

NU BEAUTY—These six finalists for Cornhusker Beauty Queen model clothes that would be suitable for any afternoon Rush Party. Hats and bags would complete their costumes. Twelve coeds are picked as finalists in the beauty contest, and the six queens are named and pictured in the 1955 Cornhusker. The girls are judged on poise, personality, and talent as well as on their beauty.

Talking Greek Sorority Rush Week To Include 7 Parties

Rush week instigates the year's gayla activities. The doors stand open as the sororities and fraternities welcome the new freshmen to their open houses, after which parties and preferences are contemplated.

Initially, coeds register for parties at the houses they wish to visit. After the last party, rushees file a preference list that names the groups with which they would most like to become affiliated.

Young men who are interested in pledging a fraternity will learn about the men's rush system at the Sports Stag during new student week.

Nebraska University is host to 14 national sororities and 26 fraternities organized on the national level and making their homes on the University campus.

Panhellenic Association is the governing body of the sororities during rush week as well as throughout the year. The Association is composed of alumnae, sorority presidents and a Panhellenic adviser. Panhellenic requires that a girl must have a scholastic average of five before she may be initiated. This average may be raised as high as a house may wish.

The sorority system is on a pledge-active basis. Scholastic standing and participation are of importance to the pledge. Basically, sororities are the same. They have different names, pins, and rituals, however. Each group maintains a house for active members and seeks to emphasize sisterhood and companionship.

Interfraternity Council composed of a representative and an alternate from each fraternity regulates all fraternity activities and promotes co-operation and understanding among the member fraternities.

The conduct of fraternity men at all formal and informal house parties is also under the jurisdiction of the IFC. The governing of rushing and pledging are also included in the long list of duties. The Council sets a scholastic average of five for a pledge to make before being initiated.

Fraternity functions include parties, formal dances, picnics, serenades, intramural sports and helping the community.

Student officers are in charge of governing each house. House mothers live at residences and act as mothers away from home.

PUZZLED coed ponders Rush Week problems but finds that all works out well.

Concerning College Clothes Closets:

The problem of acquiring a wardrobe for college life is a large but simple problem and can be met easily and economically. In assembling articles for the college closet, two things must be considered—good quality and current, becoming style.

For class wear students dress in an informal manner of sweaters and skirts for girls, and the men wear slacks and sweaters or shirts. Suede jackets have been popular over warm weather for the to and from class walk. As winter approaches the cold, north blows are stopped by the traditional long, wool coats.

Play clothes are now leaning toward the popular Bermuda shorts, knee socks, and sweaters or shirts. Not to be excluded for play wear are the treader pants, wool slacks, and the ever popular sweat shirts and levis. For afternoon and informal evening wear a good basic dress is most handy. Wool is practical and

YMCA Integrates Students' Life

The purpose of YMCA is to integrate the religious, intellectual, and social lives of students.

On the religious side the Y offers weekly Bible and worship services and, together with the YWCA, the Easter and Christmas Vespers.

To stimulate the intellectual growth of the students, there are the foreign movie series, discussions, and an opportunity to tour New York, complete with a visit to the UN.

And for the social life, the Y offers the opportunity to use Lincoln YMCA's sports facilities and the activities that are planned with the YWCA.

chic for this type of dress. Also attired in wool, the males make their appearance in plain or tweed suits.

Formal evening wear requires a tuxedo for men. These can easily be rented. The ladies make their showing in formals or cocktail dresses of taffetas, satins and nets. White gloves are proper as are simple evening coats.

Women's note: Winter cottons are taking a strong stand for afternoon and evening wear—and the up-keep is easy.

Color is the word for this year's wardrobe. Red and a black and brown combination are proving dominant.

This general view of a typical college wardrobe was given to you to aid you in your selection of school clothes. If there is any question in your mind as to what to choose, a smart idea is to come with a small, basic selection and build to it as you see what others are wearing.

We're looking for YOU!

Ready to welcome you with the best food in town—sooooo—plan to hold your pow wows in the

TEE PEE POW WOW ROOM ROOM

HOTEL CORNHUSKER 13th & M.
Under Schimmel Direction

Your STUDENT UNION BEST FOOD IN TOWN

On the Corner of the Campus

Corn "Crib"
FOUNTAIN GRILL

CONVENIENT SELF-SERVICE BAR
featuring service

SO FAST . . .
you can have that morning
coffee between classes

Round-Up Room CAFETERIA

Complete meals at prices that pamper the college budget

Also open for Coffee & Rolls
in morning & afternoon

Main Dining Room
—ON SECOND FLOOR—
Table Service—Tea Room
a Cornhusker Favorite . . .
for luncheon with family and friends

Banquet & Party Service

Expert catering available for those "special occasions"
requiring distinctive service
— in —
6 newly redecorated parlors

MEET your Friends, daily for "Coffee-at-the-UNION"