

Council Plans Symbol Contest

Gridiron Ceremony Planned

The widely-used, though unofficial "Cornhusker" symbol, pictured in today's Nebraskan, is to be replaced.

A contest to select an official symbol or decal will be jointly sponsored by the Student Council and the Alumni Association. Two committees were appointed to work with the Alumni committees. They are publicity: J. A. C. Rogers, Joyce Bennington and Marv Stromer; specifications and judging: Jan Steffen, Murt Pickett, Carl Mammel, and Marv Friedman.

Director of Athletics, George (Potsy) Clark, requested a student recognition ceremony, to be held during half-time at the Minnesota game, Dec. 5. Those students who had aided most in fostering pep and school spirit during the football season would be honored.

The council voted unanimously to sponsor the event and appointed a committee to plan it. Members are: Mimi Hamer, Art Raun, Gail Katske, Pat Graham, and Linn Brady.

A RESOLUTION to commend the football team and coaching staff for a good reason was tabled.

Committee reports revealed that the parking board had heard one appeal and had granted a special parking permit which will be revoked if it is misused.

Concerning the compromise on final exam vacations, the calendar committee pointed out that this action applies to 1953-54 only. Dean Colbert suggested that the committee have student opinion to back up their arguments when the faculty senate decides the plan for 1954-55 on Dec. 8.

To determine the student opinion on this subject a letter of explanation and a poll will be distributed to the students through the Student Council.

AN INVESTIGATION will be held to determine the possibility of having a "floating holiday" to be declared by the Council in case of an emergency. It was suggested that such action might prevent a situation like the one occurring at Iowa recently when student agitation for a "victory vacation" was denied.

Ken Rystrom, editor of The Nebraskan, a visitor at the meeting, reminded Council members that a written report of the meeting should be given The Nebraskan. He called members attention to a by-law in the Council which required the written report to the paper and noted the Council had failed to submit the report thus far this year.

Members were also reminded to wear their Student Council shirts on meeting days. The next regular meeting was cancelled because of Thanksgiving vacation.

Adams, Poteet State Support Of Mitchell

A former state senator and recent student of C. Clyde Mitchell, professor of agricultural economics, have issued statements supporting Mitchell in the controversy with the Hall County Farm Bureau.

MARCUS L. POTEET, Waverly farmer, secretary of the State Railway Commission and recent student in Mitchell's classes, said Mitchell encourages free discussion in his classes and makes no attempt to "indoctrinate" his students. Poteet called himself "pretty much of a conservative."

Thomas H. Adams, Lincoln attorney, Farm Bureau member and former state senator, praised Mitchell's ability in a letter to Regents Robert W. Devoe and C. Y. Thompson and W. V. Lambert, dean of the College of Agriculture.

HE DESCRIBED Mitchell as a "top-notch, up-to-date instructor and leader in agricultural economics" and wrote: "If a man of Mitchell's caliber can't give his viewpoints to the farmers in our state, then we are just asking for a program to keep our farm population ignorant." The Hall County Farm Bureau, in his opinion, does not "represent much of the thinking of the members in the state at large."

The Mitchell-Farm Bureau controversy stems from an article by Mitchell recently published in Capper's Farmer.

BABW To Hold Dance

Barb Activities Board for Women will sponsor a dance from 8 to 11 p.m. in the Union Ballroom Friday.

Doris Mach, BABW board member, said that all students are invited to the informal affair. No admission will be charged.

Human Relationship Deemed Important To Schools—Henzlik

Dean says authority not effective in classroom

Formal organization is necessary for a good school system but it is the intangible program of healthy human relationships that spells the difference between success and failure.

This was the keynote of an address by F. E. Henzlik, dean of Nebraska School Administrators' conference Thursday afternoon at the Union. The meeting continues Friday in joint session with a group of Nebraska business representatives.

DEAN HENZLIK urged school administrators to take note of what he termed the "spontaneous

Filings Still Open For YW Positions

Filings are still open for YWCA president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and district representative, Neala O'Dell, president, announced.

Requirements are that the coed must be a sophomore or junior member of YWCA with a 5.5 average. Application blanks may be obtained in the YW office in Ellen Smith Hall.

The nominating committee will draw a slate of two nominees for each office except vice-president. The two candidates for president will be named president and vice president according to the number of votes they receive in the spring elections.

Olds Named Activity Queen

Cathy Olds, sophomore in Arts and Sciences, is congratulated by Rocky Yapp, past-president of the All University Fund, as the 1953 Activities Queen. The presentation was made at the annual AUF auction in the Union.

French Bio-chemist Explains EDC Program

Clouser Predicts French Showdown economic and political conditions of his country as seen by a French citizen.

Since October, 1952, he has been a Rockefeller Fellow at the University of California.

Dr. Hubert Clouser, biochemist from the University of Paris, and a visiting lecturer at the University, believes the question of ratification of the EDC will be put to a vote in the Assembly the first of next year.

"IF FRANCE agrees to pool its defenses with the five other western European countries, then the Federation of Europe may be possible in the next five years," he said.

He said the French government, which signed the EDC treaty in May, 1952, delayed putting the ratification question to a vote because it knew that the plan would be rejected.

Dr. Clouser sees the September election in Germany as a "great blow to the French opponents of the plan because the German election overwhelmingly rejected the German Nationalist Party."

"IN 1944, the peak year for the Reds, 700,000 Frenchmen were registered as Communists, while today only 350,000 are so registered," Clouser said. Another indication of the loss in Communist interest, he said, is the sharp drop in circulation of Communist papers in Paris. The Communists' morning paper now has 250,000 readers, compared with 700,000 in 1944. The Reds' evening paper discontinued publication some six months ago, he said.

"IT IS true," Clouser added, "that the Communist Party received 20 per cent of the vote in the last French election. However, most of these votes were cast in protest to economic conditions. The French citizens were voting with the Communists to seek concessions and not because of sympathy for the Reds' cause." Dr. Clouser gave a series of

Builders Bureau Requests Names

University students have been requested by the Speakers' Bureau of Builders to leave the names and addresses of Nebraska or out-of-state high school seniors interested in attending college in the Builders' office after Thanksgiving vacation.

This system of obtaining a mailing list is supplementary to the form used in the past which requested high schools to distribute literature. By asking University students to submit names, Builders hope to obtain a more complete list.

Red Also FBI Agent Says Teto At Hearing

Accused Man, Nat Mills, Refuses To Answer Upholsterer's Charge

By WILLIE DESCH Staff Writer

William H. Teto, 53-year-old upholsterer, created a sensation when he pointed out a Communist party member during a televised hearing conducted by Sen. McCarthy.

Teto said the man was an undercover FBI agent during the time he was also a Communist party member.

He also said that he worked in a General Electric plant in Fitchburg, Mass., and that there were Communist cells there and in GE plants at Lynn and Everett, Mass., and Schenectady, N. Y.

The man pointed out by Teto to be a Communist was Nat Mills who refused to say whether or not he was a Communist at an executive session last Wednesday.

Hall, Heady Execution

Dec. 18 has been set as the date of the execution of Carl Austin Hall and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, the kidnap killers of Bobby Greenleaf.

The death sentence was pronounced by U. S. District Judge Albert Reeves within 15 minutes after a jury of 12 men recommended that the two pay the supreme penalty for their confessed crime.

They will die in the gas chamber.

Educators, Administrators Confer In Joint Meeting

A joint conference of the department of school administration of Teachers College and the Nebraska Association of School Administrators opened at the University Thursday.

Registration began at 1 p.m. in the Union. Frank Henzlik, Dean of the Teachers College spoke on "Some Informal Relations in the School Organizations" at the first general session at 1:30 p.m.

Women Need Permission To Leave Early

AWS has announced the regulations concerning Thanksgiving vacation which are to be followed by women living in organized houses or in the Women's Residence Halls.

Thanksgiving vacation will begin Wednesday at 8 a.m. and end the following Monday at 8 a.m. Girls living in organized houses must obtain special permission from their housemothers if they wish to leave earlier than the specified time for the vacation period.

IF THEY return after 8 a.m. Monday, they must also obtain special permission from the housemother. Girls must receive special permission in the above cases regardless of whether or not they have classes. Special permissions do not excuse anyone from classes.

Anyone who returns after closing hours on Sunday following Thanksgiving must get special permission from the housemother before leaving and must note the time she will return on the sign-out sheet.

On a week-end home, girls may sign out to return on Monday morning in time for their first class. If a girl is visiting a friend and is to return Monday morning, special permission may be obtained to return with the friend.

Student's Poem Selected By National Publication

A poem, "Certainties," written by Lucigrace Switzer, Arts and Sciences freshman, has been selected for publication in the Annual Anthology of College Poetry.

The announcement was received from Dennis Hartman, secretary of the National Poetry Association.

The Anthology is a compilation of outstanding poetry written by college men and women representing every section of the United States. Selections were made from thousands of poems submitted.

CORNHUSKERS

Unofficial Symbol

This drawing of a tough-looking cornhusker has been unofficially used as the symbol of the University for some time. Many students have seen it on their desk-blotters or have used it as a decal. The Student Council is to sponsor a contest whereby a new, official symbol will be selected.

Five Named To Council Committee

Foreign Students To Plan Projects

Four international students and an exchange professor have been selected to serve on the Student Council student activities committee.

Students are Lichu Chen, Formosa; Hans Steffen, Hanover, Germany; Rosemarie Hill, Frankfurt, Germany, and Andrew Sainen, Panama.

H. N. V. Temperley, visiting professor of physics from Cambridge University in England, was chosen to serve as advisor on the committee.

ACCORDING TO Rocky Yapp, Council president, the committee's job is to co-ordinate projects planned for international students and to encourage campus organizations and individuals to expand their relations with students from abroad.

He said that the committee felt it was important to obtain the viewpoints of international students, so applications for membership were accepted from interested students.

JANET STEFFEN, chairman of the Activities Committee, said the committee now has worldwide representation, because it will have ideas representing the Far East, The United Kingdom, Central Europe and Central America.

Miss Chen, a mathematics and physics major, is the International House representative to BABW. Before coming to the University, she attended a church college in Ohio.

STEFFEN, A Fulbright scholar taking graduate work in Teachers College, said international students do not feel free to attend open meetings, such as the Student Council sessions.

An elementary education major and Fulbright scholar, Miss Hill thinks American activities are wonderful. "In Germany," she said, "we have almost no extracurricular activities."

Sainen, who is attending the University for his fourth year, stressed that international students did not come to this country to meet other international students. A nucleus of American students is needed to make activities with international students a success, he said.

NU'er To Attend CAI Convention

Dick Westcott, junior in Business Administration, has been selected to represent the University at the annual convention of the Congress of American Industries. He will be a guest of the National Association of Manufacturers.

Westcott was chosen by the Business Administration faculty as an outstanding junior student. He was selected from nominees from each college on the campus.

Westcott, an accounting major, is the first to be chosen from the University to attend the convention, which will be held in New York City Dec. 2 to 5.

Coffee Hour

A Coffee Hour will be held from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. in the Main Lounge of the Union after the Oklahoma game Saturday.

Chairman Marilyn Beideck said that everyone is invited to attend, and the Hospitality Committee extends a special invitation to the parents of University students to attend the coffee after the game.
