

Carol Link Crowned Queen:

Betas, DG's Win Display Awards

... See Story, Page 4

Homecoming Royalty
1955-56 Homecoming Queen Carol Link was crowned during half-time ceremonies at the Nebraska-Colorado game Saturday by Mary House, last year's queen, Chancellor Clifford Har-
Miss Link is a junior in Teachers College and a member of Tassels, AWS board and Delta Gamma.

Buffalo Blues

Delta Gamma won first place in the Homecoming Display contest with this version of "Buffalo Blues." Placing second in the sorority contest was Gamma Phi Beta with "Can Colorado Weather the Storm," and Chi Omega placed third with "They Did Fall, They Will Fall."

Buffs To Stardust

Black-lighted planets and rocket missiles blasting a buffalo into outer space won Beta

Theta Pi's homecoming display the men's championship and first place in the larger houses' competition. A red rocket manned by pledge power circled through the planets to aim a smaller rocket at the buffalo.

Weather 'R Not

Mostly cloudy through tonight with snow or rain changing to snow. Colder temperatures expected by Wednesday. High today in the 30's, low near 12.

the NEBRASKAN

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

Tuesday, November 15, 1955

Vol. 59, No. 25

Wednesday:

Union To Survey Student's Needs

The new addition to be built on to the Union in the near future will be designed to provide facilities needed by all the students, Duane Lake, managing director of the Union said.

To survey student opinion on the subject, Lake said, a survey will be taken in all Wednesday 9 a.m. classes, as to what proposed new facilities students would use.

The survey will emphasize personal needs of the students, not so much organizational or general needs, Lake emphasized. Students should decide what they alone would use, he added.

The poll will include only facilities, not programming or other such services.

The new addition, which will cost around one and a quarter million dollars, will cover about 74,000 square feet. The cost of expansion is restricted to the amount that can be paid off in a revenue bond issue. The increase of fees to $90 per semester will give the Union $5 a semester for every student enrolled.

Among ideas that may be integrated in the new addition would be to expand the Ballroom to three times its present size. Another idea is to expand the Crib three times in a continental style, with a dancing space and small dining rooms.

In making out the poll, Lake said, students should be very sure in filling out the blanks showing type of residence and how many times the particular student uses the Union's facilities.

Included on the survey will be places to express opinions on 36 different subjects, including more meeting rooms, additional recreational facilities, lockers in addition to the check room and shower and dressing rooms.

Other suggestions include a craft and hobby shop, photo darkrooms, music listening rooms, separate television lounge area, barber shop, bowling alleys and a small inter-denominational meditation chapel.

Students are urged to check facilities which would be of importance to them in the new Union, Lake said. The basis for judgment should be the usefulness to the individual students, he added. Space is also available for students taking the survey to fill any suggestions or unlisted facilities they might feel important.

Fair Board Filings To Run Until Nov. 29

Filings are now open for the six senior Farmers' Fair Board positions, the Ag Exec Board has announced.

Any Ag College senior with a 5.0 average may apply at 262 Ag Hall by 5 p.m. Nov. 29.

Board members will be elected in an all Ag College election Dec. 6.

The Board also decided to bring the proposed constitutional amendment concerning the Ag Exec Board and Farmers' Fair Board merger before the Ag student body at the general spring elections.

This can be done providing it is approved by the Student Council and the Faculty Committee on Student Organizations.

Stanley To Speak At Voc Ag Dinner

Cecil Stanley, national president of the American Vocational Association and State Director of Vocational Education in Nebraska, will speak at a dinner meeting of the Voc Ag Association Thursday at 6:30 p.m. in the Ag Union.

Tickets may be purchased for $1 each from Arthur Zeck, Blair Rehberg and Norman Basam or from the Vocational Education Office, Room 302, Ag Hall, extension 7102.

Band To Perform

Eddy Howard will play for the Military Ball Dec. 2. Howard's band has made numerous public appearances and records since the group's formation. The Honorary Commandant and her three attendants, Miss Army, Miss Navy and Miss Air Force, will be announced at the dance. Tickets may be purchased from any senior ROTC student and at a Union booth.

Going, Going, Gone:

Chancellor Post, Pie On Block At AUF Auction Wednesday Night

By LUCI SWITZER Copy Editor

"Going, Going, Gone," will be the call Wednesday night as a wide conglomeration of groups and individuals fall under the AUF Auction block.

The auction will begin Wednesday at 7 p.m. in the Union Ballroom. Hank Cech, senior in Dental College, will serve as auctioneer.

Two new features have been added to this year's auction, according to Cynthia Henderson, AUF special events chairman. The sorority and fraternity pledge classes will be sold by the pound for the first time this year.

Another new feature this year is "Chancellor For A Day." The student who purchases this title will spend one day as "Chancellor," the day to be selected later.

Several faculty members have donated their services to anyone who buys them. They are "Doc" Curtis Elliott, professor of economics and insurance; Wesley Poe, Director of Junior Division; Miss Mary Jean Mulvaney and Miss Beverly Becker, instructors in Physical Education.

Rex Knowles, Presbyterian student pastor and AUF advisor, has offered to wait tables for any group which buys him.

A pie, flavor unidentified, will also be sold—but not to give the auction a hazy atmosphere. The buyer will be given the right to throw the pie in Andy Smith's face. Smith is president of AUF.

In addition to the fraternity and sorority pledge classes, the following independent groups will be auctioned: RAM Council, Benton House of Sellsack Quad, Towne Club and the officers of the Residence Halls for Women.

Cech To Serve As Auctioneer

Hank Cech, a senior in Dental College, will be the auctioneer for the annual AUF Auction to be held Wednesday at 7 p.m.

Cech also served as AUF Auctioneer last year. Two years ago he was the Master of Ceremonies for the Kosmet Klub fall show.

Among the things Cech will be auctioning are numerous campus queens, the Mortar Boards, the football team, BABW president, Carol Anderson and Doran Post, Prince Kosmet. Highlight of the action will be the presentation of the 1955 Activity Queen and her attendants, who will also be sold. Finalists are Barb Sharp, Beverly Buck, Marilyn Heck, Sara Hubka and Nancy Sailer.

The new queen will be presented by Diane Knotek, last year's Activity Queen and AUF president Smith.

Tickets are being sold this week in all organized houses, men and women's dorms and Ag Campus. They will also be sold at the door. Tickets are 25 cents.

Paul Draper: Union Starts Sales Of Single Admissions

Single admission for the dancer Paul Draper who will appear Nov. 17 are now on sale at the Union prices are $1 for students, $1.50 for ticket booth. Single admission facility, and $2 for patrons.

Draper who combines tap with modified ballet movement is part of the Arts series sponsored by the Union. The performance will be held in the Union Ballroom.

"After the performance, there will be a coffee hour," Clare Hinman, member of the Union Board, said. "This provides an opportunity for the faculty and students to speak personally with the artist. The people can compare impressions and ideas with the artist and among themselves, she added.

"Eventually," Miss Hinman co-ordinated, "the Union would like to

Eddy Howard To Play For '55 Military Ball

Band Rated Tops In Popularity Polls

Eddy Howard and his orchestra will play for the forty-third annual Military Ball, Dec. 2, at the Coliseum, according to Chuck Thomson, Air ROTC.

Tickets will be $3 per couple and $1 for spectator seats and can be obtained from any senior ROTC cadet or from a booth in the Union.

Howard's group became the band of the year in 1947 with their hit recordings of "To Each His Own" and "I Wonder." Many of the nation's top music authorities have called the Howard musicians "America's Favorite Dance Band." The Eddy Howard orchestra has won more music polls than any other group.

A versatile performer, Howard plays trombone and guitar, sings, conducts the orchestra and composes many of the songs that his group plays.

The Howard orchestra features a "band within a band." Choosing several of the musicians in his regular orchestra, Howard has organized a small jazz combo called "The Dixielanders." They play "New Orleans Style" and the group is composed of bass, drums, piano, sax, clarinet, trumpet and trombone.

In 1938, a relatively unknown singer crooned "My Last Goodbye" and the public made it the number one song on the Hit Parade for several weeks. Following up his success with this record, Eddy Howard featured "Careless," "A Million Dreams Ago" and "If I Knew Then," and each record sold over a million copies. After these records appeared, Howard lost some of his popularity. He organized his own orchestra but the band didn't seem to be too popular so he disbanded the organization.

Shortly after the end of World War II, Howard was signed to record four sides, two records, three of which had been selected by company officials who told Howard he could choose the tune for the remaining side. Eddy remembered that he had heard a song that he liked called "To Each His Own" in Cedar Rapids, Ia. He chose that for the fourth side and the song sold two million copies the first year and still sells 2000 copies a month.

In the 1947 popularity poll of Billboard Magazine, that selection won first place in both greatest all-around and popular music categories. It also boosted Howard into first place in best-liked band bracket for the year of June, 1946, to June, 1947. In the male band vocalist division, Howard was ranked second.

The Eddy Howard band has completed engagements at Chicago's Aragon Ballroom, New York's Commodore Hotel, New York's Capitol Theatre and Los Angeles' Coconut Grove.

Howard does not use a girl soloist, but he has a male trio handle some of the vocal spots instead of doing all of them himself. As a good luck charm, he uses "Careless" as his theme song.

Green, Hewitt To Compete In Moot Court

Two Law College seniors will leave Lincoln Tuesday for St. Louis, Mo., where they will compete in the annual regional Moot Court competition.

The seniors are Robert Green and James Hewitt.

In the first round Wednesday evening, the Nebraska team will argue against a team from St. Louis University. The competition continues through Friday.

The question this year is an anti-trust law problem involving the legality of a merger between a petroleum refinery and a gas-station chain.

The Nebraska team will attempt to argue its way to the national competition in New York City in the middle of December. In 1953, the Nebraska team of Eleanor Knoll, Ron Hunter and William Grant won the national competition.

work out a system in which the students who bought membership tickets for the Arts series would select the guest artist.

Tickets for the series which includes all three performances are still on sale. The prices are $2.25 for students, $3 for faculty and $5 for patrons. The other programs include Gloria Lane, mezzo-soprano, and the Actors Holiday, drama selections.

Hazel Johnson, Lincoln dance instructor, said "Anyone who enjoys good dancing will undoubtedly miss an excellent performance if he fails to attend Draper's concert."

The New York Times said that Draper combines tap dancing with modified ballet movement to express himself in a dance vocabulary entirely his own.

Meirhenry: State Teacher Lack Eases

The teacher shortage, acute throughout the nation, may be easing on the state level.

This is evidenced by the annual report of the University Teacher Placement Division which shows requests for teachers in Nebraska schools dropped about nine per cent this year.

The number of requests declined from 2406 last year to 2194 this year. The number of placements in Nebraska dropped also. A total of 376 persons received teaching positions in the state this year through the facilities of the placement division. Last year there were 468 teachers placed in the state.

Dr. W. C. Meirhenry, division co-ordinator, said the drop in requests may in part be due to the fact that schools which used the division's services two and three years ago have now been able to retain the teachers which they hired at that time.

The total number of requests, which includes out-of-state schools, jumped about 25 per cent this year. There were 8773 requests filed with the division compared to 6612 in 1954-55. The number of candidates available remained approximately the same with 968 this year and 962 last year.

Although there is a definite scarcity of teachers for elementary schools, Meirhenry pointed out that there also is an increasing shortage of personnel for the college level.

Pi Tau Sigma

Pi Tau Sigma, mechanical engineering honorary will hold their annual smoker in the Ag Union Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

Buying Chart

Following is the list of organized houses that will be sold in the AUF "Cattle" Auction Wednesday in the Union Ballroom at 7 p.m. Beauty Queens and other projects that will be sold are not included in the list of organized houses. Groups will be sold by the pound.

Barn	Weight	Cattle Comment
Amesbury Steaks	2382	Premium stock will require top bids.
Charger by the Dozen	2023	Heavy conformations with wide type variety.
Four Steaks	2554	Friday stock in a short hand.
Stromboli's Steaks	4926	Flaky—strong and steady sales.
Wilder's Steaks	2022	Hardwood conformations—very good grade.
Cherry Steaks	4940	Have done extremely high bidders.
Who Eat?	2880	Good display.
Triumphants Steaks	2380	Light supply due to heavy gains.
The Web	2380	Found for good a good choice.
Academy Support	2380	No steaks offered for premium quality.
Card Patches	2380	Highest weight—may top market.
Go Home's Steaks	4248	Choice two ton shipment.
Arrow Patches	2018	Flavor and style.
Good Leaders	2018	Solid and active group.
Soft Steaks	4123	Active and strong.
Tom Kings	1480	Limited supply should affect market.
Wichita Steaks	2022	Lean and choice with strong sales.
Patron's Post	2022	Typical and good bid.
Gullies Goldfish	2017	Full, corn-fed offspring.
The Cyle's Corn	2745	Cattle are so thin good.
Ma Good's Steaks	2705	Goodside heavyweights will top total sales.
Shower Crow	2022	Well bid and less.
Fly By Night	1725	Outer steaks—strong.
Early Six Trail	2925	Price should hold even past.
Ag Builders	2022	No bids, but steady quality.
Artistic Steaks	2022	Young and steady bid.
Club Free	2745	Well bid but should bring quick sale.
French Follies	1825	Steady with moderate outlook.
Do No Steak	2022	Choice to heavy corner bid.
Club One	1802	Now here with quick sale.
20's Steak	4940	Mixed lot to high weight steaks.
Thompson Steak	2022	Subject to heavy choice will be chosen.
Smop Steak	2022	Steady and uniform selection.
Food Winners	2022	Early buyers returned top market.
First Steak	2222	Steady to strong with wide attention.
No Steaks	2022	Prime choice selection.
Pastorale Steaks	2222	Steady and extra good.