

Beatrice's Marten Shines In Record-Smashing Meet

High School Flash Sets State Low-Hurdles Mark

By GARY FRANDSEN

After two days of record-breaking running, jumping and throwing, Memorial Stadium was back again to its spring time slumber. The brief interruption of the usual quietness came with the Nebraska State High School Track and Field Championships.

It was one of the finest meets in the 32-year history from several different angles. The weatherman came through with ideal running conditions and the athletes promptly responded by breaking three state records and tying a host of others.

Nearly everyone agreed it was Beatrice's dark-haired hurdler, Bill Marten, who emerged as the meet's outstanding performer. The good-looking senior raced to a pair of brilliant triumphs in the hurdles, setting a state mark in the lows and equally the record in the highs.

Marten skimmed over the lows in a lightning :19.8 to more than erase the record of :20.3, set a few minutes earlier by Cambridge's all-around ace, Gaylord Bellamy. His :14.6 performance in the highs tied the mark set by Bob Berkshire, former ace at Omaha Benson and later at the University of Nebraska.

An assist would have to be given to Bob McIntyre, Omaha North's fine hurdler, in helping Marten to roar to his remarkable performances. In both races the well-built Viking was just a step behind, pressing Marten all the way.

TWO OTHER state marks were wiped off the books. Ord's two-mile relay foursome covered the distance in 8:24.6 by Lincoln High last year. Grand Island's mile relay quartet, sparked by Duane Eversoll, came home in 3:31.8 to eclipse North's 1951 record of 3:32.5.

The latter was a thundering climax to an exciting meet. Grand Island surprised many by hustling to an early lead over Beatrice, pre-race favorite and holder of the state's best time during the regular season. With the Islanders setting a furious pace going into the last lap, Marten, the Beatrice anchor man, went all out to catch Eversoll, the GI whiz, and almost did in the last 75 yards, but Duane sprinted ahead to edge the tired Orangeman.

Boys Town's Ray Williams slammed the sprints in leading his team to the Class A crown. In the 100, the speedy Negro broke the tape in :9.9, tying the record set by Dick Lambert of Kearney in 1928. He won the 220 in :22.4.

Eversoll won the Gold Medal 880 in 2:00.9 while Jerry Ford of Waverly took the mile in 4:38.7. Larry White of Chappel won the 440 in :51.1 and Boys Town won the 880 relay in 1:32.

In the field events Ernie Wach of Bartley heaved the shot 50 feet, 10 1/4 inches while Kearney's Jim Hansen twirled the discus in 154 feet, 5 1/4 inches. Duane Smith of York high jumped 6 feet, 1/4 inch; Bernie Randolph of Lincoln won the vault by going 12 feet, 6 1/2 inches and Omaha Tech's Bob Bass leaped 22 feet, 9 1/2 inches in the broad jump.

Boys Town was Class A champ while Cozad captured Class B laurels. Cambridge was victorious in Class C and Sumner triumphed in Class D.

Nebraska Hurlers Lose 3-1 To Missouri Tigers Monday

The University of Missouri took advantage of two bases on balls issued by Nebraska hurlers to defeat the Cornhuskers 3-1 Monday.

Ed Cook, Tiger lefthander, permitted only one Cornhusker to get on base after the third inning.

Bob McIntyre of Omaha North (left) and Beatrice's Bill Marten are running stride-for-stride in the Class A 180-yard low hurdles race in what many called the meet's top feature.

Marten barely edged out the Viking ace to shash the state record of :20.3 set by Cambridge's Gaylord Bellamy a few minutes earlier. Marten, pushed hard by McIntyre, whizzed over the sticks in a blistering :19.8. Marten also took the highs in record-tying time, again nipping his Omaha rival.

Bill Chin Hurls Softball No-Hitter As Cornhusker Co-op Romps 14-0

Double-Elimination Tourney Draws Near Showdown

Bill Chin became the second pitcher to twirl a no-hit, no-run game in Intramural Softball play this season as he led his Cornhusker teammates over the Pioneer Co-op crew 14-0.

Only two men reached base. One reached the first sack safely on an error and the other drew a free trip with a base on balls.

The winners batted around in the first while they were registering five runs. They went scoreless in the second frame and scored seven tallies in the third and two in the fourth frames.

John Rasmussen swung the big stick for the winners with a three for four effort and scored two runs while driving in five markers.

The victors then went on to play the Delta Sigma Pi crew in the next round of the tourney and fell 5-1. Numerous walks by pitcher Stu Nelson and many errors hurt the Cornhusker cause.

Delta Sig pitcher, George Null, set the losers down with only two safeties while his teammates were backing him up with their five-run total. Nelson allowed only four base hits in the contest.

Roy Schiefelbein struck out three men and allowed six hits in the Tau Kappa Epsilon conquest of Zeta Beta Tau in a close 4-3 contest.

At the end of three innings the game was all tied up at two-all. Then the winners tallied twice in the fifth for the winning margin and went on to hold the contenders scoreless.

Schiefelbein helped his own cause by leading the victors in the hitting department with two-for-two and scoring one run.

DELTA TAU Delta advanced to the semifinals and the right to play the Sigma Alpha Epsilon nine in the losers bracket of the Fraternity A tourney via a 14-7 win over Alpha Tau Omega, who had won from Beta Theta Pi 13-7.

Larry Wilson for the losers and Al Aden for the winners each gave up only 8 and 7 hits respectively but numerous errors proved to be the Tau downfall.

Delta Dick Grant and Tau "Tiger" Chambers each led the hitting with two-for-four.

On the previous night Beta Theta Pi was forced from the playoffs by the ATO's on a hard-hitting, walk-infested affair.

Pitcher Wilson collected two hits in four times at the plate, one a round-tripper. Hans Gosch led the losers with two-for-four.

Phi Kappa Psi advanced to the finals as the only unbeaten team in the Fraternity A tourney with a 9-6 win over the Betas.

Iowa State Knocks Nebraska Crew Out Of Big Seven Race

Iowa State's baseball team blasted Nebraska's last hopes of winning the Big Seven title by slapping the Huskers twice over the weekend, 4-0 and 3-2. Both games were at Ames.

Fran Hofmaier suffered his first loss after five straight victories in the opener as the Cyclones pounded out eight hits, including a home run. In Saturday's game Iowa State rallied for three runs in the bottom of the ninth to edge Coach Tony Sharpe's club. Lefty Dick Geier was the loser.

Fred Seger and Jim Cederdahl, with a double and a triple respectively, got the only extra-base hits for the Cornhuskers in the two-game series. Both came in the first contest.

Fremont Golfers Win State Meet

Fremont, Omaha Westside and Valley were crowned as Nebraska State High School golf and tennis champions over the weekend. Fremont won the Class A golf division while the Omaha school won Class B laurels. Valley was the tennis king.

The Fremont crew, paced by the fine shooting of Phil Nelson, edged second-place Lincoln High by four strokes. The Tigers carded a 499 while the Links had a 503 total. North Platte was third in Class A. Holy Name and Fullerton trailed Westside in Class B.

Valley rolled up 14 points to handily win the tennis title. The small Class C school edged out ten other teams. Lincoln and Omaha Central tied for second with 9 points while Creighton Prep and Bellvue each had 8 points.
