J. D. Roberts, Oklahoma's All-American guard, is The Nebraskan's Player of the Year in the Big Seven Conference. Performing equally well on offense and defense, the transplanted Texan packs 210 lbs. of football dynamite on his 5-10 frame.

Phi Psi's Land Three On All-A Team

Anderson, Bachman Only Unanimous Choices On Starting Squad; Delts Tooley, Green, Betas Burton, Weekes Top B Team Poll

By FRANK SORENSON Intramural Writer

After a great deal of delay due to the fact that ballots for the All-Intramural teams were slow in being returned to the I-M offices, we disclose for the first time the all-star squads for A and B team competition.

Bob Burton, guard and Tom Weekes, a swift back, paced the Betas to their division championship.

Other members of the first team B squad include Mel Hansen, Sigma Chi at center, Ted James, end from Alpha Tau Omega, and Back Bob Crane, Sigma Phi Epsilon.

The All-Independent team and the All-University selections will be revealed in Friday's issue of The Nebraskan.

Husker Cagers Seek Win Against Gophers

It's been 17 years since Nebraska defeated a University of Minnesota basketball team—the last time was Dec. 21, 1936.

Coach Harry Good's Cornhuskers will attempt to snap that long victory drought against the Gophers at the Coliseum here Saturday at 8 p.m. The game will be the season opener for both clubs.

IT WAS a team composed of Paul Amen, Howard Baker, Elmer Dohrmann, Floyd Ebaugh, Bob Parsons, Harry Sorensen and Leland Hale that last racked up the Gophers—29-24.

Good plans to start Willard Fagler, Harvard, and Don Weber, Estherville, Iowa, forwards; Bill Johnson, Lincoln, at center, and Fred Seger, Omaha, and Chuck Smith, Anderson, Ind., guards, Saturday night.

All but Smith are two-year lettermen. Smith is a 6 foot-1 1/2 inch sophomore.

BACKING UP this quintet will be a unit that includes two veterans—Gary Renselman, Scottsbluff, and Stan Matzke, Lincoln. That outfit has Jerry Hare, Grand Island sophomore, and Renselman, forwards; Charles Ott, Lincoln, Ill., sophomore center; Matzke and Don Sirls, Omaha sophomore, guards.

In order to whip the team that forecasters say has the best chance to jar Indiana loose from its Big Ten throne, Good lists these requirements for his squad:

- 1. A near-top performance (even though it's only the first game of the season). 2. Hit 40 per cent of its medium shots (shots taken 12-18 feet from the hoop). 3. Obtain a "reasonable" number of offensive and defensive rebounds.

I-M Track Meet

Qualifiers for the I-M indoor championship track meet will be decided Tuesday, December 8, at 7 p.m. at the indoor track. Finals for the meet will be held January 12. Entries are due by 12:00 p.m. December 8.

All-Sports Ticket Sales 'Progressing Rapidly'

All-Sports ticket sales are "progressing rapidly" according to A. J. Lewandowski, athletic business manager, "and approximately 500 student tickets and 250 faculty tickets have been sold to date." The Minnesota-Nebraska basketball game Saturday will be covered by the tickets now on sale at the Athletic office in the Coliseum. Tickets are on sale from 8 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. throughout the week.

Huskers Land Two Nebraskan Big 7 Team Includes Five Sooners

By Gary Frandsen and George Paynich

Five members of Coach Bud Wilkinson's Orange Bowl-bound Oklahoma Sooners lead The Nebraskan's 1953 All-Big Seven football team. The quintet of Oklahoma Sooners include End Max Boydston, Tackle Roger Nelson, Guard J. D. Roberts, Center Kurt Burris and Back Larry Grigg.

Roberts, a strong All-American choice and Boydston are two of the three repeaters from last year's Daily Nebraskan team. Roberts was named as a guard on the defensive platoon while the rugged Boydston held down one of the offensive end positions.

KANSAS STATE and Nebraska each placed two players on team while Colorado and Missouri each landed one on the mythical first eleven. Guard Tommy O'Boyle and Back Veryl Switzer were the Wilds honored and Tackle Ted Connor and Back John Bordogna were the first-team Huskers.

End Gary Knofele, Colorado's pass-snagging wizard and Missouri's hard-churning fullback, Bob Bauman round out The Nebraskan's conference selections.

CO-CAPTAIN NELSON and Burris teamed up with Roberts and Boydston to make the Sooner line what it was, mighty tough from end to end. Grigg, the great defensive back of a year ago, was the Big Seven's leading scorer and ground-gainer. O'Boyle was the line standout of a Kansas State team that surprised everyone while Switzer, a defensive selection last year, climaxed his football career at the Manhattan institution with his best season, both offensively and defensively. Connor also found two-way football right up his alley with a fine season at Nebraska while Bordogna wound up as the league's second best passer.

Burris and Bauman are the only two underclassmen on the squad. Both are juniors.

THERE WERE several players who were just a step behind the leaders. They included End Ed Pence, Kansas State; Tackle Jerry Minnick, Nebraska; Guard Bob Hantla, Kansas; Guard Terry Roberts, Missouri; Back Max Burkett, Iowa State; Back Carroll Hardy, Colorado; and Back Gene Calame, Oklahoma.

Pence, hampered by injuries at various times, was as tough as end you'll ever find while

LATEST COLLEGE SURVEY SHOWS LUCKIES LEAD AGAIN

Last year a survey of leading colleges throughout the country showed that smokers in those colleges preferred Luckies to any other cigarette. This year another nation-wide survey—based on thousands of actual student interviews, and representative of all students in regular colleges—shows that Luckies lead again over all brands, regular or king size...and by a wide margin! The No. 1 reason: Luckies taste better. Smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste, and the fact of the matter is Luckies taste better—for 2 reasons. L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. And Luckies are made better to taste better. So, Be Happy—Go Lucky!

Luckies give you finer smokes. So buy 'em by the carton. And if you haven't tried 'em yet, it's time you got a-startin'!
