

Spartans, UCLA Are Shocked

Fight For Roses Wide Open Now

By GARY FRANSDEN
Sports Staff Writer

Your guess is as good as mine now! At least it is when you try to come up with the two teams that will be squaring off against each other New Year's Day in the granddaddy of them all, the colorful Rose Bowl.

TWO WEEKS ago it was generally agreed in most corners that it probably would be UCLA representing the Pacific Coast Conference and long-unbeaten Michigan State from the Big Ten, but now you just don't know what to expect.

Both favorites were rocked from their peaks of eminence by teams that weren't figured to cause too much trouble.

MICHIGAN STATE'S defeat was the real shocker! Going into last Saturday's game the high-and-mighty Spartans were riding a celebrated twenty-eight game winning streak that looked like a cinch to reach the thirty-game mark. But then came Purdue, a five-time loser struggling to pick up its initial triumph of the season.

THE REST is history! A rugged defense and a pungent fullback by the hard-pronounceable name of Dan Pobjewski were all the Bollermakers needed for a 6-0 win that mortified the Spartan faithful.

Things were also dark on the coast! Two weeks ago Red Sanders' Bruins were also galloping along at high speed for the coveted nod to Pasadena as they had rolled past four opponents, allowing a mere seven points to the opposition.

STANFORD was the stopper this time. The Indians had been beaten by a mediocre College of Pacific team 25-0 in their opener and had trouble shaking off weak Oregon 7-0. Thus they were discarded as a threat to impede the progress of Paul Cameron and Company.

But Bob Garrett's passing arm went to work in persevering fashion and the Indians emerged with a stunning 21-20 upset.

THE UNEXPECTED defeats of Michigan State and UCLA threw both conferences into a wild scramble for the renowned right to make the trek for the Jan. 1 classic.

The Bruins now have company in surprising Stanford and the California Bears while the Spartans are now confronted with Illinois, Ohio State, Michigan and possibly Minnesota.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA and Wisconsin are both ineligible for this year's but both, especially the Trojans, should have plenty to say about who will make the trip.

Outside of ineligible Southern California, we are inclined to believe UCLA and possibly California are the only Pacific coast teams capable of preventing the Big Ten from capturing their eighth straight win in nine tries.

STANFORD IS powerless if Garrett's right arm isn't clicking while Washington has displayed nothing with the exception of holding Southern California to a 13-13 tie.

In the rival conference Michigan State, Ohio State, Illinois, and Michigan and Minnesota are all teams who have had their ups-and-downs, but any one of them can display tremendous power on a given afternoon.

Jayhawk Beauty

End Harold Patterson, three-sport athlete at KU, will be one of Coach Jules Sikes' biggest threats in Saturday's battle at Memorial Stadium. Patterson is a glue-fingered end as well as a speedster.

College Football Standings

BIG SEVEN CONFERENCE				MISSOURI VALLEY CONFERENCE
W	L	T	TP	W	L	T	TP
Kansas State	2	0	0	1,800	23	26
Oklahoma	2	0	0	1,800	22	28
Kansas	2	1	0	1,467	50	66
Nebraska	2	1	0	1,467	35	34
Missouri	1	0	0	1,467	27	39
Iowa State	0	0	0	1,467	14	19
Oklahoma State	0	0	0	1,467	7	50
Colorado	0	0	0	1,467	7	109

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE				SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE
W	L	T	TP	W	L	T	TP
Georgia Tech	2	0	0	1,800	26	26
North Carolina	2	0	0	1,800	25	25
Louisiana State	1	0	0	1,800	25	25
Alabama	1	0	0	1,800	25	25
Kentucky	1	0	0	1,800	25	25
Mississippi State	1	0	0	1,800	25	25
Georgia	1	0	0	1,800	25	25
Florida	1	0	0	1,800	25	25
Tennessee	1	0	0	1,800	25	25
Vanderbilt	1	0	0	1,800	25	25
Texas	0	4	0	1,800	14	125

IVY LEAGUE				SKYLINE CONFERENCE
W	L	T	TP	W	L	T	TP
Yale	2	0	0	1,800	26	7
Cornell	1	0	0	1,800	26	25
Pennsylvania	1	0	0	1,800	26	25
Harvard	1	0	0	1,800	26	25
Columbia	1	0	0	1,800	26	25
Pennsylvania State	1	0	0	1,800	26	25
Brown	1	0	0	1,800	26	25
Dartmouth	1	0	0	1,800	26	25

ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE				PACIFIC COAST CONFERENCE
W	L	T	TP	W	L	T	TP
Duke	2	0	0	1,800	26	7
North Carolina	2	0	0	1,800	26	25
Wake Forest	2	0	0	1,800	26	25
Virginia Tech	2	0	0	1,800	26	25
North Carolina State	2	0	0	1,800	26	25
Virginia	2	0	0	1,800	26	25
Wake Forest	2	0	0	1,800	26	25
North Carolina State	2	0	0	1,800	26	25
Virginia	2	0	0	1,800	26	25

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE
W	L	T	TP
West Virginia	2	0	0
W. Va. & Mar.	2	0	0
Tennessee	2	0	0
Georgia	2	0	0
Alabama	2	0	0
Georgia Tech	2	0	0
Georgia State	2	0	0
Florida	2	0	0
North Carolina	2	0	0
South Carolina	2	0	0
Virginia Tech	2	0	0
Virginia	2	0	0
Wake Forest	2	0	0
North Carolina State	2	0	0
Virginia	2	0	0
Wake Forest	2	0	0
North Carolina State	2	0	0
Virginia	2	0	0

NU Starting "11" Revamped

Wagner, McWilliams Replace Glantz, Korinek For KU Tilt; Huskers Continue Light Workouts As Originally Planned

PROBABLE STARTING LINEUPS

KANSAS	LINEUPS	NEBRASKA
87 Kay (C)	LE	Loehr 89
70 Landy	LT	Comer 79
42 Fish	LG	Kirshman 74
33 Hodas	C	Oberlin 53
63 Hantz (C)	RG	Wagner 65
63 Kowles	RT (C)	Minnick 76
84 Bracette	RE (C)	Schabacker 85
10 McFarland	LB	Bordogna 14
21 Hess	LH	Smith 41
39 Allison	RH	McWilliams 21
21 Schmitt	FB	Novak 17

Kickoff time—2 p.m.
Officials—Referee, Ron Gibbs, St. Thomas; umpire, Bud Knox, De Moines; head linesman, George Bourne, Wesleyan; field judge, Mike Oberhelman, Kansas State.

right guard spot ahead of Don Glantz, Central City. And Jon McWilliams, sophomore from Sidney, is likely to get the nod at right half over Jim Yeisley, Coia, Ia., and Dennis Korinek, Ulysses. Yeisley has been playing at fullback. Korinek, leading rusher, slips to the third spot. Senior Nick Adduci replaces Yeisley in the No. 2 fullback job.

Huskers looking for their initial Big Seven Conference victory of the season, Kansas for its third.

IN 1892 Kansas opened the series with a 12-0 triumph. Since that time Nebraska has piled up 42 victories to 14 for the Jay-hawks. Three contests were ties. The lone interruption was in the 1904-05 period. Going into Saturday's fray

Statistics released by the NU publicity office show that after six games Dennis Korinek is the leading Husker rusher with a 5.9 yard average. Dennis has run up 316 yards net on 54 carries.

Halfback Bob Smith is close behind with a 5.0 yard average on 55 carries. Rex Fischer who has seen 11th.

Bob Wagner

Jon McWilliams

Husker Coach Bill Glassford plans some changes in the Nebraska lineup that will open against the Kansans.

Presbys Retain Top Rating In Independent Team Play

Phi Delta Phi 10th In All-U Poll, Turn Back Dorm B-C, By 13-6 Count

By FRANK SORENSON
Sports Staff Writer

evenly distributed throughout the four quarters. They collected six points in each quarter.

Despite their bad showing, the NROTC had the best individual players of the field in the form of D. Moser. His speed kept the defense guessing, but he just didn't have any support.

IN LEAGUE IX play, the Que Balls ran over the Sigma Gamma Epsilon team 33-0 while the Dubbers disposed of a tough Eagle team 26-7 after leading by only 14-7 at the halfway mark.

In the only other game the Jinxers and the Ag Gamma Club each forfeited to each other by virtue of neither having an official for the contest.

The winners scored in the initial stanza and again in the third, while going scoreless in the second and final quarter.

AL BLESSING looked good for the winners while the only threat on the Dorm team came in the form of Loren Peterson who played a fine game and intercepted a Phi aerial and went all the way to paydirt on the last play of the game.

Methodist house showed that they were more deserving than their eighth place rating (the ratings came out before the scores were in the hands of the columnist) by trouncing a hapless Intervarsity team 54-0.

Strangely enough, the winners mustered all their scoring in two quarters. They ran up 21 markers in the second frame and 33 in the last while going without a tally in both the first and third quarters.

FRESBY HOUSE wound up their session in fine style by downing the Lutheran Student Association team 14-0. The winner's tallies came in the first and second quarters and then the teams battled evenly for the next two rounds.

Over in the Bee leagues the hot Beta Theta Pi crew won handily over Phi Delta Theta 15-0 while the Sigma Nu juniors were forfeiting to the Alpha Tau Omega club.

The Betas ran up a 9-0 lead by the end of the initial quarter, after which they went scoreless until halfway through the third frame when they collected their final tally.

THE DENTAL Juniors looked as if they had the Navy boys strapped in their clinic chairs when they trounced over the latter 24-7. Then Dent's scoring was the Huskers have a 0-2 mark in loop games—bowing to Kansas State 27-0 and Missouri 23-7. For the season, the Husker mark is 1-4-1. The Scarlet and Cream trimmed Miami 20-16, tied Illinois 21-21, but bowed to Pittsburgh 14-6 and Oregon 20-12.

KANSAS, TOO, has had rough sledding in the return to single platoon football. Jules V. Sikes' crew opened with defeats by TCU 13-0 and UCLA 19-7, then whipped Iowa State 23-0 and Colorado 27-21, but bowed to Oklahoma 45-0 and SMU 14-6 the following two weeks.

Wary after their 7-23 licking at Columbia, Mo., the Cornhuskers had only light duty this week. They were given a holiday Monday and worked out only in sweat-clothes Tuesday. Glassford planned no contact work during the week.

JOHN BORDOGNA'S 32 completed passes in 69 throws (463) continue to pace the Big Seven Conference this week. The mark also puts him at 19th in the nation. Yardage gained on those aerials totaled 416.

Andy Loehr, junior end who along with Bordogna hails from Turtle Creek, Pa., is the top pass receiver, having caught an even dozen, although Halfback Dennis Korinek, Ulysses, leads in yards gained on receptions with 147 yards on four.

NEBRASKA REMAINS atop the conference in percentage of passes completed—468.

Other Huskers among the loop leaders: Rushing—Korinek, 4th; Bob Smith, Grand Island, 9th. Passing—Rex Fischer, Oakland, 10th.

Pass receiving—Korinek, 3rd; Bill Schabacker, Minden, 7th; Loehr, 10th, and Jim Yeisley, Coia, Ia., 11th. Loehr tops the loop in number of receptions (12).

Punting (at least eight punts)—Ray Novak, Omaha, 4th; Bordogna, 11th.

Punt returns (at least four returns)—Bordogna, 7th; Smith,

Wear after their 7-23 licking at Columbia, Mo., the Cornhuskers had only light duty this week. They were given a holiday Monday and worked out only in sweat-clothes Tuesday. Glassford planned no contact work during the week.

JOHN BORDOGNA'S 32 completed passes in 69 throws (463) continue to pace the Big Seven Conference this week. The mark also puts him at 19th in the nation. Yardage gained on those aerials totaled 416.

Andy Loehr, junior end who along with Bordogna hails from Turtle Creek, Pa., is the top pass receiver, having caught an even dozen, although Halfback Dennis Korinek, Ulysses, leads in yards gained on receptions with 147 yards on four.

NEBRASKA REMAINS atop the conference in percentage of passes completed—468.

Other Huskers among the loop leaders: Rushing—Korinek, 4th; Bob Smith, Grand Island, 9th. Passing—Rex Fischer, Oakland, 10th.

Pass receiving—Korinek, 3rd; Bill Schabacker, Minden, 7th; Loehr, 10th, and Jim Yeisley, Coia, Ia., 11th. Loehr tops the loop in number of receptions (12).

Punting (at least eight punts)—Ray Novak, Omaha, 4th; Bordogna, 11th.

Punt returns (at least four returns)—Bordogna, 7th; Smith,

Wear after their 7-23 licking at Columbia, Mo., the Cornhuskers had only light duty this week. They were given a holiday Monday and worked out only in sweat-clothes Tuesday. Glassford planned no contact work during the week.

JOHN BORDOGNA'S 32 completed passes in 69 throws (463) continue to pace the Big Seven Conference this week. The mark also puts him at 19th in the nation. Yardage gained on those aerials totaled 416.

Andy Loehr, junior end who along with Bordogna hails from Turtle Creek, Pa., is the top pass receiver, having caught an even dozen, although Halfback Dennis Korinek, Ulysses, leads in yards gained on receptions with 147 yards on four.

NEBRASKA REMAINS atop the conference in percentage of passes completed—468.

Other Huskers among the loop leaders: Rushing—Korinek, 4th; Bob Smith, Grand Island, 9th. Passing—Rex Fischer, Oakland, 10th.

Pass receiving—Korinek, 3rd; Bill Schabacker, Minden, 7th; Loehr, 10th, and Jim Yeisley, Coia, Ia., 11th. Loehr tops the loop in number of receptions (12).

Jayhawk Beauty

End Harold Patterson, three-sport athlete at KU, will be one of Coach Jules Sikes' biggest threats in Saturday's battle at Memorial Stadium. Patterson is a glue-fingered end as well as a speedster.

College Football Standings

BIG SEVEN CONFERENCE				MISSOURI VALLEY CONFERENCE
W	L	T	TP	W	L	T	TP
Kansas State	2	0	0	1,800	23	26
Oklahoma	2	0	0	1,800	22	28
Kansas	2	1	0	1,467	50	66
Nebraska	2	1	0	1,467	35	34
Missouri	1	0	0	1,467	27	39
Iowa State	0	0	0	1,467	14	19
Oklahoma State	0	0	0	1,467	7	50
Colorado	0	0	0	1,467	7	109

SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE				SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE
W	L	T	TP	W	L	T	TP
Georgia Tech	2	0	0	1,800	26	26
North Carolina	2	0	0	1,800	25	25
Louisiana State	1	0	0	1,800	25	25
Alabama	1	0	0	1,800	25	25
Kentucky	1	0	0	1,800	25	25
Mississippi State	1	0	0	1,800	25	25
Georgia	1	0	0	1,800	25	25
Florida	1	0	0	1,800	25	25
Tennessee	1	0	0	1,800	25	25
Vanderbilt	1	0	0	1,800	25	25
Texas	0	4	0	1,800	14	125

IVY LEAGUE				SKYLINE CONFERENCE
W	L	T	TP	W	L	T	TP
Yale	2	0	0	1,800	26	7
Cornell	1	0	0	1,800	26	25
Pennsylvania	1	0	0	1,800	26	25
Harvard	1	0	0	1,800	26	25
Columbia	1	0	0	1,800	26	25
Pennsylvania State	1	0	0	1,800	26	25
Brown	1	0	0	1,800	26	25
Dartmouth	1	0	0	1,800	26	25

ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE				PACIFIC COAST CONFERENCE
W	L	T	TP	W	L	T	TP
Duke	2	0	0	1,800	26	7
North Carolina	2	0	0	1,800	26	25
Wake Forest	2	0	0	1,800	26	25
Virginia Tech	2	0	0	1,800	26	25
North Carolina State	2	0	0	1,800	26	25
Virginia	2	0	0	1,800	26	25
Wake Forest	2	0	0				