Tuesday, January 4, 1955

Lincoln, Nebraska

Page 3

: 17

DON GLANTZ

Courtesy Sund Journal and S COACH GLASSFORD

Courtesy Lincoln Jo CHARLIE BRYANT

DON COMSTOCK

Courtesy Lincoln Journal DENNIS KORINEK

Big 7 Opener Cagers Open With Iowa State Tonight

After a disastrous two-game trip through the South where they bowed to Alabama 88-76 and Mem-forwards, Willard Fagler at center, phis State 86-79, and then dropped and Duane Buel and Norm Coufal three more games in the Big Seven at guards. Ekwall, a 6-4 sophotourney at Kansas City, the Ne- more, has thus far carried the braska Cornhuskers open their conference play tonight at 8 p.m. Matzke, senior co-captain has been when they meet the Iowa State injury against Iowa. The Huskers

Cyclones in the Coliseum. The visitors, boasting a record have downed Bradley 93-68 and of 5-2 thus far are possibly the big South Dakota 87-51, and have lost surprise of the Big Seven to date. The Iowa Staters, last in the league last year and an overall 47, and Kansas 69-66. The two 5-16 mark, began the 1954-55 sea- common opponents for both IS and son under the direction of Bill NU, Bradley and Kansas, shows Strannigan, who replaced Clayton the two schools splitting. The Cy-Sutherland. The Cyclones opened clones downed Kansas but bowed their season with a 78-60 win over to Bradley, while the Huskers Carlton. They then went on to dumped Bradley but bowed to the down Denver, 80-59, Drake 72-53, Hawks. blasted Creighton 100-65, and were downed by Bradley, 79-67. They pulled the upset of the Conference Chet Duncun, 6-5 center set a new Cyclone scoring mark by pouring in 34 points. They bowed to Kan-

Five Veterans

Barney Alleman and Duncun who the Sooners 95-87, and KS raced earned two and Don DeKoster, past Iowa State 70-60. Duncan Stan Frahm, and Larry Wetter, paced the Cyclones with 23 points. who won one letter. Duncan, the In the consolation semi-windup, rangy senior pivot man, is averag- Colorado poured it on NU, 89-47, ing 21.1 points a contest. He scored and California edged past Kansas 75 points during the three day 65-62. Bob McKeen, the Bears Alltourney. Despite his size for a American was injured in the Kanpivot man, he operates with finese sas State game and didn't see acfrom the post. He is deadly with tion. his hook shot, and is uncanny with his jump. Joining Duncan is Chuck Vogt, a rangy 6-5 sophomore and Stan Frahm at forwards, with Gary Thompson and Wetter at Med Park led the Bengal sttack guards.

Thompson, a 5-10 sophomore is the playmaker of the quintet, and for a first-year man, handles himself well. It was his six straight free throws in the closing minutes of the Kansas contest that turned the upset over the Jayhawk five.

looked good up front. For the Cornhuskers, they will fifth place. Kansas staved off a be going after their third win of last minute Nebraska rally to down the campaign. They have lost six. them, 69-66 for seventh place.

Lane Hot In the opening round of the Big 7 meet, Missouri disposed of Netourney when they squeezed by braska and Oklahoma upset Colopreviously unbeaten Kansas, 82-81. rado. Lester Lane led the Sooner scoring attack with 31 points. He won the scoring title last year. In the second night of play, IS downed bracket, Oklahoma met Missouri and the Cyclones took on the KS

MU five take command from the beginning and they coasted to their title, downing Kansas State 89-71. with 24 points. The Cyclones garnered third place, downing Okla-homa 71-64. Thompson paced the Cyclones with 21 points and Lane was held to nine.

Buffs Fifth

In the consolation finals, Colo-Wetter supplies a solid punch from rado, woh bowed to California in the outside. Both Vogt and Frahm their two previous meetings, downed the Bears 69-60 to take

Engine Students

DAN BROWN

All Scholastic Team Nebraska Stalwarts Bring Down Curtain On Grid Season This group of Nebraska Corn-huskers helped to bring down the contest, tackle Don Glantz, head-defensive chores in the Bowl turned in workhorse perform-second place and a season's sas State in the semi-finals 70-60, KU and Kansas State roared by and then upended Oklahoma 71-64 to walk off with third place hon-IS started the season with five returning lettermen. They were Reiter pacing the attack, bumped The championship finals saw the curtain on a successful 1954-55 fing for the Senior Bowl on Jan- game. Don Comstock and full- ances. Pictured in the center of mark of six wins and four losses. football season last Saturday in uary 8th; guard Charley Bryant back Bob Smith got the distinc- the large "N" is head coach Bill With nearly all of the second the Orange Bowl. Despite a poor who throughout the season tion of scoring the only NU Glassford who moulded a Big unit returning next year, Cornshowing against the Duke Blue turned in fine performances and points while Dennis Korinek Seven championship contender. husker fans have a lot to look Devils in the classic, NU did quarterback Dan Brown who led caught the lone Husker com- Destined for a sixth place perch forward to. earn the trip during the season the Cornhusker attack all season, pleted pass. Center Bob Oberlin in pre-season calculations, Glass-

0-0 Tie

Possible NU Upset Victory Fades In Third Quarter At Orange Bowl

Riddled by many national news- fooled the Huskers on the field | fu"back, Bryant Alderidge. Three one of the duller games. The dis- visits by its best team in consecupapers for their poor showing and many of the fans in the plays later, Duke had another TD appointed fans started hurrying for tive years is repealed, all the against Duke in the Orange Bowl stands. Barger completed seven and a 14 point halftime bulge.

classic, the University of Nebras- out of thirteen passes, one for a ka Cornhuskers returned to the touchdown, for 84 yards, The Hus-Husker campus late Monday. Un- kers on the other hand were able der the sunny skies at Miami, the to complete only one out of nine the ball, 14 more points were ad- Post-"This is the same Nebraska Duke Blue Devils, champions of flips for 25 yards.

the Atlantic Coast Conference, out- Smith led the Nebraska attack played NU in almost every phase with a slim 22 yards. of the game to roll past the Big Because of the extemenly hot

Red. 34-7. weather Coach Glassford changed For awhile in the third period, and interchanged his players

Husker fans had something to often - but to no avail. The cheer about as the score stood story was the same. Duke just had 14-7 in favor of Duke. On a quick too much speed and hustle for kick by the Devils, a fluke roll the Huskers to cope with. of the football gave NU the ball Even with all of the pre-game on Duke's 36. Bob Smith and talk about a second rate team and in the third quarter, Husker fans with the Atlantic Coast and Big Don Comstock carried the ball the possibility of a financial flop, towards the Duke goal and Com- nearly 69,0000 fans crowded into stock cracked over from three the Orange Bowl for a record yards out for six points. Smith crowd. added the extra point and the possibility of a tie loomed big in the minds of the loyal Husker followers.

Dake Strikes Back

remote possibility of a win by the but the fans anticipated the Duke writers. touchdown underdogs was quickly erased as the Devils countrampled.

Jerry Barger, Duke's fantastic With very little time left to play "This may not have been the quarterback was by far the out- in the first half a Husker pass worst mismatch in the Orange News sports editor-"Until the Big seum floor, where they play Iowa mentions on all-conference teams couraging season at Kansas. The

NU Scores

The second half was a different stands were half empty." story. After a double exchange of Jack Gallagher, Houston, Tex., ded to the game's total, 7 apiece squad that signed a petition last for Duke and NU. The third quar- winter recommending the dismisline. The Devils added this TD and ball team." one more to end the scoring and Ralph Warner, Miami Daily the Nebraska Cornhusker cause, News-"This was supposed to have 34-7. also had a chance to cheer at Seven Conferences. halftime as the band made a very other spectacular festivities.

A further story on the Husker any bowl sod with anybody." Nebraska won the toss and elec- activities and on the game will Sam Adams, Montgomery, Ala. ted to take a slight wind advant- appear in tomorrow's issue of the Journal-"The Duke Blue Devils age. The Huskers kicked off and Nebraskan.

That thought of a tie of even the quarter ended in a scoreless tie, game from the nation's sports- urday, running up and down the march as on the first series of Jimmy Burns, Miami Herald Nebraska Cornhuskers, 34-7.

tered within the next five minutes slammed over the Husker goal for ing a runnerup against a chamfor another six points. At this six points with Barger tallying. It pion was emphasized before a rec- classic witnessed the kickoff, but 25-16. two drives into Duke territory. Bowl football game.

ter, and at the bleak finish the money.

first and ten on NU's one yard 68,750 who'll sign a petition recommending the dismissal of his foot-been the 'off-year' for the Orange Besides the one exciting moment Bowl under its continuing tie-up

44 Brutally frank, it didn't belong on field almost at will to crush the

"A crowd of 68,750, which was a standing player on the field. He was intercepted by Duke's fine Bowl series, but it was certainly Seven's rules concerning repeat State tonight.

the exits early in the fourth quar-Orange Bowl can count on is Our Heads for Duke and NO. The third quart winter reconnice and Solars of the score 20-7 in sal of its coach, Bill Glassford. favor of Duke and the Devils with a "Glassford can now find at least Are Bloody, if he has the desire. Not Bowed > at Kansas City, Nebraska basket- perts on the encyclopedia believe. on 53 occasions', injuries at midalmost turned 21st annual Orange sired defensively. Before the tour- can find are represented.

> > Bradley game, which Nebraska Carl Allison (3-jlus student). Alli- this team, Donn Lorenzen (B-plus won, 93-68, the Huskers scored 50 son broke into the Sooners' lineup student) from Iowa State, came points to Bradley's 15, bringing as a freshman (no small accom- fast at the end of the season to

LEAGUE IS DEMONINATIONAL

LEAGUE 16 INDEPENDENT

LEAGUE IT INDEPENDENT

AGE Gada

As Mez-B

evman Club

Bert's Boya Geologists Delta Siema Pi Dental Frosh

theran S. A.

Phi

this fall.

Hurley (B student) from Missouri, son and was the Jayhawkers' No. 200-pound, Hurley was one of the a few games. bulwarks of the biggest-and one of the toughest-forward walls in the Big Seven this season.

Retarning Vets

Two juniors, who are going to again next season, were named to Big Seven during the 1954 season. the tackle positions on this brainy eleven, Calvin Woodworth (B-plus student), a 202-pound blockbuster from Oklahoma, switched to tackle from guard at mid-season-a move brought on by injuries to other Oklahoma players. It proved to be a fortunate switch, as Woodworth rapidly developed into one of the most devastating blockers in the conference and was being boomed for all conference honors at the end of the seaeson. Kansas State's Frank Rodman (B student), a big

Named To All-Star Unit

Bob Oberlin, senior center on takes care of the other tackle the University of Nebraska foot- position.

ball team, was named on the first Missouri's Tigers, with two fine all-scholastic team chosen in the B-plus students, dominate the guard positions on the team, J. W. Big Seven Conference. Shively, an able defensive per-Concing evidence that brains and former throughout the season gets brawn will mix was offered here one slot, while the other goes to today by editors of the American Norden Stefanides, a great of-Peoples Encyclopedia who an- fensive blocker. Both are seniors. nounced the selection of the first all-scholastic football squad ever At center is Bob Oberlin (B stuto be chosen in the Big Seven.

Top Linemen

dent) of Nebraska. A steady per-The question of how good a foot- former throughout the season, the ball team can be put together 205-pound senior reached the from among a group of scholars is heights in the Colorado game one that has made a good conver- where his fierce linebacking paved sation piece for many years. The the way for the upset that eventeam that the encyclopedia's edi- tually sent the Cornhuskers to the tors have chosen from this area Orange Bowl.

indicates that there isn't anything The great Gene Calame (B stuabout college athletics that can dent) of Oklahoma, heads the allkeep a top player from earning scholastic backfield. Like his teamhigh scholastic ranking as well, mate Allison, Calame has starred for the Norman eleven since he was a freshman and came to be touted as one of the nation's great-This scholarly Big Seven aggreest split-T quarterbacks and one gation boasts some of the confer- of the game's shrewdest play-call-... Bush ence's top linemen and a touch- ers. During one stretch of his down-minded backfield that would career, Calame-directed Sooner Returning from the southern road give almost any team in the na- teams penerated to the opposition's trip and the Big Seven Tournament tion cause for alarm, sports ex- 20-yard line 57 times-and scored . Nebraska didn't belong ball coach Jerry Bush says, "Our To top it off, it's a team of out- season stopped what would otherimpressive appearance along with on the Orange Bowl sod with Duke. heads are bloody but unbowed." standing students, as well! Every wise have been an almost sure Bush commented that the Husk- man boasts of a "B" average or bid for All American recognition better for the timeh e has been by the slim, 170-pound star. ers have not been doing badly on in school and some of the tough- Two underclassmen who got bet-offense, but leave a lot to be de- est academic specialties a student ter the longer the season lasted and are being looked to for even the game got underway. The first Here are a few comments on the Bowl game into a track meet Sat- ney they were averaging 80 points Spearheading a 200-plus pound better things next fall, rate seleca game. Atone stretch during the line is Oklahoma's fine senior end, tion at the halfback positions on record turnout for this New Year's the score to 66-41 after trailing plishment) and has stayed there wind up as one of his team's leadthroughout four rugged seasons ing scorers and may develop into Out of the first eight games, Ne- against some of the finest teams the climax-runner that every team braska has played one at home, in the country. He was rated al- must have. Terry McIntosh (B-Both the coach and the players are most equally gifted on offense and plus student) proved to be the Morris McLemore, Miami Daily thankful to get back to the Coli- defense and has received numerous bright spot in the otherwise dis-178-pound sophomore took over a At the opposite flank is big Jack first-string assignment at mid-sea-

A senior, the six-foot, two-inch, I passer, punter and runner after

IS Represented

Big Max Burkett (A student) rounds out the backfield of fullback. The scholarly Iowa State star led his team in scoring and was considered to be perhaps one be around to haunt the opposition of the finest linebackers in the He's a senior.

The squad:

Ends: Carl Allison, Oklahoma; Jack Hurley, Missouri.

Tackles: Frank Rodman, Kansas State; Calvin Woodworth, Oklahoma.

Guards: Norden Stefanides, Missouri; J. W. Shively, Jr., Missouri.

Center: Bob Oberlin, Nebraska. Backs: Gene Calame, Oklahoma; Donn Lorenzen, Jowa State; Terry McIntosh, Kansas; 210-pounds more than adequately Max Burkett, Iowa State.

Thirty-Two IM Basketball Teams Remain Undefeated In Competition As the Inframural basketball season starts into 1955, thirty-two organizations still remain unde-feated. The league standings are as follow: 0 . 2 Gustavson II Alpha Gamma Rho LEAGUE 7-B Hitchco Theta XI

Phi K LEAGUE 4-A as follow: Pitmeer Co-op Cornhukker Co-op Theta Chi Tau Karpa Epullon LEAGUE 1-A LEAGUE 1-A Signus Alpha Epullon Bets Thets Pi Phi Deits Thets Alpha Tau Onsess Diets The Deits Signus Ohi Norris House Dula Sigma Phi Acheia Delts LEAGUE 2-A LEAGUE S-B Phi Gamma Alpha Tau Sigma Chi Phi Delta Ta Delta Tau De Sigma Alphy Della Omega

Beta Theta P Phi Kapes Pid Delta Upsilon

Phi Epsilon Upailon Nu Pei Samma Rho

LEAGUE 3-A Zeta Beta Tau point, the Huskers fell apart and looked like the half might end up ord crowd of 68,750 bored specta- many of the spectators headed for as the score indicates they were that way as the Huskers failed on tors Saturday at the 21st Orange the exits shortly after a brilliant halftime program."

plays in the second quarter, Duke sports editor-"Folly of mismatch-