

Delta Tau Delta Cops Class A, B Championships

By BOB ZUBER
Intramural Sports Writer

Delta Tau Delta is believed to be the only fraternity in the history of Nebraska intramural sports to capture both the A and B fraternity championships. The Delt B team won their championship with a 7-6 victory over the Phi Gam B team.

The Deltas had to come from behind to win as Phi Gam's Ladd Hanscom ran five yards into the end zone in the first half. The try for the point after touchdown, which might have resulted in a tie ball game was blocked by the Deltas.

Harm To Olson

In the second half Bill Harm threw a pass to Duff Olson for the Delt TD. Harm passed again to Olson for the point after touchdown which later proved to be the game winning point. Two other Delt drives were stopped by the Phi Gams. Once the Deltas were stopped on the five yard line by four incomplete passes and the other when Merl Maupin intercepted a Delt pass after the Deltas had reached the Phi Gam five yard line. In the final period of play the Phi Gams made a mighty effort to win the game. Hanscom ran 35 yards to the Delt 10 yard line, but the Deltas held as time ran out.

The Delt A team took the A division of the fraternity championships with a 25-7 victory over Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Dick Grant led the Delt attack as he passed to Dick Geier and Bob Burnham to give the Deltas a 13-6 third quarter advantage which they never relinquished. The Deltas had trailed 6-0 at the half. In the fourth quarter Burnham caught another long pass for the third Delt TD. The pass covered 25 yards. Ray Mladovich caught another in the fourth period to hike the final score to 25-7.

Championship Today

The stage is now set for the battle between Dental College and the Deltas for today at 4:30. If the Deltas take the championship game they will have taken both fraternity championships, plus the all university championship, a record which would be sure to stand for many years.

Huskers Travel To Oklahoma; Conference Title Tie Possible

Nebraska's Cornhuskers will attempt to win a share of the Big Seven title and a trip to the Orange Bowl Saturday when they meet Oklahoma's Sooners Saturday at Norman.

Not since 1942 has Nebraska been able to win a game from the Sooners. The all-time record of the two teams shows Nebraska winning 16, losing 14 and tying three.

The Cornhuskers know that they will have to play a better game than they have all season to break this long skein of Sooner success.

Nebraska should be near a physical peak for the contest. However, it is doubtful if Jack Braley, end, will be able to play. Braley began active duty Monday after a two-week siege with a chest infection.

Clark Captain

Ron Clark, Ravenna senior, will be the Nebraska game captain.

Nebraska's strong rushing offense that rolled to 311 yards over Colorado, 383 against Iowa State, 331 against Missouri and 416 over Kansas will collide with Oklahoma's aggressive rushing defense that stopped Missouri flat with seven net yards here last week and leads the nation with only 1.9 net yards averaged against it per each opposition rushing play.

Nebraska Varsity Cage Squad To Battle Frosh

By BOB COOK
Sports Staff Writer

Husker cage coach Jerry Bush has announced the premier of his 1954-55 quintet to be staged Tuesday evening, Nov. 30, on the Coliseum maples. Followers of the Cornhusker cage clan will get a chance not only to view this year's varsity hopefuls but will also see the Frosh prospects in action. A full blast scrimmage under game conditions is on the agenda between the yearlings and the varsity.

Spectators should get a look at a well polished unit as the Big Reds have what may be their roughest outing in their season opener against Iowa's last year's sophomore stud d d d Hawkeyes.

The Pause That Refreshes Win Over Sooners Would Put NU In Hall Of Fame

By "COKE" FREIDMAN

DEAR ALL,

Guess everyone that reads the "Rag" knows the NU-Oklahoma game this weekend is the "BIG" game of this season as far as the football team is concerned. It's been so long since the "Little Six" (composed of Nebraska, Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Colorado and Iowa State) has beaten an Oklahoma team that a win would put the NU eleven in the Big Seven Hall of Fame. Also, it would mean that Nebraska would be in position to venture down to Miami come New Year's Day.

Now that Kansas City has a major league baseball team, I propose that every weekend that the Athletics are in town, we, the students of Nebraska University, have a mass migration down to K.C. It probably would mean that we would have to cut Friday classes, but we could propose that all Friday classes be abolished during the baseball season.

Had a suggestion that since it has been such nice weather lately, the University should sponsor a championship game between an all-star mens' football team and an all-star womens' soccer team. They could play a game of RUGBY for the championship. Game would be played in the football stadium. Admission would be charged, with the profits going to AUF. Awards to the champions would be a quart of milk, with the losers getting a pint-of milk. Am positive this would be OK with everyone.

Was talking to Eckmere Dude, whose home is in Alaska. Eckmere said that this time of year up in Alaska the most popular sport is "Kusing". Eckmere says he really misses it, and is homesick because he can find no one who really knows how to "kus". Would anyone who knows how to kus please contact Eckmere.

Happen to be one of the many going down to Norman. Should really be a great time. Here's an invitation to every body going down to stop in at Room 169, Hotel Biltmore, Oklahoma City, after the game for a "celebration Party". — But, you have to bring your own.

Don't know if I'll see—see you at the game, but will be seeing you at the "Party".

SUCCESS STORY FOR TWO...and how it started

Joanne Dru started her career as a model of teen-ager clothes. But it was her 6-year study of dancing that won her a part in a Broadway musical... which led to film stardom in Hollywood.

There she met John Ireland, ex-marathon swimmer, amateur actor, stock player, Broadway star—now a brilliant director. Today they are man-and-wife partners in sparkling new screen hits.
