

Little Foxes Run Successful-Bock

Attendance At University Theater Shows Increase From 32 To 120

"Little Foxes," the current University theater production has been quite successful thus far, according to Frank Bock, instructor of Speech and Dramatic Art and director of the play.

"Little Foxes" will be presented again Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Students To Discuss Courtship Panel To Meet On Wednesday

The first in a series of panel discussions featuring aspects of sex, love and infatuation in marriage and courtship will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in Love Library Auditorium.

Dr. Kenneth Cannon, assistant professor of home economics, will introduce the topic with a short lecture. Students will then participate in an open discussion.

SUCCESS of the first discussion, "Love Feelings and Imitations" will determine whether or not the lectures will continue. Prospective discussion topics are:

1. Love: adult or adolescent. Which is yours?
2. Sex and its place in the life of the college student and in his marriage.
3. Is the mate you want—the one you need?
4. A philosophy of marriage.
5. Readiness for marriage.
6. Marriage in college.
7. The marriage ceremony—interpreting the 20th Century vows.
8. The early months of marriage.
9. The mechanics of reproduction.
10. Childbirth and contraception.

Current Calendar Changes Declared

Several changes have been made in the University calendar.

- Changes are:
- First Semester
 - October 28 — Ellen H. Richards Dinner, changed from October 29.
 - November 6 — Coll-Agri-Fun Night, changed from October 23.
 - December 17 — Home Economics Club Tea.
 - Second Semester
 - February 23 — Drama group sponsored by the Union.
 - February 24 — Home Economics Club style show, changed from February 23.
 - March 6 — Mortar Board Regional Convention.
 - March 12 — Convocation at 11 a.m. Mental Health Day.
 - March 23 — Sigma Xi and Phi Beta Kappa dinner.
 - April 6 — Honors Convocation Banquet.
 - April 11 — NROTC Awards Day.

Banquet To Promote International Friendship

168 Foreign Students Invited

The annual International Friendship Dinner will be held Nov. 10 in the Union Ballroom from 6 to 8 p.m.

This year the Nebraska University Council on World Affairs will join the Religious Welfare Council in sponsoring the annual goodwill affair. Tickets will be less than $1.

THE PURPOSE of the dinner is to provide an opportunity for American students to become acquainted with the foreign students on the University campus.

Nita Helmstadter, chairman of the NUCWA special projects committee, urges that all American students invite the foreign students they have met in classes and activities to the dinner as their guests.

Miss Helmstadter added, "All foreign students are cordially invited to attend the dinner."

THE 168 foreign students attending the University represent 50 indifferent countries. Nine of these countries are partially or completely behind the iron curtain.

All individual students, faculty members, or campus organizations who would like to invite foreign students are asked by the dinner committee to contact Miss Helmstadter at 2-8096 not later Friday noon.

MISS HELMSTADTER stressed that even if the student does not know a foreign student but would like to invite one to dinner, he may also contact her. The committee in charge of

Last Food Training Class Meets Today

The last of the Student Health Training sessions on problems and fundamentals of food preparation and handling will be held in Love Library Wednesday at 2 p.m.

The program, endorsed by the Inter-Fraternity and Panhellenic Councils, was inaugurated last year by the IFC in an effort to improve sanitation conditions in the kitchens of fraternity houses.

Successful completion of the course will entitle the personnel to Food Handlers Permits, which are required for permission to prepare or serve food in all University eating establishments, fraternities, and sororities.

sent again Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Bock said he has directed the play with a different interpretation from that of Bruce Kendall, faculty reviewer. This difference of opinion explains many of the "faults" of the play as seen by Kendall.

KENDALL STATED, in his review of the play, there was a distinct "underplaying of the cast." Bock, on the other hand, feels that while there is still room for much improvement, the play which has been running for the past week, has progressed quite well.

The reaction of the relatively small audience has been good. Many students, when interviewed, expressed the idea that the play is "very good, well portrayed and tremendous!"

Audiences have increased from the small crowd of 32 persons on opening night to 60 on Thursday night, 120 on Friday and 80 on Saturday.

Ag Campus Committee Organized

Builders Expands Public Relations

The program of a newly formed branch of Ag Builders, a public relations committee, will be outlined at a mass meeting Wednesday evening at 7:15 p.m. in the lounge of the Food and Nutrition Building.

According to Stan Matzke, chairman, basic purpose of the committee is to contact students in outstate high schools who are interested in agriculture and plan to attend the College of Agriculture.

MEMBERS of the committee will not necessarily be the ones that will contact the students.

Junior Knobel, chairman of the membership-sales committee on Ag campus said the purpose of the mass meeting is to enlist members for Ag Builders committees and give committee chairmen a chance to outline programs for the year.

ELDON PARK, Builders president, will explain correlation of Ag and City Builders. Park will introduce the Builders Board from city campus. Dale Reynolds, director, will present the Ag Builders Board.

Entertainment is planned at the close of the program.

Dr. Katz To Speak At Friday Seminar

Dr. Daniel Katz, research associate of the Survey Research Center at the University of Michigan, will address an office management seminar Friday.

The seminar, which is for Nebraska business employees, will be held in Love Library Auditorium. Registration for the one-day affair will be held at 8:30 a.m.

Annual Dinner Speaker Set

Speaker at the annual Ellen H. Richards dinner to be held Wednesday will be Miss Florence Fallgatter.

Miss Fallgatter is past president of the American Home Economics Association.

The banquet, sponsored by the Home Economics Club, will be held at 6:30 p.m. in the Union Ballroom.

Theme of the dinner is "Home Economics Becomes You." Co-chairmen of the banquet honoring Mrs. Richards, founder of home economics, are Mary Jane Niehaus and Madeleine Watson.

Audubon Society Lecturer To Present Movie Friday

Allan D. Cruickshank, lecturer and photographer of the National Audubon Society, will present an Audubon Screen Tour Friday at 8 p.m. in Love Library Auditorium.

Entitled, "Santa Lucia Sea Cliffs" the motion picture story in color presents the wildlife and wild beauty of the scenic area extending from Morro Bay to Monterey in California.

CRUICKSHANK'S PHOTOGRAPHS and stories on his wildlife adventures have appeared in many national magazines and leading American newspapers.

He is the author of two books: "Birds Around New York City" and "Wings in the Wilderness."

This is the first of a series of five Audubon Screen Tours to be presented this year by the University Extension Division and State Museum in connection with the National Audubon Society.

SEASON TICKETS may be purchased for $2.50, or single admission for 60 cents.

All tickets are available at the Bureau of Visual Instruction, Architectural Hall, Room 17, of Morrill Hall, Room 101.

Volume 53, No. 20

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

Wednesday, October 28, 1953

Thirty-four To Attend UN Seminar

Registration Closes Friday

Twenty-two University students and 12 Wesleyan students have registered for the YMCA-YWCA-sponsored United Nations Seminar trip to New York.

Students interested in participation in the Seminar may register in the YWCA office until Friday noon.

THE NU students going to New York are: Walter Gass, Sharon Frank, Charlotte Sangey, Paula Broady, Virginia Reavis, Kay Burcum, Pat Graham, Naomi George.

Anne Thompson, Ruth Sorenson, Shirley Fries, Marilyn Roddy, Jean Davis, Margaret Coffey, Terry Bullock, Gary Wirsig, Charles Anderson, Harold Wait.

Alice Todd, Dale Wolf, Evelyn Wolf and Roger Hesselstine. The seminar will be held Nov. 13 to 15. The students will leave Lincoln Nov. 10 and return Nov. 17.

Three of the main speakers at the UN Seminar will be Dr. Frank P. Graham, UN representative for India and Pakistan; M. M. Thomas, Indian Student Christian Movement leader; and Mrs. Oswald B. Lord, member of the Commission on Human Rights.

THE STUDENTS will visit 20 UN general assemblies, a briefing session with the Secretariat, and the delegation headquarters of the Indian, Middle East, Indonesian, British, French and US missions.

Henry Cabot Lodge, US delegate to the UN, will be the guest speaker at a dinner meeting honoring the students.

While in New York, students will stay at the Hotel Diplomat at special student rates of $2.50 per day.

Seventy dollars will cover the expenses of the entire trip, including bus fare, room, board and registration fee.

NU Senate Committees Announced

The University Senate has announced new committee members.

Mary E. Guthrie, associate professor of home economics, and Edward B. Schmidt, professor of economics, are now on the committee on committees. They will serve three-year terms.

Raymond D. Dein, professor of accounting, and Miss Lucy M. Hill, associate professor of commercial arts, were previous members.

JULIUS COHEN, professor of law, and Roscoe E. Hill, associate professor of entomology, succeed Lane W. Lancaster, professor of political science, and Chauncey W. Smith, professor of agricultural engineering, on the committee on academic privilege. These are three-year terms.

Acting Chancellor John Selleck has asked Dean W. V. Lambert of the College of Agriculture to succeed Dean Joseph B. Burt of the College of Pharmacy on the administrative council of the committee on committees.

Grace Harvey Chosen Nebraskan Copy Editor

Grace Harvey, sophomore in Business Administration, has been appointed copy editor of The Nebraskan. She is a member of NUCWA, Red Cross and Kappa Delta.

Miss Harvey was appointed to succeed Cynthia Henderson, who recently resigned.

Stanley Sipple, business manager, said that the position of assistant business manager would

The Outside World

Greek Grant Protested In Communist Warning

By WILLIE DESCH Staff Writer

Greece received a note from Russia Monday night protesting the granting of military bases to American armed forces. The message accused Greece of loaning the territory in order to prepare for war. The land will be turned into military bases and thus make the war situation worse, the note said.

The Reds warned Greece that she must bear the responsibility for the situation. Greece signed an agreement with the United States which gave this country the right to use Greek air and naval bases for North Atlantic Pact defenses. Also the U. S. is to be permitted to station armed personnel in Greece.

A Conference Needed

The sooner a five-power conference is held to settle the future of Trieste the better it will be for the Western defenses against Communism in Southern Europe, said Secretary of State Dulles.

A conference with the five powers involved in the Trieste controversy might help towards the withdrawal of the United States and British troops, Dulles said.

Who's The Ugliest Of Them All?

The 10 "uglies" pictured above will compete for the title of Uglyest Man On Campus during voting to be held Friday. The candidates are: (left to right first row) Tim Hamilton, Charlie Pedersen, Ward Svoboda (second row) Bill

Entire Band To March In Homecoming Parade

Pregame Plans Being Formed

This year, for the first time since World War II, the entire University marching band will march in full uniform for the Homecoming Parade, Martha Hill and Mike Greenberg, Tassel and Corn Cob co-chairmen of the Homecoming parade have announced.

"In previous years, classes were not dismissed on Saturday, so only the pep band was able to march. This year, all classes will be dismissed on Saturday morning for Homecoming," they said.

IN ADDITION to the University band, several fraternities have indicated that they wish to have their bands play in the parade.

Nearly 100 invitations have been issued to organized houses, clubs, and honoraries to take part in the parade. Last year about 40 floats were entered. Because of a ruling by the Panhellenic Council, sororities may not enter the float competition.

Addresses of several organizations were not available when the invitations were sent, but these organizations are still able to submit entries. Any organization wishing to enter a float in the parade should contact Martha Hill by Friday at 1601 "R" Street or phone 2-7871.

THE PARADE will start at 10:30 a.m., November 14th. All floats and participants will organize at 10 a.m. in front of the Coliseum. The parade will move south on 14th Street to "R", then east to 15th Street and "R". From there it will travel south to "O" Street and west on "O" to 11th, proceeding north on 11th Street. The parade will end when it reaches 12th and "R" Streets, after having marched up 12th Street.

Trophies will be awarded to the winners of the men's, women's, and honoraries' divisions. There will also be awards for the honorable mention winners in each division. Judges will be Robert Knoll, assistant professor of English and Mrs. Virginia Trotter, assistant professor of home economics. The name of the third judge will be announced later.

PARTICIPANTS WILL BE

Foreign Students' Filings Due Today

Filings for the international students' committee on activities close Wednesday, Dottie Sears, Student Council committee chairman, has announced.

The committee is being established by the Student Council to encourage foreign students to participate on campus activities.

Applicants must be foreign students. Applications should include name, address, phone number, college, major field of study and reasons for working on the committee. All applications should be mailed or taken to Dottie Sears, 1560 R Street, phone 2-1174.

Ag Dancing Lessons Changed To Thursday

Weekly dancing lessons at the Ag Union will be held on Thursday night instead of Wednesday this week.

Lessons on foxtrot and waltz steps will be featured. Donna McCandless will be the instructor. This lesson is the fourth in a series of six.

More Ag Trouble

Senator Carlson (R-Kan.) has created new trouble for Secretary of Agriculture Benson in his plan for reorganization of his department.

An announcement was made by Sen. Carlson that he plans to ask the Secretary to delay putting the reorganization plan into effect until Congress can take a searching look at its probable consequences.

The reorganization plan, which will bring about the elimination of the seven regional soil conservation offices, would result in a loss of highly specialized men who should be retained, Carlson said.

Sen. Dwight Griswold of Nebraska is also in favor of postponing the reorganization plan.

Controversial Charges

Representatives of Israel and Syria met and submitted their charges to the United Nations Security Council. At this time they presented all their arguments

14 To Compete For '53 UMOC

Candidates Named By Houses Donating 100 Per Cent To AUF

Fourteen organized men's houses have named candidates for UMOC.

To qualify to nominate a candidate, the houses contributed 100 per cent, or the $2 a member, to the AUF drive.

The men nominated for the title of Uglyest Man On Campus are:

Bill Weber, Alpha Tau Omega; Ron Smith, Beta Theta Pi, basketball; AUF; Jim Oliver, Phi Delta Theta, varsity football; Gus Lebsack, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, basketball, intramural chairman; Mary Friedman, Sigma Alpha Mu, Student Council, Corn Cob, vice-president of NUCWA, AUF, Red Cross, Religious Welfare Council; Carl Ote, Sigma Chi; Tim Hamilton, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Rodeo Club.

WARD SVOBODA, Theta Chi; Howard Vann, Zeta Beta Tau, Kosmet Club, sports columnist for The Nebraskan, house historian; Bill DeWolfe, Farm House, Ag Student Union, Ag Builders; Charles Peterson, Phi Gamma Delta, Kosmet Club skitmaster, president of Canterbury Club, Homecoming chairman; Don Lees, Alpha Gamma Sigma, Ag Union Board, Gamma Club, Red Guidon; Ron Wohlers, secretary of Pioneer House.

All-University elections will be held Friday in the Union. In order to vote, students must present identification cards.

UGLIEST MAN On Campus will be presented at the halftime ceremonies of Saturday's game. During the presentation, the band and card section will form the letters UMOC.

According to Jack Gillespie,

Music Groups To Entertain Educators

Three musical groups from the University department of music will entertain the District 4 convention of the Nebraska State Educators Association at Grand Island Thursday night.

The groups are: 20-voice University Madrigal Singers, directed by David Foltz, 16-piece University String Ensemble, conducted by Emanuel Wisnow, and 110-voice University Singers, directed by Dr. Arthur E. Westbrook.

Soloists will be: Jack Snider, faculty member; Shirley Rasmussen, David Mullen, Carol Armstrong and Delores Garrett.

The program will begin at 8:15 p.m. at the Grand Island High School Auditorium and is open to the public.

Panhellenic Workshop Week Starts Sunday

Discussions, Classes Featured

The Twelfth annual Panhellenic Workshop activities will begin with Church Sunday.

Featuring as a theme, "Standards—the Basis of Fraternity Life," the Panhellenic Week will include roundtable discussions, exchange dinners and luncheons, training classes and the concluding banquet Wednesday at 6 p.m.

Exchange luncheons will be served each noon. A special dinner will be served for all presidents and pledge presidents Tuesday evening.

Co-ordinating the four-day Greek festivities are these committee chairman: workshop, Nora Devore; banquet, Jo Knapp; table decorations, Norma Carse; hospitality, Gracia Eyth; tickets, Mary Fielberth; publicity, Mary Ann Zimmerman; program, Sharon Horning and scheduling, Sue Gorton. Panhellenic president is Jean Davis.

TUESDAY at 5 p.m. Miss Helen A. Snyder, assistant dean of women, will address pledges at Ellen Smith Hall. Following the general theme, she will speak on "Sorority and the Community."

Tuesday evening there will be training classes for sorority presidents, scholarship chairmen, pledge trainers, activities chairmen, standards chairmen and social chairmen. These classes will be in the form of panel discussions featuring common problems and new ideas.

THE PANHELLENIC Banquet in the Union Ballroom will top off the week's activities. Mrs. Claudine Mason, dean of women at Northwestern University and a member of Chi Omega, will deliver the send-off speech and make the presentation of the Elsie Ford Piper Award and the scholarship cup.

Army, Air Force ROTC To Parade Wednesday

Army and Air Force ROTC units will parade Wednesday at 5 p.m. on the Women's Athletic Field. Air Force ROTC has announced.

Cadet Col. Lloyd Keller will assume command of the parade and Col. Joseph Stenglein, Air Force PMAE, will review it. This will be the first parade of the year and the first review for Col. Stenglein, who has recently assumed command of the Air Force ROTC group here.

NU Group To Present Radio Show

'Suicide Club' Third In Series

"The Suicide Club," third of a weekly series of radio productions sponsored by Authors of the Ages, will be broadcast over KOLN at 9:30 p.m. Thursday.

Authors of the Ages is a student organization which sponsors weekly, half-hour dramatic presentations over KOLN. The show is produced, directed and acted out by students who are interested in radio productions.

SOME OF last year's presentations were "Wuthering Heights," "Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court" and "Devil and Daniel Webster."

"The Suicide Club," an adaptation of Robert Louis Stevenson's short story, is a drama occurring in England at the turn of the century. Two men while looking for adventure find a third man who leads them to the Suicide Club. Once in the club, they can not get out unless they commit suicide and suicide can be committed only at a certain time.

Connie Gordon is the director-producer and Lorraine Coryell is assistant producer.

Cast consists of Al Kenyon, Bruce Minter, Sylan Dweick and Norman Krovoshia.

Fulbright Scholarship Filings Due Saturday

Seniors and graduate students who are applying for study abroad during 1954-55 under the Fulbright Act or the Buenos Aires Convention must submit applications before noon Saturday.

Harold Wise, assistant dean of the graduate college, stated that applications and all supporting credentials must be filed in the Graduate Office, Social Sciences 111.