Overtime Victory To TKE's; Zeia Beta Tau Edges Acacia

By BOB ZUBER
Intramural Sports Writer

Only a few football games were played by the intramural teams last Wednesday. All of the games were close, as no team won by more than one touchdown.

Zeta Beta Tau edged a rough Acacia outfit, 7-0. Coke Friedman threw a ten-yard pass to Jerry Krupinsky in the second quarter for the only touchdown of the game. Friedman ran around end for the extra point. This was the second game ZBT has won in as many starts, and they have been unscored upon in both contests.

Methodist House lost out to the Phi Psi C team as Jach Haldimen intercepted a Methodist pass in the second period and raced 30 yards to score. The Phi Psis now have a record of one victory and one defeat.

TKE's Win
At the end of the fourth period, Pioneer House had tied Tau Kappa Epsilon, 7-7, but the TKE's won the game on the yardage play. In the only other two games played, Presbyterian House edged Lutheran, 13-6, and Ag Mens beat Clippers on the yardage play after neither team had scored during the regulation time.

en teams, Kansas (27-0) and Iowa State (20-0).

Bob Faris, Cornhusker freshman coach, who scouted the Buffaloes in their victory over Iowa State, describes the Buffaloes as a "terrific offensive ball club. All of their backs pack that home-run punch. They can go all the way if given half a chance."

The Colorado-Nebraska teams have played 12 games. Nebraska has won 6, lost 5 and tied one.

Not since 1949 has the Nebraska eleven been able to defeat the Buffaloes. The 1952 contest, played at Boulder, was one of the most thrilling battles in the midlands that year. The Buffs managed a 16-16 tie in the last minutes of the game when Carroll Hardy, then a sophomore, got deep into Nebraska territory with the return of a kickoff.

The only common foe which the two teams have met this season was Iowa State. Nebraska won from the Iowans, 19-14. Colorado pounded out a 20-0 victory on the Cyclones' home sod.

Nebraska's big problem this week will be switching the defensive alignments to meet Dallas Ward's potent single-wing attack. It will be the first time the Huskers have been against this type offense since Colorado played here in 1953.

Dan Brown, senior quarterback from Sioux Falls, S. D., will be game captain.

Fischer Returns
Rex Fischer, Oakland junior, originally slated for the No. 1 quarterback spot, was back in pads and going full blast in this week's workouts. He has been sidelined since Sept. 10 with a leg injury.

With Jim Murphy also back in pads after missing the Oregon State game, the Huskers should be

SUCCESS STORY...

AND HOW IT STARTED...

ADMIRAL BROCKMAN says: "I prepped at Baltimore Polytech, found I liked math and electrical engineering - required subjects for a Navy career. But it was getting lickered in lacrosse by the Navy plebes that got me interested in Annapolis. My break on an appointment came when two ahead of me failed on exams. I worked hard to graduate, got into sub class, did some teaching, eventually earned my own sub command."
