

On The Social Side: Column Lists 77 Couples' Announcements

By GRACE HARVEY
Society Editor

Approximately seventy marriages, pinnings and engagements were announced in organized houses after the holidays. That crazy cool cupid really went wild! With so much social news to announce, it seems pointless to sit around and waste space with pleasant observations concerning the weather, etc., so on with the story.

The lone house party of the past weekend was held by Kappa Kappa Gamma. Couples clad in everything from nightmare outfits to cat suits danced to the music of the Trend Four. The party was planned by Marial Wright, social chairman.

Marriages:

Texas U. Prowler Proves Harmless

Austin, Texas — After nearly a year the Daily Texan at the University of Texas has made public the story of the mysterious dormitory prowler.

After listening to a radio report of a patient's escape from the Austin State Mental hospital one coed dressed in levis and a man's white shirt, wrapped her head in a bandanna, and stepped onto the second-story porch roof to dry her freshly washed hair.

Upon catching a glimpse of her from a nearby window one of the residents screamed and there followed a quick succession of cries of "Crazy man," hysterical girls and calls to the police. The police, of course, found nothing; and the only ones who got any rest that night were the girl with the rolled-up hair and her roommate.
