

Summer Nebraskan

Volume 54, No. 5

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

Thursday, July 8, 1954

East-West Problems

Making preparations for the last World Trouble Spot forum on the East-West conflict are members of the panel who will discuss aspects Thursday morning. Leo Geier (standing) is production assistant. Panel members are (l. to r.) Dr. A. C. Breckenridge, Dr. Wallace C. Peterson and Dr. Leslie Hewes.

Trouble Spot

Last Forum To Feature Conflict Of East, West

The "East West Conflict" will be discussed at the last World Trouble Spot Forum to be held Thursday, July 15, at 11 a. m. in Love Library Auditorium.

Political, economic and geographical aspects of the East West problem will be discussed by a panel consisting of Dr. A. C. Breckenridge, head of political science; Dr. Wallace C. Peterson, instructor in economics; and Dr. Leslie Hewes, chairman of the geography department.

BRECKENRIDGE WILL discuss the two opposing sides of the conflict, Russia and her satellites against the United States and Western Europe. He will explain the significance of world tension caused by Russian expansion and the rise of nationalism in many of the former colonial areas.

He will also discuss some of the methods of operation of the Communists in trying to take over the political control of countries and the Western response to these methods with measures such as NATO and the European Defense Community. In addition, Breckenridge will explain why the undecided areas of the world are in doubt about which side they should take in the conflict.

PETERSON WILL discuss the strength of Russian economy as the key to Soviet expansion and explain why we should know and understand Russian economy. He will also discuss the rapid growth of Soviet economy and its significance, the nature of the "Cold War," and Western resistance to Russian expansion.

The importance of Western Europe in relation to its geographical position will be discussed by Hewes. He will also compare the population, industrial production, communication and transportation systems of the East West factions.

Album Hour To Feature Cinemascores

Cinemascores with high fidelity sound will be featured at the Union album hour Monday at 4 p. m. in the Union music room.

Highlighting the program will be eight selections recorded directly from the sound track of "Indiscretion of an American Wife." The complete score of "Return to Paradise," "A Streetcar Named Desire" and the theme from "Sampson and Delilah" will also be heard.

AS AN added feature, selected classical works from the collection of Martha Payne, University student, will be played.

"Indiscretion of an American Wife" is the first American language picture produced by Vittorio de Sica, Italian director of "Shoe Shine" and "Bicycle Thief." Music for the film is by Alessandro Cicognini and the orchestra is conducted by Franco Ferrara. Each of the eight selections from "Indiscretion" depicts a certain mood of the picture.

Golf Movies Scheduled For Sport Shorts Today

Two golf pictures, "Golf Mistake" and "From Tee to Green," will be presented at the Sports Shorts Program Thursday from 11:45 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. in the air-conditioned Union main lounge. The series are sponsored by the Union and the physical education department.

Syed Amjad Ali To Speak At Convocation Monday

Luncheon Planned For Ambassador

His Excellency Syed Amjad Ali, Pakistan Ambassador to the United States, will be on campus Monday for the second All-University Public Affairs Clinic.

A leader in both Pakistan and international government affairs, Amjad Ali will address a convocation at 10 a. m. Monday in the Union Ballroom.

Following his address, a discussion session will be held at 11 a. m. Faculty members who will address questions at Amjad Ali will be Dr. George Rosenlof, dean of admissions; Dr. Russell H. Fitzgibbon, visiting instructor of political science, and Dr. Otto G. Hoiberg, associate professor of sociology and supervisor of community services.

Chancellor Clifford Hardin will be chairman of the clinic.

A LUNCHEON in the Ambassador's honor will be held in the Union at noon Monday. Tickets are $1 and may be purchased in Room 312, Teachers College, through July 9. Foreign students who are attending summer school will be guests at the luncheon.

Amjad Ali graduated with honors from Government College at Lahore, Pakistan, in 1927. In 1931 he went to London as Secretary of the Moslim Delegation to the second Round Table Conference on Indian Reforms and attended the Third Round Table conference the following year.

HE WAS Joint Secretary of the India Delegation to the Joint Select Committee of both Houses of Parliament which met in London in 1933.

Change In Union Movie For July 11 Announced

Ernie Bebb, Union activities director, has announced change in program for the July 11 Union movie.

Due to film damages, the originally scheduled movie, "The Man in the White Suit," starring Alec Guinness, is unavailable. "However," Bebb stated, "an equally fine film, 'Kind Hearts and Coronets,' also starring Guinness, has been substituted." Guinness plays 10 different roles in the movie, a light comedy produced by J. Arthur Rank.

The film will be shown in the Union Ballroom at 7:30 p. m.

NU Symphony Orchestra To Present Summer Concert Wednesday Night

The Summer Symphony Orchestra, directed by Emanuel Wishnow, professor of violin and conductor of the University orchestra, will present a concert Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the air-conditioned Union Ballroom.

The program is another in the Summer Artist Series sponsored by the University department of music, Summer Sessions and the Union.

The 50-member orchestra composed of students enrolled in the University summer sessions, will present the following program:

"EGMONT" BY Beethoven; "Symphony in C major" by Bizet; "España" by Emmanuel Chabrier; "The Walk to the Paradise Garden" by Frederick Delius; and "Capriccio Espagnol" by Rimsky-Korsakov.

"Egmont" was composed in 1810 for Goethe's tragedy of the same name. It was first performed in Vienna on May 24, 1810. "Symphony in C major," overlooked for many years, was performed at a world premiere in 1935. The orchestra will play a selection of three movements from the symphony, the Allegro Vivo, the Adagio, and the Allegro Vivace.

IN 1883, Chabrier, distinguished French composer in the operatic field, traveled through Spain where he gathered material for his work from the native folk songs and dances of the country. "The Walk to the Paradise Garden" by Delius is an intermezzo from his opera, "A Village Romeo and Juliet."

Rimsky-Korsakov's "Capriccio Espagnol," arranged like a rhapsody, is a collection of five Spanish dances. Some of the best music of Spain has been written

In 1937 Amjad Ali was elected to the Punjab Legislative Assembly and the same year was appointed Parliamentary Private Secretary to the Premier of Punjab. He was appointed Chief Whip of the Government Party in 1942 and four years later was elected to the Constituent Assembly for undivided India.

He entered diplomatic life in 1949 when he was appointed Minister for Economic Affairs at the Embassy of Pakistan in Washington. In February, 1953, he came to Washington on a special assignment in regard to the U.S. Emergency Wheat Aid to Pakistan Bill.

HIS MISSION was completed when President Eisenhower signed the bill on June 25, 1953, but he returned to the United States last September as Pakistan ambassador.

Amjad Ali has served as chairman of the Social, Humanitarian and Cultural Committee of the United Nations, and was president of the Economic and Social Council of the organization.

SYED AMJAD ALI

In 1952 he was elected a member of the committee of nine experts appointed by the U.N. Secretary-General to draw a plan for an International Fund.

NU Music Department Plans Two-Day Marching Band Clinic

The University department of music will sponsor a two-day Marching Band Clinic for Nebraska high school band instructors Wednesday and Thursday at the Union.

Twenty-four high school band instructors will serve on committees for a series of round table discussions on all phases of marching bands.

THE CLINIC will start Wednesday at 10 a. m. in Union Room 316 with discussions on public relations and finances of marching bands, followed by a "dutch luncheon" at 12 noon in the Union Main Dining Room.

From 1 to 4 p. m. the band instructors will attend the orchestra band and chorus sight-reading sessions of new music held in conjunction with a music materials exhibit also sponsored by the department of music.

WEDNESDAY EVENING programs include the University summer school orchestra concert conducted by Emanuel Wishnow, which will be held in the Union Ballroom at 7:30 p. m.

Times and topics for Thursday's round table discussions to be held in Union Room 316 are: 10 a. m., special show formations; 11 a. m., music for marching bands; 1 p. m., cadence; 2 p. m., novelties (flags, twirlers, lights), and 3 p. m., use of girls in marching bands.

Music Materials Exhibit Scheduled

A two-day exhibit of music materials will be sponsored by the University department of music Tuesday and Wednesday in the Union Ballroom.

Displays of 20 national publishers and manufacturers, local music dealers and distributors will be included in the exhibit, which is sponsored as a service to music teachers in this area and for teachers and students attending summer school.

A sight-reading demonstration of new materials for band, orchestra and chorus will be held on the second day of the exhibit in the Ballroom.

The exhibit will be open to the public at 11 a. m. Tuesday. The schedule for the sight reading session is: orchestra, 1 to 2 p. m.; band, 2 to 3:15 p. m., and chorus, 3:15 to 4:30 p. m.

David Foltz, chairman of the department of music, is in charge of the exhibit.

Addition Of Four Books Made To Union Library

Ernie Bebb, Union activities director, has announced the addition of four new books to the Union Book Nook.

The books are: "Mary Anne," a novel of 19th century England by Daphne Du Maurier; "A Lantern in Her Hand," a story of early Nebraska pioneer days by Bess Streeter Aldrich; "World Guide," Rand-McNally's concise encyclopedia of world places arranged by countries and continents, and "A Time to Love and a Time to Die," a story of Germany during World War II, by Erich Remarque.