The social weekend at the University was highlighted by three fraternity parties and the Farmers' Formal. The first queen of the season was crowned as Jan Lindquist was revealed as the Farmer's Formal Queen.

The Kappa Sigmas held their thirty-fourth annual Barn Dance Saturday night. Decorations featured hay, cornstalks, lanterns and live chickens. Guys and gals danced to the music of the Trend Four. The party was planned by Paul Walter, social chairman.

The Sigma Phi Epsilon Tramp Trot featured a contest for the best-dressed tramps. The winning couple, Alice Logie and John Kysar, were crowned Queen Tramp and King Tramp, respectively.

The Sigma Alpha Mu House of Blue Lights Party was also held Saturday night. The entire upstairs of the house was lit by blue lights and the basement decorated in blue. Al Hobert and his combo provided the music for the informal party. Dick Poeras was party chairman.

Eight Chosen To Take Lead In 'Y' Program

Eight YWCA members have been chosen to take charge of the Y program for freshmen women this year, Sharon Mangold, Y president, announced Tuesday.

Carrie Rhodes is chairman of the group which includes Elaine Unterseher, Nancy Salter, Jan Aumspaugh, Barb Rystrom, Carolyn Kelley, Gretchen Paul and Connie Hurst. Each leader will have a group of freshmen.

In these groups such topics as world affairs, campus affairs, religion, dating and community service will be discussed.

"The purpose of the groups is to acquaint freshmen women with the various Y groups, so they will know next year which commission or project they would like to join," said Miss Mangold.

Jody Chalupa, membership chairman, said: "The freshman program is one of the most important parts of the YWCA organization here on campus; the topics discussed in these groups will be of interest to every freshman."

In addition to these groups, special committees as Hanging of the Greens and International Bazaar will be formed during the year.

Builders Meeting

The Builders will hold a mass meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in Room 315 in the Union.

This meeting is for the new members, both freshman women and new upperclassmen, said Dot Novotny, publicity chairman. The committee chairman will explain the committees and what they do, she added.

Bids are open for the addition to the Law College on the north end of the Law College Building, Selleck said. They are due Oct. 25, and will be submitted to the Board of Regents on Oct. 29th.

Preliminary plans for the Pharmacy building are now in study by departments. The building being erected west of Bancroft Hall.

Fourteenth street will be straightened out to provide a site for this building and to eliminate the jog in the street at the Military and Naval Science building.

Plans for the Biochemistry building on the Ag Campus have been submitted. After study on them is completed, they will be open for bidding.

Wednesday: Spanish Club Plans Meeting

First meeting of Spanish Club will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in room 316 of the Student Union.

All students interested in improving their spoken Spanish or in the Spanish people, their civilization, customs and history are invited to attend the meetings of El Circulo Espanol, according to the Department of Romance Languages.

The organization holds two meetings each semester. Programs at these meetings consist of music, singing, games, movies, and colored slides presented in an informal atmosphere.

Wednesday's meeting will feature a short color film sponsored by TWA Airlines called "Flight To Spain."
