Wanted: Seven-Foot Gals To Play 'Nebraska Ball'

I hope the short vacation, I use the term loosely, hasn't let any of you representatives forget that your team lists are due today for Nebraska Ball and Co-Recreation volley ball. Now for a short dissertation on Nebraska Ball. This h'yar fine game is played like volley ball only the ball is a wee bit larger-like about ten times largerthis is the game where you can use all your seven foot girls so they can hit the ball before it hits the floor. Someone ought to be able to make a pretty good droodle out of that scene. Actually the game is a panic and you just haven't lived until you've played it. I always wondered what it was that Nebraska Ball was famous for.

Co-Rec almost slipped my mind, here now, how could this be. 4 girls and 4 boys will compose each volley ball team so girls get your favorite fraternity-Remember, he who hesitates is lost. Sports Day

Sports Day at Kearney really proved to be a great success, Of course, our delegation didn't seem to win anything but . . . I thumbing through my old Hungarian proverb book and ran ac. 1. thumbing through my old Hungarian provers book and rail act is this old saying: "Into every Sports Day a few losses must fall." At Managers: any rate, I hear the coffee hour was nothing but the lines cate and the doughnuts Turn In Your

For Ammo? Can't seem to get away from mentioning the Rifle Club in my column. What I have to say is this-the first sergeant who stays to help with rifling is doing this all on his own time, so would all of you be willing to pay 10 cents a night for him. This is not for ammunition. this only for him.

Seems as though several coats and things got a little mixed up at the last volley ball game, so from now on each house should have some one to be in charge of keeping the wraps and purses for that house. I realize of course that you may be tired of your old coat, but— Shirley Bazant is the new basketball chairman on the sportsboard.

Kappa Kappa Gamma swam away with the swimming meet title. Congratulations! W.A.A. President, Kathy O'Donnell thought she'd like to have her appendix out so she's taking it easy in the hospital this week. We hope you pull through K.O.D.

By BOB ZUBER Intramural Sports Writer Every year at about this time, after a new intramural football champion has been crowned and the season has been completed, an all university intramural football team is chosen. The time for the selection of the team has arrived. This year, as in past years, there will undoubtedly be many differing opinions of which athletes are qualified to be placed on the team.

In order to be as fair as possible, this reporter will select the imaginary team from all-opponent teams chosen by each individual football manager.

All team managers should send a list of the all opponent team chosen by his team to The Nebraskan not later than 5:00 p.m. Friday. In addition to this, recommendations for members from the manager's own team should be in-

Along with the All University team, to be announced next week, will be the final standings of the football teams.

Loher was a fine performer at the end spot for the Bowl-bound Huskers. He was called upon for pass receiving and was an excellent blocker. He even tried his hand at passing, typifying his value to the Cornhusker eleven. Smith was a top driver in the NU backfield. In 1953, he led the Conference in scoring, but slipped to fifth this season. This could be attributed to the fact that the Husker backfield was balanced more this year.

Glantz and Holloran both were rugged performers at tackle. Don recent selections for Big Seven was one of the best offensive honors. Bryant and Smith were blockers in the league.
