

NFRRASKAN

Vol. 59, No. 47

Friday, February 10, 1956

Amendments:

IFC Approves Constitution

Nebraskan Reporter

A new constitution with several amendment passed. changes and amendments was presented and approved Wednesday tee's decisions on constitutional inevening by the IFC.

strengthen the position of the IFC

The first important change was the omission of rushing rules from was set up by the new constituthe constitution. The reason being tion. The new system provides for that every time a new rule was a staggered appointment for a 3 amended. Presently they are in another next year and the thrid the IFC by-laws.

nate fails to attend a meeting is nity.

The provision was amended by Rex Fischer's proposal to strike to meet at 7 p.m., instead of this section and insert that any- 5 as was originally scheduled. one appointed by a fraternity could | It was announced that the freshbe an alternate with the approval man or pledge IFC is a reality. for six-year terms. of the executive committee. The They have their first meeting next get the regular members at all consider their new constitution.

Artist's Series:

concert of the artist's series.

finishing school Miss Lane worked as secretary for the New Jersey department of Agriculture. She entered the Philadelphia Inquirer's

'Voice of Tomorrow' contest. With almost no formal training she won

A year of study and Miss Lane made her professional debut as soloist in Radio City Music Hall's

Easter pageant. She won acclaim in New York for her performance

Nebraskan Column

Glenna Berry, senior in Arts and Sciences, will write a short column for The Nebraskan next week concerning her visit to

Washington, D.C., and New York

The seminar is sponsored by the joint section of education and to attend a citizenship seminar.

cultivation of the Board of Missions of the Methodist Church in conjunction with numerous political and cultural organizations.

Dick Tempero, freshman in Arts and Sciences, will also attend the Intramural Basis:

Rho extemporaneous speaking con-

Each organized house entering the contest is to be represented organization will receive a trophy speaker is awarded a trophy with Bob Bovey was the winning indi-

Intramural competition is open to both men and women students carrying twelve hours of work with passing grades during the current

Individuals who are members of Delta Sigma Rho or who were members of the debate squad on

Jan. 1, 1956, are ineligible for par-

"Current national and international events" will be the general

Round one will be held Tuesday at 7 p.m.; and the final round

Drawings for each round will be held between 4 and 5:30 p.m. of the day preceding the round at the speech office in Temple, Room

Any house may substitute personnel from round to round, providing the names are included on

Speeches are to be five to seven minutes in length. Use of notes is Europe.

the original entry card.

subject of the speaking contest.

Tuesday, Feb. 21, at 7 p.m.

ganization engraved on it.

The top-ranking

vidual last year.

semester.

ticipation.

with the name of the winning or- als.

test Feb. 14 to 21.

Speaking Competition

Set To Open Tuesday

chosen at the annual Delta Sigma composition, and delivery.

individual

his or her name engraved on it Monday, at 5 p.m.

top-ranking individuals will be the total effect of the thought, by two people. The top-ranking cumulative ratings for rounds one Miss Berry will leave Friday.

Berry To Write

over 850 contestants.

the meetings because they are the true house representatives, but the

A third amendment dealt with appeal of the Executive commitfractions by the different houses. The constitutional committee The constitution read that a fratworked out the new constitution to ernity may appeal to the Alumni Interfraternity Council from the and fraterniites on campus, Joe Executive Committee, but it was Krause, Delta Upsilon and chair- amended that it would be better man of the revisions committee to appeal to the IFC first. This amendment was also carried.

A new system of IFC advisors adopted, the constitution had to be year term, one appointed this year. three years from now. Also, the Another important change was advisers have to be a member that the second ranking officer of of a national social college fraterthe fraternity is the only alternate nity. Previously, an advisor could who has voting power in the regu- hold this position as long as he lar meetings. Also, any fraternity's wanted and didn't have to be afwhose regular member or alter- filiated with any national frater- dent and re-elected John Selleck,

Along with several other proposed amendments the IFC moved secretary.

Opera Star Lane To Appear

In Union Sponsored Concert

The all-around excellence of al role, and best performance by Miss Lane has sung with leading symphony orchestras including the Rogin Hood Dell Orchestra

under Metropoulos, and she has made numerous television and radio appearances. Recently she was seen on the "Ed Sullivan"

Two Decca waxings, "The Con-

are Miss Lane's contributions in from being a serious jazz fan.

She often sings blues for her fam-

Tickets go on sale Monday in ternity for women, has elected offi-zer; secretary, Joanne Junge; treasurer, Judy Bost, and keeper of All contentants will engage in round one. The top half will par-individuals with the highest ac-and two will compete in the fin-

Names of those intending to par-

Selection and assignment of the judges will be made by Olson, di-

ROTC Department

Adds Capt. Swieter

Capt. Kenneth Swieter of Ypsilanti, Mich., has joined the University Army ROTC staff as assistant professor of millitary his-

He has served as Army Reserve

adviser for units in the Detroit area since September 1953. His assignment to the University Army

ROTC staff brings it up to its full

July 1942 and received his commission as a second lieutenant

II he served with the 59th Medical evacuation hospitals

February 1943. During World War lish, announced.

Swieter entered the Army in officer strength.

and

rector of the contest.

ticipate must be filed with Donald

Olson, Temple, Room 202 A by the archives, Babs Jelgerhuis.

Theta Sig Elects

Deepe, Switzer

and "The Student Prince"

the popular field. Opera is her first the Union, according to Clare Hin-love but this doesn't prevent her man. Students tickets are $1,

Theta Sigma Phi, journalism fra- Monster's

cers for the second semester, according to Mitzi Severs, outgoing Biography

Officers are: president, Beverly Deepe; vice president, Luci Swit-Returns will be open at 7:15 p.m.

Well-Worn:

to the University of Nebraska, letter from Charles Horner of Mission, Kan., a former student at

In his letter, Horner explained books were packed, separated and "I cannot say that its possession was unknown to me," he said,

Horner offered to make restitution but library officials took a kindly view of the situation and

The University library acquired the book in 1895 according to the markings on the little volume. It was the 8395th book placed on the shelves. The library now has catalogued more than 1,000,000 items

Library officials said that "mostly for sentiment" they will rein-

All university students are eligible to compete in the Ione-Garner-

Prizes of $50 and $25 will be state the copy of "Frankenstein."

Slote Announces

Poetry Contest

inal poems, she said.

School at Camp Barkley, Tex., in Slote, assistant professor of Eng-

Battalion in the Aleutian Islands awarded to the two students who University Library.

the University.

moved frequently.

am deeply ashamed."

including 600,000 books.

cancelled the fine.

performance

an actress making her debut.

Gloria Lane, mezzo-soprano, will in the role of Desier a in Menot-

Miss Lane is recognized as one Miss Lane's performance won her of America's leading operatic tal- the Clarance Derwent and Donald-ents. She recently appeared in son Awards as the best support-

New York and at La Scala, Milan. ing dramatic actress, best sup-

From "Rags to Riches" could porting performance in a mucic-

show

sul"

ily and friends.

appear at the Union Ballroom ti's "The Saint of Bleeker Street,"

Thursday at 8 p.m. in the seventh the same year.

University Foundation:

Dobson Selected Head Of Board Of Trustees

thur Dobson, Lincoln contractor, as president for a two-year term. He succeeds Earl Cline of Lincoln.

At the annual meeting, Perry Branch, director-secretary, said in his financial report that the "foundation is continuing its forward movement, with 1955 proving the best year in the foundation's 20year history."

He reported $669,439 in new funds accruing to the Foundation. ment. This compares with $534,383 in 1954. Branch also said that these funds came from donors who averaged in number more than 5000 for each of the past three years.

Foundation contributions for the benefit of the University totaled $226,274 in 1955, compared with $237,545 in 1954.

The board also elected W. W. Putney of Lincoln as vice presicomptroller of the University, as gram." treasurer, and Branch as director-

George Holmes of Lincoln were reelected to the executive committee tion's assets is over $2,000,000.

Besides Dobson, Putney, Cline, of the executive committee are:

The Board of Trustees of the Fred Thomas of Omaha, J. Stew-University Foundation elected Ar-; art Elliott of Beatrice and T. B. Strain and Clarence Swanson, both of Lincoln.

In his 1955 financial report, Branch broke down the $266,274 contributed last year by the foundation to the University as follows: $110,063 for research projects.

$82,435 for scholarships, fellowships and assistantships. $7754 for museum improvements and exhibits. $6474 for purchase of specialized research instruments and equip-$2766 for faculty and department supports. $2326 for Love Library equipment and furnishings.

$54,456 for varied items, such as lectureships, Mueller Tower expense, purchase of property and awards

Branch paid tribute to the "efforts of the various class representatives for their work in encouraging former students to participate in the foundation pro-

He listed the foundation's present assets at $1,898,043, an increase Ford Bates of Omaha and of $397,808 over the previous year The market value of the Founda-

Chancellor Clifford Hardin told the trustees that "the foundation's committee's original idea was to Tuesday at 5 in the Union to Bates and Holmes, other members work and interest immeasurably strengthened the teaching and research phases of the University. The University is deeply grateful to the foundation for its contribu-

Chancellor Hardin predicted that the University's enrollment would reach 12,000 in the next five years and would in the future exceed

Convention:

Politicians Address Delegates

A sound endorsement of the convention nominating system was expressed by both speakers at a preliminary meeting of the Mock Politcal Convention delegates Thursday.

Charles Reed, member of the Republican state central committee, and Jim Green, delegate to the Democratic convention of 1952, faculty $1.50 and patrons $2. Doors both opposed the direct primary Coffee will be served after the as a means of presidential nomination.

an unfair advantage to the heavily populated states," Reed said. It would also lead to a great splitting of the vote on favorite son candidates, he said

The convention is a manifestation of representative government, sion," starring Rock Hudson and he said It is also a strong sup- Jane Wyman in technicolor. porter of the two-party system, as opposed to the government by coalition on minor blocks in France, he said. "Frankenstein" has come back Green spoke in opposition of the bound delegation- or those delega-And a monstrous fine of nearly tions which are bound to support, $975 has been cancelled by the at least through the first ballot, the candidate endorsed by the peo-The library recently received a well-worn copy of Mrs. Mary Shel- ple in the state presidential preferley's "Frankenstein" along with a ential promary.

"The instructed or bound delegation has no power to meet changing situations or to gain political advantage by maneuvering, Green said.

Top-ranking organizations and optional. Ratings will be made on that the book came into his possession sometime during 1898 or Green said his stand did not mean that he advocated ignoring 1899 when he was attending the the people's preference. The voter University. He said that in the years which followed his activities places responsibility on the repreticipate in round two, Eight to ten took him into many, fields and his sentative, he said.

"For example, a popular hero Poetry: can gain support rapidly at the start of a campaign and lose all support during the convention," Green said.

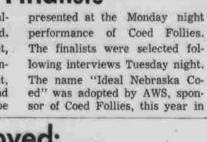

"and on some occasions when I The basci search of any convenwanted to return it I couldn't find tion is for strength, he said. It it. At last, after many years I have found the little book and I is for the delegates to descern which will pull the vote and which candidate will pull votes in which area, he said.

"Parties aren't people; they are principle," Reed said. This makes it important that parties draw up a platform, stating proposed party policy, he said.

People should not leave politics to those who are the Georges of let George do it ideas, he said.

politics for a number of years. Officers Candidates Noyes poetry contest. Berniece stodgy," as Reed said.

> March 14 to 17, is sponsored by in literature. by the University administration. Department of English.

place of "Typical Nebraska Co-

Report Approved:

Council Against Merger Ag Organizations

to accept a judiciary committee report disapproving the proposed merger of Farmers' Fair Board a the Ag Exec Board.

Ag Exec Board originated the proposal early in the fall, which was opposed by the Farmers' Fair Board. The Ag Exec Board submitted constitution amendments to the Council for approval, including clauses which would result in the absorbtion of Farmers' Fair Board and its functions.

ance of the report.

"The Fair Board has lost money particular, Connor said. in past years, and a combination Jim Peters, member of Farm- be more general interest and enof the organizations would provide ers' Fair Board, said his organiza-more efficient and better Farmers' tion felt it unnecessary for the Fair Fair," Connor said.

A merger would provide a more The main purpose of the Fair is urtesy Sunday Journal and Star

Connor, president of Ag Exec Ag Exec Board is the most logical organization to handle the situation to the benefit of the University as a whole and the Farmers' Fair in to make money.

to stage a successful Fair and that the four persons proposed in the Ag Exec Board's amendments would be inadequate.

"The reason the Fair lost money this year was because it was rained out," he said. Bonds were floated to make up the difference, he add-

Peters stated that it took a full year's work from fourteen people

students, he said.

"I would like to see a board set up to handle all the activities on the Ag campus," Peters said in answer to queries from Council members as to the best possible solution to the problem.

"If all Ag events were scheduled at the same time, there would people from out-state," he said.

In ensuing Council discussion, Ben "Mick" Neff, Business Administration representative, stated that perhaps there was a third organization that could handle the Farmers' Fair better than the present board or a combination of the pres-

"The judiciary report states that organizations have the right to selfdetermination," Bruce Brugmann, Arts and Sciences, said.

In other Council business, con stitutional amendments for WAA and Coed Counselors were read May 20 - "Johnny Dark" star- and approved by voice votes, Marv Breslow, CCRC representative and Movies begin at 7:30. I. D. cards junior member of Faculty-Student are required for admission. Sched- Subcommittee on Student Publicaule cards of the movies will be tions, presented the Board's month-

Series Continued:

Union Schedules 11 Sunday Eve Movies

The Union film committee will Barbara Stanwyck, Clifton Web, present Sunday night movies again and Robert Wagner. this semester.

This Sunday's film is "Tight Little Island", a J. Arthur Rank "The direct primary would give production. It is a fanciful satire showing what happens when a little Scottish island develops a shortage of Scotch whiskey.

The following films will be presented this semester: Feb. 19 - "Magnificent Obses-

Feb. 16 - "The Desert Fox" starring James Mason.

March 4 - "The Silver Chalice" a Thomas Costain best seller starting Virginia Mayo in technicolor. March 11 - "Lucky Me", musical comedy starring Doris

Day in technicolor. April 8 - "A Star is Born", a musical starring Judy Garland and James Mason in technicolor. April 15 - "Yankee Pasha" starring Jeff Chandler in technicolor April 22 - "The Gunfighter"

drama starring Gregory Peck. April 29 - "Blueprint for Murder", starring Joseph Cotton and Jean Peters.

May 6 -"Titanic", starring

Literature Critic Frye To Speak

scholar and critic from Victoria Canada, will be a guest lecturer at year. the University Friday.

He will discuss "The Language It is important to the welfare of of Poetry" at a public meeting at the nation that citizens take an 8 p.m. Friday at Love Library interest in civic affairs for benefit Auditorium. He will meet into the person and to the govern- formally with graduate students and others in the humanities Thurs-Green and Reed, both Omaha day afternoon and with undergrad-Lawyers, have been active in state uates and others Friday morning. Frye has written on subjects They came to Lincoln to address dealing with aesthetic theory and publication in Life magazine. the Mock Political convention dele- poetic technique. A student of Jung, he is particularly interested ring Tony Curtis in technicolor. available Feb. 19.

Nebraskan Staff Writer

The Soviet Union Thursday accused the United States of carrying out a "brink of war" policy in the release of weather balloons over Foreign Ministry Press Chief Leonid Llyichev declared that the balloons carried apparatus which did not take meteorological data but was for aerial reconnaissance. He further declared the balloons were menace to air navigation and ground inhabitants.

Llyichev reviewed Soviet protests but did not mention the fact that the United States handed its answer to the Soviets' latest protest

Seven Men Rescued

The Navy said Thursday all seven men who were aboard the plane downed in the Antarctic on Feb. 3 have been rescued and returned to base on Little America. The missing aircraft was found by a Navy search plane. It had gone down while flying from Marie Byrd Land to Little America.

Judge Dismisses Charge

A federal judge has dismissed a contempt charge filed against a University of Alabama dean for refusing to admit a second Negro to The new phase of the violence sparked drama came when a Negro attorney pressed demands that Dean W. R. Adams be cited for contempt of court for refusing to admit Mrs. Polly Ann Hudson as a

Mrs. Hudson's lawyer moved for a postponement of the hearing on grounds that Miss Autherine Lucy's suspension earlier this week would mean that "Mrs. Hudson would not be allowed to enroll at this time

Postal Rates Raise

Postmaster General Summerfield announced he is sending to Con-College, University of Toronto, gress proposed legislation to raise postal rates around $4061/2 million a

"It is unconscionable to think the taxpayers will have to continue to contribute so heavily to the postal deficits," he told a news con-

Increases are proposed in regular, airmail, and second and third class matter. Summerfields' figures indicate the Postal Service still would operate at a loss of around $166% millions a year.

Truman-MacArthur Feud

The continuing of the Truman-MacArthur controversy, involving the whole range of Far East strategy, goes into a new round with The current issue contains the new installment of Truman's mem-gates "to show that politics is not modern psychologists, primarily oirs and a blistering 5000-word reply by the five-star general. MacArthur says, "Trumsn's account of the dismissal is a labryinth The Mock Political Convention, in discovering archetypal patterns of fancy and fiction, distortion and misrepresentation.

Says Truman: MacArthur was a great soldier but he wouldn't Nebraska University Council on His visit to the University is obey orders, he was willing to risk all-out war, and so: just as Presi-World Affairs, the Student Council sponsored by the Convocations dent Lincoln fired Gen. George McClevelan in Civil War days, "Macin submit the best unpublished, original and has been actively supported Committee in conjunction with the Arthur left me no choice-I could no longer tolerate his insubordina-

'Ideal Coed' Finalists Shown above are the five finalists for Ideal Nebraska Coed. They are, seated left to right, Jody Chalupa and Hanna Rosenberg, and standing left to right. Jeanne Elliott, Sue Simmons and Diane Knotek. The winner will be performance of Coed Follies. The finalists were selected following interviews Tuesday night. The name "Ideal Nebraska Coed" was adopted by AWS, sponsor of Coed Follies, this year in ed." The finalists and winner are selected on a basis of scholarship, activities and leadership ability. Carol Link, AWS Board member, is in charge of the selection and presentation of the "Ideal Nebraska Coed."

to provide entertainment for the Student Council voted Wednesday

Ag Exc Board orginated the proposal early in the fall Larry Board, presented the arguments of his organizations against acceptMiss Katskee ent board and Ag Exec Board.

Outside World:

Soviet Protests To U.S.