IOWA'S YOUNG, two-platoon basketball team, victor over Washington of St. Louis 51-45 last week, meets Nebraska's Cornhuskers here Saturday night. Tip-off time is 8 p.m.

It will be the second Husker opponent out of the Big Ten Conference. The first, Minnesota, downed Nebraska 75-64 before 6,000 persons here last Saturday.

BUILT AROUND McKinley (Deacon) Davis, 6 foot 2 inch All-Big Ten second team choice at forward a year ago, the Hawkeyes starting quintet also will include two sophomores—Bill Logan, 6 foot 7 inch forward, and Bob George, 6 foot 7 1/2 inch center—and Doug Duncan, 6-6 junior guard, and Charles Jar'nagin, 6-3 senior at the other guard spot. Davis is a junior.

Davis averaged 14.9 points per game last season.

Logan was high point man for the Hawks in their opener, registering 11. He was a member of the all-sophomore second unit that pulled the Washington game out of the fire with a second half rally.

SEVEN IOWA squad members are 6-5 or over. Besides George, Logan and Duncan there are Bob Reimers (6-8); Bill Schoof and

Indiana Whips Kansas State

Indiana plainly showed why many of the experts rate them as their choice for the best team in the basketball nation by breezing to a lopsided 92-66 victory over the usually-rugged Kansas State Wildcats.

THE HOOSIERS, last year's Big Ten and NCAA national champion, raced to a 11-2 lead in the first three minutes as they displayed their flashy form of race-horse basketball. From then on in it was all Indiana.

Don Schlundt, the Hoosiers' 6-10 center, poured in 16 points in the first quarter, including seven field goals out of nine attempts. On the bench for nearly two quarters like the remainder of the first five, Schlundt captured high scoring honors with 25 points.

Jesse Priskoff led the Cats with 16 points. Towering Jerry Jung, Kansas State's 6-11 starting center, was ineffective offensively and defensively. Jung got one point and was lifted after failing to stop Schlundt during the wild Hoosier onslaught in the initial quarter.

Dick Ritter (6-6), and Roy Johnson, Jr. (6-5).
Coach Harry Good plans to go with the same unit he started against Minnesota—Willard Fagler, Harvard, and Don Weber, Estherville, Ia., forwards; Bill Johnson, Lincoln, center; Fred Seger, Omaha, and Chuck Smith, Anderson, Ind., guards.

THIS WEEK Good has been working to smooth out the Cornhusker offensive attack both the set and fast-break.

"Our forwards and guards did a creditable job against Minnesota," Good declared.

Minnesota, expected to be tough under the boards, out-rebounded the Huskers by only 39-36.

"But the inability of our post men (centers) to get their job done hurt us," he added.

For that reason Good has been doing some experimenting with other personnel at center.

"HOWEVER," he said, "I expect Bill (Center Bill Johnson) to find himself and to prove he should be in there. After all he's had two years of experience in Big Seven competition. Last year he had trouble in the first game but came along to wind up as our top scorer, averaging 13.9 points per game."

Seger was the top Nebraska scorer against Minnesota, hitting 12 for 19 field goals for 24 points. Last year he had the second best free throw percentage among the Cornhusker regulars. He didn't get one chance from the foul circle against the Gophers.

IN EIGHT games with the Hawkeyes since 1929, Nebraska has had an even break, winning four and losing four. The record:
Year Winner Score
1929-30 Nebraska 41-26
1931-32 Nebraska 38-34
1934-35 Iowa 31-24
1941-42 Nebraska 41-35
1942-43 Nebraska 52-43
1943-44 Iowa 50-33
1944-45 Iowa 61-45
1945-46 Iowa 61-35

Two Nebraskaans, George W. Holmes and Dr. Earl Deppen, will be honored at halftime by the active N Club. Holmes was a member of the athletic board for 25 years during the expansion of the Cornhusker athletic plant. He personally guaranteed the loan necessary to build the stadium. Dr. Deppen served as team physician for many years.

Each will be made an honorary member of the N Club. Certificates also will be presented to all the new letter winners among the Cornhusker athletes.

Chancellor John K. Selleck will make the presentations.

Dahnke Replaces Chilton
Bob Dahnke, Kansas State, was the University of Nebraska football team's choice as an all-opponent quarterback instead of Jack Chilton, Kansas State. Chilton was inadvertently included as an all-opponent selection.

Co-Captain Kennedy

Working on the trampoline is Max Kennedy, senior from Beatrice and one of the co-captains of the 1953-54 Nebraska gymnastics team. Kennedy, also a varsity footballer, is a two-year letterman in gymnastics and is expected to be a top point-getter in the Huskers' opening meet Saturday, the Midwest Invitational in Chicago. (Nebraskan Photo.)

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL continues on hot and heavy with a few interesting games being played early this week.

Perhaps the most interesting battle was the Sigma Phi Epsilon, Delta Tau Delta B battle.

THE TILT was close throughout and ended in a 42-42 deadlock in the regulation time. The junior Sig Eps then managed to squeeze to their 46-44 win.

Don Svanda paced the winners with his 14 point total while Bill Harm and Bob Burham each tallied 11 for the vanquished Deltas.

DON BECKER has individual scoring honors for the week so far with his 29 point total as the high-flying Phi Delta Theta B team crushed the hapless Kappa Sig five 56-34.

The Delt-Sig thriller was the only close game of the night's activity. Elsewhere the games were almost no contests.

PHI KAPPA PSI B marked itself as a power to be reckoned with by defeating the Sig Alpha B team 48-29 behind Ron Noel's 16 point spurge. He had fine support from mate Jack Moore with 12 to lead the winners.

That old pro Gus Lebsock was back to his scoring antics, but his 10 points weren't enough to halt Alpha Tau Omega, who beat the Sig Alphas 47-30. Bob Brown with 12 and Dave Jones with 13 paced the winners.

More Frosh Join Yearling Cagers

Seven more freshmen, including five frosh football players, have joined the University of Nebraska basketball ranks, Coach W. D. (Tony) Sharpe announced Tuesday.

Newcomers include Dorwin Blair, a member of Cozad's state Class B champions last season; Allen Delfes and Ted Westervelt (6-5), Scottsbluff; Don Erway, Lincoln, and Bill Krommenhoek, Sioux City, Ia. The five were out for freshmen football this fall.

In addition, Warren Wilken, Murdock, and Don Mutzebaugh, North Platte, have checked out equipment. Mutzebaugh was a member of North Platte High's state Class A runner-up last spring.

Nebraska so-called minor sports grab the spotlight in the next few days with the gymnastics and swimming teams opening this weekend while Coach Al Partin's grapplers wait until next Wednesday to begin their campaign.

THE CORNHUSKER gymnastics team travels to Chicago this week-end to enter the Midwest Invitational Meet. The meet is scheduled for Saturday night at the University of Illinois Undergraduate Division at Chicago's Navy Pier.

Coach J. G. (Jack) Geier has named a seven-man squad for the trip. The group will leave Lincoln Friday evening.

Cornhusker competitors include Co-Capt. Tom Kill, Lincoln, on the sidehorse, high bar and parallel bars; Co-Capt. Max Kennedy, Beatrice, trampoline and tumbling; Danny Fogel, Omaha, high bar and tumbling; Don Hodge, Beatrice, trampoline and tumbling; Ken Kohler, Beatrice, sidehorse; Bert Linn, Kimball, sidehorse; Burrell McMaster, Beatrice, parallel bars. Team Manager Bob Bevington, Beatrice, also will make the trip.

A possible addition to the travel squad is Chuck Sprague, Grand Island, who was injured in practice this week. Should he go, Sprague will compete on the high bar, parallel bars and trampoline.

NEBRASKA'S swimming team should come up stronger in the free style events this season with Calvin Bentz, Jr., junior letterman from Hastings, the top man in that department.

In the 220 and 440 Bentz will be backed by much improved Dave Gdawohl and Jack Trabert, Lincoln, both junior lettermen, and two promising sophomores, Dick Hill, Hastings, and Hugh Barnard, Ann Arbor, Mich.

THE HUSKERS will rely on Sophomores John Lightle, Charles Parks and Larry Jones, Lincoln, in the sprints and relays.

The backstroke will be about the same as a year ago with Lloyd Reed, Lincoln, the lead man, seconded by Parks and Senior John Kaveny, Lincoln. Reed is a two-year letterman. Dick Hildek, junior letterman from Omaha, and Bob Sandstedt, Lincoln, are the Husker backstrokers.

Weakest spot will be diving. Lost by graduation from last year's squad were Pat Henley, backstroke; Jerry Desmond, freestyler, and Pete Slusar, diver. Gene Cotter, a consistent point-winner in diving in 1952-53, is now in the armed services.

COACH LEPEY'S Nebraska swim teams have claimed two seconds and four thirds in Big Seven Conference meets—taking second place in 1947 and 1948 and third the next four years.

Last season Lepey was on leave of absence while working toward his Doctor of Education degree at the University of Indiana. Nebraska wound up fifth in the loop.

Lepey had attended Marquette University, Carroll College, Wisconsin, Nebraska and Colorado before going to Indiana.

HE WAS a physical education instructor, assistant football coach and swimming coach at Beloit College in 1937-43, and a swimming instructor in the navy's V-5 program, 1943-46.

At Nebraska Lepey is assistant professor of physical education in addition to coaching the swimming team.

Lepey is married and has two sons.

NEBRASKA'S wrestling strength will lie in the upper weights this season with Lettermen Charles Bryant, Omaha, and Lawrence Goll, Blue Hill, along with Max Kitzelman, Omaha junior, and Arnold Morton, sophomore from Oberlin, Kan., carrying most of the load.

Only senior on the squad is Hilmer Deines, Culbertson, who competed last season but did not win a letter.

Loss of Don Bean, Darrell Adamson, Dave Mackie, Perry Lettel, Ed Hummann and Ken Fisher by graduation cut a wide swath in the Cornhusker grappling ranks.

In addition, Jim Klingsporn and Gerald Smith, on the freshman squad last year, went into the army.

Hummann was Big Seven heavyweight semifinalist at State College, Pa.

STARTING his coaching career here at Nebraska, Coach Al Partin is entering his fourth season as Cornhusker tutor. His teams have won 12, lost 17 and tied 2 in dual meet competition.

They tied for fourth place in the Big Seven Conference in 1951 and again in 1953, taking fourth for themselves in 1952. A graduate of Cornell (Ia.) College, Partin lettered two years in football and four years in wrestling. He was Midwest Conference heavyweight champion from 1946 to 1950.

Partin is married and has a son and a daughter.
