

NU Gymnasts Easily Triumph In Triangular

Co-captains Tom Kidd and Max Kennedy picked up five firsts between them as Coach Jake Geier's undefeated University of Nebraska gymnastics squad walloped Minnesota and Kansas State in a triangular meet in Lincoln Saturday.

The Huskers ran up 80 points in breezing to the lopsided triumph. Mankato had 29 1/2 while Kansas State managed 22 1/2.

Kidd captured firsts in the sidehorse, horizontal bar and parallel bars while Kennedy won firsts in the trampoline and tumbling. The only other first place went to Nebraska's Bruce Riley who triumphed in the rings.

During the meet Chuck Sprague, Husker gymnast, was injured when he cut his head during the trampoline event. The injury required stitches, but wasn't considered serious. Summary:

Trampoline—Won by Max Kennedy (NU); second, Bruce Riley (NU); third, Wendell Holt (KS); fourth, Jerry Reinhardt (KS); fifth, Vernon Dye (KS).

Sidehorse—Won by Tom Kidd (NU); second, Bert Line (NU); third, Harlan Sheely (KS); fourth, Fred Dietrich (KS); fifth, Beau (KS); sixth, Ray Fallstead (NU).

Nebraska Track Standouts

Two records were broken during Saturday's dual track and field meet between Oklahoma and Nebraska in which the Huskers won out. Phil Heidelk (left) set one record in the high jump with a leap of 6 feet 4 1/4 inches. Both Cliff Dale and Ken Reiners (right) surpassed the shotput mark set 14 years ago with efforts of over 51 feet. Here they are shown with assistant coach Ray Prochaska on a tape check. Reiners won the event.

Nebraska Track Squad Edges Visiting Sooners

McWilliams Posts Three Firsts; Reiners, Dale, Heidelk Sparkle

Coach Ed Weir's University of Nebraska track aggregation, paced by Jon McWilliams, Ken Reiners, Cliff Dale, Phil Heidelk and Brian Hendrickson, led all the way in defeating the Oklahoma Sooners 55 2/3 to 48 1/4 in a dual meet in Lincoln Saturday. McWilliams was at his best in winning three firsts. The Husker sophomore won both hurdle races and captured the broad jump.

Reiners and Dale both surpassed the shot put mark of 50 feet 10 1/4 inches set by Bob Mills in 1939. Reiners, tossing off a board footing for the first time, won the event with a heave of 51 feet 3 inches. Dale was close behind with a toss of 51 feet 2 1/2 inches.

Heidelk set the other meet record. The veteran performer leaped 6 feet 9 inches to erase the old mark of 6 feet 4 1/4 inches set by Oklahoma's Dick Jones in 1951. Hendrickson sparked with a nifty first in the 440, winning it in a speedy 51.1.

Pole vaulters Jack Skalla and Jim Hofstetter shared the other Nebraska first. Both soared 11 feet 7 1/2 inches.

Again strength in the field events paid off for Nebraska. The Huskers outscored the Sooners 27 2/3 to 8 1/4 in the field while being outscored 40 to 28 on the track.

Missing from the Sooner lineup was Neville Price, the Big Seven record holder in the broad jump. Price was in New York City winning the event in the National AAU championships with a leap of 24 feet 5 1/2 inches.

The Huskers swept the 60-yard hurdles while the Sooners slammed the 880. Nebraska won every field event, but the Oklahomans triumphed in five of the eight track events. Summary:

Track
60-yard dash—Won by Joel Swartz (OU); second, Harry Lee (OU); third, Brian Hendrickson (NU); Time—38.4.
440-yard dash—Won by Hendrickson (NU); second, Charles Gibson (NU); third, Lee (OU); Time—51.
880-yard run—Won by Dick Shontona (OU); second, Ronald Reed (OU); third, Lee (OU); Time—2:11.

Field
Shot put—Won by Ken Reiners (NU), 51 feet, 3 inches; second, Cliff Dale (NU), 51 feet, 2 1/2 inches; third, Robert Van Der Oude (OU), 49 feet, 7 1/2 inches. (New record, replacing old mark of 50-10 1/4, set by Bob Mills, Nebraska, in 1939).
High jump—Won by Heidelk (NU), 6 feet, 9 inches; tie for second between Ray Kelley (NU), Merle Breston (NU), and Robert Whiddon (OU), 6 feet, 10 inches. (New record, replacing old mark of 6 feet 4 1/4 inches, set by Dick Jones, Oklahoma, in 1951).
Pole vault—Tie for first between Hofstetter (NU) and Jack Skalla (NU), 11 feet, 7 1/2 inches; third, Bill Armstrong (OU), 11 feet, 3 inches.
Broad jump—Won by McWilliams (NU), 22 feet, 6 1/2 inches; second, Leon Moore (OU), 21 feet, 6 1/2 inches; third, Rex Fischer (NU), 21 feet, 4 1/2 inches.

Jayhawks Bump Stubborn Huskers In Rugged Battle

Fouls And A Cold Seger Hurt Nebraska's Chances; B. H. Born, Dobbs, Patterson Sparkle For Kansans

By GARY FRANDSEN Sports Editor

Dr. Phog Allen's Kansas Jayhawks rode merrily into the Big Seven basketball lead and set the stage for their showdown tussle with the Colorado Buffs in Lawrence on March 1 by squeezing past a stubborn Nebraska team 67-62 in a wild and rugged skirmish at the Coliseum Monday night.

It was a close game all the way with both squads frequently guilty of rough floor play and erratic passing; but it was a thing called "fouls" that really hurt the Cornhuskers.

Nebraska decisioned the lads from Mt. Oread from the field, 24-15; but committed 30 personals to the Jays' 17. Kansas hit only eight field goals in the second half, but cashed in 18 out of 24 attempts from the charity stripe.

Four Huskers and a lone Kansan left the game via the foul route. Allen Kelley, the Jays' scrappy forward, departed with 2:24 remaining in the third quarter. With six seconds left in the stanza Nebraska's Willard Fagler drew his fifth personal. The rest of the Huskers went out like this: Don Weber, 9:15 left in the game; Chuck Smith, 3:34; and Stan Matzke, 1:56.

Neither team led by more than four points in the initial half. The Huskers led most of the second quarter only to have sub Larry Davenport ease in a lay-in to deadlock the game at 33-all at the half-way mark.

Early in the fourth quarter Kansas held a 59-51 lead, the biggest of the night; but four minutes later Fred Seger, Duane Buel and Matzke had closed the gap to only four points, 60-56. The Huskers crept within three points with 2:08 remaining, but that was the closest they could get.

Big B. H. Born, carrying four fouls from late in the third quarter, paced Kansans with 22 points. The deadly jump-shooting of Dallas Dobbs netted 19. Harold Patterson, the Jay workhorse along with Dobbs, turned in an outstanding floor game.

Bill Johnson, whose hook shots were hitting regularly, paced Nebraska with 19 points. Stan Matzke turned in his finest performance of the season in collecting 13 points. Fred Seger, usually a Husker mainstay, could manage only a lone field goal, that a tip-in.

NU Officials Meet With Tad Wieman

E. E. (Tad) Wieman, athletic director at the University of Denver for the past four years, is the third candidate interviewed for the position at the University. Wieman was interviewed by the athletic board Monday.

This weekend Paul Amen, a former Cornhusker athlete and currently an assistant in athletics at the U. S. Military Academy, and Bill Orwig, an assistant football coach at the University of Michigan were interviewed for the position.

Dr. Walter K. Beggs, chairman of the athletic board, stated that more interviews will follow before the field is definitely narrowed.

Jayhawk Workhorse

Turning in a fine all-around floor game for the Kansas Jayhawks against Nebraska last night was Harold Patterson, a well-built forward who also plays end on the Jay football team. Patterson played the whole game against the Huskers.

Colorado A&M Swimmers Win Final Relay To Nip Huskers

Two feet cost the Nebraska swimming team a 48-35 loss to Colorado A&M in a meet at the Coliseum pool Friday afternoon.

The Aggies were leading 41-35 going into the final event, the 400-yard free style relay, with the Huskers still having a chance to win; but the A&M anchor man, Ken Chambers, outdistanced his opponent to give the Fort Collins school the meet as well as the race.

Cal Bentz again was the best of the Scarlet mermen. The Nebraska ace set three meet records in winning the individual medley, 440-yard free style and the 220-yard free style. Gordon Peterson managed the only other Nebraska first, winning the 50-yard free style race. Summary:

400-yard medley relay—Won by Colorado A&M (Bob Allen, Bill Ernst, Charles Smith, Ken Chambers). Time—3:13.5 (new meet record).

old record of 3:15.1 set by Colorado A&M—Sargent, Evans-Ehrenreich in 1951.
