K-State Releases Basketball Slate

Kansas State's 21-game 1954-55 basketball schedule was completed Thursday with the announcement by the K-State athletic department that Wyoming University will be the Wildcats' first home opponent Dec. 11 in the Fieldhouse here.

Arrangements for the Wyoming opener gives the Wildcats a 10-game home schedule in which they will meet teams from four major conferences plus nationally-rated Notre Dame. Last season the Cats had 9 home tilts in the Fieldhouse here.

Tex Winter, K-State basketball coach, has called the schedule "just as tough as we could make it," pointing out that his cagers will jump off against U.C.L.A. at Los Angeles Dec. 4 and meet Arizona at Tucson Dec. 6.

Following their home opener against Wyoming's Cowpokes, the Wildcats meet Washington and Indiana universities in the Fieldhouse before facing California U. in the first round of pre-season tourney play at Kansas City. Sandwiched among their late season conference games the K-State cagers oppose Notre Dame in the Fieldhouse Feb. 21.

The K-State coach pointed to the Wildcats' home schedule as the "most rugged on record" and said he felt it offered K-State cagers a slate unsurpassed by any school in the nation.

"The boys will have had two tough road games behind them when we open our home schedule," Winter explained. "We'll be as ready as we can be when we meet Wyoming for that first one in the Fieldhouse. Then we face Washington and Indiana right behind the Cowboys—three tough home games in a row ahead of the pre-season tourney where we meet California in the first round."

lin; Charles Gibson, Lincoln, 100, 220; Harold Wray, Spalding, 2-mile; Merle Brestal, Chappell, high jump; Hugh Osmera, Lexington, mile and 2-mile.

Bob Andersen, West Point, 880, Ladd Hanscom, Lincoln, broad jump; Phil Heidel, Fairbury, high jump; Ray Kelley, Danbury, high jump and broad jump; Jim Hofstetter, Kearney, hurdles and pole vault and Warner Olson, Holdrege, hurdles.

Four-Minute Mile Run By GB's Bannister

Roger Bannister reached unprecedented stardom Thursday with the running of a fantastic four-minute mile. The former Oxford ace reeled off the distance in an unbelievable three minutes and 59.4 seconds.

Bannister's brilliant effort came on the familiar Oxford track and it bettered the listed world's record of 4:01.4 set by Sweden's Gunder Haegg in 1931.

Conditions for the race were generally regarded as unfavorable. For the mark to be accepted as a world record approval must be given by the International Athletic Federation. All aspects of the race will need to be reviewed.

Colorado Loses First-String Back

Colorado Football Coach Dal Ward received a big jolt recently when he learned that veteran Fullback Don Shelley will be drafted into the army next week.

It's Close, But He's Safe

Pitcher Fran Hofmaier of the Nebraska baseball team beats Kansas State pitcher, Jim Rhoades, to first in the first game of the doubleheader between the two clubs on the University diamond Tuesday.

Hofmaier blanked the Cats on three hits in the opener and Dick Geier came back to also whitewash the Cats in the nightcap allowing only four hits.

Huskers To Battle A&amp;M Team

Brian Sievers, Sophomore Lefty, To Pitch

Oklahoma A&M, which has a 2-1 record over Oklahoma and divided with Missouri, comes here today and Saturday for a pair of baseball games with Coach Tony Sharpe's Nebraska Cornhuskers.

A&M, has a 9-6 record for the season, while the Huskers have won 8 and lost 6.

Sharpe intends to send Left-hander Brian Sievers, North Platte, to the mound today in the 3 p.m. attraction. Saturday's game is slated for 2 p.m.

Sievers, up from the "B" squad, has one victory to his credit—that over Hastings College against whom he twirled one hit ball for six innings in a "B" team contest.

On Saturday two more southpaws, Fran Hofmaier, Crofton, and Dick Geier, Lincoln, may share the pitching chores, Sharpe said. Each won a shutout victory over Kansas State here Tuesday afternoon, Hofmaier serving up a three-hitter while Geier allowed only four safe blows.

Hofmaier has been credited with four victories without a defeat, working three complete contests in the seven in which he has twirled. Geier has completed two of eight frays for a 2-3 mark.

Fred Seger, Omaha second baseman; Jim Cederdahl, Lincoln centerfielder, and Norman Coufal, David City shortstop, are tied for the Cornhusker batting lead, each with a .333 average.

Seger has had 20 hits in 60 trips to the plate, batting safely in every one of Nebraska's 14 games this season and two at the end of last year.
