

Filings To Open Monday For Vacated Student Council Position

Filings for the Student Council position vacated by Jerry Roe will end Monday, Oct. 26. Marv Friedman, elections committee member, said that men from the College of Arts and Science wishing to file for this position may obtain further information from the Student Council office.

Science College. Because he transferred to Law College this semester, he is now ineligible to be a Council member.

Ordinarily the second highest candidate would be awarded the position, but Bernie Wisnow, runner-up, transferred to Law College. A similar case occurred last year when Bob Hasebrook, elected from Arts and Science College, transferred to Law College, but continued to serve on the Council.

Rocky Yapp, Council president, said that this discrepancy was not brought to the council's attention until this year and was purely "an oversight," on the part of last year's Council.

ELDON PARK reported that two appeals were granted consideration by the Parking Board at their meeting Thursday, Oct. 8. When consideration is granted an appeal, a detailed report is sent to Dean Colbert, who makes the final decision as to whether the appeal may be granted.

In the future, an appeal who does not appear at the proper time will be granted a second opportunity to appeal only at the judgment of the Parking Board.

JOYCE BENNINGTON was elected secretary of the student activities committee. Dottie Sears is in charge of publicity.

Bob Peterson, elections chairman, reported that 112 ballots were cast at the Farmer's Formal.

The investigations committee has begun work on new problems concerning an orchestra booking agency, improvement of band day and the possibility of increasing the power of KNUS. These items were postponed while the committee secures student opinions.

Carl Mammel, chairman, said that any student may attend the investigations committee meetings on Wednesday afternoons at 3 p.m. in the Student Council office.

Mutiny Ticket Deadline Friday

Student Rate $1.25 For Fonda, Hodiak, Nolan, Powell Production

Friday is the last day students may buy advance tickets for "The Cain Mutiny Courtmartial," coming to the Coliseum Nov. 18.

Henry Fonda, John Hodiak and Lloyd Nolan will play leading roles in the production slated for Broadway in January. Richard Powell is the director.

Student tickets are $1.25. The three special raise seating sections will be on the main floor between general public seating areas costing $3 and $4. The cheapest balcony seats will be $2.

THE TICKET booth in the Union is open from 11 a.m. until 10 p.m. Advance sales began Wednesday.

"The Cain Mutiny Courtmartial" was adapted for the stage by Herman Wouk from the courtroom scene of his recent novel, "The Cain Mutiny," now in its 12th week as a best seller. "The Cain Mutiny Courtmartial" is the second stage production slated for Broadway to pass through the University in two years. Last year the Union brought the First Drama Quartet to University students, which now enjoys success on Broadway, as indicated by ticket sales.

"THE CAINE MUTINY Courtmartial," due to his New York in January, is considered by many critics to be another outstanding hit. Featuring Henry Fonda, John Hodiak and Lloyd Nolan in the leading roles the production is directed by Dick Powell.

Union To Hold Coffee Hour After Miami Game

A coffee hour will be held Saturday from 4 to 5:30 p.m. in the main lounge of the Union following the Miami game.

Marilyn Beiseck, chairman of the Union Hospitality Committee, extended special invitation to out-of-towners. Students on committees for the event include: Anne Thompson and Marnie Hallam, serving; Jo Heilmann, table decoration, and Shirley Stohman, publicity.

Tea To Open Annual Music Sorority Week Activities

Music Sorority Week will begin Sunday with a tea and skit at 2:30 p.m. in the Union.

Dr. David Foltz of the University School of Music will also speak at the tea.

Other activities planned for the week include a picnic and round table discussion. The discussion, "Why—A Professional Music Fraternity?" will be held on Wednesday at the Lutheran Student House at 5 p.m.

Thursday a concert will be given by the Inter-Sorority Group at 7:30 in the Union.

Delta Omicron, Mu Pi Epsilon and Sigma Alpha Iota, national music sororities, are sponsors of Music Sorority Week.

Music Sorority Week was designed to acquaint all students in the University School of Music

Labor Given To AUF

Members of Delta Delta Delta earn money for AUF by washing a car. "Washers" (left to right) are: Gwen Axthelm, Vivian Lemmer, Nancy Stanley, Marilyn Hammerstrom and Georgia Hudson. The annual AUF drive, aimed at collecting a record-breaking $8,000 this year, will end Monday.

Walton Names Cast For 'Room Service'

Lab Play Scheduled For November

The cast of the Lab Theater production "Room Service" was announced Thursday by Bill Walton, director of the play.

"Room Service," the story of a group of show people who try to put on a play without any money, begins when Davis (Amer Lincoln), a country boy goes to New York to present "Godspeed," a play he has written. Binion (Ron Becker), becomes the director and leading man, and Miller (Ken Clements), the producer.

MATTERS ARE complicated by Gribble and Wagner (Jim Davis and Marvin Stromer), hotel executives who are worried about a $1,500 unpaid bill. Sasha (Charles Klasek) is a Russian actor who finds his way into a leading part in the play. Jenkins (Ron Green) is a would-be backer of the play discouraged by Gribble and Wagner. Christine (Kay Barton) is the leading lady of "Godspeed."

OTHERS IN the cast include: Hilda (Margot Hunt), secretary to Gribble; Hogarth (Gene Scranton), a simpson collector working for the "We-Neve-Sleep Collection Agency"; Dr. Glass (Darrell Greenlee), a hotel physician; Senator Blake (Dennis Knopik), a typical Southern senator and hotel owner; Faker (Jim Bolling) and a bank messenger (Phil Weingart).

Beverlee Engelbrecht will be the student production manager of "Room Service." The play will be presented Nov. 10 and 11 in Temple Building.

New York Economics Professor To Visit NU

Dr. Wilford I. King, professor emeritus of economics at New York University, will visit the University campus Monday.

Dr. King was graduated from the University in 1905 and was given an honorary degree in 1931. He received his M.A. and Ph.D. in 1910 and 1912, respectively, at the University of Wisconsin.

J. E. LeRouge, dean emeritus of the College of Business Administration, is arranging a Monday luncheon meeting at the Union for friends of Dr. King.

The Outside World

'Rosenberg Radar Spy' - McCarthy Committee Says Russia Has Info

By WILLIE DESCH Staff Writer

Julius Rosenberg, who was executed for being an atomic spy, was the head of a radar spy ring in the Army Signal Corps at Ft. Monmouth, N.J., said Sen. McCarthy. The senator's committee who is investigating the situation will interview David Greenglass, who is serving a prison term for connection with the atomic spy case involving the Rosenbergs.

Information that was stolen from the base has been channeled to Russia for some time, announced the investigating committee. Arrangements will be made as soon as possible for an interview with Greenglass.

Demo Victory

After claiming a victory in Wisconsin by winning a seat in the House, the Democrats are concentrating on a special congressional election in California slated for Nov. 10.

The election is for the House seat vacated by Republican Norris Poulson who resigned to become the mayor of Los Angeles. The position has been normally filled by Republicans but has been controlled by Democrats from time to time. Both parties are seeking the position.

'Francis Goes To Races' To Show At Ag Union

"Francis Goes To The Races" starring Donald O'Connor, Piper Laurie and Francis, the talking mule, will be presented at the Ag Union Saturday night. The movie will start at 7:30 p.m. in the Ag Union lounge. No admission is charged.

FF Position Open

The position of junior member on Farmers Fair Board is open to applicants.

All persons interested may submit applications to Mrs. Peters in the Ag Union Office by Friday night.

Sig Eps Still Unbeaten; SAEs Top Deltas 21-18

Delt, Sig Ep B Teams Loom As Title Threats; Team Of Week Award To Presby House, AGR

By FRANK SORENSON Intra-Mural Writer

Intramural favorites played according to Hoyle Tuesday and Wednesday evenings as 30 teams in eight leagues saw action.

In League I, first place Sigma Phi Epsilon ran roughshod over twice beaten Sigma Nu.

THE WINNERS, sporting a 4-0 record, scored on four tallies and three extra markers to bring their season's scoring mark to 128 points against their opponents 29 to lead all teams.

In other League I games, Sigma Alpha Epsilon slipped by the Deltas, 21-18, after staving off a desperate Delt fourth quarter rally.

While the Sig Alphas were disposing of their opponents, the ATOs edged by Phi Gamma Delta 27-26, by yardage after the game was tied at the end of the regular game.

THE LOSERS, playing their best game of the season, led 20-13 at the end of the big first quarter. The ATOs then held their opponents scoreless in the second stanza while picking up seven valuable points in the same frame to tie the game at the halfway mark.

Each team scored six points in the third quarter and then were unable to muster any scores in the final stanza.

Over in League II, the only game played saw the Alpha Gamma Eho A team, romping over the Kappa Sigs, 33-6, for their first win of the season. The Kappa Sigs have yet to taste victory in four games.

The big star of the contest was the AGR's Walt Finke, who passed for two tallies and scored 13 points himself, one of the tallies coming on a brilliant 40 yard pass interception effort.

PRESBY HOUSE continued its winning ways by disposing of the IFVC, 47-0, to remain in the lead in League VIII. The game produced two new stars, Presby's Don Summers and Jack Geist.

Summers passed for 18 points. In addition to his passing Summers also hit paydirt for two touchdowns.

Geist rambled over the double stripe for three TDs and three extra points. Uteifer and Sinner also looked good working in the effective Presby offense.

In League X play, Phi Delta Phi rushed past the Dent Juniors 28-2, to remain the leader in that league. In the other league game, Dorm B-C slipped past their next-door rivals, Dorm A, 15-6.

In B league play, favored Phi

Kappa Psi fell victim to an effective Sigma Chi machine, 12-6, in a hotly contested game.

THE WINNERS scored once each in the first and third periods and went scoreless in the second and fourth. The loser's lone tally came in the second stanza.

Beta Theta Pi B rambled over the DU B team 28-6, after leading by only 7-6 at the half.

THE PHI DELT Bees had little trouble in marching by Theta Xi B 34-0.

Delta Tau Delta B and Sigma Phi Epsilon B stamped themselves as the teams most likely to win their league title by downing Sigma Nu 35-0, and Phi Gamma Delta 33-0, respectively.

This sets the stage for the game between the two winners in two weeks.

The recipients of this week's "Team of the Week" award are tied for the honor. They are Presby House and AGR.

The Presby's disposed of IFVC 47-0 in a game which saw Don Summers pass for 18 points and score 12 points.

Walt Finke led AGR past the Kappa Sigs 33-6, by passing for 13 points and scoring 12, one a 40 yard pass interception.

Union Wins First Place At Mart

500 Freshmen Sign For Work

Over 500 freshman women visited the Associated Women Students' Activity Mart, Wednesday, reported Jean Bangston, chairman of the event.

The Union Activities group won first place in the booth judging. The Union booth was commended for their art work, music, backdrop and lighting by judges Mary Jane Mulvaney, instructor of physical education for women, and Elsie Jevons, assistant professor of commercial arts.

Bernie Rosenquist accepted the prize for the Union which was a box of thank-you notes which will be engraved with the organization's name.

SECOND PLACE recognition went to the Builders for their booth featuring a carousel with each committee depicted as a horse. The decorations were in red and white.

The Nebraskan booth won third place. Their booth was decorated with issues of the Nebraskan and red crepe paper. Sally Hall was Nebraskan booth chairman and Eileen Mularky was responsible for the Builder's booth.

Doors of activities will be opened officially Monday for freshmen coeds.

Monday—Closing Day For Drive

The All University Fund Drive will officially end Monday.

The financial report to date, as reported by Carl Mammel, treasurer of AUF, is: Ag Campus, $160; booth collection (pre-drive) $1,148.26; religious houses, $162.23; faculty solicitations, $495.50, and fraternities, $736.50. Independent, $1,004.86; organizations, $90.00; organized houses, $183.85; sororities, $1,097.10; board members, $74.50, and medical school, $176.88. Total collections are $5,329.68.

Honorary Pledges 16 Sophomores

Alpha Lambda Delta pledged sixteen coeds Tuesday, Oct. 13, at the Union.

Those pledged were: Marilee Myquist, Patricia Moran, Virginia Reeves, Marjeanne Jensen, Diana Benedict, Martha Payne, Gail Katskee, Joan Kucaba, Janet Gordon, Glenn Mong, Martha Morrison, Marilyn Anderson, Gloria Kollmorgan, Dorothy Bacon, Lois Long and Marianne Hansen.

Language Society Hears Two Papers

Susan Reinhardt and Shirley Wear presented papers at a program meeting of Phi Sigma Iota, romance language national honor society, Wednesday in the Union faculty lounge.

Miss Reinhardt presented "Cyran de Bergerac: Fact and Fiction." Miss Wear's topic was "Manuel Acuna: His Life and Works."

Guests included: Leonard Barker, Jeanne Beck, Beatrice Beutel, John Bitzes, Andrew Boder, Valeria Bonnell, Jane Brode, Kay Burcum, Thelma Cox, Helen Dunlap, Lehman Faber, Fay Freatut, Ronald Gibson, David Gradwohl, Elizabeth Grone, George Klin, Sue Ellen Lane, Virginia Mann, Anne Sidner, Larae Watson and Bridget Watson.

Lot Nears Completion

A tractor-drawn drag completes leveling and smoothing operations in the new University parking areas behind the Union.

Coeds Compete In Carnival Friday

Fifteen Women's Houses To Vie In Evening For Annual Trophy

Freshman and pledges from organized women's houses will compete Friday night for the traveling Penny Carnival trophy awarded by Coed Counselors.

The annual carnival will be held in the Union Ballroom from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Each group will have a booth at which anyone may try their luck at winning a prize. Booths will be set up between 1 and 6 p.m.

Judges will appraise the booths and students, upon presentation of ID cards, will vote for their favorites. The hours for voting are 7:45 to 9:15 p.m. Presentation of the first, second and third place prizes will be at 9:30 p.m.

ALPHA CHI Omega has won the trophy for the past three years. "Not Built for Tilt, Aim for Game" was their slogan in 1950. "Aim High for an Alpha Chi" followed in 1951 and "Shoot With Your Hand, Win an Alpha Chi Panda" was their winning booth last year.

Delta Delta Delta took second place last year, and the Chi Omegas placed third. Kappa Kappa Gamma won honorable mention. Permanent booths were built in 1952 to replace the temporary ones of previous years.

HOUSES AND their themes are: Adelphi, "Adelphi Productions Present in 3-D The Miss University Contest Winners;" Alpha Phi, "Try Your Aim and See It Rain;" Alpha Xi Delta, "With a Flick of the Hand, Ping the Alpha Xi Ferdinand;" Chi Omega, "Win, Get a Head;" Delta Delta Delta, "Delta Darts;" Delta Gamma, "A Penny for Your Toss;" International House, "Free the Miss and Win a Kiss;" Kappa Alpha Theta, "Kit Kat Koe;" Kappa Delta, "Bunny Hop to the KD Top."

Kappa Kappa Gamma, "Kappa Kandy Kapers;" Residence Halls for Women, "Hit 'Em, Huskers!;" Sigma Kappa, "Dragon Net!;" Sigma Delta Tau, "State Your State;" Terrace Hall, "Lasso Locks — Poppey Socks," and Towne Club, "Pop Our Tops the Towne Club Way."

NUCWA Plans UN Week Panel

United Nations To Be Discussed

The Nebraska University Council of World Affairs will sponsor a panel discussion Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in Love Library Auditorium, in observance of National United Nations Week Sunday through Saturday.

The four-man panel, representing four different vocations, will discuss "The United Nations As An International Organization." The meeting is a NUCWA all-membership function.

Panel members will be: Hugo F. Srb, clerk of the Nebraska state legislature; Dr. C. Vin White, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Lincoln; E. N. Anderson, professor of history at the University; and Elsworth DuTeau, Lincoln businessman.

Nancy Gardiner, chairman of the UN Week committee of the special projects commission of NUCWA, urges that all students and faculty members attend the discussion.

Students, Faculty To Hold First Co-Sponsored Supper

The first student-faculty co-sponsored supper, "Potluck with the Profs," will be held Sunday from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the Ag Union.

The suppers present an opportunity for students to become acquainted with their instructors other than from across a classroom desk, Ken Pinkerton, student chairman, said.

CO-CHAIRMAN OF the faculty committee are Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Epp.

Ardie Young, Joyce Taylor and Del Merritt will serve as hostesses and host for the picnic. Joyce Young, Mary Taylor and Margie Anters are members of the publicity committee.

Members of the faculty committee are Dean and Mrs. W. V. Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Hixson, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Janike, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Bay and Sherwood Kirk.

Lorraine Wilson, Rex Messersmith, Mary Ellen Michaud, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Mead, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Lowenstein, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ogden and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Williams.

Students who plan to attend may sign up in the Ag Union by Friday. No charge will be made.

Five student-faculty suppers will be held during the year.

SW Group Plans Milford Retreat

The Search Week committee is planning a retreat for Nov. 6 and 7 at Camp Kiwanis in Milford.

Representatives from sororities, fraternities, organized houses, religious groups, several Lincoln ministers, faculty members and student leaders will be invited to attend. More than 75 persons are expected at the retreat.

Marvin Friedman, executive secretary of the committee, said "The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the issue involved in relating religious faith to learning and life."

It will attempt to determine student needs and to reevaluate methods of meeting these needs. Organizations are being given information on the retreat this week.

Variety Of Activities Scheduled For Weekend

Applause Meter To Determine 'Hurricane Girl' At Rally Friday

"The Girl Most Likely to Stop a Hurricane" title will be sought by 19 coeds Friday night at the Miami rally.

The candidates and the houses they represent are: Phyllis Cast, Delta Delta Delta; Marlene Stroh, Delta Gamma; Bonnie Kessler, International House; Marion Clark, Dorm; Barbara Medlin, Alpha Xi Delta; Peggy Larson, Gamma Phi Beta; Sara Stevenson, Kappa Delta; Natalie Nelson, Pi Beta Phi; Connie Gordon, Sigma Delta Tau.

JOYCE HOCK, Sigma Kappa; Sandra Imm, Alpha Omicron pi; Mary Hathaway, Wilson Hall; Janet Bailey, Alpha Phi; Ann Skold, Kappa Alpha Theta; Barbara Pope, Towne Club; Ann Launer, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Susie Enyeart, Alpha Chi Omega; Bobbie Banks, Chi Omega, and Nancy Pratt, Terrace Hall.

Candidates will meet in Union Room 305 at 6:45 p.m. Friday dressed in costumes representing ways to stop a hurricane. The winner will be determined by judging and applause meter ratings.

NICK ADDUCI, Husker football player, will present the finalist as "The Girl Most Likely to Stop a Hurricane." Mike Milligan, Husker line coach, will be rally speaker.

The rally will begin at 6:50 p.m. Friday. Tassels, Coeds, Peppers and ROTC pep band will meet at the Coliseum. The rally route will follow Vine St., up 16th, down R St., to the Union.

Red Cross Erects First Aid Booths

University Red Cross members have been working most of the week perfecting their "double safety" formation for the Nebraska-Miami football game Saturday.

Directed by Joyce Johnson, president, the members have erected first-aid booths in the east and west stadiums.

Backing up these booths Saturday will be students equipped with walkie-talkies who will report injuries of spectators immediately to the main medical station.

The booths will be manned entirely by students who have earned first aid certificates. Stretches and cots are available and a public address system will keep the first-aid workers in contact with the crowds.

The medical equipment is furnished by the Lancaster County Red Cross and University Student Health Center.

At the first home game, Sept. 19, the students were kept busy treating persons for sun strokes, fainting spells and twisted ankles.

Plans Formed For Band Day

Approximately 3,600 students in 65 high school bands will participate in Band Day Saturday during the half-time of the Miami-Nebraska game.

The bands will register at the stadium at 8 a.m. At 9:30 they will march in the traditional parade through downtown Lincoln. The parade will move south on 10th to O St., east on O to 14th St., north on 14th to R St., west on R to 12th St., and north on 12th to the stadium. The reviewing stand will be on the southwest corner of 12th and O streets.

BUILDERS WILL serve a luncheon to the musicians at the stadium. The lunch is furnished by the retailers division of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce and will be supervised by L. F. (Pop) Klein, the University director of concessions.

Under the direction of Donald A. Lentz, conductor of the University ROTC Band, the mass band will play five songs: "Star Spangled Banner," "Hail Varsity," "Manhattan Beach," "Invercargill" and "God Bless America." Three hundred baton twirlers will perform simultaneously.

Union To Sponsor Dance Saturday

The "Music Makers" dance featuring Eddie Garner's Combo will be held Saturday in the Union ballroom from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m.

The dance is sponsored by the Union dance committee. Since it is the night of the Miami-Nebraska football game, special invitations have been sent to all Nebraska high school band members and students attending Band Day.

Tickets will be on sale in the Union Friday and at the door Saturday night. The price is 60 cents per person.

Lutheran Worship

The Lutheran Student Foundation, representing the National Lutheran Council churches, will begin Sunday morning worship services at the Lutheran Student House, 535 No. 16, this Sunday at 10:45 a.m.