Iris Becker Wins Award

Iris Becker, junior majoring in vocational education, has been chosen to receive a scholarship award presented annually by Zeta chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary for professional teachers.

The award is given in order to encourage young women to continue in the teaching profession. Only junior women are majoring in education and who plan to teach are eligible for the scholarship.

Miss Becker is vice-president of the Vocational Home Economics Association and a member of the Home Ec Club; Rodeo Club; Phi Upsilon Omicron and WAA.

'Slurping' Saxes To Give May Band New Sound For Coliseum Spring Dance

The new sound of the Billy May Band features "slurping saxes" and unique arrangements by the originator of the band.

May began the organization of the present group some 22 months ago, but is now devoting most of his time to arranging and supervising production at Capitol Records in Hollywood. Sam Donahue, tenor sax artist, fronts the organization on its nation wide tours.

Donahue and the May Band are scheduled to appear at the Coliseum Wednesday sponsored by the Union and Corn Cobs. An hour and a half concert will precede the two hour dance. The concert portion of the program is scheduled for 8:30 p.m. and dancing will begin at 10 p.m.

Tickets are being sold at Union booths and by Corn Cobs for 50 cents per person.
