Will 'Potsy's' Resignation Solve Huskers' Problems?

By GEORGE PAYNICH Sports Editor
What surprised me most of all about the resignation of 'Potsy' Clark as Athletic Director at Nebraska...

players who have counted on them and in general too many promises have been 'forgotten about' to make any player at NU happy for long...

The big issue has been Paynich and will be Paynich NU Football. We personally don't believe therefore that the people of this state were as disgusted with other phases of the athletic program...

Speaking from personal experience as a Nebraska football player, I would say the most important thing for the Nebraska athletic department to better the situation here is for the department to start taking better care of their athletes once they are here.

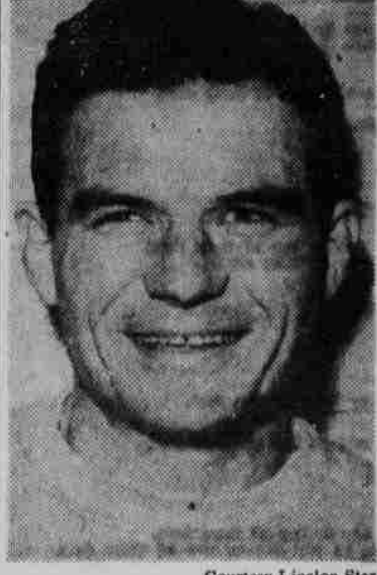

They say you have to be tough to play the game. Believe me, there are things a lot tougher than physical contact. Any ex-soldier who has had the experience of some tough sergeant continually heckling him has experienced it.

Looking back we see that Preacher Franklin, Ralph Fife, Neal Mehring and Pete Janetos were members of the coaching staff of the winniness team in post-war years and the resigned also. Strange isn't it?

Could be Nebraska will be on its way back to the grid power list now. Maybe 'Potsy' was the guy holding us back, what do you think?

Yankees, A's In Big Trade

In an 11-player deal Wednesday that startled much of the baseball world, the world champion New York Yankees acquired First Baseman Eddie Robinson and Pitcher Harry Byrd from the Philadelphia Athletics in exchange for Negro First Baseman Vic Power, Outfielder Bill Renna and First Baseman Don Bollweg.

BESESIDE THE big five in the deal, here are the other players involved in the transaction: The A's sent Babe, First Baseman Tom Hamilton and Outfielder Carmen Mauro to Kansas City while in return they received Catcher Al Robertson, Pitcher John Gray and Third Baseman Jim Finnegan.

IN ADDITION the Yankees promised they would option two Kansas City players to Ottawa, the Athletics' International League farm team although the Yanks would still retain possession of the players involved.

NU Team To Oregon
Harry Good's Cagers Meet Two Tall Squads In Ducks, Beavers

Cornhusker Basketball Coach Harry Good has named a 12-man squad to carry Nebraska's colors into the Pacific Northwest this week-end.

Good said of both regon clubs. The Webfoots are not lacking when it comes to height, either. Oregon U. has 6-7 inch Max Anderson, a sophomore, at center; Ed Halberg, 6-5, and Bob Stout, 6-2, both senior forwards.

OPPOSING all this height will be a Nebraska crew that has won two and lost one—that to Minnesota which is ranked sixth in the country this week.

The Huskers bowed to the Gophers, 75-64, but came back to trim Iowa, 81-70, and South Dakota, 70 to 53.

Born Shines As KU Wins

Playing with a sprained ankle, big B. H. Born, the University of Kansas' 6-9 center, flipped in 22 points to lead the Jayhawks to a 72-61 conquest of Tulsa Wednesday night.

It was the first win for Coach Phog Allen's club in three starts this season. Previously in the team's two losing efforts to Tulane and Louisiana State, Born scored 28 and 27 points respectively.

CAPITALIZING ON a big third quarter powerful Oklahoma A.&M. went on to roll up a 65-46 triumph over their intra-state rivals, the Oklahoma Sooners.

Clark's Successor?

With the resignation of George 'Potsy' Clark as athletic director at Nebraska, speculation is high on his successor. The name of present Head Football Coach Bill Glassford has been mentioned by some sportswriters as a likely candidate for the post. Glassford left Lincoln Thursday for coaching duties in the Blue-Gray game.
