JERRY BROWN . . . recently switched from fullback to guard saw action in nearly two thirds of the Kansas State game last Saturday. The stocky 200 pound sophomore from Minden has received coach Bill Glassford's praise on his attitude and performance.

As I See It

If Brooklyn Can, Then Nebraska Can

By WALT BLORE

OPEN LETTER TO NEBRASKA FANS:

Dear Fans, If they can do it in Brooklyn, you can do it at Nebraska. It has been a long drought in Flatbush, but yesterday, Oct. 4, they finally came home with the "big one." This all proves that where hope and faith reign supreme, the chances for success are quite plentiful.

Effigy Burners

In Nebraska the drought over the past ten years hasn't been as bad as the effigy burners would like you, the fans, to believe. Although the crops haven't been record breakers, they have produced pleasantly surprising results.

Path Always Rocky

Regardless of the field you are engaged in, you know that the hard rocky paths are much easier to traverse with friends. All through the years you, as fans, have demonstrated your loyalty to Cornhusker football fortunes. At times the fortunes seem quite tarnished. But, whenever things seem discouraging in the Husker camp, just remember that the normally impatient Flatbushers had to wait until October 4, 1955.

Bacon Comes Home

What I'm trying to say is hang on a while longer and the Big Red will bring home the bacon again—with the same coaching staff too. The majority of this year's team is made up of sophomores and juniors. The freshman squad has a wealth of talent. Within the next two or three years the Cornhuskers will make everybody including Oklahoma, sit back and take notice. Regardless of who has the coaching reins in the coming years, the material will belong to Bill Glassford. Might just as well stick with him.

Glassford Okay

I think that Glassford is a good coach. He has produced excellent teams when he had abundant talent. During the lean years, which confront every coach but Bud Wilkinson, Bill has had more than his share of troubles. Key players have been injured, and others hit scholastic or lingerie hurdles.

This 1955 edition of the Big Red has been riddled by circumstances that would send weaker coaches into mental institutions. This is no excuse for a poor season. There will be no need for such excuse because this will not be a poor season. I believe that many of you fans will be quite surprised when the season comes to an end.

Out on Limb

Consequently, I have put myself out on a limb. However, I'm not worried because at the end of the season I can climb nimbly down from that limb and say I told you so!

Nebraska gridgers are holding their own among other conference elevenes according to the statistics compiled by the Missouri Valley Intercollegiate Athletic Association. The Huskers are the number one team in the nation on pass defense, and their quarterback, Don Erway is the loop's top scorer.

Erway of Nebraska, who scored all 16 points in the victory over Kansas State, boomed into the braska, 4 for 96; and Frank Clarke, Colorado, 3 for 95. scoring lead with 24 points. McDonald of Oklahoma follows with 18.

Oklahoma, perennial league champion and high ranked nationally, picked up 895 yards total offense in its two games. The Sooners rushed for 760 yards and passed for 135. O. U. aerials have been 47 per cent accurate, tops in that category.

Two Sooners paced the rushing department. Tommy McDonald has carried 26 times for 204 net yards. Jimmy Harris has 163 yards on 30 attempts. They are followed by Rex Fischer, Nebraska, 145 yards, and Bob Burris, Oklahoma, 142 yards.

Missouri's Dave Doane is the leading passer with 10 completions in 29 attempts for 184 yards. Walt Strauch of Kansas with 160, Don Erway and Willie Greenlaw of Nebraska with 126 and 124 yards respectively, fall in behind the leader.

Rounding out the pass receivers are Jim Lecavits, Kansas, 3 for 108 yards; LeRoy Butherus, Nebraska, 4 for 96; and Frank Clarke, Colorado, 3 for 95.

Why Chancellor Adenauer reads The Reader's Digest

"In my country more than 500,000 people read the Digest in German each month. And they read not only about the people of the United States, but about the people of all nations. The Reader's Digest has forged a new instrument for understanding among men."

In October Reader's Digest don't miss:

ALL ABOUT LOVE. How can we tell the difference between true love and physical attraction? Can we really fall in love "at first sight"? What makes us fall out of love? Scientist Julian Huxley brings us a biologist's view of our most complex emotion.

THOSE CAMPUS MARRIAGES. How do student marriages work out? Are young couples able to cope with studies and household chores? What happens when babies come along? Report on today's collegiates who promise to love, honor—and study.

IF YOU'RE UP A TREE about what cigarette to smoke, there's a pleasant point of view in the Droodle at left. It's titled: Davy Crockett enjoying better-tasting Lucky as seen by b'ar in tree. Luckies taste better for a hatful of reasons. First of all, Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tar tobacco is toasted. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better . . . cleaner, fresher, smoother. So set your sights on better taste—light up a Lucky yourself!
