Exchange Student Praises SC Work

cil is very valuable for students in no fraternities or sororities at Oslo "They do exactly what they want, order to acquaint them with parlia- University. mentary procedure.

cratic principles," Gunnar said, no need for any controlling body ing for students all of the time." like our Student Council. At the their representative in the All-Unitives meet with the administration and voice their opinions.

"I am for the secret ballot in so far as it prevents undue pressure resentatives on the Student Council should act to the best advantage, hops. first, to the student body as a whole and secondly, to the organizations which they represent.

Since coming to the University Oslo's. First, campus organized activities do not exist in the same sense in Norway as they do here. In Norway, they have social organizations such as their University organized sports clubs. These University sports clubs are exactly on the same level as private sports clubs. Anyone who is enrolled in Illogical? Unreasonable? Not unduct will be safe for human condo of 20 cartons per minute.

Mademoisel Career Head

representative of Mademoiselle magazine, Miss Polly Weaver, will visit the University Tuesday and Wednesday to interview any cism of a specific issue of the 500 gallon stainless steel tank magazine. These board members where it is cooled. are then given three assignments | The next morning the milk is and for the 12 students who do the transferred to a nother tank best job are brought to New York mounted on a trailer and brought to work for one month on the to the creamery. It is then pumped August college issue of Mademoi- through stainless steel pipelines the Office of the Dean of Women, p. ature of 143 degrees Farenheit Ellen Smith Hall, to arrange for for twenty minutes.

limits of its Constitution, is function There is a special "Rowing and problem does exist, first semester ing extrevely well," said Gunnar Sculling Club" in Oslo which is, students usually live in tents until Green, an exchange student from perhaps, the best rowing club in the they find a place to stay. Some-Green, a representative of the to separate sports clubs, but they lings as long as a month. Cosmopolitan Club on the Student work in close co-operation with one Council, thinks that a student coun- another, Green stated that there are dents do not have a house mother.

entary procedure.

"Living at Acacia as a guest has everything seems to go very smoothly." He also pointed out tha fized and, therefore, people need to pus better," remarked Gunnar. the University of Oslo does not conknow how to run their many or- "My main objection is, however, trol the students' spare time; mayganizations according to demo- the lack of privacy is not so bad, be because they are older when but the housing problem is terri- they start college, on the average, He told that at the University of ble! There is a large building proj- than they are here, and act more Oslo there are very few university- ect that is going on at the present mature. sponsored organizations, so there is time, which provides more hous-

The housing project is called important than here; it is not as University of Oslo, each department "The Students' Town." In the common and it means a great deal has a student committee which dis- apartment buildings, each apart- to every student to be able to furth- trons. Tickets will not be available day Communion service. 7:30 p.m. cusses problems regarding their ment consists of five separate er his education. The students get for single shows. curriculum. Every department has rooms. There is a separate general education in high school, roo mfor each student, and then and then in college, they concen- Capital Theater, Wednesday eveversity Council where representa- the students share the kitchen, trate in one special field. repair shops, big living room with All classes are lectures and most "The Strange Ones;" March 2 a fireplace, and game room. In of them do not have compulsory the summer, the apartments are attindance. The medical and dent- March 16, "Eroica;" March 30, closed to students and opened to al students, however, do have combeing put on representatives," said tourists as hotel rooms. Some stu- pulsory attendance. Green said, Green. He believes that the rep- dents work there during their sum- "The students go to college to learn Fifty First Dragon;" April 27, Amos." mer vacations as maids and bell- and are not pushed in to an education by their parents."

University Dairy

from Oslo, Norway, in September, 1954, he has observed many differences between our University and Unappreciated By Students ment, according to Dr. L. K. container with milk, closes the said that this process results in re-

In "The Students' Town," the stu-

within limits," said Green, "and

Ag Editor

"Outstanding Bovine Award." bandry, is to insure that the pro- closing. It operates at the rate the university can belong to the less you consider the cow to be sumption from a health standunappreciative.

Not many students recognize the importance of the Bovine (cow to milk is pumped through a small added that all equipment is rinsed, Each day milk from the University 2,000 pounds per square inch. This finally sterilized with a chlorine dairy herd is served in the Union is termed homogenization. Crowe solution. and in Selleck Quadrangle,

Other outlets for that white fluid duction in the size of small glob- fold purpose of the University termed as milk are the Ag College Cafeteria, Love Hall, Raymond to the bottling machine. This ma- and faculty. Hall, Terrace Hall and Interna- chine takes a flat piece of card- Other products marketed either tional House.

This milk which comes in a pawoman students interested in per carton or in a glass goes and drops it in a refrigerated cab- buttermilk, orange drink, ice supper. working for Mademoiselle or go- through a series of processes be- inet for cooling. ing to New York to look for mag- ginning in the milking parlor at the University dairy barn. Approximately 500 students from cows are brought in and their over the country are selected to udders thoroughly washed. The be members of the College Board milk is collected in glass containfrom applicants who write a criti- ers which go through pipes to a into 100 gallon containers. The Students interested in talking milk enters the pasteurization vats with Miss Weaver should contact where it is submitted to a tem-

The purpose of the heat treat-

Universal Day Of Prayer

Students To Speak At Cotner Chapel

services on Ag and city campuses an Student House, Congregationalwill be included as part of the annual University Day of Prayer Evangelical United Brethren. Sunday.

students is sponsored by the ical United Brethren Church, 1333 World Student Christian Federa- North 33rd St., at 6 p.m. tion which has members in more ternational conferences and proj. Robert Conzer, former missionary event is being promoted by special sub-committees of the city speaker. campus and Ag Religious Coun-

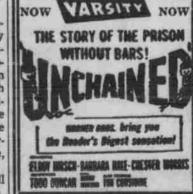

Three students will share in presenting the message at the city campus service at 7 p.m. in Cotner Chapel. Forrest Stith, Methodist Student House, will speak on "Prayer as a Communication with God"; Joyce Laase, past president of YWCA, will speak on "The Significance of Prayer for the Christian Student," and Paul Jersild, Lutheran Student House,

"What Should One Pray For." Taking part in the service will be representatives from YWCA,

Student-planned and conducted Methodist Student House, Luthercopal Chapel, Cotner House and

Student services on Ag campus Universal Day of Prayer for will be held at the First Evangel-

Prior to services, a 5 p.m. dinthan 40 countries and sponsors inects. On this campus the annual in Bolivia who is now attending

Your Church -God Has A Place On The Campus

Church Editor UNIVERSITY LUTHERAN CHAPEL

(Missouri Synod) 15th and Q Sunday, 10:45 a.m. Holy Com- gree of pine. munion and worship with the sermon topic, "Our Preparation for service with Pastor H. Irvin of country. The boys and girls belong times they live in these crude dwel. Lent." Gamma Delta will have the Second Baptist Church giving discussion on "Witnessing for the sermon. A pre-service break-Christ" after 5:30 p.m. supper. Tuesday, 7 p.m. Christian doctrine group. Wednesday, 7 p.m. Lenten meditation, 7:30 p.m Choir,

NU Film Society Tickets On Sale

Membership tickets for eight movies sponsored by the 1955 Film Society are now available in the a.m. worship. 5:30 p.m. LSA. Green remarked that gaining a university education there is more Prices are $2.50 for students, $3 course for faculty and $3.60 for local pa-

The movies to be shown at the nings at 7:30 p.m. are: Wednesday, "Kind Hearts and "The Louisiant Story;" April 13, "Leonardo de Vinci," and "The "Symphonie Pastoral," and May 4, "Hello Elephant."

Sunday, 5 pm. Supper followed by the Student World Day of Prayer Service at Cotner. Tuesday, 7 p.m. Kappa Phi de

Wednesday, 7:15 p.m. Lenten fast will be served each morning at 6:30 a.m.

RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIEN RELIGIOUS SOCIETY OF FRIENDS 333 No. 14th St.

Sunday, 9:45 a.m. Meeting for worship and 10:30 a.m. discussion. LUTHERAN STUDENT HOUSE 535 No. 16 St.

Sunday, 10 a.m. Bible Hour. 11 Tuesday, 7:15 p.m. Christianity

Wednesday, 7 p.m. Ash Wednes-

PRESBYTERIAN. CONGREGATIONAL FELLOWSHIP

Sunday, 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m. Forum will be held with Dr. Charles Patterson, professor of philosophy, speaking on "The Old Testament:

Monday, 7 a.m. Bible study. Tuesday, 5 p.m. Cabinet meeting.

p.m. Sigma Eta Chi. Wednesday, 7:15 to 7:50 a.m. Lenten Devotions with Rev. Arthur Taylor speaking. Lenten Devotions ate professor of home economics, will be held Monday through Fri- in an Omaha television broadcast type published today, Knoll said. day at the Cotner Chapel from 12:30 p.m. to 1 p.m. during Lent. Vespers will be held from 7 to 7:30 p.m. with a discussion following. ST. THOMAS AQUINAS CHAPEL

Cardinal Newman Day will be celebrated Feb. 27 at an annual Crowe, professor of dairy hus- top and places a staple through the breakfast at the Cornhusker Hotel at 10 a.m. Guests for the occasion will be Chancellor Clifford M. ner will represent unpinned stu-Hardin and the Most Rev. Louis dents. A pinned couple, Steve Pe-Crowe said that every precau-Kucera, Bishop of Lincoln. tionary method is taken to protect Speaker for the breakfast will be participate. Following pasteurization the the milk during the process. He Rev. William Kelley, S. J., Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences the uninitiated) to the University. cone of steel wire at a pressure of then brushed and rinsed again, and at Creighton University, Omaha. Newman Club members are now selling tickets.

Religion courses are conducted According to Crowe, the two-Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at 7 p.m. and Tuesday and dairy is for research and to pro-Thursday at 11 a.m. by Father The milk then goes through pipes vide instruction to both students R. F. Sheehy. Msgr. G. J. Schuster will teach the course at 7 p.m. board, already printed, forms it through the sales room or to the at the Ag College Activities Buildinto the shape of a milk carton, various houses on the campus are ing, Room 3.

Sunday, 5:30 p.m. Newman Club cream, cheddar cheese, spreading Saturday, 1:30 p.m. Choir prac-

Ideas, Techniques

Knoll, English Professor, Compiles New Anthology

Staff Writer

A fresh approach to the presen-Technique."

Knoll selected two short stories the author of a poem which also

Dick Miller, a graduate of the in Paris with the Army, is the short story although he has pre- said. viously published several poems, and has written one unpublished novel. "So Late" is the work of Nancy Pumprey Winkelman, also a University graduate and Phi

Channel 6

TV Show To Feature

join Dr. Kenneth Cannon, associ-Saturday at 4:30 p.m.

For the weekly program, "Doors of Knowledge," the five will discuss phases of home economics courses in marriage and family relations. The broadcast will be over WOW-TV.

Dorothy Matzke will represent married students, and Herb Meissterson and Helen Lomax, will also

"Doors of Knowledge" is weekly program in which the University participates every third Saturday. The University of Omaha and Creighton University, Omaha, are the other participants.

UnionCommitteeToHold Mass Meeting Tuesday The Union Activities Committee will hold a mass meeting Tuesday at 7 p.m. in Union Room 315. committee at this time. There each week during the series. will be information booths to ex-

"Contrasts" is an anthology for students interested in writing. tation of literature has been cre- Knoll explained. The book contains ated by Robert E. Knoll, assistant essays, poems and stories which professor of English, in his edited contrast both ideas and techniques anthology "Contrasts; Idea and of expression. He cited as an example of contrasting opinions, an essay by Frederick Lewis Allen by past Nebraska graduates to be claiming that the American standincluded in the anthology. Miss ard of writing is becoming better Bernice Slote, assistant professor Following this, an essay by Berof English and published poet, is nard Iddings Bell expresses the opinion that the American standard has lowered.

Knoll continued, "each statement class of '53, and now a translator of opinion" is greeted with an opposite opinion from a second auauthor of "The Image." "The Im- thor. "The ideas and techniques age" is Miller's first published are paired and contrasted," he > Knoll stated that he based the anthology on the "true assumption" that students learn best from controversy. He added that the two basic ideas of the anthology were to point out the differences in ideas and techniques, as well as the contrasting ideas of one generation from another, "These " Knell said, "should lead the student to the point where he can draw his own conclusions."

> At the present time, he is writ ing a "rather elaborate manual" for instructors use in teaching from the anthology.

He has compiled a selected list of paper-bound books for student Four University students will reference and use. The list, printed in the back of the book, is "to my knowledge" the only list of this

To Conduct Lenten Series

Four campus religious organizations have announced daily Lenten devotional services to be held in the chapel of the Cotner School of Religion from 12:30 to 12:50 p.m., beginning Wednesday and continuing through April 1.

The services, which are open to all students, are being sponsored by Presby House, Wesley Foundation, the Albright-Otterbein Fellowship (E.U.B.) and the Student Fellowship of Baptists and Disciples

Rev. Rex Knowles, Rev. Richard Nutt and Rev. Robert Davis will each speak once a week. Guest Students may sign up for Union speakers will give talks two times

The purpose of the services is to plain the functions and meeting provide a period of worship each

R. J. Reynelds Tobacco Co., Winston-Balon, N. O.

FINER FILTER!

FINER FLAVOR!

COLLEGE TO COLLEGE, COAST TO COAST-

and cottage

dips it into a chemical solution cream, skimmilk, chocolate drink,

WINSTON is really going to town!

WINSTON tastes good—like a cigarette should!

No wonder so many college men and women are getting together on Winston! It's the filter cigarette with real flavor full, rich, tobacco flavor! And Winston also brings you a finer filter. It works so effectively, yet doesn't "thin" the taste. Winstons are easy-drawing, too - there's no effort to puff!

Smoke WINSTON the easy-drawing filter cigarette!

1955 CORNHUSKER SALES END TODAY!

PURCHASE FROM COBS, TASSELS, OR AT CORNHUSKER OFFICE