those attending the dance held in the Ag Union. Shown with Bath is Betty Barnes, a junior. Barnes is holding Bath's prize, a large sucker.

Four Week Plan: Educational Program Offered To Students

A unique educational program for a selected group of Nebraska young people opened Sunday at the University. The Nebraska School for Community Living, an informal four-week program, is one of the first of its kind in the country. Designed for out-of-school youths between 18 and 25, it is planned to help them understand their communities, assist them in developing leadership capacities and broaden their cultural horizons. Fifteen young men and 15 young women from Nebraska farms or communities of less than 5000 will be selected to take part. The only restriction is that they have not attended or have no definite plans for attending a college or university. High school graduation is not a requirement.

Tryouts:

KK Scripts Available For Reading

Tryouts for the Kosmet Klub Spring Show, "Kiss Me Kate," will be held Feb. 21, 22, and 23 from 7 to 10 p.m.

Idealism Costs, Student Finds

A student at Asbury College was recently arrested by a traffic officer for speeding. He decided to uphold his democratic rights and carry his case to a trial by jury.

As the Asbury Collegian remarks, perhaps we need more people with such resoluteness. But they aren't sure just what he gained. The usual fine for speeding $13.50. The student's fine after the trial: $65.50.
