Picnic Cabins Available For All Women's Groups

Phyl Cast

"Oh what is so rare on a day in September but a picnic. The W.A.A. crew-council, sports board and representatives-speak a delightful evening at the W.A.A. cabin last week. Let me tell you this cabin is really the place for picnics, and what's more, it's available to any women's group on campus that is faculty sponsored. The cabin comes equipped with a huge recreation room, a kitchen with an electric stove and icebox and a bunk room. The cabin will hold 12 comfortably for an overnight, and the cost is really quite inexpensive-$2 for an evening or $3 for an overnight. Anyone interested contact Ginny Noble at the Theta house or Miss Mulvaney.

Rained Out

Since the weather decided it wanted to play games this week and since W.A.A. doesn't seem to have enough hip boots available for the teams, we thought perhaps it just might be the best idea in the long run to reschedule some of the soccer baseball games. So be sure to watch the bulletin board for the time your team plays. When your team plays, be sure that you are over at the fields by 8:00-Tune up your sonotones and listen for ye olde bells. Individual sport entrants be sure to watch the bulletin board for your scheduled times also. Anyone interested in officiating for soccer baseball, contact Dot Frank at 5-2961. You needn't have any previous experience to qualify.

1, 2, 3, 4

Or-che-sis taught me dancin' in a hurry hmmm. Orchestry tryouts are Oct. 20. You needn't be a Pavlova to try out. There are two practice sessions before tryouts-tonight and the 13th-and I hear they can do wonders with you if you can tell your right foot from your left. Of course if you don't qualify in this category, I'm afraid there's not much hope. Bring leotards or shorts to the practice-7 p.m. at Grant Mem. You must attend at least one of these practice in order to be eligible to try out.

Boy-Girl Activity

Great news gang-Co-Recreation will start soon, right after football season is over. So girls, you'd best start looking for a boy-type fraternity to complete your team.

Acquaintance tryouts are Nov. 2 and 4-practices are Oct. 26 and 28 at 7:00. Just for the records and you newcomers who don't know where to go, take heed: Go down the walk between the Coliseum and the tennis courts to the end of the building and turn left, open door, and lo-a sign says Woman's Dressing Room-This is it. You must have a swimming permit if you are not a first semester freshman. These are not the same as health permits.

The Pause That Refreshes

Bookies Make Millions As Giants Sweep Series

By "COKE" FRIEDMAN Sports Staff Writer

Dear All, Just got back from my bookies' office, but couldn't find him cause he had gone to Florida on what he had made on the World Series. Seems like the outcome of the series surprised quite a few of us, yours truly included. The Giants were not expected to win the series, much less in four games. The odds at some places were up to 25-1 on the Giants sweeping the series, and even higher if you had a few grand you wanted to depart with. As indicated by the sums wagered on the Cleveland Indians, they were solidly the "peoples' choice."

Guess we will all remember the name "Dusty" Rhodes for some reason or another. (Right Mary N. and M.S.?) Nebraska's victory last Saturday could be termed a "team" victory in that everybody got into the act. The game also proved to Coach Glassford that he has some very capable men playing behind the first and second units. Among those playing an outstanding game were John Edwards, Don Erway, Charley Bryant and Dennis Korinek, who looks as if he has gained back his previous seasons' form.

Kansas State, Nebraska's opponent for next Saturday, appears to have a well balanced team led by the hard running right halfback Corky Taylor. Official scouts reported that K-State is better than the 35-7 loss to Missouri indicated.

Had a royal seat to last Saturday's football game. Sat in the press box high up in West Stadium, and from where I sat I had a tremendous view of the football game and Nebraska's card section. Quite a few of the sports reporters had high praise for the job that the card section did. So hats off to the Tassels, Pepsters, Corn Cobs, and all the rest of you who helped to add a little more color to the game.

From all indications seems as if this year will be a year of upsets. Three or four of the "unbeatable" have already bitten the dust, and the season is just three weeks old. All of which leads up to the point that I guess I'll keep my predictions of future games to myself.

Wonder when the girls' sports begin if they have not already. Some of us get a little tired of seeing football all the time, and watching the girls play whatever they play sure can prove interesting.

For all of you who like to watch intramurals you can watch them almost every night either at the field on 14th and Vine or the field out on the Ag Campus. Watch the sports page for the announcements of the games.

Hope you'll all turn out for the game Saturday, and I'll see you all there if I can survive through this Thursday. (Not if I can survive through this Saturday cause I know we will win.) Consult Howard Vann, Sports Editor, in regard to this last statement. Regards to all, "Coke"

Wildcats Here Saturday

Cornhuskers Stress Pass Defense For Second Conference Encounter

By MAX KRIETMAN Sports Staff Writer

After successfully opening its Big Seven Conference season with a resounding 39-14 win over I-State, the Nebraska Cornhuskers will try to make it two straight with a win over the Kansas State Wildcats this Saturday. The Wildcats lost their first conference game to Missouri, 35-0. The visitors opened their season against Colorado A&M, downing the Aggies 29-0, and dropped the Wyoming Cowboys, 21-13.

The Tiger contest was their first loss of the season. The Kansans started their campaign with 22 lettermen returning to head mentor Bill Meek, who is starting his second year at the helm. Last year he guided his team to a second place tie in the Big Seven and an over-all record of 6-3-1. This was the most successful Wildcat coach in twenty years.

Taylor Top Man

Heading the veteran K-State roster is all-Big Seven back Corky Taylor. He is in his fourth season with the Staters, having started his last two. Last season the speedy senior led the team in rushing with a total yardage of 535 yards. This was an average of 7.5 per try. He was also second behind Verli Switzer in scoring with 43 points.

Joining the speedy halfback will be Bob Whitehead at quarterback, Bernie Dudley at halfback and Doug Roether at fullback. Dudley is a three year letter winner and Whitehead and Roether are one year winners.

On the line will be Ed Linta or Tom Ebert and Wilber Stocks at end, Ron Nery and Larry Hartshorn at tackles, Bob Hilliard and Ron Marciniak at guards and Jim Furey at center. All are veterans with Marciniak and Hartshorn three year veterans. Bob Danke and Jim Logsdon in the backfield along with Charlie Zickefoose and Jim Rusher on the line will be called on for heavy duty.

One big loss in the Purple 'n White line-up will be all-American Switzer. The flashy back led the Wildcats in scoring, punt returns, pass receiving and was a stand-out on defense. His rushing efforts were fourth best in the league and he was the league's second leading scorer. His loss is sorely missed this season.

On the Cornhusker side of the ledger, things remained intact, as bad weather forced the squad to move inside for much of their work. They were working on group plays and offense indoors and pass defense outside. Coach Bill Glassford says that this is still a weak point and that most of this week's drills will go to this one point.

Injuries have been reduced, as only Jim Yeisley and Bob Smith remain casualties. Rex Fisher will miss this contest, too. There is a chance that he may miss the entire season. Smith is nursing an old leg injury, but will be ready to go for the K-S game. Yeisley is still hobbling on an injury received in practice and will be out for another two weeks.

Huskies Two Deep

Besides this, the line-up will probably remain the same. This leaves Glassford with two good teams, as the second team showed as much, if not more, than the starting eleven. That means Andy Loehr and Jack Braley at ends, Bill Holloran and Don Glantz at tackles, Charlie Bryant and captain Bob Wagner at guards and Bob Oberliii at center. In the backfield will be Dan Brown at quarterback, Jon McWilliams and Ron Clark at half and Bob Smith at fullback.

Willie Greenlaw, Dennis Korinek, John Edwards and Don Erway will make up the second backfield. Korinek reeled off a couple of fine runs, one being a 70 yard jaunt. Sylvester Harris also looked good Saturday, rambling off one long TD run.

Number 50

Number 50, worn by center LeVerne Horczon, was all over the field last Saturday when the Huskers fought with the Iowa State Cyclones. LaVerne was the young man who burst through the State defenses to break up and almost block two punts. The most important thing that the fans remember is his alertness in nabbing a fumble in mid-air and rambling seventeen yards for a touchdown.

Meet The Team

Bill Holloran Labeled By Coaches As 'Hard Worker'

By DICK WATSON Sports Staff Writer

The man holding the left tackle position for the Cornhuskers this fall is Bill Holloran. Bill, 5' 11" and 228, played his high school football at Schuyler, where he lettered in both football and track.

He has been on the Cornhusker roster the past two seasons but has not lettered, missing by only a few minutes last year.

Holloran takes his football seriously and says, "I really enjoy playing the game." This is no doubt responsible for his big improvement and the reason coaches describe him as "a hard worker who is improving all the time."

Got a Lucky Droodle in your noodle?

SEND IT IN AND MAKE $25

Want to pick up $25? Make up a Lucky Droodle and send it in. It's easy.

If you want to find out just how easy it is, ask Roger Price, creator of Droodles. "Very!" Price says. Better yet, do a Droodle yourself, like the ones shown here.

Droodle anything you like. And send in as many as you want. If we select yours, we'll pay $25 for the right to use it, together with your name, in our advertising. We're going to print plenty--and lots that we don't print will earn $25 awards.

Draw your Droodles any size, on any piece of paper, and send them with your descriptive titles to Lucky Droodle, P. O. Box 67, New York 46, N. Y. Be sure your name, address, college and class are included.

While you're droodling, light up a Lucky--the cigarette that tastes better because it's made of fine tobacco... and "It's Toasted" to taste better.

IM Notice

Old man weather come through again with a rainy day Tuesday, and all intramural football games were canceled, along with the tennis matches.

All manager's should constantly check the bulletin board in the P. E. building, for the re-scheduling of "wash-out" games. Tennis player's should also check the bulletin board to see when they play again and their ranking.
