Union: Final Fling Scheduled For Jan. 13

The Final Fling will be held Friday in the Union Ballroom featuring Bill Albers' orchestra, Roy Boyd, chairman of the Union Dance Committee, announced.

The theme of the dance will be centered around Friday the 13th and finals.

The decorations will include huge dance caps at one end of the ballroom and ladders under which the students must pass at the door. Entertainment during the intermission will feature Dale Joy, freshman in Teacher's College, playing a trumpet solo. An admission charge of 50 cents a person will be made at the door, Boyd said.

The room, he said, will be lighted with tavern candles on the tables. Students can dance to the music of a juke box and refreshments will be available, Boyd said.

Scandinavian Culture Study Attracts 38

The Scandinavian Seminar for Cultural Studies, a non-profit organization offering nine months' study in either Norway, Denmark or Sweden, has announced there are now 38 American students entered in 17 different folk schools in the Scandinavian countries.

The students take part in five weeks of orientation courses, live with families for six weeks and then attend the folk schools, which are residential colleges where the principal emphasis is on the study of the humanities. Juniors are admitted for full credit with most students under the graduate program. American students attend regular classes with Scandinavian students and participate in Scandinavian life. Estimates of costs for the nine month seminar including a fee of $900, trans-Atlantic travel from New York to Copenhagen and return and field trips in Scandinavia is approximately $1,350. Scandinavian Seminar is located at 127 East 73 Street, New York 21, N.Y.

Bridge Tourney Draws 12 Entries

The Union recreation committee is sponsoring a bridge tournament Saturday at 1 p.m. in the Union Ballroom. This is a new event on campus and it is hoped that the tournament will become an annual event with participating houses getting activity points.

Houses entered are: Phi Gamma Delta, Chi Omega, Sigma Chi, Pi Kappa Phi, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Delta Delta Delta, Delta Gamma, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Gamma Phi Beta, Presby House, Canfield (Sellock Quad) and Gustavson II (Sellock Quad).

'Golden Girl' Set As Sunday Movie

"Golden Girl" starring Mitzi Gaynor, Dale Robertson and Dennis Day is the Sunday night movie. This is a deviation from the original schedule as published earlier, but technical difficulties make it impossible to show "Young At Heart" as was originally planned. "Golden Girl" tells the story of a small town girl who decides to become an actress.

NU Graduate Hired To Head Pharmacology

Appointment of Tom Mija to succeed Harold Haock as assistant professor has been approved by the Board of Regents. Hoek plans to retire at the end of this year after serving 20 years at the University. At present, Mija is an assistant professor at Purdue University where he has been on the faculty since 1948. He was graduated from Nebraska in 1944 and received his Master's and Doctor's degrees at Purdue. Hoek received his Bachelor of Science and Ph.D. in physiology from the University of Chicago. Before coming to Nebraska, he taught at the American University at Beirut, Lebanon, and the University of Chicago. Hoek has won wide recognition for his research work in the field of barbiturates and the assays of cardiac remedies.
