

EDITORIAL PAGE

No Culture Here!

Something must be done! A serious situation at the University has become worse. Coffee houses were forced to close again last week when a convocation was given.

problem—what do I want from college life—is childish and ridiculously idealistic. Something must be done! A problem closely allied with the one above was forcefully brought to the attention of The Nebraskan 15 minutes ago.

Operation Blowup

The question "What, oh what ever shall we do about Ellen Smith Hall?" has long plagued hard-thinking University students and faculty. Solutions, appeals, demands, statements of fact, demonstrations of future plans for the University campus have all boiled down to the same thing.

one-fourth inch deep holes would be included in the concrete shell for those who wish to admire the beauty of the "dusty matron of campus buildings." Following the one month drying period, the shell would be completely wired with energy boxes constructed by McDougle.

The 3.2 Paradise

Today's Pink Rag carries the much belated announcement that the DB&G has obtained a license to sell beer in the Union. Many is the student that has longed for this day for many years, but if we are to seriously consider the move and the effect it will have on the University, other facts must be aired.

core of faculty members, who are afraid to speak their minds. The Editors of The Pink Rag offer this plan for the consideration of the entire student body, the faculty and the honorable voters of the State of Nebraska.

Margin Notes . . .

Mayor's Fun The entire Lincoln area has been restricted for a period of thirty days, Mayor Jeary has reported. No one will be allowed to enter or leave within a radius of twenty miles.

new ruling will be strictly enforced. All violators will be fined $500 to help pay for a new city dump to be located behind the Student Health Center.

The Nebraskan

FIFTY-THIRD YEAR Member: Associated Collegiate Press Advertising representative: National Advertising Service, Inc. 420 Madison Ave., New York 17, New York

EDITORIAL STAFF Editor: Sally Hall Editorial Page Editor: Tom Woodard Managing Editor: Joe Harrison News Editor: Ray Hocky Copy Editor: Nancy Carman, Dick Fellman, Marianne Hanson, Grace Harvey Sports Editor: Gary Frandese

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

"I'm afraid the engineers have tricked you, Miss Latour. The drawing course you were hired to model for is in the Fine Arts Building."

The Challenge On Progressive Education

I have recently returned from a weekend of conference with Dr. Robert Hutchins of Bouboo U. at which time we discussed at great length the inherent in a word I picked up during the conversation: weaknesses of our present educational system.

I Stole All This And I'm Glad Nebraskan Staff Plagiarizer Presents 'Re-Worked' College World Incidents

By "STICKY" FINGERS Here are a few of the legal aspects of the Traffic Rules and Regulations as written up in the Iowa State "Rasputinberts Report." These rules were said to be in effect at Iowa State.

List Of Traffic Violations: 1. Snuffit, Beamis K., age 6, arrested and hanged for speeding on a tricycle on Pammel Drive

University Life Farcial Functions

THURSDAY The AWS (Agitated Women Sufferers) will meet at 6 a.m. in Oak Lake. Joyce Johnson will speak to the closet girls on "How to Get a Man," from first-hand experience.

The Student Forum

Where Were We?

By BERT BISHOP This is the age of vanishing traditions, of falling ideals and waning principles. Last night, for the first time in history, independent students sat in block and watched the finals of the University Chess Tournament in complete silence—COLD SOBER!

Letterip

Name Withheld Asks Two Questions: Move The Coeds Off Campus—Old Dear Editor: After reading the two letters to you from Jerry Weinberg, I have several questions I should like to ask.

Dob's Dillies

(Since this April 1 issue is almost entirely devoted to humor and slightly digressing, I thought it would be all right to have the "humor man" in the usual get serious and give some help to the University students.)

ATTENTION ALL MEN STUDENTS

Contracts are now being accepted for the Men's Residence Halls for Fall, 1954. The new buildings will be ready for occupancy by September. All accommodations are for room and board—Rates, $260 per semester.