Nixon To Answer Stevenson

WASHINGTON—The address which is scheduled next Saturday to afford the opportunity to Vice-President Nixon to answer Adlai Stevenson, will reflect the viewpoints of President Eisenhower, Nixon said. Nixon added that he did not have his speech prepared as he would have to confer with the President and other Republican leaders before he made the final draft. Nixon said that he would be speaking for the Republican party in his address.

Nixon was hand picked by Eisenhower to fire back the party's reply to Stevenson's charge that the GOP is using "slander, distortion and deception" to try to win the coming congressional elections.

Anderson Given Defense Post

WASHINGTON—Secretary of the Navy Robert Anderson has been nominated by President Eisenhower to be deputy secretary of defense, following the resignation of Roger Kyes which will be effective May 1.

Anderson was a "Democrat for Eisenhower" in 1952. He is a Texas rancher-lawyer-business man. The White House has made no announcement on a successor to Anderson in the top Navy position.

The announcement of the resignation of Kyes was made by the White House last Saturday, however both the White House and Kyes said that the resignation has no connection whatever with the dispute between Secretary of the Army Stevens and Sen. McCarthy.

Election Procedures

Six slates of candidates will be presented at the election for all University women Thursday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Voting will take place for the May Queen and six Eligible Bachelors as well as officers and board members for Associated Women Students, Coed Counselors, Women's Athletic Association and Barb Activities Board for Women.

Voting will be conducted in Ellen Smith Hall and the Ag Union. Identification cards will be required.

Junior and senior women will select the 1954 May Queen who will preside over Ivy Day and each coed may vote for six Eligible Bachelors.

A revision has added two representatives to each of the three classes represented on the AWS Board, boosting to seven the number of members to be selected Thursday. All University women are eligible to vote in this election.

Two officers, president and vice-president, will also be selected. The runner-up in the presidential contest automatically will become the vice-president.

Unaffiliated women will select a president, vice-president, two senior, four junior and four sophomore board members in the BABW election.

WAA members who have earned at least 10 points this school year are eligible to vote for president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer of that organization.

President, vice-president and board members will be selected by all University women in the Coed Counselor election. Board positions include two senior women, one affiliated and one unaffiliated; eight juniors, at least two affiliated and two unaffiliated, and four sophomores, two affiliated and two unaffiliated.

Mortar Board members will be in charge of the election, which is supervised by the Student Council.
