Oberlin, Kitzelman, Novak Shine Defensively At Pitt

By GEORGE PAYNICH
Sports Editor

The Huskers still haven't won but Saturday's performance against Pitt had some bright spots.

Coach Bill Glassford may have sacrificed some of his offensive power when he moved Bob Oberlin and Max Kitzelman to the guard spots replacing Don Glantz and Charley Bryant, but from the defensive viewpoint the move was a wise one.

BOTH KITZELMAN and Oberlin were terrific on defense. In fact, the Husker forward wall all along the line displayed its finest defensive work of the season.

Oberlin is the West Allis, Wisconsin, lad who seemed to be a great center prospect two years ago. Then the big lad faded from the picture early this season when Jim Oliver moved to the front and Ted Britt came back from the army.

This season Oberlin, a 205-pounder, was shifted from center to tackle and finally last week to the guard slot. His play last week indicated that he will remain there for some time.

HOW THIS new set of guards, Oberlin and Kitzelman, will stack up offensively is a question mark. Their offensive play Saturday wasn't really outstanding, but with a little more work this could be remedied.

Offensively then, the pair have some distance to go but the Huskers at least looked good defensively with occasional offensive brilliance via the Bordogna to Loehr, Schaefer to Oberlin, and Schaefer to Kitzelman.

TKE's Ched

A new Weekly award by the Nebraska, "Intramural Team of the Week," has as its first recipient, Tau Kappa Epsilon.

The TKE's were sparked by Quarterback Larry Benzing and End Jim Spain. Benzing passed for four TD's to Spain and ran over for one himself.

This new award will be continued on through the I-M basketball season.

backer and Korinek aerial route.

PERHAPS THE most marked improvement in the Husker defensive show was the sterling linebacking job of big Ray Novak. Novak seems to have finally shed the excessive weight that has plagued him until now.

His two interceptions were the first since the opener with Oregon when Bob Wagner pilfered a pass against the Ducks. His rocking tackles, and plugging of the holes in the Husker line were something that has been missing all season.

MOST PEOPLE here think the Huskers showed up well coming as close to the favored Pitt Panthers as they did, but chatting with a few of the boys indicated that the Huskers were much closer to victory than most people believed possible.

Except for the two fine drives, one opening the game and the other coming at the end of the tilt, the terrible Panthers were pretty well shackled. But then again, close is good only in horseshoes.

COME SATURDAY and Nebraska will face another toughie. The Miami Hurricanes swamped a tough Clemson eleven 38-7, and a couple of weeks ago bowed to a fine Baylor club 20-14. So Nebraska must be at top shape mentally as well as physically if we are to see win number one.

The Huskers seem to come up with a terrible let-down every other week, and this is the weekend for one. It is possible to look good in defeat. It will be interesting to see if the NU coaching staff can prevent another let-down.

Sigma Phi Epsilon Rated Top Club In First '53 All-University I-M Poll

Phi Psis Runnerups; Junior Sig Eps Top 'B' Team

By FRANK SORENSON
Intramural Writer

Last year's intramural football champs, Sigma Phi Epsilon, are starting right where they left off last fall as they head the initial All-University intramural football ratings with a 3-0 record. Right behind the defending champs is Phi Kappa Psi, another power of last year, with a 3-0 record also.

Pioneer Co-Op is third in the ratings while undefeated Delta Upsilon is in fourth place. Following in order are Nebraska Co-Op, Phi Delta Phi, Farm House, Alpha Tau Omega and Beta Theta Pi. In a tenth-place tie are Tau Kappa Epsilon, Presby House and Ag Jokers.

IN THE Fraternity Class A ratings the top five outfits are same as listed in the All-University ratings. Behind the leaders in order are Farm House, Alpha Tau Omega, Beta Theta Pi, Tau Kappa Epsilon and Sigma Chi.

The Sig Eps also hold the top spot in the Fraternity Class B ratings with a 2-0 record. Beta Theta Pi is second while Delta Tau Delta is third. They join the Sig Eps as the only three undefeated teams in the Class B league.

ROUNDING OUT the top five are Sigma Chi and Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Tied for sixth place are Phi Kappa Psi, Phi Delta Phi and Delta Epsilon with Sigma Nu and Phi Gamma Delta finishing out the top ten teams.

Phi Delta Phi, sporting a record of 2-0, leads the Denominational and Independent ratings. Two other undefeated squads, Presby House and Ag Jokers are trailing in a second-place tie. Others in the top ten include Ag Gamma Club, Dorm B and C, Que Balls, Methodist House, Dubbers, Newman Club and Eagles.

IN THE denominational and independent ratings, Phi Delta Phi with 2-0 record in League Ten is the number one power.

Presby House and the Ag Jokers are rated right behind on the strength of their 2-0 record.

As this is the first rating of the season, no doubt many changes will be forthcoming after this week's activity.

Malloy, McDonald Lead Rugged Miami Offense

Average 305 Yards Per Game

If the University of Miami Hurricanes continue their ram-paging offensive display in their remaining six games this season they could easily wind up as one of the top ranking offensive grid-iron clubs in the nation.

In their first three tussles this fall the Hurricanes have churned out 915 yards, an average of 305 yards per game and two of three clashes were against top-rated clubs. In the game with Clemson Saturday, Miami gave the Tigers one of their worst all-time lickings.

Gordon Malloy is the squad's leading ground-gainer with 167 yards in 36 carries, an average of 4.5 yards per crack. Frank McDonald, a strong All-American candidate, is the team's leading pass receiver.

THE HURRICANES—with a traveling squad of 61 including coaches, trainers and managers—are leaving Miami at 7:30 a.m.
