

Seventy-Two Footballers Boiling On Fresh Squad

All-Americans Erway And Berguin Lead Bob Faris' First Year Outfit

By BOB COOK
Staff Sports Writer

Varsity football is due a shot in the arm if fine human football players mean anything. Freshman football coach Bob Faris has harvested a host of 72 yearling bumper crop of high school selections, including two All-Americans, high school selections a host of all-stars.

After one week of drills under rolling sun Coach Faris stated he was highly impressed with the "desire to play" and also impressed on how good the material appeared.

Standards have been stressed and the first two weeks will be spent changing boys' habits from prep competition and allowing them to become familiar with the Nebraska brand of ball. The initial group of 72 has been split up into groups of 30 backs and 42 linemen.

LEADING THE candidates through practice was Don Erway, Lincoln High's "Athlete of the Year" and All-American football selection, South Dakota's All-American choice Bob Berguin, 200 lb. center joined Erway to represent the Mid-West in the annual All-Star high school game at Memphis this year.

Other Nebraska prep grid standouts include LeRoy Butcherus, Lincoln's all-state end; Dorwin Blair, Cozad all-state; Minden's tackle Joe Bayer; Al Deines and Ted Westervelt, Scottsbluff's stand out ends; "Hoot" Gibson, Falls City scabbard and Ullyses' rugged line-man Joe Kobza.

Out stater's Charley Smith from New Hampshire; Dutch Bryan, an Iowa out-stater; Kansas' standout preppper Maurice DeBoer and Bill Greenlaw, all around athlete from Portland, Maine.

Three intersquad games and several scrimmages with the B team and the varsity comprise the fresh schedule giving them game experience and preparing them for varsity competition next year.

AWS Changes Point System

Janet Steffen, president of the Associated Women Students, announced changes in the AWS rules Friday.

All women students except freshmen will have 11 p.m. hours on Sunday nights. Freshman will have 10:30 p.m. hours. Friday and Saturday closing hours will remain the same at 12:30 a.m. and 1 a.m. respectively. Week night hours are 11 p.m. for seniors, 10:30 p.m. for sophomores and juniors, and 9 p.m. for first semester freshmen.

Second semester freshmen will be allowed 10:30 nights if after the first down report they have not received two or more hours of down.

Visiting hours have been changed so that all women may receive guests from 9:30 to 10:30 p.m., except for freshmen until they are given 10:30 nights.

Any women student will be given 8 p.m. week nights if she receives a down in two or more hours.

Miss Steffen said that the AWS activity point system was the result of a need to simplify bookkeeping and to rate each office more on amount of work done than on prestige connected with the office.

Under the previous system, she said, positions of the president and board members of one organization were sometimes given more points than the same offices of another organization. This created the impression that one organization had more prestige than another.

For this reason, Miss Steffen said that the points for like offices were made uniform for most organizations. Presidents were reduced to three points and board positions to two. The other offices were reduced accordingly.

The maximum number of points were reduced from 11 to five.

The following is the revised point system:

Oregon After 28-13 NU Win Saturday

Coach Len Casanova, under patient and efficient guidance Oregon has made remarkable strides in its football retraining program begins his third year with the Webfoots. Casanova also seeks his first triumph as a Nebraska club. Last year Huskers downed the Webfoots 28-13 at Oregon.

The quiet spoken veteran who began his coaching career 25 years ago at Sequoia high school in California came from the University of Pittsburgh in July of 1951.

This will be Coach Casanova's fourth season as a collegiate coach. In 1946 he became the head coach of the University of Oregon. In 1949 he coached the Oregon State football team. He moved to Pittsburgh for a year and then returned to the Pacific Coast in 1951.
