Parties, Picnics, Functions Occupy Busy NU Weekend

By BARB CLARK
Social Editor

Campus social life began last week-end as University students attended many parties, picnics and other social functions.

Several picnics, hour dances, football games and listening parties were held by organized houses.

Friday night many University students danced at King's Ballroom. A Kappa Sigma picnic was another Friday evening function. Some of the Kappa Sigs and their attending were: Marial Wright and Jan Pickard; Marilyn Lingo and Bob Lunner; Janet Kaufman and Lauren Faist, and Ron Becker and Sally Lease.

THE SIG ALPHAS held a party at Arbor Manor Saturday night. Among those attending were: Anne Desmond and Ken Groves; Shirley Mills and Gordon Benson, and Roma Lechner and Lonny Bayer. Another Saturday night party was given at East Hills by the Theta Xi. Seen at the party were: Barb Colbert and Mart McCoy; Doris Mach and Jim Thorson, and Margie Antes and Jick Wisby.

Farm Fair Board Lists 6 Openings

Six openings are now offered for junior members of the Farmer's Fair Board. Three men and three women members are needed.

Application blanks are available at Room 202 Ag Hall. Deadline for application is Oct. 12.

The Board plans the Farmer's Fair which is held each spring.

Senior members of the board are Don Novotny, Ken Pinkerton, Charles Watson, Nancy Hemphill, Madeline Watson and Rogene Rippe.

NU Polio Cases Reported Better

Both Larry Dunning and Burrell who are polio patients in Lincoln General Hospital, were reported to be improving Tuesday by hospital officials.

They are reported in satisfactory condition.

Dr. Samuel Fuenning, director of Student Health, said approximately 15 gamma globulin shots were given to University students who had been in close association with the students.

Pepsters Meeting

A Pepster mass meeting will be held in the Union ballroom at 7:15 p.m. Wednesday.

Pepsters should wear Pepster sweaters and bring identification cards. Jo Johnson and Leonard Barker are in charge of the meeting.

A practice session will be held in the East Stadium on Friday, October 1 at 5 p.m.

Practices For Orchestras Announced By President

Jacy Mathiesen, Orchestras president, announced today that try-outs for all girls interested in participating in Orchestras will be held October 20.

Special practices, arranged to acquaint the girls with routines, will be held Wednesday, October 6, and 13, at 7 p.m. in Grant Memorial Dance Studio. Girls who plan to try out must attend one of these practice sessions to be eligible.

Men's Dance Group

A men's modern dance group is being formed under the supervision of the University Orchestras organization. All men who wish to participate one night a week in the dance group should contact Miss Maxwell, Ex. 4138.
