Annual Farmers Fair, Rodeo Set For Ag College Campus

The annual Farmers Fair and Rodeo will be held Friday and Saturday on the Ag College campus.

This year's fair will begin with the rodeo held at the arena north of the Meats Laboratory at 1:30 p.m. Friday. Forty contestants have entered this year to pit their skills against the rodeo stock developed by Gus Obernirre of Stewart.

Tickets for the rodeo are on sale at the ticket booth at the College Activities Building or from Rodeo Club members. General admission to the rodeo is 85 cents for adults and 50 cents for children. Reserved seats are $1.

Rodeo Events

Some of the events are the bareback and saddle bronc riding, calf roping and steer wrestling. Girl's events are goat tying, pole bending and calf catching.

The annual barbeque will be held west of the College Activities Building Friday evening. Tickets are 85 cents per person and may be purchased at 5:30, 6 and 6:30 p.m. Tickets will also be sold at the gate.

Rounding out Friday's activities will be the Dairy Royal to be held at 8 p.m. at the Horse Barn. Fourteen girls have entered the coed cow milking contest. A traveling trophy will be presented to the winner of the contest.

Nine Ag College faculty members will participate in a new feature of the show, a "prof promenade." Each member will draw a name of an animal which he or she will show in a showmanship contest to be judged by W. V. Lambert, Dean of Ag College.

Showmanship Contest E. L. McCartney will judge the showmanship contest which will offer two divisions — senior and junior. The senior division is open to those students who have previously shown in a Dairy Royal or in State Fair competition.

A showmanship demonstration will be given by Don Beck and Richard Nelson, former Dairy Royal champions. This annual event is being sponsored in conjunction with the Farmers Fair by the varsity Dairy Club.

The parade will be held Saturday morning starting at 10:30 at the Coliseum. The parade will proceed down 14th Street to R street, down to 11th Street to O; up O Street to 33rd; along 33rd to Holdrege and then to Ag Campus. Eleven organized houses and organizations have entered the parade which has as its theme "Country Carnival."

Pie-Eating Contest Immediately following the fair parade the pie-eating contest will be held in the College Activities Building. The new members of the Innocents Society will judge the popular event which is being sponsored by the Ag Union in cooperation with the Farmers Fair Board.

The second performance of the rodeo will be held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at which time the typical cowboy and typical cowgirl will be presented.

The Goddess of Agriculture and the Whisker King will be presented at the Cotton and Denim Dance which will climax the fair festivities.

Johnny Jay and his orchestra will play for the dance to be held from 9 to 12 p.m. in the College Activities Building Saturday evening.

Cotton And Denim The dress for the dance is cotton and denim. Admission is $1.50 per couple and tickets may be obtained in the Ag Union booth or from representatives in all the organized houses on campus.

The Goddess was elected Monday in the Ag College elections and the Whisker King was selected Thursday evening by five Mortar Boards and two local barbers. The beards were judged on length, texture and uniqueness.

Rogene Rippe and Nancy Hemphill are co-charmen of the dance. Other chairmen are Marion Koch and Ruth Ann Clarke, decorations; Ruthie Ernst, publicity; and Bill Spiller, ticket sales.

Don Novoty is manager of the Farmers Fair Board. Other officers are Charles Watson, assistant manager; Nancy Hemphill, secretary; and Ken Pinkerton, treasurer.
