

Theater To Give Three Lab Plays

Leigh, O'Dell, Clute To Direct Productions Thursday, Friday

The Laboratory Theater will present three one-act plays Thursday and Friday at 7:30 p.m. in Room 201 of Temple Building.

"The Wonder Hat" by Kenneth Sawyer Goodman and Ben Hecht, will be directed by Barbara Leigh, with Morse Weisgurt as production manager.

Directing "The Eldest" will be Neala O'Dell. The play is by Edna Ferber. "Trifles" by Susan Glaspell will be directed by Morrell Clute with Charles Klasek as production manager.

"THE WONDER HAT" is a farce centering around love and confusion caused by a "wonder hat" and a magic dipper. It is written entirely for entertainment.

The cast will include Jim Boling as Harlequin; Amer Lincoln, Pierrot; Jim Copp, Punchmello; Jean Carol DeLong, Columbine; and Marilyn Breiffelder as Margot.

A PLAY which raises the problem of the sacrifice required by one member of the family when the mother of the family becomes an invalid is "The Eldest."

Included in the cast are Rose, Luanne Raun; neighbor, Claire Hinman; Pa, Rod Holmes; Al, Ted Nittler; Floss, Ann Corcoran; and Henry Selz, Charles Klasek.

"Trifles" concerns the fact that a man is found murdered in his bed. His wife is the major suspect. The play is concerned with the question, "Did she murder her husband?"

IN THE cast Jean Weddle will be seen as Mrs. Hale; Valerie Hompes, Mrs. Peters; Jack Paris, Mr. Hale; Don Bartlett, sheriff; and Bill Doleman, county attorney.

The public is invited to the plays. There will be no admission charge.

Pub Board Schedules Interviews

Filings To Open For Nebraskan

Students wishing to apply for positions on the Nebraskan staff may pick up application forms Tuesday at the public relations office, 1125 R street.

The Committee on Student Publications will begin interviewing Nebraskan applicants at 4 p.m. Thursday, May 13, in the Student Union faculty lounge. Completed application forms should be returned to the public relations office no later than 5 p.m., Monday, May 10.

APPLICANTS FOR the 1955 Cornhusker yearbook staff will be interviewed by the Committee at 5 p.m. Tuesday in the faculty lounge.

Dr. William J. Arnold, chairman of the Committee, said he hopes competition for Nebraskan staff positions will be much stronger than that shown in Cornhusker applications. A few hours before deadline Monday only 14 had applied for 10 Cornhusker staff positions.

FIFTEEN STAFF positions will be filled on the Nebraskan staff. They are: editor, $65 a month; news, managing, editorial page editors, $45 each a month; four copy editors, $35; sports editor, $45; ag editor, $20; business manager, $60; three assistant business managers, $20 each, plus commissions and circulation manager, $50.

Cliff Dudley To Play For Pink Elephant Party

Cliff Dudley, FM recording artist, and his orchestra will play for the Pink Elephant Party sponsored by the Union dance committee.

The dance will be held Friday from 9 p.m. to 12 p.m. in the Union Ballroom.

SC Pictures

All candidates for Student Council representatives who did not have their pictures taken for the 1954 Cornhusker should contact Muriel Pickett at 2-7875.

BABW Recognition

Pictured above are independent women honored for leadership in activities at the BABW Recognition Tea Friday. The BABW Achievement plaque awarded to Love Memorial Hall was received by presidential Geneva Berns (front

Courtesy Sunday Journal and Star

PR Commander

Dean Ekberg, retiring commander of the National Society of Pershing Rifles, congratulates Brig. Gen. Virgil Holtgrewe (left), new commander.

Portrait of the founder of the ROTC honorary at the University, Gen. John J. Pershing, is pictured in the background.

Pershing Rifle Post Goes To Ag College Junior

Holtgrewe Elected To National Office

Virgil Holtgrewe, junior in Ag College, was named new national commander of Pershing Rifles at the business meeting of the Little National Assembly of Pershing Rifles Saturday.

Holtgrewe succeeds Dean Ekberg, Business Administration senior, as the head of the organization which has a membership of over 5,000 men. Since the national headquarters of Pershing Rifles is located in Lincoln, the national commander must be chosen from the membership of the local company.

HOLTGREWE WILL assume his new rank this fall when confirmation of the appointment is expected. His duties will include

Bridge Tournay Winners Named

Martha Lee Miller, Lois Srb, Barry Thompson and J. Benedict, seniors, have been named the 1954 University Contract Bridge champions.

Titles were conferred by Louis D. Day, Jr., chairman of the National Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament Committee.

The University Bridge Tournament was held on Feb. 6, 13 and was concluded on Feb. 20.

More than 5,000 students from 173 colleges and universities throughout the United States participated in the tournament. A total of 32 University students took part in the tournament which was directed by James Porter.

Students from Purdue University and Dartmouth College won the 1954 national championship. The University of Wisconsin and Marietta College of Ohio received second place honors in the fete.

Third place in the national contest was captured by Duke University and the University of Tulsa.

A plaque bearing the names of the University winners will be placed in the Activities Office of the Union.

French Club To Present Play At Tuesday Meet

A French Club meeting will be held Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in Union Room 316.

University students and professors will present a play entitled, "Le Francois Tel Qu'On Le Parle." The play was presented at the Alliance Francaise last month.

There is no admission charge; however, 25c will be charged for refreshments.

Farmers Fair Rally

The 1954 Farmers Fair Rally will start in front of Ag Hall at 5 p.m. Tuesday.

The parade will advertise the 1954 Farmers Fair. All students have been requested to attend and to bring cars if possible.

co-ordination of activities in 127 military units in 42 states. Holtgrewe is an advanced ROTC cadet in Engineers Corps.

The two-day meeting at the University and at the Hotel capital was held for the purpose of planning next year's national assembly to be held in Chicago next fall and to select the new national commander.

Col. James H. Workman, professor of military science and tactics, spoke to the group at a banquet held Friday evening.

Special events of the show included a show class of parade horses, a class of jumper horses, a class of three gaited or five gaited society horses and a palomino western pleasure class.

Last year's winners were Bob Reinmiller, grand champion showman, and Pat Hammond, winner of the coed riding contest.

The grand champion showman received a trophy and his name engraved on a traveling plaque. Reserve champion showman received a medal given by the Block and Bridle Club.

Winners of the hog showmanship contest were: Don Beck, first place; Richard Johnson, second place; James Dunn, third place; Gerald Langemeier, fourth place; Delbert Merritt, fifth place. Wayne Spilker was superintendent and Bob Meade was the judge.

Sheep showmanship contest with Kenneth Stone, superintendent, and John Matsushima, judge, had the following winners: Rodney Swanson, first place; Buzz Hargleroad, second place; Bill Franken, third place; Charles Mumma, fourth place; Stan Schelkopf, fifth place.

Beef showmanship winners were: Tom Riley, first place; Allen Trenkle, second place; Harvey Jorgensen, third place; E. H. Platt, fourth place; James Svoboda, fifth place.

Beverly Putman was the winner in the coed riding contest. Co-chairmen of the event were: Don Ayers and Kaye Wiggung. Fred Larsen was judge.

Other winners were Pat Hammond, second place; Zoe Anderson, third place; Marilyn Rice, fifth place.

Chairman of the Activities Mart group is Courtney Campbell. Carol Link will act as secretary and Miss Mary Jean Mulvaney, instructor in physical education for women, is faculty advisor. AWS board members who will sit in on this group are Linda Butman, Beth Keenan and Kay Nosky.

Clare Hinman is chairman of the Rules and Regulations group discussion. Kathleen O'Donnell is secretary of this group. Miss Elsie Jevons, assistant professor of commercial arts, is the faculty advisor. AWS board members who will attend this session are Nancy Hamphill, Charlotte Benson, Marial Wright, Eileen Mularky and Mary House.

ACTING AS chairman of the Coed Follies group discussion will be Paula Broady. Secretary to this group will be Betty Hrabik. The faculty advisor is Miss Jevons.

AWS Board members scheduled for this group are Joyce Bennington, Kay Skinner and Ann Skold.

WOMEN RECEIVING the awards were: Freshmen: Marilyn Lingo, Charlotte Sears and Kay Skinner.

Sophomores: Marlene Hutchinson, Shirley Keeney, Janet Lindquist, Doris Mach, Ginny Reeves, Joyce Splitterger and Delores Synovec.

Juniors: Delores Carag, Lichu Chen, Martha Heuermann, Betty Hrabik, Natalie Katt, Jeanette Selk, Winnie Stolz and Madeline Watson.

Seniors: Stephanie Allen, Sandra Daley, Marilyn Erwin, Marge Foley, Darlene Godding, Phyllis Kort, Joan Reiling, Barbara Spilker, Marion Urbach and Helen Jean Utterback.

Washburn To Talk On Child Growth

Dr. Alfred H. Washburn, director of the Child Research Council of the University of Colorado School of Medicine, will deliver a series of seminars and a lecture at the University Tuesday and Wednesday.

His schedule includes: Tuesday — "Early Emotional Development in Children," 1:30 p.m., Faculty Lounge, Union; and "Why Study Growth and Development?" 8 p.m., Ferguson Hall auditorium.

Wednesday — "Educational Implications of the Study of Growth and Development," 10 a.m.; and "Individual Variations and their Significance," 1:30 p.m. both in Faculty Lounge, Union.

The Department of Educational Psychology and Measurements and the Universal Research Council are sponsoring Dr. Washburn's visit.

bik, Virginia Reeves, Delores Carag, Jeanette Selk, (third row l. to r.) Martha Heuermann, Marlene Hutchinson, Marilyn Lingo, Doris Mach, Natalie Katt, Darlene Godding, Stephanie Allen and Joan Reiling.

The Nebraskan

Volume 74, No. 80

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

Tuesday, April 27, 1954

Beck Selected Grand Showman

Block And Bridge Winners Named; Reserve Award Presented To Riley

Don Beck was grand champion showman at the 20th annual Block and Bridle Livestock Show held last Saturday night at the State Fair Coliseum.

Ed Janike, acting director of the State Extension Service, was judge of the grand champion showmanship event. Tom Riley was selected as the reserve champion showman.

The grand champion showman received a trophy and his name engraved on a traveling plaque. Reserve champion showman received a medal given by the Block and Bridle Club.

Winners of the hog showmanship contest were: Don Beck, first place; Richard Johnson, second place; James Dunn, third place; Gerald Langemeier, fourth place; Delbert Merritt, fifth place. Wayne Spilker was superintendent and Bob Meade was the judge.

Sheep showmanship contest with Kenneth Stone, superintendent, and John Matsushima, judge, had the following winners: Rodney Swanson, first place; Buzz Hargleroad, second place; Bill Franken, third place; Charles Mumma, fourth place; Stan Schelkopf, fifth place.

Beef showmanship winners were: Tom Riley, first place; Allen Trenkle, second place; Harvey Jorgensen, third place; E. H. Platt, fourth place; James Svoboda, fifth place.

Beverly Putman was the winner in the coed riding contest. Co-chairmen of the event were: Don Ayers and Kaye Wiggung. Fred Larsen was judge.

Other winners were Pat Hammond, second place; Zoe Anderson, third place; Marilyn Rice, fifth place.

Special events of the show included a show class of parade horses, a class of jumper horses, a class of three gaited or five gaited society horses and a palomino western pleasure class.

Last year's winners were Bob Reinmiller, grand champion showman, and Pat Hammond, winner of the coed riding contest.

The grand champion showman received a trophy and his name engraved on a traveling plaque. Reserve champion showman received a medal given by the Block and Bridle Club.

Winners of the hog showmanship contest were: Don Beck, first place; Richard Johnson, second place; James Dunn, third place; Gerald Langemeier, fourth place; Delbert Merritt, fifth place. Wayne Spilker was superintendent and Bob Meade was the judge.

Sheep showmanship contest with Kenneth Stone, superintendent, and John Matsushima, judge, had the following winners: Rodney Swanson, first place; Buzz Hargleroad, second place; Bill Franken, third place; Charles Mumma, fourth place; Stan Schelkopf, fifth place.

Beef showmanship winners were: Tom Riley, first place; Allen Trenkle, second place; Harvey Jorgensen, third place; E. H. Platt, fourth place; James Svoboda, fifth place.

Beverly Putman was the winner in the coed riding contest. Co-chairmen of the event were: Don Ayers and Kaye Wiggung. Fred Larsen was judge.

Other winners were Pat Hammond, second place; Zoe Anderson, third place; Marilyn Rice, fifth place.

Special events of the show included a show class of parade horses, a class of jumper horses, a class of three gaited or five gaited society horses and a palomino western pleasure class.

Last year's winners were Bob Reinmiller, grand champion showman, and Pat Hammond, winner of the coed riding contest.

The grand champion showman received a trophy and his name engraved on a traveling plaque. Reserve champion showman received a medal given by the Block and Bridle Club.

Winners of the hog showmanship contest were: Don Beck, first place; Richard Johnson, second place; James Dunn, third place; Gerald Langemeier, fourth place; Delbert Merritt, fifth place. Wayne Spilker was superintendent and Bob Meade was the judge.

Sheep showmanship contest with Kenneth Stone, superintendent, and John Matsushima, judge, had the following winners: Rodney Swanson, first place; Buzz Hargleroad, second place; Bill Franken, third place; Charles Mumma, fourth place; Stan Schelkopf, fifth place.

Beef showmanship winners were: Tom Riley, first place; Allen Trenkle, second place; Harvey Jorgensen, third place; E. H. Platt, fourth place; James Svoboda, fifth place.

Beverly Putman was the winner in the coed riding contest. Co-chairmen of the event were: Don Ayers and Kaye Wiggung. Fred Larsen was judge.

Other winners were Pat Hammond, second place; Zoe Anderson, third place; Marilyn Rice, fifth place.

Special events of the show included a show class of parade horses, a class of jumper horses, a class of three gaited or five gaited society horses and a palomino western pleasure class.

Last year's winners were Bob Reinmiller, grand champion showman, and Pat Hammond, winner of the coed riding contest.

The grand champion showman received a trophy and his name engraved on a traveling plaque. Reserve champion showman received a medal given by the Block and Bridle Club.

Winners of the hog showmanship contest were: Don Beck, first place; Richard Johnson, second place; James Dunn, third place; Gerald Langemeier, fourth place; Delbert Merritt, fifth place. Wayne Spilker was superintendent and Bob Meade was the judge.

Sheep showmanship contest with Kenneth Stone, superintendent, and John Matsushima, judge, had the following winners: Rodney Swanson, first place; Buzz Hargleroad, second place; Bill Franken, third place; Charles Mumma, fourth place; Stan Schelkopf, fifth place.

Beef showmanship winners were: Tom Riley, first place; Allen Trenkle, second place; Harvey Jorgensen, third place; E. H. Platt, fourth place; James Svoboda, fifth place.

Beverly Putman was the winner in the coed riding contest. Co-chairmen of the event were: Don Ayers and Kaye Wiggung. Fred Larsen was judge.

Other winners were Pat Hammond, second place; Zoe Anderson, third place; Marilyn Rice, fifth place.

Special events of the show included a show class of parade horses, a class of jumper horses, a class of three gaited or five gaited society horses and a palomino western pleasure class.

Courtesy Sunday Journal and Star

Rodeo Queen

Lila Drybread (center) will reign over the rodeo at the Farmers Fair Saturday. Her attendants will be Pat Haythorne (left) and Mickey Moore. The queen and her attendants were presented at the Block and Bridle show Saturday night.

New Tassels Members Selected At Annual Tea

33 Coeds Pledge At Picnic Monday

Thirty-three new members of Tassels were chosen at an annual spring tea held at the Alpha Xi Delta house Sunday.

New Coeds were pledged at a picnic Monday. If the pledges attend and participate in all required activities and earn a specified number of points, they will be initiated into Tassels a year from now. Tassels activities include selling Cornhuskers' selling school novelties on football game days, working on Homecoming, attending games and rallies and ushering at University events.

PLEDGES ARE: Courtney Campbell, Alpha Phi; Emily Hemphill, Chi Omega; Joyce Stratton, Delta Delta Delta; Mary Alice Anderson, Gamma Phi Beta; Sandra Saylor, Kappa Alpha Theta; Sue Simmons, Kappa Delta; Jackie Stanton, Pi Beta Phi; Phyllis Kaplan, Sigma Kappa Tau.

Shirley McPeck and Kay Christenson, Alpha Omicron Pi; Carole Link and Carole Unterseher, Delta Gamma; Susan Good and Jane Jeffrey, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Judy Erickson and Sharon Koberstein, Sigma Kappa.

Foreign Students

A meeting of all foreign students who went on the Mortar Board Tour during spring vacation will be held Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in Parlor Z of the Student Union.

Journalism Day Lunch Scheduled For Saturday

High School Writers To Win Keys

High school journalists and professionals from newspapers throughout Nebraska will be honored at the annual awards luncheon on Journalism Day Saturday.

Guest speaker at the luncheon will be Vermont Royster, senior editorial associate of the Wall Street Journal and winner of the 1953 Pulitzer Prize for editorial writing.

FEATURED DURING the luncheon will be the annual presentation of silver key journalist awards to high school news writers for outstanding work during the past academic year.

Keys, bearing the seal of the School of Journalism, are given by the Lincoln Journal and the Lincoln Star to winners of contests in news writing, features, sports, editorials and columns. All schools in the competitions are divided into three groups according to enrollment figures.

The luncheon is open to high school and college students, faculty members and newspaper people from Nebraska and the surrounding area.

RUNNERS-UP in the contest will receive certificates bearing the title of "Silver Key Journalist." High school winners, their advisors and parents are invited to attend the presentation.

Among other presentations to be made at the luncheon will be the Sigma Delta Chi award for professional news writing. It is given by University and state professional chapters of the news-men's fraternity.

Theta Sigma Phi, women's counterpart of SDX, will present its new honorary member, a woman selected for her contributions to the profession in Nebraska.

THE "WOMAN of the Year" award will be given by Gamma Alpha Chi, women's national advertising group.

Kappa Alpha Mu, photo-journalism fraternity for men and women, has inaugurated a new award, recognizing the student in the basic photography course who has achieved the highest scholastic record in class.

A regional conference of editorial writers, currently being sponsored by the School of Journalism as part of its sixtieth anniversary observances, will conclude the luncheon.

Dr. Anderson To Speak To Student Architects

E. N. Anderson, professor of history, will address the student chapter of the American Institute of Architects Tuesday at 7:15 p.m. in Union Room 315.

The topic of Anderson's talk is "Barlach and Impressionist Art." All interested students are invited to attend.

Glaciologist Plans Lecture For Today

ququet was John Cramer of Lincollogist with the Snow, Ice and Permafrost Research Establishment at Northwestern University, will speak on "The Glaciers of Scandinavia as Yard sticks of Climate and Climatic Change" Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in Love Library Auditorium.

He spoke Monday on "Two Years on the Antarctic Ice Cap" and Tuesday morning on "Scientific Results of the Norwegian-British-Swedish Antarctic Expedition."

The first scientific result of the expedition will be published this year as a special series of publications from the Norwegian Polar Institute in Oslo.

Dr. Schytt's visit to the campus is under the sponsorship of the University Research Council and the department of geography.

The Outside World

By WILLIE DESCH Staff Writer

Bidault Appeals For Truce

GENEVA, SWITZERLAND—In the opening session of the Geneva Far Eastern peace conference, French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault appealed for a truce to enable evacuation of 1,000 French wounded in besieged Dien Bien Phu in Indo-China. In a dramatic appeal, Bidault exclaimed that it would be inconceivable that a conference meeting in Geneva should not open with a gesture to save from the hazards of combat the men who no longer can take part in it because they already have shed their blood.

A last-minute compromise of Russia's demands that Red China be seated as an equal to the Big Four powers, was made in a private meeting between British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov.

Stevens Denies Charge

WASHINGTON—Secretary of the Army Stevens, under questions from Special Counsel Ray Jenkins at the Senate inquiry, hurled what he called "an unequivocal lie" at this portion of the official charge made by McCarthy. He branded as the lie the allegation that he sought to divert an investigation of the Army by urging Sen. McCarthy to go after the Air Force and the Navy. Stevens also denied that Pvt. G. David Schine is in effect held as "a hostage" in efforts to block investigation of the Army by Sen. McCarthy.

Also Stevens denied that he removed Maj. Gen. B. C. Partridge as assistant chief of staff after telling members of the McCarthy subcommittee staff that Partridge knew nothing about intelligence.