

Reveals Chores

Twenty-four fraternities are entered in the Interfraternity Ivy Day Sing, Al Anderson, president of Kosmet Klub, has announced.

According to the rules adopted Jan. 20, only fraternity songs may be sung, the minimum-maximum number of singers has been set at 15-25 and no soloists or medleys are allowed.

The following fraternities have selected their house songs: "Acacia Forever"; Alpha Tau Omega, "Girl of Gold and Blue"; Beta Sigma Psi, "The Sweetheart Song"; Beta Theta Pi, "The Loving Cup," and Delta Upsilon, "Come Raise a Glass."

Other fraternities include: Farmhouse, "Faith of Farmhouse"; Kappa Sigma, "The Girl of Kappa Sig"; Phi Chi (Medical), "Phi Chi Fraternity Song"; Sigma

Alpha Epsilon, "Largo"; Sigma Alpha Mu, "When Day is Done"; Sigma Chi, "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi"; Sigma Nu, "White Star of Sigma Nu"; Sigma Phi Epsilon, "Little Girl of S.P.C."

Other entries include: Tau Kappa Epsilon, "Take Sweetheart Song"; Theta Chi, "Song of Theta Chi"; Theta Xi, "Hail to Theta Xi"; Zeta Beta Tau, "My Brother, Here's My Hand"; Phi Delta Theta, "Drums of Phi Delta Theta"; Phi Kappa Psi, "Phi Psi Drinking Song"; Phi Gamma Delta, "Fiji War Chant"; Pi Kappa Phi, "Toast to Our Brothers"; Alpha Gamma Rho, "A. G. P. Rho Song"; Delta Tau Delta, "My Delta Queen"; and Phi Rho Sigma, "Medical Students Prayer."

Ag Fraternities

Three Houses Decline Part In Committee

The Ag fraternities, Alpha Gamma Sigma, Alpha Gamma Rho and Farmhouse, have abstained from membership in the IFC Elections committee, Ag fraternity representatives said.

Ag elections will be run as they were previous to the organization of the IFC committee, John Olsen, president of Farmhouse said.

Candidates will be named from all three houses, and each house will support its own man, Olsen said.

There will be no form of caucus of the three groups backing only one man, he said.

The Ag groups felt that the fraternity system would be in no danger of losing Ag Student Council representation by not uniting behind the Ag candidate, Al Schmid, AGR president, said.

Olsen agreed with Schmid and said that there would be no committee to regulate Ag elections.

Because there are only three Ag fraternities, Olsen said that Ag fraternity members felt that the best man would be elected.

They felt that the representation would be passed around from house to house and the best man might not always be elected, Olsen said.

This is not necessarily a permanent separation, Boyd Stuhr, president of AGS, said.

If the Ag fraternities ever wished to rejoin the IFC committee, they would do so, Stuhr said.

V. T. Miller, Theta Xi, is chairman of the newly organized committee, which will back IFC-sponsored candidates in Student Council elections.

Grad Coffee

A coffee hour for graduate students will be held Friday from 4 to 6 p.m. in the Union Music Room. Refreshments will be served.

Ivy Day

Sorority Sing Rules Disclosed

Rules for the Ivy Day Inter-sorority Sing, sponsored by Associated Woman Students, have been announced by Janice Yost, chairman.

Organized women's groups, except honoraries, having at least eight and not more than 25 members including the director may participate. Freshman women are eligible to participate.

No professional person may assist in the preparation of the song, although non-professional alumnae help may be used. The director of the group is required to be an active member of the group she represents.

Songs may be medleys, but cannot be longer than five minutes or used last year.

A fee of $3 should be submitted with the director's name, the name of the song and a list of singers in alphabetical order to Janice Yost at the Alpha Phi house. The $3 should be paid by check and made payable to the Associated Woman Students. Deadline is noon, April 1.
