To give a rundown on the complete list of outstanding athletes would require too much space, but many nationally known figures must be mentioned.

Standouts in this area, Thane Baker, KS, Wes Santee, Kansas and Neville Price of Oklahoma will be the crowd favorites.

Other track greats include hurdler Jack Davis of Southern California and teamates Parry O'Brien, who holds the world's shot put mark and Sam Iness with the season's best discus effort. Iness was hit in the face with a discus last week, but should be ready for this show.

Lindy Remigino, Olympic 100meter champion will be here for a dual purpose, to run and honeymoon, Charlie Capozzoli of Georgetown University and Lang Stanley of San Jose are more of the outstanding array of stars that will perform here.

For the NU athletic department this speciacle represents the culmination of months of prepara-

Wes Santee, Kansas' blazing cowpoke, is a double-barreled threat to two NCAA titles and records in the 32nd NCAA track and field meet at Memorial Stadium. Santee is aiming at a mile-880 double in the Lincoln affair. He already has lowered the National Collegiate mile mark to 4:02.4. His cowboy finery is as real as Santee's ability. He has worn cowboy boots almost since he was big enough to walk and his father, David Santee, owns a 4,000-acre wheat and cattle ranch near Ashland, Kansas.
