Bill Says, 'We'll Let OU Worry'

By GARY FRANSDEN Sports Staff Writer Coach Bill Glassford announced only one lineup change as his Nebraska Cornhuskers went through their final rough stuff Tuesday in preparation for their rugged encounter with the invading Oklahoma Sooners Saturday.

Glassford stated that Ted Britt, senior from North Platte, will get the opening call at center in favor of Bob Oberlin and another senior, Jim Oliver.

Commenting on the rapidly-approaching skirmish with Bud Wilkinson's Orange Bowl-bound Sooners, Glassford had this to say. "We're going to let Oklahoma worry about us. We're going to play sixty minutes of football to the best of our ability."

BARRING ANY further lineup changes the Huskers will open up with Andy Loehr and Bill Schabacker, ends; Ted Connor and Jerry Minnick, tackles; Jerry Paulson and Bob Wagner, guards; Britt, center; John Bordogna, quarterback; Bob Smith and Roy McWilliams, halfbacks; and Ray Novak, fullback.

The Huskers should be going to the final 1953 gridiron game in near-perfect physical condition. Only Max Kitzelman, the towering Omaha guard, is a question mark, but if big Max responds favorably to Tuesday's scrimmage, he'll see some action against the Big Seven champions.

Nebraska will be running into one of the nation's leading offensive clubs in one of the best Oklahoma Sooners are second in rushing offense with an average of 293.9 yards per game. In total offense Oklahoma is 12th with a 344.1-yards per game mark.

IN HALFBACK Larry Grigg, the defensive ace of 1952, the Sooners have an outstanding individual performer on offense. Grigg has piled up 659 yards on 101 carries for a 6.5-yard average to rank 8th in the nation in rushing offense.

Wilkinson will probably start like this: Carl Allison and Max Boydston, ends; Don Brown and Roger Nelson, tackles; Bo Bolinger and J. D. Roberts, guards; Kurt Burris, center; Gene Calame, quarterback; Bob Herndon and Grigg, halfbacks; and Robert Burris, fullback.

It's been 41 games and nearly eight years since Oklahoma has lost a Big Seven Conference football game.

KANSAS WAS the last league eleven to bump Oklahoma—16-13 in 1946 when Jim Tatum, present Maryland coach, held the Sooners reins. Wilkinson took over in 1947 and since that time Oklahoma has gone unbeaten in loop play, but has been tied twice—13-13 by Kansas in 1947 and 21-21 by Colorado last season.

Business Manager A. J. Lewandowski announced that there are 600 stadium seats and 4,000 bleacher tickets remaining for the Sooner-Husker clash.

Intramural Football Playoff Finale

Phi Psi's Beat Phi Delta Phi, 27-21, To Grab All-University Grid Crown

By FRANK SORENSON Sports Staff Writer

Championship form! That's what paid off for the 1953 I-M Touch Football All-University Champion Phi Kappa Psi as they downed a do or die Phi Delta Phi crew 27-21. The game was one of the closest and hardest played in I-M play to date.

Phi Delta Phi earned their right to the final game by winning their league with a 4-0 record. They then went to win a forfeit from Newman Club in the first round. They then tramped the Dubbers 31-13, edged Presby House 9-8 and downed the Ag Jokers 7-6 for the Independent Championship.

Phi Kappa Psi finished second in their league with 4-1 record behind the DUs. In playoff games, they smashed the ZBT's 65-0, downed Farmhouse 20-14, edged Sigma Alpha Epsilon 26-20 and tramped a strong ATO club 21-2 for the Fraternity A title.

IN ROUTING the ZBT's, the champions set a new all-time All-University single game scoring mark. The old mark stood at 59 scored by Farm House in 1939. The Phi Psi's also neared the season's scoring mark of 278 by garnering 244 tallies.

In the opening quarter the Phi Delta Phi's scored fast on a pass from Ray Svehla to Bill Hein. The conversion from Hein to Perry was complete and the Phi's led at the end of the first quarter, 7-0.

In the second frame, captain Bob Bachman, star of the tournament along with Al Blessing of the Phi's, again unloosed his lethal passing arm and hit Duane Rankin in the end zone for six big points. Bachman then hit Thompson for the extra point to tie the game at 7-all.

IN THE third quarter the losers again shot ahead on a brilliant pass from Svehla to John Wilson. The play had been set a tremendous catch by Blessing of a 45 yard pass from Hein, the whole play covering 60 yards. Svehla then flipped to Hein for the EP and a 14-7 lead.

The Phi Psi's then raged back on the arm of Bachman and marched into Phi territory where Bob flipped to end Jerry Anderson for the TD. The conversion attempt was knocked down and the score stood Phi Delta Phi 14, Phi Psi 13.

Shortly later the winners struck with blinding speed on a pass from Bachman to Anderson.

Welch caught the Bachman EP pass to make the score read 20-14 Phi Psi.

AS THE third quarter came to a close, Svehla again passed to Blessing for 50-yard gain to set up the third score for them.

Reports Say Kansas' Sikes Resigns Post

Two Wichita papers and one Topeka paper said today that Jules V. Sikes would leave as head football coach after the Missouri-Kansas game Nov. 21.

However, the stories varied in other aspects. Reports from sports editors of the papers stated Sikes had either told the squad that he had resigned, that the information came from "unimpeachable" sources, or that Sikes had been advised that his contract would not be renewed when it expires March 1. Another report said that Sikes had called a press conference after the Missouri-Kansas tilt to announce that he would not return to the University of Kansas.

Sikes, when questioned about the matter, said he had not resigned.

Sports Tickets

Student and faculty sports tickets which admit to basketball and all other winter and spring sports on the Cornhusker schedule will be placed on sale Monday, Nov. 23, at the Coliseum, Business Manager A. J. Lewandowski stated. The student tickets are $3 and faculty tickets $4, tax included.

Sooner Grigg, Husker Smith Lead Conference In Rushing

Cornhusker footballers rank second in both passing and rushing in the Big Seven Conference this week.

Bob Smith is second to Larry Grigg of Oklahoma in rushing, while Husker John Bordogna is in the No 2 spot behind bill Plantan of Iowa, State in passing.

Grigg has netted 659 yards on the ground to 653 for Smith. In the aerial department Plantan has completed 57 of 100 attempts for a 723-yard total, while Bordogna has thrown 47 completions in 104 attempts for 613.

OTHER HUSKERS among the Big Seven leaders: Rushing—Dennis Korinek, 8th, Passing—Rex Fischer, 10th. Pass receiving—Andy Loehr, 4th; Bill Schabacker, 5th, and Korinek, 8th.

Punting (at least 10 punts)—Ray Novak, 6th; Bordogna, 11th. Punt returns (at least 6 returns)—Bordogna and Smith, tied for 6th.

Scoring—Bordogna, 5th; Smith tied for 8th.
