

Dubbers Place Two Cagers On All-Independent Squad

Pelligrino, Jensen, Baker, Johnson, Evans Named On Team

By FRANK SORENSON
Sports Staff Writer

A grand total of 35 men gained recognition today as members of the 1954 Intramural Independent Basketball team. Players from 19 of the 44 teams competing in the Independent Leagues make up this year's select group as chosen by the teams themselves.

The All-University champions, the Dubbers led the way with six men on the first four teams. This is a surprising situation, but is indicative of the bench strength that the champions had.

Bob Pelligrino, the Dubbers' lightning-fast forward from Broadview, Ill., was the top vote getter of the 68 men who were honored on the ballots. Following close behind Pelligrino was his teammate, Chuck Jensen, who is the only holdover from last year's squad.

Jensen's long side shots coupled with Pelligrino's drives-in gave the Dubbers the most potent one-two combination in play this year. Jensen toured the courts for the Pansies last year, a team he led to the semifinals.

Pelligrino was a hot-and-cold shooter, but he hit below 10 points only four times this season and he found the eye on one occasion to score 32 markers for top one-game honors in two departments, most points in one game and the most field goals in one game (16).

JOINING Pelligrino and Jensen on the mythical team was Bob Baker of the Freshman Dents. Baker normally played

Independent All-Star Team

FIRST TEAM	Pos.	SECOND TEAM
Ken Johnson—Olive Oilers	F	Keith Clouse—Dubbers
Bob Pelligrino—Dubbers	F	Gary Heinze—Frosh Dents
Bob Baker—Frosh Dents	C	LaVerne Torczon—Gents
Chuck Jensen—Dubbers	G	Don Keiser—Hoopsters
Pev Evans—Ramblers	G	Dirkes Rolston—Ramblers
THIRD TEAM		FOURTH TEAM
Roger Bell—Voc Ag	F	Don Markheim—Dorm Bullets
Lee Dobler—Dubbers	F	Ray Svehla—Phi Delta Phi A
Larry Riddle—Ag Jokers	C	Roland Longemeier—Ag Men
Ron Powers—Gents	G	Willie Greenlaw—Ramblers
Phil Haas—Dubbers	G	Hal Andrews—Dubbers

HONORABLE MENTION: Mankamyer—Presby House; DeBoer—M-Street; Welsch, Erberspacher, Freeman—Hoyseds; Stuckenholtz—Voc Ag; Wolfe—Dorm C; Braley—Ramblers; Monson—AGR Grads; Clausen—Sigma Chi C; Gibbs—Olive Oilers; Clark, Koca—NROTC; Schainholtz—Frosh Dents; Beadle—Nebraska Co-op.

forward but he was placed at center because of his 6-2 frame, the tallest on the first five.

Baker probably has the most basketball savvy of the team due to his former playing with the Chadron Eagles in the NCC loop and his present-season hookup with Bus Whitehead's AAU Storz team.

Kenny Johnson who led a mediocre Olive Oilers team joins Pelligrino at the other forward slot while Pev Evans of the potent Ramblers provided the weight at the other guard position.

Johnson traveled at a 15.9 points per game average to end up fourth in the All-U scoring and third in Independent point-making. He has equal ability to shoot from the left or right side.

Evans, though possessing a sufficient amount of bulk, can move with amazing ease and would be able to team up with Baker as the two workhorses under the boards.

THE FROSH Dents, Dubbers and Ramblers each placed a man on the second five along with the Gents and the Hoopsters.

LaVerne Torczon, top Independent scorer for the current season, led his team with good rebounding and a multitude of tip-in shots. His height, combined with forwards Gary Heinze of the Dents and Keith Clouse of the Dubbers, would give the second team a slightly taller team than the first five. Keiser led a winning Hoopster team to the Independent playoffs where they faltered by forfeiting to the Ramblers. His long shots combined with the Rambler's Dirkes Rolston's short drives would keep any defense loose. Rolston, the shortstuff of the first four teams could probably qualify as the fastest man on the honor roll.

Phil Haas, an All-Independent selection in 1952, assumed the role of a team man this year to feed his more prolific teammates and consequently fell down in votes to the third team.

Lee Dobler, a transplanted center, holds down the forward slot along with the Voc Ag's Roger Bell. Ron Powers of the Gents is stationed at the other guard while Larry Riddle gets the pivot position.

All-Sports Day Activity Starts 9 A.M., Saturday

Nebraska Coaches Release Lineups For Baseball, Football, Basketball

ALL-SPORTS DAY PROGRAM
9 a.m.—Tennis—intramural.
10 a.m.—Baseball—intramural.
11 a.m.—Track—intramural.
2 p.m.—Football—intramural.
4 p.m.—Basketball—Alumni vs. Varsity.
8 p.m.—Swimming—intramural.

Final preparations are being made by Husker officials for Saturday's All-Sports Day which begins with an intersquad tennis match at 9 a.m. The weather is the big question mark now.

Nebraska football, baseball and basketball coaches announced their probable lineups for participation in Saturday's big affair. The headline attraction will be the intersquad football game which is slated to start at 2 p.m. on the Memorial Stadium sod.

A wet drizzle forced the Husker gridders indoors Wednesday and there was no workout slated for Thursday. Coach Bill Glassford's team got their first taste of spring scrimmage under game-like conditions last Saturday when the Reds blanked the Whites 24-0.

It will be the same two teams going at each other Saturday. The probable starting lineups:

RED	Pos.	WHITE
Loehr	LT	Bothrus
Holloran	LE	Peterson
Krueger	LC	LaRue
Oberlin	C	Bergin
Wagner	RG	Murphy
Glanz	RT	Evans
Hewitt	RB	Deines
Fischer	QB	Erway
McWilliams	LB	Johnson
Greenlaw	RH	Kolle
Smith	FB	Yelder

Official Referee: Bill Keiser; umpire, Mathias Voltz; field judge, Hermis Roberts; linesman, Chuck Worrall.

The morning's top attraction will be the intersquad baseball game, starting at 10 a.m. Coach Tony Sharpe has divided his squad into the Whites and Greys. Fran Hofmaler, one of the two left-handers on the squad, will get the opening call for the Whites while last year's ace, big Ray Novak, will start for the Greys. Probable lineups and substitutes:

WHITES	GRAYS
Rolston, ss	D. Thimman, 2b
Sezer, 2b	Olsen, cf
Gettleck, 3b	Brown, 3b
Cederdahl, cf	Giles, 1b

Smith, p	Uhlig, c
Dunning, utility	B. Thimman, 2b
Fluer, of	Gibson, p-1b
Sievers, p	Peese, p
Hansen, of	Dorward, p

At 4 p.m. Coach Harry Good's Varsity basketball squad will tangle with a strong Alumni aggregation at the Coliseum. The Huskers have been drilling all week for the tussle. Last year the Varsity nipped the Grads 69-63 after bowing to them the previous three years.

Football Luncheon Slated Next Week

The Husker football squad and its coaching staff will be presented and honored at a Chamber of Commerce Public Affairs luncheon on Wednesday, March 31. All Nebraska football fans are invited to attend, but reservations must be made in advance at the Chamber office.

Bill Glassford, head football coach at Nebraska, will be the principal speaker and will also introduce his entire football squad and staff. He'll also give the highlights of the spring practice session and will also relate information concerning next fall.

Chick Sutherland Resigns At ISU

Chick Sutherland, basketball coach at Iowa State for the last seven years, resigned from his position Wednesday.

Sutherland, however, will continue on the Cyclone faculty as a full-time physical education instructor. His teams had won 63 and lost 88 games. In the Big Seven action they had a record of 25 wins against 59 setbacks.
