

Huskers To Orange Bowl; Hawaii Game Friday

By "COKE" FRIEDMAN

Thanks to Carol Hardy and the Colorado Buffaloes, the Nebraska Cornhuskers are the Big Seven's representative to the Orange Bowl. The Buffs defeated Kansas State 39-14, to put the Huskers in the bowl.

The Huskers didn't have much to say about it in their last game, as the powerful Oklahoma Sooners unleashed a devastating running and passing game to bury the Huskers, 55-7.

Once the Sooners got rolling, they showed why they deserve to be ranked as the third best team in the nation. The Big Red from Oklahoma ground out an amazing 577 yards by running and passing.

Sooners Romp
Oklahoma scored its biggest total in history against Nebraska, digging so deeply into its never-ending flow of reserves that the eight touchdowns scored by Oklahoma were counted by as many different players.

The Sooners were the first to score with Buddy Leake, who was a thorn in the Husker side all afternoon, passing to All-American End Max Boydston for four yards and six points.

Nebraska scored its only touchdown about four minutes after Oklahoma had scored its first touchdown. The payoff play was a 20 yard pass, Don Erway to Jon McWilliams.

Nebraska played a hard-fought but unrewarding game, as Sooner Coach Bud Wilkinson cleared his entire bench with the fourth Sooner team seeming to be as good as the first team.

Glantz Great
Receiving praise for their play in the game, were Tackle Don Glantz, End Andy Loehr, Halfback Dirkes Ralston and Fullback John Edwards.

Halfback Dennis Korinek received a broken jaw during the game and will be out for the rest of the season.

The Scarlet and Cream last regularly scheduled game is against the University of Hawaii at Honolulu this Friday night. Forty players are making the trip which will pit the Huskers against an average Hawaii team.

Ralston Captain
Dirkes Ralston, senior halfback, has been named game captain for the Hawaii game.

Delta Tau Delta Football Squad Wins All-University Championship

By BOB ZUBER

The supermen from Delta Tau Delta have done the impossible! Not only did their B team take the all-fraternity B team championship, but their A team took the A team title. But the Deltas were not satisfied with these two accomplishments, so they decided to add the All-University Championship to their list of accomplishments. The A team took a 12-12 decision over Dental College to give the Deltas the Championship.

Dick Grant, as usual, passed the Deltas to the first touchdown of the game on a play that covered 28 yards in the first period of play. The try for the extra point failed. Dental College came back to tie the score 6-6 at the quarter as Bill Green threw a short 1 yard pass to Bob Burton, team captain, in the end zone. Some rough defensive play in the second quarter by both teams stopped all touchdown drives and the score remained 6-6 at the half.

Deltas Fight Back
Dental College had not decided to concede the game, and they drove deep into Delta territory when Burton again unleashed his throwing arm, and ATU Greer scooped up his short pass in the end zone to put Dental College ahead for the only time in the ball game, 12-6. The flabbergasted Delta crew came right back, and Ray Mladovich's 10 yard pass was taken by Len Lindgren for a Delta TD. A Grant to Mladovich pass for the extra point put the Deltas ahead 13-12 for good.

To ice the victory, Grant passed to Lindgren in the final period for the third Delta TD. Mladovich caught Grant's pass for the extra point to make the final score read Delta Tau Delta 20, Dental College 12.

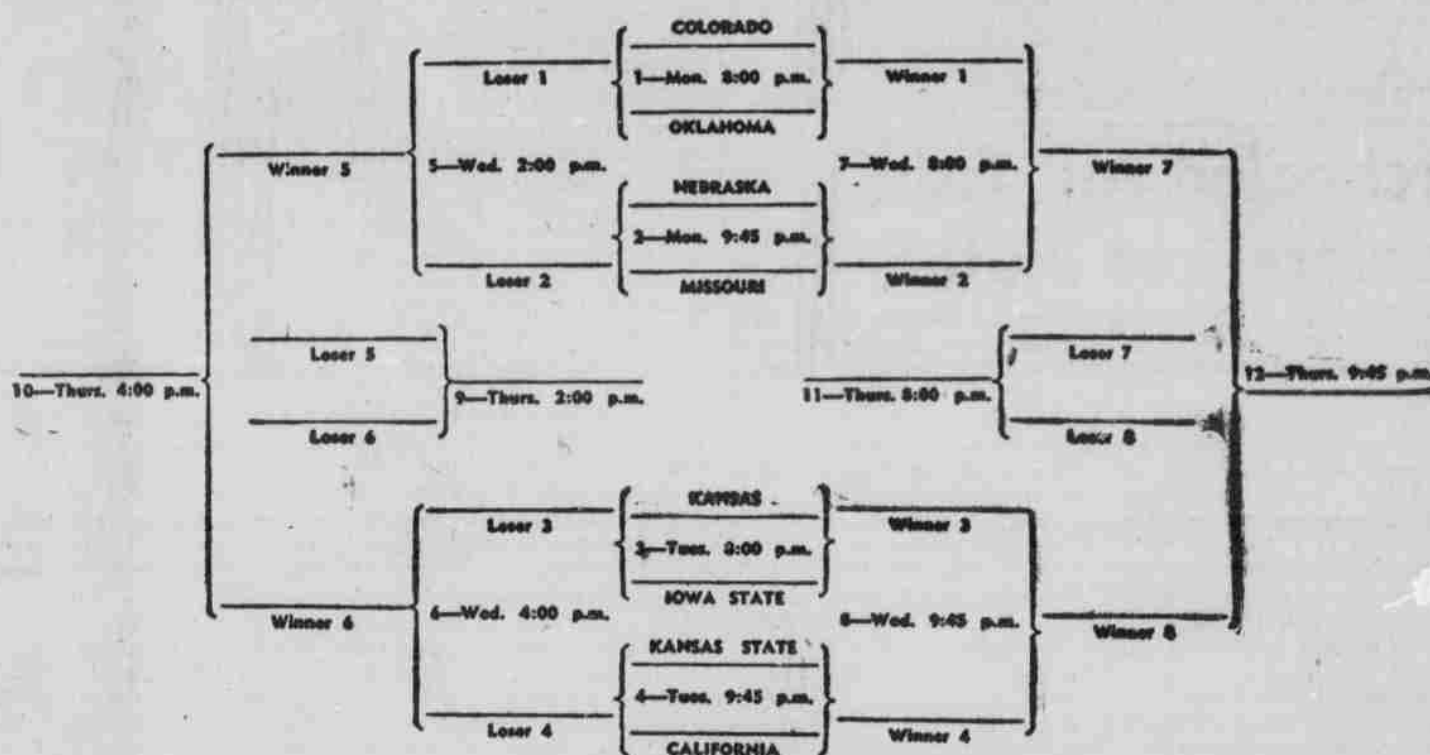

Frosh Cinder Team Fourth

Nebraska freshmen finished fourth in the Big Seven Conference postal cross country meet. McNeal of Kansas won in a time of 9:40.8. Bob Elwood, Elliott, Ia., was the top Cornhusker performer, finishing third with a time of 9:55.8. The team finish was Kansas, Kansas State, Missouri, Nebraska, Colorado, Oklahoma, Iowa State.

Other Nebraska runners were Don Hefferman, 18th; Roy Smith, 21st; Duane Eversoll, 25th.

Good Job During Season Earned NU Trip To Bowl

It has finally become a reality! Nebraska is one of the participants in the Orange Bowl New Year's Day. Partial thanks must go to Colorado in downing Kansas State, thus giving the Cornhuskers a clear shot despite their throbbing 55-7 setback at the hands of Oklahoma. The Huskers simply proved no match for the nation's No. 3 team. But I think that the score didn't indicate the NU ability to play football. I simply believe it was a question of too much OU depth to cope with the Huskers undermanned eleven.

Injuries Hurt

After Ron Clark, Dennis Korinek and Willie Greenlaw were shaken up, the Huskers simply couldn't reach down far enough into the bag to bring out a winning combination. Much of the credit, however, must be given to the great Oklahoma squad. Up front, Bo Bollinger, Kurt Burris and the sticky-fingered end Max Boydston were tremendous. Gene Calame, Buddy Leake and Carl Allison were also at their peak.

In passing out praises, Coach Bill Glassford deserves a big pat on the back. He has brought an NU team a long way since the opening game. He possibly reached his peak in the Missouri and Colorado games, but his teams played a good brand of ball all season. They did look disappointing in spots, but they seemed to have it when the chips were down. Despite what some people say, it is a fighting Nebraska team that is going to the classic, and not a team that feasted off the fruit of other league members.

COLLEGE SMOKERS PREFER Luckies—and by a wide margin—according to the largest and latest coast-to-coast college survey. Once again, the No. 1 reason: Luckies taste better. They taste better because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better. The pleasure you'll get from Luckies' better taste is vividly depicted in the Doodle above, titled: Modern artist enjoying Lucky while glancing in mirror. See the ecstatic smile? Well, you, too, can be happy. Just go Lucky!
