in addition to his homer. Rankin was no slouch at the plate either, getting three for three during the afternoon. Petersen contributed another Phi Psi homer in the fourth, driving in three runs.

Dave Weber's second-inning triple was the blow that got the Deltas off to their big inning.

Sigma Nu Squeezes Sigma Nu remained in the running for the fraternity and All-U crowns by overcoming Sigma Chi, 8-7 on the strength of a fifth-inning four-run spurge. It was the identical score of the first-round Sig Nu triumph, that over Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Five hits were all the Nu's got off Sig hurler Larry Dunning, but they were whoppers. Four of them went for the distance while the fifth was a triple. Nu pitcher, Larry Ross started the four-inning circus with a first-inning clout that tied the score. His pitching went sour in the third, however, as he surrendered four hits and a walk that resulted in five Sig runs and a 6-1 lead.

Howie Herbst narrowed the gap slightly for the Nu's in the third with a three-run homer, following Steve Sutton homer and a walk to Ross. A double play by the Sigs cut the rally short in this frame.

After spotting the losers their last run in the fourth, thanks to a triple by Neuhaus, the victors unleashed their big bats in the fifth and successive homers by Bud John and Gordon Sick produced the needed four runs and victory.

Ross surrendered five hits all told. Merrigan, Todd, Dunning and Wanek all getting singles in the fourth.

Newman Wins Marathon The first extra-inning fray of the year featured the Newman Club victory over the Methodist Student House. The Catholics scored a single tally on a wild pitch in the seventh frame to win, 12-11.

Until then, it was a free-scoring affair. The Methodists garnered six runs in the first and four in the fifth for the bulk of their points. The Catholics bunched four runs in each of the first and fourth innings.

Both pitching staffs allowed 11 hits apiece, Tom Carlson and Rex Chichester for the winners and Wolfe and Forrest Stith for the losers. Rollie Struss and Ken Johnson each collected three hits for the Catholics while Carlson garnered two and Lee Kroenke a home run.

Rich Satterfield, Schmidt, and Jewett each got two for the Methodists, one of Jewett's going the distance.

Beta Sigma Psi scored a four-inning 12-2 victory over Tau Kappa Epsilon as Spike Dannenhil kept no-hit ball. The T e k e s spoiled a shutout in the fourth with their two runs, on two walks and a pair of Beta Sig errors.

The winners needed only six hits for their 12 runs as ten Tekk errors blew the game wide open. Harv Kroeller was the big swinger for the Beta Sigs, getting two hits.

Jokers Roll, 17-3 The Jokers advanced to the second round of the Independent journey by blasting Nebraska Co-op, 17-3. The Nebraskans took an early 2-0 lead in the initial frame, but were ineffective from then on, as Lerry Fleming held them to three scattered hits.

Meanwhile the Middies were tying the count in the second and then pulled far in front with a nine-run third stanza. Six more tallies in the following frame were definitely anti-climactic.

The Gobs needed only eight hits as the Nebraskans miscued nine times. Chuck Eberspacher

Prep Meet Scheduled This Week

The University's athletic grounds will be the site of the biggest outdoor sports attraction staged by Nebraska high schools Friday and Saturday at the state track and field championships.

A complete turnover in champions is almost assured. North Platte, winner in Class A last year, has been hit by graduation, and is overshadowed by Scottsbluff, Boys Town and Omaha Tech.

Sidney, champ in Class B a year ago, appears to be outclassed this season by Cozad, Broken Bow, York and other speedy teams. Class C defending champ Wauneta still has the talented Tatum twins, but is rated under Cambridge, this year's favorite. In Class D, Chadron Prep is favored to unseat Snyder, loser of many stars through graduation.

Several records are under fire in all four classes, and should weather permit, predictions infer that several moss-covered standards will be rewritten.

The weekend schedule calls for finals Friday in the 880-yard run, Class A discus and high jump, Class C shotput, high jump and broad jump, Class D shotput and pole vault.

All other finals are slated for Saturday, beginning at 9 a.m. with the field events, and 1 p.m. with the track events.

In this match while Mac Bailey, who wound up as the playoffs' top scorer, notched eight.

The most rousing victory in the swimoffs was the ATO 41-8 triumph over Alpha Gamma Rho in the opening round. Bailey garnered 12 counters here to give him a 20-point total for the entire tourney. Two more Taus wound up behind Bailey in the individual scoring race. Rod Schroeder finished the swimoffs with 15 counters and Dave Jones counted 13. Gosch with ten was the number four scorer of the tourney.

The final ratings for both the deep and shallow action for this year were:

- DEEP WATER 1. Beta Theta Pi (5-1) 2. Phi Delta Theta (5-2) 3. Delta Sigma Phi (3-3) 4. Sigma Alpha Epsilon (3-1) 5. Sigma Nu (2-2)

- SHALLOW WATER 1. Beta Theta Pi (9-0) 2. Phi Delta Theta (5-2) 3. Sigma Phi Epsilon (4-2) 4. Alpha Tau Omega (3-3) 5. Navy ROTC (3-4) 6. Sigma Nu (3-2) 7. Alpha Gamma Rho (4-3) 8. Bobbers (3-4)
